

New York, May 26th 1865.

Major General, Q. Q. Howard; Bureau of Refugees and Freedmen - General.

Though I have not the honor of a personal acquaintance with you, I feel that I know you, not only through your admirable military record, but from having seen you in the fight at Resaca, where I ministered to the wounded of your corps, in the service of the Christian Commission. I am happy now to find you at the head of a Bureau, which, hardly less than war itself, calls for sagacity, energy, experience, patience, hope.

Your first circular shows that you intend to administer the Bureau in the interest of no class or school, but upon the broad basis of the Act of Congress, and for the social, industrial and educational wants of the entire South. This construction of the Bureau is the more gratifying, to me personally, because I had ~~not through my own seeking, but in an indirect way~~ not a little to do with the action of Congress in constituting it on this basis.

Having been led by personal observation and by my official position, to study the question of social re-organization in the South, I drew up the enclosed Memorial, which was adopted by our Commission, and was carried by me to Washington. At that time Senator Sumner's bill for Freedmen was on its passage through both Houses, but was strongly objected to by many because it proposed to create a new Department, in the civil service, with large lee-way for abuses; and also, for cause it was exclusively for the blacks.

 Gen. Schenck, ^{to whom our memorial was referred,} had introduced a bill in the House, uniting Refugees and Freedmen under one Bureau. This failed at first, by one or two votes. A day or two after, the meeting of the Union Commission was held in the Hall of Representatives, and the facts there submitted gave a new interest to Gen. Schenck's bill, so that on being again called up, for substance, it passed the House, while Senator Sumner's failed in the Senate. The diligent circulation of our Memorial, with personal interviews with members of both Houses, led to the framing of a bill embodying the main features of the Memorial, which drew to its support many Democratic members, because it was not exclusive. This accounts for the naming of Refugees first; and but for this combination no bill for Freedmen could have passed the last Congress. Hence your construction of the Bureau is in entire accordance with the design of Congress in founding it.

The elevation of the masses in the South, White and Black, by proper industrial and educational aids, up to the point of self-support in freedom, is now the great task before the nation.
Our Secretaries, S. Miles and Mr. Abbott, have already placed the Miss-sion Commission at your service for this work. The ignorance of the poor Whites furnished fighting material to the rebellion. We must educate their children into patriots. I think, also, that to secure for the negro his true status as a citizen, we must ~~now~~ drop the name "freed-man," ^{as we have groppled "confederated,"} and know him only as a man. I rejoice to hear, General, that you will address our meeting in Boston next June. Believe me, With high regard,
Yours Obedt Servt

My dear Brother

Holland

My first thought was to send this letter by Lizzie. Monday next, lest you would not get opportunity to read it otherwise, but as it will reach you a day or two earlier I will send it by post. Had you heard of Ella's affliction?
Her dear Brother Albert died on the Coast of Africa & was buried at Sea Feb. 14. He died of fever. The news reached us two weeks ago today. His father & Mother feel it deeply and at times Ella seems very sad, but I do believe their trust is in God. His letters & those of his mother (he was bapt.) testify to a distinctly religious change in him. His bible was a constant companion during his long sickness and we must now come here with Him who is the God of the Sailor as of the Soldier.

Lizzie will tell you all the home news and I need not dwell upon it.
Mother is as well as usual and finds Wash very useful in the form. I dread the Washington climate for you & your family - for you, because you are so accustomed to the open air, for them because of their northern birth & habits - Wouldn't it be as well to have them spend the Summer at the North?

I only wish Mr. - Mother Lizzie & myself - could concentrate our forces a little and live nearer together - We are to have a Telegraph here this Summer - I hope your friends in Augusta will present you with a house & then you will have a Northern home to flee to - Lizzie sent me the order assigning you as Commissioner of Freedmen's Bureau.

The hour conferred on you thus unsolicited was gratifying to us all - not only your family but your many Christian friends in Mr. are rejoicing in it - But when I reflect on the responsibilities of your new position - its perplexities & temptations I feel that you need sympathy & prayer far more than praise - It is a new mode of life for you - You must now live among politicians - Contractors - Office holders & Office-seekers - Sycophants & flatterers -

May God send you some true hearted personal friends to be near you & advise you amidst the thousand perplexing questions that will rise - advise you with wisdom, candor, forecast -

It is exceedingly unfortunate for public men to have to retract anything - It is still more injurious, of course, to persist in an injudicious course. Mr Lincoln was a model of Honesty, I think, in making up his mind - He took time to hear all sides & candidly weigh all evidence - But my dear Brother I only meant in this letter to express my heartfelt sympathy with & prayers for your success - May you not "fall among thieves" - May you not be overruled with selfish corrupt office seeking ^{& land & cotton speculators} - May you not be bored to death with benevolent but unwise & unpractical Clergymen - (Horace James (Rev. & Capt.) of N. C. is one of the best men in every respect that you will have under you) I feel to be one of the last named! but I would ~~not~~ like to have you in with Lippie & have a good free brotherly conference with you & to have observed your circumstances & surroundings - I am to be calling our State Conference next month on "the facilities of Evangelizing the South" & I hope to get some light on that subject from you & others - I believe I will preach on it next Sabbath - I wonder if you have time to read some of my ideas - (1) It is a summary work.

