

Newark, Dec. 23-1866.

My dear General,

I have been prevented by various circumstances from acknowledging, before the present time, the receipt of the several best-appointments. Please allow me to again thank you for the kind interest you evinced towards securing them. They possess an honour which I shall ever appreciate, while, at the same time, it is apparently a matter of sincere congratulation to my friends, that they have been thus bestowed.

I was not-fortunate enough to see Mr. Brown during the several times I sought him, until within a few days since. At that time he informed me that he intended writing you in relation to the Church Subscriptions. I regret sincerely that he is not able to return your more favorable answer.

Besides Mr. Brown I have conversed with several prominent liberal gentlemen, and have learned from them that, so many of our own churches are still in debt that, they feel that their contributions must be made in this apologetic derstand has his 16th ps.

occasion to visit Newark, please tell him that, it

Our Family desire their kind regards to you & hope they will have the pleasure of again having you with us at no distant day.

My dear General:

On my arrival here I rec'd your kind letter of the 24th ult. Its kind tones do not deepen my mortification, nothing could do that, but increases my sorrow and, I trust genuine repentance -

I have no palliation for what occurred in Washington - An effort at such would be offensive to God - My mortification has been & is still so poignant as to almost break me down - This I am glad of as it gives me the satisfaction of knowing that I have some moral sense, if not smothered flames of grace - This is the third time in my life since I have been a member of the Church that I have been whipped back to God by adversity - I am of a sanguine temperament - dangerously impulsive - and full of vivacity - all of which are dangerously susceptible to temptation & sin - As a restraint to these I have high self-pride and a thorough religious training from my childhood - to say nothing of my religious principles and professions that should have been my restraint - If I engaged in profanity; which according to the testimony of "several gentlemen of high standing," can scarcely be doubted, this is the greatest crime of the two and needs the deepest repentance - The bad effects of liquor induced me to indulge in a habit of my early life which is so pernicious in its effects as to only be restrained in by self-respect and grace both of which appear to have been overcome in my case -

You are very much mistaken about my having a "disordered appetite" - Such I know is not the case; nor am I easily overcome with drink. I have not been drinking long enough for that - I have no app~~etite~~ for it at all in that sense, but for the last two years it has been a constant prescription and my system, not my stomach, made demand for it at times the gratification of which has resulted badly I, however, was never overcome before - and to be plain with you, the mortification of the tirade of misrepresentations I met with while at Washington had together with a slight chill was what threw me in the way of his evil - I was true when I told you I had not been drinking for several months, but I do not remember that you asked me to promise, or that I did promise not to drink any more - I have never yet broken a promise in this matter and do not intend to do so - Some such a misfortune was just necessary in order to interrupt me in a wicked career and I do look upon it as a gracious scourge of Christ - I have prayed and wept and prayed and today although my mortification is still very poignant, yet I have some assurance that I have been forgiven, and that I will never by the grace of God, never again be guilty of the same offence - The pledge I gave you is the first I ever gave to myself or any one and I feel assured that I can an-

(5) will keep it - It ~~was~~ vexed me to have placed myself so nearly on the level with the common inebriate as to be compelled to plead my own cause and give written pledges that I will restrain myself hereafter -

You were very kind in not reliving me under the circumstances - It would have made my misfortune public and I fear I could not have survived the hur-tification - The vexation and trouble I have given you in this matter I deeply regret, the disgrace I have brought upon myself I trust will result in good, and the offence I have given to my Savior I do sincerely trust I have repented of and been forgiven - The only resort I have is to acknowledge my error, repent of it, ask God and my friends to forgive me, and and religiously eschew the "World

Had a letter to day from Col. Eddins from New Orleans - is there with the Congressional the Flesh & the Devil in the future - My personal regard for you ~~formally~~ formerly has now become a strong friendship as the result of profound obligation -

I will make the request of you that you will write me a short letter in answer to this one, and that you will make me the subject of your special prayer to God for such strength as I may need and faith to put all my reliance & resolutions in Him - You may show this letter to Rev Mr Alvord if you think best - I know he is interested in me -

I am getting along well in my duties - Rev G. H.
Ginn is still on the Rev. Grounds - The predominant will not get full justice in the division of the Corp - will do the best I can for them

General.

If You visit New England this Winter Can You Come to this place and give us a lecture on Temperance, or Some other subject?

There are many of the old members of the 5th Regt N.H. Vols in this County who would give You a hearty Welcome, besides there is many others who wish You to Come here and lecture. I was a Soldier in the old "Fifth" and stood near You when You was wounded at Fair Oaks, - At the battle of Chancellorsville I also gave our arm to the Cause of Freedom. Knowing that You go "Heart and Hand" with the Temperance movement, and as we are making the temperance reform a Christian and popular work, and are going to fight intemperance as we fought Rebels and traitors, and we are going to fight until we conquer, and drive the monster from our land.

Warrant No. 10

Cannot you give us a lift, and at the same time visit one of the most pleasant towns in New Hampshire?

Please let me know at an early date if you can come - When you can come, and your price for a lecture.

Hoping soon to receive a favorable answer from you I

I remain

My dear Sir.

I take the liberty of enclosing to you the "Press & Times" report of your address at the Capitol last evening, also, a notice of the address by the "Republican Banner"—our most influential conservative journal.

The colored people who had an opportunity of seeing and hearing you will not soon forget your brief visit. The regard in which the Chief of the Bureau is held in Gen. is second only to that entertained for the memory of Lincoln.

Maj. Gen. O. O. Howard,

My dear General
May I ask of you the favor of a brief note of introduction for a gentleman of high respectability, Mr. John De Bruyn Kops, to the Head of the Freedman Bureau at Galveston?

Mr Kops is a Hollander by birth, and he and his family have been very favorably received in this country.

A few words from yourself or from one of your staff, would be much appreciated by him.

I am herewith a note from Mr Whitehead, counsellor at law in New York city, residing in Newark, whom you met in the evening company at our house.

My Brother and Sister desire this kind regards to be conveyed to you, in which my Mother (now at Boston) would join with them if present.
Yours very truly

My dear Sir,

Our old friend John De--Bruyn Kops is going to Galveston Texas, on business for the house of Clason & Co. of this City.

He wants a letter of introduction to the head of the Freedmen's Bureau at Galveston, and asked me this afternoon if I could get him a note of introduction from Genl. O. O. Howard.

in a week or 10 days, I suppose Genl. Howard is at Washington though I have no knowledge of his movements.

Very Truly Yours
as. P. Whithead

I have no acquaintance with Genl. Howard, but it occurred to me that the Genl. would willingly give Kops a letter at your request. He is as we all know a young man of great respectability, & merely wants a formal introduction from the Genl.

If you can obtain it, you will confer a favor on Mr Kops & on me personally.

He leaves for Galveston

I have no acquaintance with Paul Howard, but it occurred to me that the Paul must certainly give him a letter of your request. He is so we are from a young man
of great respectability & surely worth a friend introduction from the Club.

If you can obtain
favor on all who are in your way the same for that

Dear Sir

I am informed by Mr Talcoatt of Rockford that there is some prospect of your coming west to give a few Lectures this Winter.
Should you do so it will be very satisfying to the People of this place if you would (while so near us as Rockford) give us one Lecture. I understand that your terms are One Hundred dollars Whatever your price is I will present the Amount, providing you can inform me a few days in advance of your coming.
Myself & Miss shall be most happy to entertain you at my home should you conclude to come.
