Dear Sir

I must again take the liberty to recommend to your favourable notice the bearer of this Lewis S. Smith he is a young man who has been employed as assistant-messenger to the House of Reps, and so far as I know, is a very deserving youth. I have always found him honest, sober, and industrious, and is desirous of entering your University. He will come to you endorsed by the Hon Mr. Sims of Savannah, and also by the Hon. J. Porter from the same City. Any service you may do him will be appreciated, and considered by me, as a personal favor to

Dear Sir:

I wrote you a letter asking for an endorsement some two weeks since, but have since learned that you had left town.

The managers of the Industrial Home School have offered me the position of General Supt. of the Institution, the offer was unsolicited by me. I have entered temporarily upon the duties of the position.

More funds will have to be raised and the institution enlarged I am seeing some of our prominent citizens and endeavoring to get them to attend a meeting on next monday evening at the lecture room of the Young Men's Christian Association building if you are in the city the managers would very much like to have you attend the meeting. it will help the matter General if you will write us a good letter if you cannot be present and the managers are strangers to me if you would write me a letter of endorsing me it will help. This is a good work, and as I am in want of employment will suit me in every way, and give me an opportunity to show that I do not lack energy. If you write the letters please send them

VERY SAD.—R. E. Pattison, D. D., sends us this question: "What must be the piety of those colored churches whose preachers never read and cannot read to them a chapter in the Bible? I heard one such preach a few Sabbaths since who did not even open the Bible."

AMERICAN BAPTIST HOME MISSION SOCIETY,

Room 12,
No. 39 Park Row, New York, Oct. 26, 1870

For Freedmen's Education and Southern Work, Address, Rev. JAMES B. SIMMONS, Cor. Sec'y.

Maj. Gen. O. O. Howard
Washington D. C.

My Dear Sir: I heard you with delight last evening ^{in Brooklyn}. Your speech strengthened me. My wife said it seemed to her that the speeches grew better & better to the end.

I did not deem it proper to speak to you at the close, about the enclosed ^{letter} from Gen. Balloch under date of the 20th.

If it is indeed so, I am in trouble. There surely must be some mistake. There are ^{still} due from the Bureau to our Schools, sums as follows

- (1) For New Orleans (Pelaud Univ'y) $25.000 minus perhaps $575. ———
- (2) ^{OVER.} For Augusta Ga. ——— 5.000
- (3) For Raleigh N. C. ——— 3.000

All these sums you have as—

THE HALF-MILLION FREEDMAN'S FUND.

GOD makes us to hear the pleading voices of four millions in the South, and of the uncounted millions of Africa beyond, who need, above all things, a well-trained ministry of their own race to guide them heavenward. Hence the Home Mission Society determined at its late Anniversary:

FIRST, to attempt the founding and endowing of one first-class training school for preachers and pious teachers in each Southern State.

SECOND, to enter upon the raising of a permanent fund of $500,000 for the purpose, to be expended in grounds, buildings, endowments of teacherships and scholarships, and in the purchase of libraries and apparatus—the endowment fund to be kept separate from the moneys raised for the ordinary running expenses of the schools, and carefully invested, the interest only to be used.

THIRD, to employ all proper means to attach the hearts of the colored people to these schools as rapidly as possible—assuring them in each State that the school is theirs, that they should assist in its management, send to it their pious youth and adults who desire to preach or teach, and contribute to its support.

At least $100,000 of the $500,000 named are already secured and invested in valuable school properties in the Southern States.

Another denomination, that, before the war, had scarce a church among the colored people of the South, is asking for half a million for this freedmen's work in one year! How modest then is our request.

FIFTY DOLLARS supplies plain food for one colored student for one year. If we had 5,000 fifties, we could easily have five thousand students. The interest of $1,000 supports one student perpetually. A Church, a Sabbath School, a Bible Class, or an individual can easily raise $50. Let alms and prayers go together. Inasmuch as ye do it unto one of the least of these, ye do it to Jesus. You would not deny Jesus were He here.

Drafts should be made payable simply to the order of the AMERICAN BAPTIST HOME MISSION SOCIETY.

JAMES B. SIMMONS, Cor. Secretary,

Room 12, No. 39 Park Row, New York City

Be sure to write "For Freedman's Fund." If not, it goes to the general work of the Society.

Form of Bequest.

If you would help these poor friends of Christ after you reach heaven, say in your will:

"I give and bequeath to the American Baptist Home Mission Society..... dollars for the Freedman's Fund of said Society."