It must be accomplished without any dependence on existing religious organizations at the South - The Southern ministry, with but few exceptions, must be got rid of - They are the worst of secessionists. So long as they have any place or power the country is unsafe - and Religion will again be made the efficient hand-maid of Rebellion - We must seek to use whatever of piety remains at the South but its Church & ministry must be abolished as far as possible - (2) To drive out all social-political - many and religious influence must be taken from the late Slave-owners - They must be reduced either to poverty - or expatriated - or else they must give convincing proofs of Repentance, not only for Secessionism & Rebellion - but of Slave-holding - They must exhibit a renewed & enlightened conscience on these subjects (3) The other Whites taken from under the influence of their ministry & leading men must be instructed in secular knowledge to be sure - but certainly as to the morality of Slavery & all its associated vices - Their Religious notions must be corrected - Their defiled consciences set right. To this end they must have a pure ministry. (4) The Freedmen are to be treated with no regard to color, or very little respect for the notions, beliefs, or prejudices of their former Masters - as to Suffrage.

 It seems to me that that should be granted with great caution - NOT on acct. of color. but ignorance. degradation. Subjection to outside & corrupt influence - To fit them for citizenship - to make them industrious - self reliant - reflective - & at all educated, must be a slow process or best - (I wish Military Government could be maintained at the South till these slowly evolved changes could be effected) The landed Estates of Rebels should be sold to Freedmen - Northern Emigrants & Soldiers (5) The men to effect these changes must mostly come from the North - They must be teachers.
 Ministers - farmers - superintendents &c - Who are faithful & conscientious, & who are actuated by motives of humanity. patriotism & Religion - All our benevolent efforts for the Army must now be directed to this end - Our money - our ministers - our young men must go into this field to plant & sow - to hoe & dig - Cultivate & harvest for our Country & our God - He allures this war to Southern Slavery - He has accomplished that purpose - In the process of overthrowing the intimate & corrupt religion of the South has been made manifest - The whole land has been swept with the besom of destruction - Now He will help rebuild on right foundations - He has put you at the head of this matter - in the most responsible & important place of modern times - because he sees you to be a Christian man - incapable of narrow & selfish policy - Now He expects you to do as Christ would and blessed be his name, He will help you - We must fill up our churches with converts - our Seminaries with ministers - must send forth an surplus of men & money - We must have colleges churches schools, missions at the South as much as possible under the influence the pure principles of the Gospel - If there be any good at the South now (& I do not doubt it) let us appropriate it as we move forward - Again, May God bless you my brother as a

I was greatly pleased by the announcement that you had been placed at the head of the ~~Bureau~~ for Freedmen. I have heard but one expression among the friends of the colored people, that your appointment was the best that could be made.

It is eminently proper that one who fears God & loves justice should assume the high duties of looking after the interests & rights of four millions of slaves. I shall watch your course with interest, with hope & with earnest prayer for your success.

I have read your kind letter of May 16th. with very great interest, and am glad to hear from you again, with respect to your appreciation of the great work of the Commission now drawing to its close. The enclosed circular will communicate to you the action of the Executive Committee at its meeting on Thursday after solemn and careful deliberation.

I cannot help again expressing my gladness at your new and deserved position. I trust that you may be able to inaugurate and carry forward a work which will equal the wants and necessities of the classes for whom the Bureau was designed. I shall be very glad indeed to give you any advice or assistance lying in my power and think that I may be able to do so to some purpose - in advising with reference to those - who having been engaged in our work - are adapted to aid you in yours. However I shall see you in Washington, next week; as I intend going there to see the Review; I hope then to be able to talk with you about what you have mentioned in your letter.

I have your note of 18th & would with very great pleasure come on to see you if I felt that it would be right to leave while we are in such confusion from the fire which destroyed about one third of our place on Thursday night -

To see 200,000 men march through Washington on their way home after four years of such war as we have had would be a proud moment for any American but I am afraid I must deny myself the pleasure -

I telegraphed you today that if you wished me to take care of Lizzie on her arrival I would do so with great pleasure if you would notify me when she would arrive -

We should be glad indeed of the opportunity of showing you both some of the beauties of our part of the County and can very readily accommodate you all - I hope the children will come with her my little girls will be very happy to see them & I want Father & Mother to know them -

I received a letter from John Otis a short while ago which I enclose for you to read - please bring it on with you - It was in my drawer

General.

