Sir

Allow me the honor to tender my services to the Government through you, for a position in your Dpt., in the State of Texas. Having been ruined by the March of Genl. Sherman through T^x, my necessities prompt me to appeal to you for help. I had not the pleasure of your personal acquaintance while in Washington on the "Witz" trial, which I regret, but will refer to Col. J. P. Roth, my fellow Commissioner on the Direct-Tax Board, in T^x - also to documents on which my commission issued - also documents sent up from T^x - as to the discharge of duty in T^x - all of which can be found in the office of Comdr. Int. Rev. and would modestly refer to the Andersonville, and its prisoners, to show my connection therewith, which perhaps you may remember. With patience I await your answer, which I trust will be of the most favorable character as well as "profitable" (as necessity quietly suggests)

With sentiments of the highest regard

I am most respectfully

 State as rapidly as possible, without regard to any distinction of the United States. Our great desire is to promote the happiness of the people, encourage education, morals, and strict loyalty to the Genl Government. Our schemes do not add to the happiness of all. at least such is our design I am now on a visit to the North to further the interest of

Maj. Gen. L. O. Howard,
Dear Sir,

I purpose having an examination of my class in Colored school Capitol Hill C St. bet 2nd & 3rd I wish said examination to take place next week Thursday 30th inst. I greatly desire your presence on that occasion, as my boys are of that age when such an interest, manifested in so direct a manner by a man like yourself whom they never think of without honor, would have a most stimulating and beneficial influence upon them - As the day is not important to me and I have made no public mention of it - if there is any other day which would be more favorable to your attendance I should take pleasure in substituting it.

Hoping that it will be in your power, as I am sure it would be in your will, to grant us this favor -

My Dear cousin Oti

I have but a few moments left before the mail closes, to say that I have brought my long and exceedingly pleasant visit here to close and am now anticipating the pleasure of "swinging around the circle", as I find that my route, the Baltimore & Ohio R.R., brings me so near Washington I do not feel as if I could pass so near without making ^{just} ~~thru~~ a call. and if it will be perfectly agreeable to yourself and family, I shall do myself the pleasure of a few days visit with you. I intend leaving here on Tuesday morning the 28th & cannot ascertain at what hour we shall probably arrive at Washington, but fear it may be in the evening. I hope Perry may be able to meet me at the Depot on my arrival, but fearing he may not be able and if I do not find him there I will take the liberty of coming directly to your house if agreeable to you all.

Give much love to cousin Lizzie and the Children. I hope they are all well. and shall soon have the pleasure of seeing you all.

Uncle Henry and Aunt Martha send much love to you all. Lizzie still remains at the Water Cure about the same they hope she will be benefitted there.
She is very patient and cheerful. Mary is still at Dayton will graduate in about a month. She is a very fine girl.

I received letters a few days since from Newland and Frank they are all well.

We are glad to hear of Maria's happiness and that they have a fine little son.

I shall purchase a through ticket to New York City with the privilege of stopping a few days in Washington & Alexandria.
I shall leave the morning of the 28th if nothing happens and go directly through.

We are having a cold disagreeable season.

and the season here is very backward.
But they say the crops are most encouraging in their appearance, which is a great matter of thankfulness.

Excuse this hasty note from your

Affectionate Cousin

My dear General,

When I wrote you last I had not had any conversation with John Simpson on the subject of my letter, and was rather under the impression that he looked to the teaching of freedmen as a useful and respectable calling rather than being led to it by any deep interest in the work itself. When I received your letter, therefore, I thought he would be greatly disappointed that no immediate prospect of employment was open to him, and I rather shrank from communicating the contents to him. I was greatly surprised and relieved, however, to find myself in error. John was delighted at the suggestion of getting a Scholarship. His reply was - "my whole heart & soul is in this matter, and I.

gladly welcome anything which will further me in it. I mean to devote the rest of my life to this cause, and shall be very much pleased if I can get a scholarship in the new College."

Dear Gen^l, I rather think John Simpson is in your destiny, - at any rate I wish you would think so, and conclude to fulfill this part of it at once, by launching him on his life-career. But, jettisoning aside, if you can obtain this scholarship for him, I have little doubt that he will succeed, and prove a very useful labourer among the freed men. I am sure that you will do what you can for him, and with this assurance will leave the subject. -

They pardon these 1/2 sheets.
I accidentally tore the blank side off before discovering that it was the sheet on which I had begun this letter to you.

I was very much surprised to hear of your little daughter's educational progress. How time speeds - I had no idea that she could possibly be old enough to write a letter, and lo! she has been at it three three years. I hope she will write me, some day, if she can do it without feeling it to be a task. But pray do not urge it, if you find it would not be agreeable to her.

Some day, when I have more leisure (at present I am very much pressed) I will write to her and then, perhaps, it will be easier for her to reply to a letter, than to write the first herself.

I write wretchedly when I'm in a hurry, as you perceive, and should be quite ashamed to send my little friend, should a carelessly ~~be~~ written letter as I have, in this instance, at least, inflicted upon her paper.

But I'll release you now With much love to Mr. Howard and the Fairies, I remain Yr truly attached friend Blanche Bernard.

Dear Lue:

I took your note to Col Owen & Mr Wilson yesterday and they expected to have made the necessary arrangements through Mr Smith of whom you were purchasing a farm. They inform me this morning that the sale has been deferred for the present & there is now no chance of negotiating a loan for Mr Brown in that direction. Mr Wilson saw Mr Elwood this morning who says yourself & he with others are to meet Mr Henry D. Cooke at 3½ P.M. and he suggests that you call his attention to the matter & then both speak to Mr Cooke & he thinks it may be perfected through Mr Cooke. The loan is ^{to be} secured on the property corner of 3^d & 4th streets 32 x 100. renting now for $115 per mo. $5000 for 5 years @ 7% N.Y. interest. Land of trust property to be insured. The Creditor to have possession & collect rents, pay insurance & interest & balance of, after deducting agents fees, to liquidation of principal

The chains of title is complete & perfect - The leaves on the property, and to about $2600.

The $5000 will pay these off & give Mr Brown the balance.

With respect I am &c
