My dear Sister

So as to give you a faint idea of the condition of affairs, & just how we are situated here, I have got Willie to make a rough copy of a paper he to day sent in, which I enclose; but for the sake of the safety of the man's life who made the Affidavit, do not on any account let his name be made public. It is generally threatened here now, that no colored man shall be allowed to vote, unless he does so for the Democratic Party; & on the day of election the roads leading to the 'Polls' are to be guarded, & every Freedman shot down who attempts to go to either of them, without intending to vote the 'Democratic Ticket.'

While on any time also get the affidavits of persons who have complained to him, to that effect. There have been three colored men murdered, & about six shot, by white men, since we have been here, & the proper officers of the law cannot be got to make any arrests. Some of these men had their houses broken open, & ^{were} shot in their beds, at night. - Others have been taken out of their beds at night, & strangled, given over a lynch mob, & on their running off, also shot at, & killed because they claimed to belong to the 'Republican Party.'

As this is written during & at night, you must excuse it, — &

Believe me ever

P.S.

I forgot to tell you that some of the white people I suppose in order to incite some evil disposed person to get him out of the way have reported it about that Willie is urging the Negroes to kill all the whites, & burn their property, so as to get possession of their land. Is this not dreadful? I have no peace day

State of South Carolina, } S.S.
Abbeville County }

Araron Mitchell - freedman - resident in the State and County above written, on oath declares, that he was present at a political meeting of the the Democratic Party of Abbeville County, held at Gordon's Mill, about 13 miles from Abbeville Court House, on or about the 9th day of September, instant, at which Wyatt Aiken (so called Colonel) was one of the Speakers: That in the course of a public speech then and then delivered by the said Wyatt Aiken, referring to Wm F. De Knight, the Officer of the Bureau of Refugees Freedmen and Abandoned Lands, then and now stationed at Abbeville Court House, in charge of the Office at that place, he declared that - "Never did a dammed rascal sit in a chair; that while his predecessor, "Genl". O. H. Hart, was a perfect gentleman, he, the said De Knight, was a no-body; at he was doing all he could to injure the white people of the County, by telling the negroes a lot of damned lies, and thus influencing them to vote against them; but, however, there was no wonder in that, as he had lately understood that he, the said De Knight, is a son-in-law of the man General Grant, and he, of course, very naturally wanted to get as many votes for him as possible; that through just such scraps as he they were being crushed to the earth, and unless they bolstered themselves and did something, they would be utterly destroyed; that as for paying the taxes in posed by the pretended Legislature now sitting in Columbia, to defray the expenses they were creating, they should lose their last drop of blood before they did that; and, again referring to the aforesaid W. F. De Knight, that he ought to be taken out and hung "the distance here stated not remembered) "between heaven and earth"; &c, &c.

And Deponent further saith, that by the use of this and other such incendiary and inciting language - which was loudly applauded by nearly all present - Samuel Davis, and Robert Hadden, two white men, forming part of the assembly, were then and there induced to draw each one a revolver, which he had upon his person, and express themselves to the effect, that if they were only let do it, they would go to the door of the Office occupied by the aforementioned W. F. De Knight, at Abbeville Court House, South Carolina, and, with said revolvers, put six balls into his head; and that one of the party then going up to him, deponent, placed his pistol on and fired four shots over his shoulder, saying he wanted to shake the Radical out of him, &c.

And Deponent still further testifies, that there was a great deal more such like language used, both by the aforesaid Aiken and others there present, tending materially to incite to violence generally, and against the hereinbefore named W. F. De Knight in particular; and it is his Deponent's firm conviction and belief, judging from what he has himself actually heard and seen, that too great precaution cannot be taken on the part of the said W. F. De Knight, to preserve himself from injury at the hands of a large class of the white people in this, Abbeville County.