Three witnesses should state: "We witness to this instrument, consisting of one sheet [or two], as the last will and testament of _____, by his [or her] request, in his [or her] presence, and in presence of each other."

Sure as we should have. At all these points we have raised & actually expended, corresponding sums much larger than the above named amounts.

We expected to have to wait a little for the remaining $3000. for Raleigh. But we are sure, that we have not one scrap from you to indicate that we could not go right on with our work at N. Orleans & Augusta, and send in our vouchers.

We lack a building at both those points. We have not even a roof at either point. We have teachers under appointment at both places. At N. Orleans we paid in Cash, as

Berea College Ky,

Oct. 28. 1870,

Gen. O. O. Howard,

Dear Bro,

Please give us your private ear a moment. In anticipation of receiving money from the Bureau for our Ladies Hall; and with the understanding from you, that we could receive installments, from time to time, as the work went on, we made contracts for materials to the amount of over $2,000; which materials are already delivered. Five weeks ago we forwarded vouchers to Gen. Runkle, in due form, furnished by him, for about $2,000; and, by dint of much borrowing, have succeeded in satisfying our creditors thus far, hoping every day, for three weeks, to receive the money.

Yesterday we received from Gen.

Rumple, a confidential note, stating, that owing to unforeseen circumstances, the Bureau subscription to Berea College cannot be paid before the last of December, and stating that any publicity of the matter might work a forfeiture of the whole subscription.

Now, if you can, without danger, will you not tell us, or me, what the trouble is, and whether we may, with certainty rely upon the subscription of $2,000; and whether nothing can be done to relieve our present embarrassment.

We are collecting some on other subscriptions; but our plans embraced these collections, as well as the $2,000 expected from the Bureau. The truth is we are seriously embarrassed, and it is very difficult to borrow.

I am sorry to press our wants upon your over-burdened mind; but perhaps a word from you would relieve us.

Please let us hear from you very soon. The school is prospering.

Yours truly,

E. H. Fairchild,

P.S. We are not able to treat our creditors with our usual frankness, if we are obliged to conceal the reason why we need to borrow money.

Dearest

I have written you for a few days from lack of a favorable place to write - Hoping to gain sympathy & aid as well as do good in seed-sowing. I made Sunday a very busy day. Before church I went to Miss Remondin's Mission School on the street gathered principally from the Germans and addressed them at the close of their session. Then I had the great pleasure of listening to Rev. Ben Bushnell whom I have long wished to hear in the morning on "The Throne of God & the Lamb" and in the evening on "death once for all & after death the judgment" I must not forget to tell you about this odd man & his discourses when I get home. After dinner I was with Capt. Sweeney first to the Bethel where Mr Bell is superintendent and addressed the children a fine large school upon a personal saviour - then while they were going on with their exercises, we stepped below & found a large class of our a hundred, I should think

Sailors and women sitting separately - a tall one armed soldier was the teacher - He jumped up & greeted me heartily & said he lost his arm at Williamsburg & I at Fairbanks - After a few words with these people - I went with our good brother Edmund to his own school of perhaps a thousand children in Mr Beecher's lecture-room - soon I was called upon suddenly to open by prayer - and afterwards to say something on "Stand up for Jesus" which I did - The Rev Burdington's carriage stood at the door & his son for driver took me to his church where after a pleasant introduction he introduced me to his people - I spoke by a previous appointment - His house was quite full - Mr. Sloan & his ~~son~~ family were present - after service I went to speak with him - I had called at his house before - they wished me to dine with them yesterday. This I did - At his house he has two fine children, his brother seems to be a constant influence of democratic politicians - I must tell you more about them (his family) when I get home - Sloan is not yet much of a "democrat" and many republicans will vote for him - Mrs Buck & Miss Aneline seemed disappointed that you could not come - yet they appreciated the reason - I found you could not - I hope your journey to Baltimore did not tax you too much.

Today is Tuesday & people hope the children are going to think of him today - I made a little headway yesterday - It is hard work & cross-barring to do this - The presence of Brother Rankin aids me very much even if he only ^{sits} prays & does not speak about. I do hope Walter is getting better - Harry will be so big that I shall hardly know him - I shall go Saturday to Edinboro & Monday to Birmingham A.B. (des. volente) Tuesday at Orange (Western N. lobby society) & Wednesday to Lawrence. You will need money - Col. Eaton will supply you - & hope Mrs Wilkin sold her house - much love to all the children and a great deal to your own dear self.

Your loving husband
Otis
