Dear General

Enclosed I send you slips ^{cut} ~~car~~ from the Savannah Republican.
~~At~~ ^{to your wife} Notice that, as a free untrammelled citizen of the United States, I have made use of my recent release from official restraints, to defend myself in a manner which seemed ^{to me} desirable. Let those of my fellow countrymen who read the enclosed, judge between the Hon Senator and ~~the~~ your humble correspondent. From just such statements as Bradleys - with no more foundation in fact coming from Bryant and others of, if possible, less reliability than Bradley. Surely Wade & Co. have made up their minds and deliberately published me to the country as false to my truth and personally dishonest. It was closely on contempt for men who fanaticism. I dismiss the subject

Dear Gen:

Your kind letter returning my sisters with explanation just rec'd - I was not sick at New Orleans Arrived there at 4 o'clock A.M. - Saw Gen Sheridan on business before he was out of bed, and left at 5 o'clock the same morning for Galveston - Your information was incorrect.

I suffered all the way from Washington with my wound, and was on my back two weeks after my return - I have no feeling about Gen Griffin being appointed Asst Com - I take a soldiers view of all such matters.

Dear Sir

I hope you will pardon me for the liberty I take to remind you of the interview I had with you in the first part of last month about something that I could do. I would not trouble you Sir indeed but pure necessity compels me to appeal to your generosity. I know that a favour-place me at the medical museum

General:

Permit me to invite your attention to the "Address of the Illinois State Convention of Colored men to the American people," of record on pages 19 to 37 of the proceedings of that body, herewith transmitted, and to solicit your kind offices in the support and dissemination of its plea.

Its sentiments are believed to be in accord with opinions entertained by yourself, as a soldier, a patriot and a Christian. May I ask to what extent you coincide with the views presented in it?

Yours Respectfully

R. W. Stokes.

P.S. Allow me further to ask, in what way can I serve under your Bureau, & as to promote the cause of freedom and progress? I am led to propound this interrogatory from the fact, ^{that} I am not, never have been, and do not know my proper element; while I am fully sensible that there are resident within me, undeveloped energies that have only not received their legitimate unfolding for want of the proper conditions. Dear G^l

I have been home some days but found it impossible to write before the present time, owing to the effect of colds on my joints & teeth from which I have been suffering for some time. On my arrival at New York I found it was necessary for me to go some where to cure my aches, and as home was my final destination I came on without returning to Washington. I regret not having the opportunity of talking with you about affairs before I left the city. I presented the subject of which you spoke to me, to Mr Whipple while in N.Y. He promised to write to you fully on the subject.

I have just commenced my new work and amidst the clatter of wheels and the hum of the machinery of our Iron Mills, I must say I feel more like ~~an~~ man than I have for some time.

I be perfectly independent, and at the same time engaged in some business actually creating some thing necessary to the progress of the Country is my ideal of my own duty.

I do not know how to thank you for your many kindnesses to me and hope I may some day make a payment on the debt by voting for you as candidate for President.

God have my earnest wishes for your success in your arduous and delicate duties.

With sincere respect I am

I have delayed to dry your letter to General Cartin, accompanied by letters of Introduction from Gov. nor Brownlow and leading Senators and Representatives from East Tennessee To morrow I am to have five counties in East Tennessee assigned to me as my field of labor and on Wednesday I expect to leave for East Tennessee. I am entering upon this field under the most favorable auspices. I have nothing but good will to expect from all whom I may meet, and as far, as I can see if I do not succeed, the fault has to be laid altogether at my door. You are aware that the Legislature of Tennesses is taking thorough measures to protect her loyal citizens and that they will pass a Bill arming the Militia Black and White and giving the right of voting to the negro.

The disloyal part of the population are in a terrible rage on account of it, and I have felt the need of a great deal of discretion in order to prevent my being brought into unpleasant contact with the Confederate Generals, Congressmen and various other high and low dignitaries. I have succeeded however in moving amongst them in a spirit of kindness, and thus far not the least difficulty has occurred.

May I ask ~~you~~ you in what manner you have disposed of the razor which my wife sent me to your care? My address will be:

I sent as you directed, the papers of John Cooke to you, but have heard nothing from them!
Now this man is sick, and a very pious member of the church - and we are commanded to do good to the household

You are not weary in well doing!

Perhaps F. J. Davis could do something in the matter for him - Tell him I want him to, & he will do what he can - I am sure.

I am very anxious to get his discharge if possible

West Point 28 Jan 67

Dear Gen. Howard!

I scribbled off a line to you & sent it in consn. Willie Beebe's letter of to-day but fearing he might possibly not be there, as I have written there twice to him & have not heard from him, I resolved to address you again, regarding the soldier - John Cook -

I sent as you directed his appeal - but have heard nothing from it.

I am aware it was not very favorably endorsed but then I could but try - now dear General Howard, The man is sick, & a very pious good man & we are commanded to do good to the house-hold of faith!

I cannot bear the thought that he is to tramp all the stormy months through the deep snow & bitter weather!

If thou canst - help him! and God will pity those that pity him.

With kindest regards from my mother & my husband I thank a thousand times

Dear General

I received this morning your kind and forbearing note of 22nd inst. touching a Report upon the prevalence of murders in this State. The notice first sent out (Sept. 24th) to prepare such a report was received during my absence; and as it called for a sort of Statistics we had not been in the habit of preserving, it has been left in abeyance. I was however on the point of making up a special report to you to exhibit the shameful condition that prevails here in some places, and I think that in three days I can supply you with the fullest evidence, (if proof be wanting still, that Alabama is not very fit for a free government at all.

For several weeks I have been, from a dumb dull headache, more like a dead man than a live one. This Monday Morning I begin to feel as if I was myself again and hope to furnish you with ample fruits.

The fruits of carelessness, embodied in my last, cost me more than I shall express. I hoped I should have had a line from you. I did not think I had a right back for it.