Allow me to congratulate you upon the closing of this great Rebellion, and add my testimony to that of others, to the noble and useful labors of yourself, and to the immense influence your aid, has had, in bringing this war, to so successful an end.

Allow me also to thank you, as a man who loves religion & virtue, for the bright example you have ever set, as a Christian Soldier.

I can congratulate the Colored Race of this Country, that it has a man so eminently fit, as yourself, as the Regulator of its future destiny. And I feel confident that he who rules, has had its good, under his continued care, in this last proof of his power.

I have not been officially informed of your appointment. But suppose I soon will be.

My position as Commander of this District gives me control of about 20000 Colored people. Their progress in education - Morality - and their sense as to the requirements of good Citizens - and their endeavors to comport themselves accordingly - gives me satisfactory proof. that no great difficulty will be encountered in directing their future usefulness. As soon as they can be brought under the control of well established regulations

The present difficulty is to bring to their direct knowledge the duties of their situation - and to overcome the ignorance - pride - prejudice - and every other bad quality of the present holders of the Lands of the South

In compliance with the request contained in your Circular No. 2, I herewith forward you a copy of a recently published Bulletin of the Penna. Freedmen's Relief Association, in which (pages 34 to 38) you will find a report of the Schools maintained by that Association in this City, Georgetown and Alexandria; also a list of the Officers of the Association (page 40.)

I would take the liberty to add that all the Schools taught by this Association at this point are very poorly accommodated, both as to room and the proper conveniences for school-teaching. Numbers of applicants for admission are turned away every week for want of room to receive them.

I would therefore respectfully request - if I am right in supposing that the matter comes within your Province - your aid in obtaining the use of some of the public buildings (Barracks, or hospitals) which it is presumed are about to be vacated at this point, for schools, for the children of freedmen, under the auspices of this Association.

It is believed that the Pennsylvania Freedmen's Relief Association has a larger number of schools and teachers here than any other one Society; and its efforts for the education and elevation of the freed-people might be largely facilitated and extended by aid in the way I have indicated.

In behalf of the Executive Committee of the Young Men's Christian Associations of the United States and British Provinces, I have the honor to invite your attendance at our annual convention, to be held in the city of Philadelphia, commencing on Wednesday, June 7th and concluding on Sunday evening.

It is the earnest and universal desire that you should address the convention at some time during its sessions, convenient to yourself.

From these associations, as you know, sprang the U.S. Christian Commission and they are doing much for the freedmen and it is thought desirable that this subject should be brought definitely before the convention.

My dear General:

I have been intending ever since I became separated from your Military family to write to you and express the obligations I feel for your constant and universal kindness to me while I was a member of your Staff. I assure you General, it is appreciated, as well by my Parents as myself.

I suppose the Col. has kept you informed of the rapid progress of our regiment in drill, and efficiency as soldiers. Its organization was attended with, perhaps, less difficulty than is usual, but it was an entirely new business to me. Recruits came into camp companies in detachments of two or three hundred, and more rapidly than we could provide quarters for them. Genl. Gilemore would allow us nothing at first but shelter tents - and it was only after informing him that there were but four hundred shelter tents in the Department that he would allow the R. M. to issue commodities to protect the men. When the Col. returned I was glad to turn over to him a requisition full to the maximum & mustered in as an organization.

The progress in drill has been surprising to us and we now have Battalion drills that would do credit to many white regular regiments. We find the men very tractable and anxious to learn and already have very excellent discipline.

Some unfortunate appointments were made of officers but they were easily disposed of by the Col. Two Captains have already left us, one having resigned and the other returned by Genl. Saxtons Order to his Regt. Both over 1st Lieut. from the 26th Colored Infy. Stationed here. Incompetent Lieuts. were ordered before an examining board of which I am Senior Member - and ^{was} found deficient. We now have nearly the full number of good officers.

I cannot express the deep sorrow with which all here received the news of our beloved Chief Magistrates Assassination. The joy which filled all hearts at the proud success of our Arms and the prospect of a speedy return of peace to our land was suddenly turned into bitter mourning. I trust that it was intended by a just and kind Providence for our Nations good.

I must not close without offering my congratulations upon your recent appointment to the Charge of the Freedmans Bureau. I hope the duties of your office will be pleasant to you. and I feel sure that the same success which has attended you in the Command of an Army will follow your efforts now.

I enjoyed my visit to Maine. very much. and although an entire stranger. was received and treated as a member of your Staff. with kind considerations by all with whom I came in contact. I became somewhat acquainted with a member of the legislature from Belfast. Dr Monroe. who was formerly a Surgeon in the Army and had met of late at your Head Quarters. I am promised a leave of absence in July. when I shall visit Maine again. and perhaps General. I shall ask of you a personal introduction to the Doctor. as I am deeply interested in a member of his family whom I met in Augusta. and

Maj Genl. Oliver O. Howard.