In conclusion, Deponent emphatically declares, that he has never known the above named W. F. De Knight to take part in or be present at any political meeting whatever, or to take a public part in politics in any manner since he has been stationed on duty in Abbeville County; moreover, that although he has himself had frequent conversations with him, in his Office, and been also present when he has been conversing with many other freedmen, who have sought his advice, he has on no occasion ever heard him counsel any one of them in any way that would not, as he conscientiously believes, conduce clearly to their ^{own} permanent interest, and the ^{welfare} of the Country at large, according to his best judgment and honest conviction; and that while he has never heard him use any language calculated to excite the passions of the freedmen towards the whites, he has, on the contrary, invariably heard him earnestly counsel forbearance, moderation, and the cultivation of good feeling on all sides, and the preservation of a state of perfect tranquillity, even under the infliction of the grossest outrages, where even the life of the colored man has been taken, and nothing has been done on the part of the proper Officers of the Law to effect the arrest of the white murderer.

Washington D. C.

Dear Sir, — On behalf of the R. M. C. A. of this city I addressed you a letter some time since asking you to deliver a lecture under its auspices at any time to suit your convenience during the coming winter. I now, in obedience to the wishes of our Association as well as our people generally, repeat the request and sincerely hope it may receive a favorable response. Our Association is struggling to maintain itself, and to that end we are endeavoring to secure a popular corps of lecturers for the coming season. We have already some very prominent names on our list and we greatly desire not to complete it without your own. Please give us an early answer, with terms, time, etc.
I am with great respect

May. Gen. O. O. Howard,
Dear General,

Your miss was duly received. The Trustees, as I assured you, will take great pleasure in accommodating you in the money matter. Your letter, however, is not perfectly clear to us.

You propose to deed us a part of a square in Washington, but you do not mention whether for the $4500, which you proposed to borrow, or for the whole fund, procured us from the "Barry Farm." Please be explicit.

We are pleased to loan you the $4500, and hope you will at once be able to have the use of it. Do you propose to deed us the property you mention in consideration of the $4500? Arrange the matter to suit yourself. Of course, we rely upon your judgment, and can rest in your word. What you propose is fair.

My dear Mr. Howard,
Dear General,

Yours was duly received. The Committee, as I informed you, is in the process of organizing. Your letter, however, is not sufficient cause to us. Your purpose to check us a year or so is in the hands of the Board, which you will find, as for the latter part, referred to your "Literary Forum." Please excuse.

We are pleased to hear you are still in the same line of work. What you propose is fair. Your work, however, will be some of the best of the Board's work. We are in the hands of the Board, and we are in the hands of the Board.

Maj. General Howard,
 Sir, I beg you will excuse this intrusion - as in that light you may consider this communication. You are acquainted with that branch of the "Educational Society" for the benefit of the Freedmen - under the control of Mrs Isabella James of Phila. I was engaged by this "Association" to take charge of those "Colored Schools" at Peter-burg Va. Some five months ago.
 The first decision was that I should go down in July this was revoked until Sept. I held myself in readiness to enter upon my duties at that date. I had seen Mrs James - received the transportation papers furnished by you - and was to go on the 23rd on the afternoon of the twenty second I called upon Mrs James for the final directions where that lady informed me that I was not to go - the termination time was revoked until an indefinite date. I must quit in telling you how bitter was my disappointment. Had the different "Churches" forwarded the amounts promised the schools might have been opened - as it was the two or three years of labor among this neglected and consequently degraded class literally thrown away. The ground may be tilled - but the seed does not seem to be sown - and then seed in such soil may not yield fruit until many harvests shall have come and gone. My paper is being rapidly filled but I have not yet arrived at the request I wish to make of you. I have properly no right to do so - but you have been represented to me as a kind and humane person and I write hoping to have you convey a favor on me. It is now too late to enter a school as teacher as almost if not all have opened - those which are not as yet have their corps of Instructors engaged - Therefore efforts in that direction would prove fruitless. I am an Orphan and have resided, when from school with ^{an} Aunt, this Aunt glows her house, at the furthest in two weeks. - This movement obliges me to make earnest efforts to obtain a position in which I shall feel settled for the Winter.

My object in writing to you is to ask you if you know of a family desiring a Teacher or of a Lady wishing a Companion—or of any persons wishing a Lady night school—I am able to give superior reference from prominent people of this City. I trust I'm your May Report of something of the kind which I have made.

I most earnestly speak of the urgency of the case requiring me to take this unpleasant step of writing to our entire stranger. I hope I may hear from you at your earliest convenience.
Thanking you most cordially for pursuing this lengthy epistle, I remain Sir,

Yours truly,
J. S. Thompson
