My dear General,

3/16/66

I received lately your report & that of your brother, together with those of several Assistant Commissioners of your Bureau. They are to me of much interest, for they contain the best information on the present state of the southern states. If I had not before been a radical, they would have been strongly effective to make me such. And yet President Johnson has consented to veto the Freedman's Bureau Bill! He is a demagogue & looks out for his re-election, & to judge from the present state of feeling in the country, I would not be surprised if he should be successful. I fear that the southern voters together with the disloyal, half loyal & wavering elements in the north constitute at this moment the majority of the people. Unless a reaction takes place in the public mind, & that can only be brought about by the very best ability of congress, the South will come out of the great struggle victorious. The Dualism of the North <sup>& South</sup> is a fact. One of the two sections must prefer the basis of reconstruction <sup>to the other</sup>. Either we of the north must force the south to accept northern principles; - or the south will force us to

I received last of your report & had of your brother, together with those of several friends, (and members of your Bureau. They are a very much interesting & important. The last information is the present state of the southern states. It is a very sad condition, they would be very strongly affected by the war. But yet I do not believe that it is not the Southern States. It is a very sad condition for his country, & to judge from the present state of feeling in the country, I would not be surprised if he should be successful. I am that the Southern States together with the United States, I hope a necessary element in the world, that of this movement the support of the people. There is a reaction taking place in the Southern mind; & that can only be brought about by the very best sort of Congress, the South will come out of the great struggle victorious.
The position of the South is a fact. One of the two positions must prevail. The basis of reconstruction either one of the two must force the South to accept the Southern principle; or the South will force us to accept no other principles. No other alternative, no middle ground is possible.

Your lecture in N. Haven ~~has been~~ was a complete success. The best men speak of it in the highest terms.
I regret that you could not stay here a day or two longer.
You would then have met those who do not like to push themselves. It is the light material, the mayor & the ward politicians, who always assume on such occasions to represent their city.

Mr. Bachelder sent me his beautiful plan of & or rather panorama of Giddysburg. - I wrote him to thank him for it; but he replied by informing me, that I was indebted to you for it.
Please accept my best thanks for this fine present.

Have you heard anything in regard to the organization of the Army. - I trust you will not forget the subject of our conversation in N. Haven, in this connection and obtain an appointment for me.

Whenever the proper time comes for me to send an application, please let Mr. Gladen inform me of it; if you yourself are too busy.

With best regards to your brother & Mr. Gladen I remain as ever

Very truly Yours
A. C. Steinwehr.

My Dear General -

The bearer of this, Mr J. B. Watkins of Richmond, Va. was long and well known to me before the war as a gentleman of high standing and estimable character; since the war closed he is one of the few who have shown their integrity by voluntarily coming forward and offering to discharge in full all monetary obligations incurred before the rebellion.

He now calls on you in regard to some matter of business in your department, and I would ask for him your most favorable consideration. Any statements made by Mr. Watkins may be relied to their fullest extent, and any kindness which you can show him I will regard as shown to myself.

With renewed assurance of my high regard for yourself, I remain

My dear Sir,

I received your favor of Feb. 24th. enclosing a check for one hundred dollars $100, as a donation to theol. Sem. of this city.

I thank you in behalf of the Sem. for the generous gift. I remember, I had some compunctions that I had asked you for any thing, knowing that you were called to make so great sacrifices for the Country. But <sup>God</sup> has blessed the country; and has blessed us.

The winter I met you in Augusta, I was endeavoring to ~~see~~ collect $7000, wh. was necessary to hold a donation by a gentleman in New York of $13,000. constituting an endowment for another Professorship. This gentleman made his gift on condition the balance $7000 be made out by friends in <sup>out that winter</sup> Maine. This balance was made,

The foundations for the four Professors were all made out.

A little more than a year ago I called on my friend, the Hon. Ichabod Washburn of Worcester who married Elizabeth Cheever formerly of Hallowell. Mr Washburn two years before had given us $10,000, the income of it to go to the support of indigent Students. At this interview a year ago, he subscribed another $10,000 to be added to the poor Students fund. He also subscribed $10,000 for the increase of the library.

Mr Washburn will not pay this other $10,000 on the poor Students fund till the last of the present year, and the fore part of the next. This fund is deficient till he makes his payment. We have not enough the present <sup>year</sup> by a little over $1,000.

We give to each Student who 93 Needs it $80 for the year from our fund. -

I propose to turn your gift into this channel - so where else can it ~~give~~<sup>do</sup> so much good or give so much relief.

With your consent we will so appropriate it.

I am with great respect Most truly yours recall that in your letter to me of Sept 15-

I have the honor to make application for the restoration of the piece of land, lying in Fairfax Co: Virginia, known as "Fairfax Station", and now in the possession of your agents, as "abandoned property".

Previous to, and in the incipient stages of the late war, the place was tenanted out, but the burning of all buildings upon it, made it impossible for the tenant longer to remain in charge, nor, for the same reason, could his place be supplied by another, and hence at the termination of the war, the land was found unoccupied, and fell under the control of your Bureau -

I would also state, the U.S. "Direct Tax" upon it, has been paid. That the property has been in the possession of the family for a very long period, <sup>and</sup> of course there is no dispute as to their original title -

My very dear Friend I was very glad to receive your letter, it came just as I was leaving very agreeably with the Benet's who enquired most kindly for you. My conscience has been reproaching me for not replying to your letter this morning—but I was busy reading "Winifred Bertram" by the author of the "Schonberg Cotta Family" I want you to read it, for I am sure you would enjoy it.

To day's mail brought me a letter from Blair from California I think she is becoming more satisfied, but she complains of want of strength for her ordinary duties. I have just finished a letter to John enclosing her letters. John has just been made Adjutant of the 8th he is still in Baltimore. Emma Willard.

is very soon to be married to a Mr. years since I left the District, and whose first wife was Louisa Adams daughter of the Prof. and her intimate friend Latie Willard is also to be married soon. were you not sorry and shocked to hear of poor Seth Williams. they fear he has lost his mind hopelessly. I can hardly make you realize how fully we all enjoyed and appreciated dear General Howard's visit. and regretted that we did not ask you to rest here on your way through from Maine. - and now about Louisa (whose name you remembered rightly.) I have not seen her. or heard of her, but once in five years. then Brother John saw her in Washington, I think he said she was married - her name was Louisa Adams. She is very light colored & lived with Dr. Edwards of the Army. at Judge Crawford's the corner of 7th & G. I think she nursed me when Edwin was born & Mrs Judge, Mrs Schfield &c. I think perhaps that Matilda Madison a colored woman living on the N. W. corner of 14th & I streets might know of some good efficient servants - but my friend, it is ten years since I left the District, and I may be sending you on a wild goose chase. I will write to Mother & ask her.

Do you not know. Mrs Maynardier? she could help you out of any domestic troubles I think, she always has good servants. I hope you may succeed in obtaining good servants for without them housekeeping is up-hill work. You must enjoy having your Mother with you. I hope to know her some day. My love to her. and your brother Charles.
Tell dear Janie that Edwin and Clara often speak of him. I hope some time the children may have the pleasure of being together. I do hope at some future time to come to Washington for a few days I should feel a child again. I daresay I should miss many loved faces and find many hearts changed. Kiss the children for me - love to your noble you wish for your own dear self.
