Major General Howard,
Washington D. C.

Dear Sir;

Your letter of the 3^d inst. has been read to the Executive Committee of the Northern Famine Relief Commission, and while it would give them the greatest pleasure, personally, to comply with the request, they do not see how they can do it as a Committee. Of large number of personal applications have been already declined, for the reason that it is the plan of the Committee to help communities rather than individuals, and to use the money contributed in purchasing and forwarding provisions only and those of the plainest kind. This rule has been so often published, that the Committee would very much prefer not to depart from it.

Yours, Very truly

General.

My friends of the Canadian Institute who occupy themselves most actively of the future of the National Farm School, have just sent to me the enclosed letter for Mr. Fred. Douglass.

There is nobody here, able to inform me where he is now.
He stopped in Chicago last week, but they do not know where he is actually. I thought you are able to let him have this letter.

without further delay. I therefore, take the liberty to enclose it and to beg you to return it to me in the case you would have no chance to have it remitted.

This enthusiasm must be made more general; for it is firmly impossible to exaggerate the import-

It is to the black man meat wealth & power. To the poor white (who will soon be brought in) it is the same. To the Southern States it is social reorganization, political reconstruction and perma-is strength, and honor &

Major General O. O. Howard.

General:

If you were not a Soldier I perhaps should feel a little more delicate about addressing you; but for some inaccountable reason I can always approach a Soldier without feeling that embarrassment which I always do in approaching almost any one else. - I wish to ask your advice and perhaps aid in a matter which to me is of great importance. When the war first broke out I thought quite young. (Seventeen years of age) I responded to the call for men by enlisting in the 4th Maine Regt. but without the con-sent of my father, and as he was not willing that I should go, of course I had to return home.

On the fall I gained my father's consent and enlisted in the 2nd Maine Battery, but was discharged on account of sickness before they left the State. I began to think that fate was against me and for a while aban-doned the thought of ever being a soldier altogether. But when the 20th Maine Regt. was being organized I enlisted again and good success. I participated with the 1st Regt-in all the campaigns and engagements in which it was engaged, and through persevering efforts I crept up from a Private to Captain and was bravely Major after the battle of the Hildernuffs.

I write this only to show you that I have a 'military spirit' for I had no friends to assist me, save those I made in the service.

Since my return from the Army I have been trying to settle down to some steady business and forget that 'military spirit' and that I ever was a Soldier, but I cannot it is utterly impossible. The Army was my home and the Army is my home my heart is in it and I cannot succeed in anything else.

I am young and ambitious, and perhaps I might and a little proud (though I trust not vain) with a great desire to enter the Army; but how? thence the rest. In active service I might enlist and perhaps stand some chance, but in time of peace I cannot see any.

I know of no other reason for my writing to you as I have accepted that I feel that you will have interest enough in me, or what I have written to give me at least your advice.
I have written to Governor Chamberlain, with whom I am personally acquainted and on whose assistance I think I can fully rely. I can get good recom-mendations from some of the best Officers of the "5th Army Corps." - Very Respectfully your Obt. Servt.
H. Frank Sedgwick.

I have the honor to inform you that the members of "The Society of Religious Inquiry" of Ind. Abby. University have elected you to deliver an address before them at their next anniversary - the 26th of June 1867. Allow me to add General that many who were with in the late campaigns of the east & south are here now and fondly cherish the hope that you will be with us at the time herein specified.

I am with great respect

Dear General,

I must have been mistaken last night: and am right now. After I received your card (which I supposed had be-sent from your office having no idea you were in the house) I went to a meeting of the Board of the Refugee Asylum for Slovaks.
On my return found that a number of gentlemen had called, who I suppose were the other members of our Board.

Take this as an explanation as charitably as you can, and come and dine with me & Mr.
Abbott. Today I have a talk.

 you after a Sub-committee - of wh.

 definite.

What - he will write, in Sub- stance, will be a proposition from the New York Gentlemen to have the Bank remain here - with such a responsible officer in Washington as will induce you to confer upon us the same patronage as you promise our coming wholly to Mr Whipple, Ketchum, & myself and a number of others gentlemen present argued the question of removal as strongly as we could, but the majority succeeded in carrying the postponement until Tuesday. It will then be decided def-

General,

I beg leave to inclose herewith for your perusal a slip from the "New York Evening Post" giving an extract from a letter received this morning from Col John B. Palmer, lately Saluda Factory S.C. April 8th inst, giving an account of the awful desolation which is now prevailing among the inhabitants in Lexington District.

The paper which I showed to you at your Office yesterday, the phraseology of which was altered in accordance to your suggestions, was promptly signed by each of the U.S. Senators for Oregon, Nevada & California, excepting Mr. Cole of the last named State, and has been telegraphed to San Francisco. I shall tomorrow be obliged to report to the Executive Committee at the meeting to-morrow, that the impression received by me from the conversation I had the honor of having with you at the time, is, that our organization is not any

My dear Howard.

Your note with the picture arrived safely. My mother desires me to express her thanks to you for the same. I called for it, and left a little note on your table for you. My interview with the Mexican Minister was short and perfectly satisfactory. He has written me a very handsome letter to the President, which is about equivalent to the commission; so I am told. I am now making preparations to leave, and I suppose I shall get off in about two weeks or so. Genl. Sturm of New York is getting ready a steamer for

Mexico and has offered me a passage. It is useful for me to undertake to thank you for all your kindness in this matter, so you must consider every thing said. Hoping you are well
