

202-Nov. 10, 1868]

Dear Howard,

I long to be with you, sympathize with the brethren, and aid you by any suggestions I can furnish. But I find I cannot aid you in person. I must therefore content myself with praying for you, and writing these lines.

My present fear is, that a Council can not aid you as matters stand. Remember that the great advantages of our polity do not seem against oppression and injustice, any more than the polity of any other church.

You want ~~five~~ things done, a Council is competent to only two of them.

1. It can not make the Church do right. Man's justice must govern, responsible only to God if they abuse their power.
 2. It can not depose a pastor where the majority wish to retain him.
 3. It can not volunteer any advice to a pastor who has not asked its advice.
 4. It can advise you the minority what to do.
- But it is not apparent to me that they can wisely advise you to do any thing at present, but wait. If you wish to separate from the Church, and organize anew, ^{congreg} they can give you ~~their~~ opinion upon that. But it seems to me that can not be wise.

5. It can draw up an opinion of the case after as full an examination as the circumstances may admit, and express that to the public, leaving it to vindicate your manifest the sympathy of our churches with you, and gradually affect the majority, if not the Pastor.

That is all that is in the power of an ^{aparte} council. The ^{aparte} council is an admirable, indispensable feature of our system. But it must be employed with great circumspection, or the reaction will be harmful to our cause.

I trust the Council will immediately after organizing, appoint a committee of three of their most eminent members to wait on the Pastor, if not the Senior Deacons also, and request them to make it a mutual Council.

My Dear Brother,

After more than a years machinations, the corrupt clique whose iniquities I have been obliged to allude to in my monthly reports to A. G. C. fancy that they have found a hold on me; and a gross "charge" resting on false & frivolous ferred by my L. C. here, and I am in arrest!

What I ask now is a fair trial; and

Dear Brother.

I am now with the Y. M. C. A. of this place.

A young association, weak numerically, poor financially, but strong in hope and faith.

I have been repeatedly asked "is it possible to get Gen.
Howard when he comes North again to come out to Waltham and give us a talk?"

And so I write to see if when you come North again if you will accept my invitation to come out here, stop at my house and speak to us as an association or as Christian people or as a community on a religious, educational or national subject. I'd free social talk with the people.

Perhaps this may be asking too much.
But we should delight to see you here.
I have spoken in our meetings in church and association of your deep interest in the work.

If you will come we will give you a "rousing" meeting.

I know your heart would cheerfully respond, if time and strength will admit, I pray may be given you.

This is a strong Unitarian & Universalist section, and we are to bring all the strength possible to stimulate Christians to activity.
Bro. Duncanson came last year and did much good.

If you are going when in Boston this season I trust it will be possible for you to see your way clear to come out.

Washington
Oct. 11th 1868 -

Gen. O. O. Howard,

Sir,

Having had, during the past three years many opportunities of knowing your kindness and ready sympathy with those who are in trouble, I feel encouraged to apply to you now, in mine.

My husband was in the employ of the Bureau until August last, when, in consequence of the reduction of force then made, he was discharged. - Since then he has been doing nothing, and all his efforts to obtain employment have been fruitless.

I have taught in the colored schools here for more than three years - but I have worked very hard, and my health is completely broken down. And if I cannot have the medical care and the medicines I need, it is not probable that I shall live many months—I was in New York under the care of a physician when Mr. Disbrow was discharged, and was not expecting to teach this winter, as I am really too ill to do so— but "necessity knows no law", so I returned only half cured, and went into school again— My salary is not sufficient to support us— and I have not a dollar to spare for the medicines and comforts that I need—

I had thought that I was assigned to the perfect before me— but we all cling to life, and I cannot give up without making one more effort—

Is there not something that you could give Mr. Disbrow to do—he will work faithfully, as he always has done for the Bureau, — anything whatever — so as to relieve me, even temporarily, from this heavy burden that is weighing me down to the grave before my time — If you should desire confirmation of what I have said. Mr. Kimball can give it.

Very Respectfully

E. H. Dibron

I have the honor to enclose two papers which will explain themselves—

Genl. Brown is absent. He understands, and I believe, approves the application for a little present aid to the Normal School, but I have not asked his official endorsement, because I inferred from your remarks, when I was in Washington, that the ready money we might need would come from some other funds than those in his hands, or in other words that I would look to you for it.

Genl O. O. Howard

Dear Genl.

I wrote you some two year ago about applying for a Brevet Brig. Genl.
But I could not find, (and cannot now) any Brigade Commander, that I was under.
I had let the matter drop, not caring much about it. But recently, Judge Russell, Collector of the Customs, Dr Hitchcock, one of our best citizens & leading Republican & some of our leading merchants, are anxious to have me Brevetted. And I write this as much to satisfy them as for myself.

I was Lieut Col. Comd'g from Oct 29, 1865, until our troops left Atlanta for the Sea. not having men enough to be mustered in, Genl A. B. Woodward, who was wounded Oct 29, 65 in the belly, was made a Brigadier and after the war was Brevetted Maj Genl.
I always thought, he had enough, while I got nothing. but came out of the service as used up soldier

I hold the position of Wreight & Gausman in the Custom House, and the father of the Town of Medford two years

Genl Banks will give all the assistance in his power. and I am sure Senators Wilson & Sumner will do the same.

I can also give the names of many of our leading Merchants in Boston.

There are a great many Brit Brigades about here. who saw little or no service. and I really feel about some of them.

I write you, because you know as much of me as any one I know of, and know that now as in the war you are a good friend to me.
