My dear Gen

I am very sorry that I did not see Mr. Robinson last evening when he was at my house - Dr. Merce told me that he had quite a long conversation with him, but to no practical purpose - I am very much obliged to you for remembering my application some time since, I shall hope in this instance you will have had it in your power to transfer two fids, instead of one - I rode out to Sligo Bay before last and spent several hours, and was glad to see how nicely the railroad work was progressing, it told me just plainly in my lay - they come to join from my ground to the railroad - much nearer

Gen. O. Howard,

Dear Sir,

You will remember our brief interview in the study of Judge Harris, my wishes, your impression.

I understood you to invite correspondence that you may know more of me. To this end, I will be more explicit.

I trust my leading desire is, to serve my Master. If He has a field for me, I want it. I use means, put myself in the way, leave results to Him.

I claim no place as a politician, then I have done some service for the Union in N.S.P. I claim nothing for military service.

 Peace & home guard have their sacrifices. I was lame, & could not go, but I trained young men for war & sent them in by scores at no small sacrifice.

Now, if God will, I must have a hand, as I have a heart, in the great work of redeeming the South.
 And the School master can do it cheaper & better than any one else. You, as a New Englander, know this.

You want teachers who have been successful, who have had large experience, who are ripe
 in years & full of faith, zeal & energy, to manage the work.

I have a simple record of 25 years of successful work as an educator, having taught or supervised every grade of N.E. Schools,
And I am still studying to do better.

I have taught Academies in N.H.
14 years, High Schools in Mass. & N.H. 5 years, the rest of the time about 6 years, I have been editing Educational journals, Conducting Teachers Institutes, and Supervising Schools. Three of these years I was Commissioner of Schools in N.H., lecturing, visiting, &c.

Dartmouth is my Alma Mater.

Now, what I prefer is to be located in a Normal School or School Superintendency, with such outside work as I could do

who have needed, in lecturing, collecting educational facts, writing &c.

For location, I should prefer a home favorable to pulmonary diseases & not unfavorable to the tendencies, I owe this to my family.

My own health is very vigorous.

I would like to begin in the autumn or winter. I have a contract here till July 1. I have invitations to conduct Institutes in N.E. & N.W.
States after that.

My pay, in justice to my family,
must not be less than $2000,- or $3000. per annum.

I can refer to Rev. Dr. Harris, Providence,
Rev. Dr. Todd, Pittsfield, Mass., Rev. Dr. Wallcut, Manchester, N.H., - to N.H. Senators & Reps. in Congress, & to many educators & others.

Yours truly,

General O. O. Howard,

My worthy friend:

You have been often in my thoughts since I returned, and I cannot tell you how much I enjoyed your kind hospitalities and the Christian influences of your home. From the time I first met you on the Battle-field of Gettysburg, I have had for you more than an ordinary regard; my recent intercourse with you in your own family has very much increased this feeling of attachment, and my appreciation of the valuable services you have rendered your country. I thank God that you have lived, and have been permitted to accomplish so much good in the world. May your life be long spared for usefulness to your fellow men, for the advancement of Christ's Kingdom

on the earth!

I shall always regard my visit to your pleasant home with deep interest, and shall be glad of an opportunity to reciprocate your kind attentions. Remember me most kindly to Mrs Howard and the children, whose bright faces are all regards, also, to Gen. Whittlesey

Hoping to have the pleasure of a visit from you, next September,

your happiness and continued usefulness,

THE DEAD SOLDIERS OF THE UNION ARMY—
PROGRAMME FOR "COMMEMORATION DAY."

A meeting of delegates from all the posts of the Grand Army of the Republic in the city was held on Tuesday evening at the rooms of Post Cameron, No. 79, for the purposes of taking action relative to the ceremonies to be observed on "Commemoration Day." Sunday, May 30, when floral offerings will be placed on the graves of Union soldiers and sailors. As it would be impossible to go to all the cemeteries, the Committee decided upon Cypress Hill Burial Ground, Brooklyn, as the scene of the impressive ceremony. After some discussion it was agreed that the procession should assemble on the east side of Washington-square, at 9 o'clock Sunday morning, the Posts to take precedence in accordance with the rank of their Post Commanders: the Senior Commander on the right, the next Senior on the left, &c., the entire column to be formed as follows: Military on the right of the line, carriages containing the speakers of the day, invited guests, &c.; civil officers, and members of the staff of the National Department Headquarters; a monument, surrounded by a guard of honor, composed of one-armed soldiers; wagons containing floral contributions; the Grand Army of the Republic, closing with such civil societies as may join the procession, to be arranged by the Grand-Marshal, Col. Levin Crandell. At 10 a. m. the column will move down Broadway to Fulton-st., to Fulton Ferry. On the Brooklyn side, those on foot will take the street-cars to Cypress Hill Cemetery. Arrived at the grounds, a dirge will be played, followed by a prayer by the Rev. Edward P. Smith, to be succeeded by singing. Introductory remarks will be made by Gen. Daniel E. Sickles, and the formal address will then be delivered by Col. E. B. Lansing of Auburn, N. Y., Vice Grand Commander Department of New-York. A poem is also to be read after which Gen. O. O. Howard will deliver an oration, the decoration of the graves will follow, and the benediction will bring the exercises in the Cemetery to a close. In the evening services will be held at some public hall not yet decided upon, conducted in the following manner: Prayer, opening hymn, introductory, Gen. Sickles, music, memorial sermon probably by Dr. Bellows, music, closing hymn, benediction. For the evening ceremonies tickets will be sold at 50 cents.