My Dear Sir.

Permit me first to congratulate you on your success as a Military Commander, and, as a citizen of our common country to thank you for the manifold and honorable services which you have rendered in defence of its life and integrity. For the dangers you have braved, for the victories you have won, for the honor you have brought upon the State which gave you birth, as well as for that unflinching Patriotism, and Christian character which have marked your successful career. Maine thanks you - her loyal citizens thank you, and her churches and ministers love you -

We also rejoice in your unsought appointment to the Freedmen's Bureau. Your love of righteousness, and your regard for their temporal and spiritual interests, accompanied as we know they will be, with your best efforts to raise them up from degradation to manhood, and to secure to them all the personal rights of humanity and freedom, make us all rejoice in your appointment to the position which the President has assigned you. May God bless you in the administration and performance of the responsible duties now imposed upon you - and may you be.

as successful in these as you have been in the more dangerous ones through which the good Providence of God has brought you - So much for yourself. And now you will permit further to say that I am informed that Mr. Henry Woodward of Winthrop Me would like some place in your Bureau - I have known him for years. He is a man, as I judge, between 35 and 40 years of age - of sterling integrity - a member of the Congregational Church at Winthrop and for a few years past the Superintendent of the Sabbath School connected with that church in which position he has given good satisfaction. He has long been the friend of the colored race, and still wishes to devote his energies to their improvement and elevation. He is and long has been a temperance man in efforts as well as habits. He is a man of industry and perseverance, a gentleman of probity and intelligence commanding the esteem of all good men who know him, and in my judgment, a man possessing all the essential qualifications to fit him for usefulness in almost any place connected with your Bureau. He is no office seeker, and so far as I know never has been. He is a lover of truth - a lover of righteousness, a lover of his fellow men irrespective of color, and a friend of Christ.

Now I wish to say that if you can find it consistent with your duty to give Mr Woodward a place in your department, his appointment will give great satisfaction to his numerous friends. In a letter addressed to me, he says "The position that I think

I should like would be subordinate to one of the State Commissioners where I might be directly and actively employed in behalf of the "Freedman" I cannot doubt that he would discharge the duties of such a position not only to the satisfaction of the community, but in a manner to meet the approbation of the Head of that Department.

With high regard, I am most sincerely your friend & humble Servant

Dear General

It has been suggested to me by Col Beckwith, that you will need, in your new position, some officer of the Subsistence Department. He requested me to see you in relation to it, but I am expecting to go home for a few days. I shall not be able to do so. I hope you will not think me selfish General if I confess that I should like such a situation. I cannot forget the many happy hours I have spent in your military family. I suppose our Corps organization will not continue more than a month or so longer - I have conferred with Col Remick on the subject and he has no wish for the situation, as he wishes to leave the service. I would wish you to act perfectly free in the matter, but if you want me I shall be as ever happy to serve you to the best of my abilities

Very Respectfully

Your Obedt Servant

Dear General

I take the liberty to address you this note although, I never met with you but once. That was at Livemore Falls upon a fourth of July occasion. I was at that time settled in Fay, as Pastor of the Baptist Church. Perhaps I can mention a circumstance by which you can recollect me. When I went upon the platform from which you & others addressed the people, I was introduced to you. My hand was in a sling and, you remarked, you also are in the same condemnation. After remaining in Fay about three yrs. I entered the service as Chaplain of the 28th Maine Regt. under the command of Col. Woodman. I remained with the Regt. until my health was completely broken down unit, I was obliged to resign, since that time I have been settled in this place as Pastor of the Baptist Church, which position I still hold, I have two sons still in the service, and have been for nearly the whole length of the war thus far, One of them was fearfully wounded at the battle of Antietam, The other is in the regular Army, I perceive by the papers that you have been appointed Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau, Can you not my Dear Sir, give me employment in your Department, when I can still serve God & my country, by serving you in the week times and, on the Sabbath preach the blessed Gospel to the poor, I have been impressed to write you this letter, and, have followed my convictions in writing you, whatever may be the result;

I have never before asked an office at the hands of my fellow men. And in this instance instead of having recourse to political strategy, & working through friends I have felt like writing you directly.
I have had many severe trials thus far on my pilgrimage, having buried a Wife & four children.
Still I feel I have not lived altogether in vain. I am a little more than fifty yrs of age, but I am still vigorous and capable of performing as much or more labour as ever at any time of my life. I am personally acquainted with the Hon John P Hale, was in the Academy with him at Exeter. ^{N.H.} I am also acquainted with Hon M. Clark, Senator from ^{N.H.} I can bring you as good references as you can desire. Now Sir, if you shall find it in your heart to give me employment. I shall feel grateful indeed to Govt & to you, and your petitioners will ever pray.

Yours Respectfully

I, W. Marsh