DECORATING SOLDIERS' GRAVES—A PROTEST.

Rev. Dr. Chester offered a resolution to the effect that while the Assembly fully sympathize in the touching tribute that is to be paid by the Grand Army of the Republic in decorating the soldiers' graves with floral offerings on Sunday, the 30th instant, they at the same time enter their earnest protest against the desecration of the Sabbath for that purpose, and recommend the proper authorities to change the day for holding the interesting ceremony from Sunday to Saturday, the 29th instant. The resolution was adopted unanimously, and a committee consisting of Rev. Dr. Humphrey, Rev. Mr. Childlaw and Mr. Starr, was appointed to carry out the spirit of the resolution.

The Assembly then adjourned to Monday morning.

General,

We observe with regret that the ceremonies of decorating the graves of our fallen soldiers are appointed in this city for Sunday 2nd inst.

It is only with extreme difficulty that the quiet & good order of the Sabbath is maintained here against a growing tendency to make it a day of noisy parades in connection with military & other funerals. How disastrous a precedent the proposed celebration will establish, you will see by the accompanying programme.

In Washington, Brooklyn, Cincinnati &c, the ceremonies are to take place on Saturday & Monday.

SUNDAY PROCESSION

OF THE

GERMAN ROMAN CATHOLIC CENTRAL UNION.

A convention of the "GERMAN ROMAN CATHOLIC CENTRAL UNION," recently held in this city, was inaugurated by a grand procession, continuing its march from early in the morning till noon, on the Sabbath, May 31st.

This procession, as represented by the public papers, was composed of several thousand persons, embracing delegates from most of the large cities in the United States. It was an imposing pageant, with several military companies as an escort, with bands of music, and numerous banners. The procession started from Third Street, and made a circuit of nearly one third of the city, marching several miles, and through more than twenty of the principal streets and avenues. Great crowds were attracted to the line of march. Churches and Sunday-schools on the route were disturbed in their worship, and in some cases had to suspend their services on account of the noise in the streets. Many hundreds of persons on their way to their respective churches were stopped in consequence of the obstruction, and were detained, in some instances, at least half an hour by the procession.

Our citizens have never before been compelled to witness such a glaring encroachment upon the quietude and sanctity of the Sabbath day. Even during the exigencies of the late war the Mayor and Common Council, in compliance with the request of citizens, decided against the public reception of returning regiments on Sunday, and in a communication upon the subject said:

"We fully agree with you that a due observance of law, as well as sanitary, social, moral, and religious considerations, forbid all public invasions of the quietude and sanctity of the Sabbath, except in cases where the public safety or other exigency demands it."

There was no such exigency in this case. The grand pageant might as well have taken place on any other day.

The NEW YORK SABBATH COMMITTEE, sustained by the friends of good order and by the public press, have for many years made efforts to abate some of the more flagrant forms of Sabbath desecration, and they deem it to be their duty, on behalf of those whom they represent, publicly and earnestly to protest against this new form of invasion of the Lord's Day.

The employment of Sunday for public pageants with bands of music, and the noisy accompaniments of a great procession, is a direct infringement upon the feelings and rights of Christian households and congregations, and contravenes the recognized uses and associations of our American Sabbath. And every community has an equal right to the moral safeguards which the Sabbath brings.

In a case before the Supreme Court, in 1861, where it was urged that a person had a right to use the Sabbath as a day for innocent recreation, Judge WM. F. ALLEN, in delivering the opinion of the Court, said, "That is not innocent which tends to interrupt the quiet of the worship of the Sabbath, and which grievously offends the moral sense of the community."

We would respectfully represent to the City Authorities and Police Department, as well as to all who have participated in this breach of the quiet and peace of the Sabbath day, that the disturbance of public worship, and the obstructing of the free passage in any street to a place of worship on Sunday, is a violation of our laws, and should not be allowed hereafter.
