My dear General;

I have taken pains to get at the case you put me and tried that the gentleman you inquire about - would not be satisfying in the score of religious character & belief, & that he has not a facility in dealing with men.

In his profession he seems to be highly regarded. I am glad to be able to do you this service; but I know how important it is to have the right men in your Institution

I have just received your letter of the 14th inst. and am glad to hear that you are still in the land of the living. I have not time to write you more than a few lines at present, but I will write you again in a few days.

I am, my dear friend, ever yours,

My dear General

I am sorry to trouble you again, but a message received to day makes absolutely necessary for me to sail for England on Wednesday next.

Will you have the kindness to favor me with such a letter as in your judgment would be of service to me.

If you know Minister Schenck a letter of introduction to him might not come amiss.

I am told that gentlemen going abroad are sometimes favored with being made bearers of dispatches when such are sent at the time.

of this, of course, I know nothing. As I am going in order to enforce certain articles of the Contract for the sale of the Coal Property, which have not been fulfilled, any thing that would add weight to my personal or relative standing, would be of service.

Of this, however, you know best. I leave the matter to your kindness & discretion.

Very sincerely yours

Gen. O. O. Howard;
Dear Sir;

I shall be pleased to deliver the address before the Theological Department of the Howard University, as indicated in your kind invitation. But it is important that I should know just what is expected of me. Will there be other exercises on the same evening, preceding the delivery of my address. The length and character of my address must depend upon the place it is to occupy, and in the three letters which I have received, no one has told me definitely, whether, as in the customary addresses before students at Theological Seminaries, the speaker has an evening to himself; or whether he is only ^{to} tip off the closing exercises to a wearied audience. I inferred the latter from Mr. Reeve's letter. Tell him that I shall be content with payment of my expenses to and from Washington, but would suggest that it would be cheaper to send for a man nearer home.

Yours truly

Major Gen. O. O. Howard,

Dear Sir,

Apart from the multiplicity of your responsible official duties, will you be kind enough to permit an old man, and an old soldier, to claim your attention for a few moments? This favor, I would not presume to ask at your hands, if I were not well acquainted, not only with your distinguished character as a military officer, but your generous, kind and humane principles as a man, Possessing this knowledge as I do, in connection with the many benefits you ^{have} rendered Union Soldiers has induced me to apply to you for Council in my case, which is simply as follows. I am a native of Maryland, but enlisted in the 50th year of my age, on the 4th day of September 1862. in Co D 19th Reg. Wisconsin Volunteers, and was honorable discharged at Richmond^{va}, on the 8th of August 1865, after serving (I believe faithfully) for nearly 3 years, I had two sons with me in the Volunteer Service, and a son in law, a Doctor in the Regular Army.

I never received any bounty from any source except two hundred dollars, one hundred of which, was paid me, when discharged from the army, the other one hundred, I received by an act of Congress, passed some two years after the war closed.

Since I rec^d my last bounty, I have lost or mislaid my discharge and my main object in addressing you this letter, is to solicit your aid and influ-ence (if possible) in obtaining an other.

I am now nearly 60 years of age (and although I have seen much better days) I regret to say, I am poor, very poor indeed, out of employment, and no means of support, except some little assistance from a destitute son who is and is also poor, of your name

General Howard, in any way, under me any assistance, I will be ever grateful to you for your kindness?

Hoping you may take my Case into favorable Consideration and grant me a response,

I am very respectfully and truly yours

Wm. A. Hop King

No 473 New York Avenue
Washington, D.C.

P.S. I believe I am not entitled to any more bounty that I know of, but I am entitled to 160 acres of land, which if I could get, would help me a great deal in my destitute situation,
W.A.H.

Major Gen. Howard

Dear Sir

When I last wrote you I supposed I had obtained a place in the Post-Office as I had been sworn in as a letter carrier to fill a man's place who was reported sick at the time but was afterwards discharged on account of his intemperate habits.

Another man however, from Waterville came along with an appointment and took his route (here on the hill) but only carried twelve days when he resigned and I went on again but still they did not give me the appointment but have given it to another man. Now it seems to me that as I am acquainted here on the hill that I ought to have the first chance. The young man who is carrying now lives at the upper part of the city and as the carrier up there is soon to leave I should suppose they would transfer him to that route.

If you can render me any further assistance I would be under still further obligations to you.

Yours respectfully
E. F. Waite.

BROOKLYN, January 17th, 1872.

To the Rev. Henry Powers :

Dear Sir :

Having made all necessary arrangements for the commencement at the Academy of Music, on the first Sunday of February, of a series of free Sunday evening religious services, to which the public are to be cordially invited, and which ought, therefore, to be in every respect both good and popular in their character, we are very desirous of placing such services under your direction, it being understood that you are to act as preacher, with the privilege of asking any other clergyman to aid you whenever you may deem it best to do so. We extend to you this invitation in the full persuasion that, if trusted to your guidance, these projected services will prove to be in their realization all that the people of our city most need and desire in this direction. Should you decide to comply with our request, you can rest assured that everything will be done on our part which can be done to give dignity to this enterprise, and to make your efforts in connection with it of the greatest profit to all who may be reached thereby.

REPLY.

BROOKLYN, January 19th, 1872.

To F. H. Harrison, Esq., Rev. Washington Gladden, E. R. Robertson, Esq., Rev. Edward Eggleston, and others.

Gentlemen :

I have received your letter containing information of the contemplated free religious services at the Academy of Music, and inviting me to take charge of the same. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for the too flattering expressions which it contains of your confidence in my ability and judgement to carry to a happy issue the enterprise which you project, and I gladly accept your invitation, not because I deem myself equal to the task which you have thus imposed upon me—far from it—but because I am in hearty sympathy with you in your desires and purposes, and wish to do all in my power, at whatsoever sacrifice, to aid in their accomplishment.

Therefore, trusting in God and in your promised co-operation, I shall endeavor to make such preparations for these services in every way, as shall be needful in order to attract to them from all classes of our citizens, both the churched and the unchurchd, and cause them to be as you have expressed it "of the greatest profit to all who may be reached thereby."

Very truly yours, in the faith and fellowship of the Gospel ministry.

Dear Cousin,

I received your kind letter of Jan 17th it was awaiting me at Rome when we reached there. We left Paris quite unexpectedly: having a fine opportunity to see something of Italy, we embraced it. You may remember Mr and Mrs Coffin of Richmond, I think you took Tea there with Father and Mother: they came to see us in Paris and as they were going to the parts of Italy, we were most desirous of visiting, we concluded to travel with them: there were three of us, three of Mr C's family and a Cincinnati lady who left Paris together and travelled together nearly five weeks.
We went first to Turin, from the to Milan, from it to Venice, thence to Florence, Rome and Naples. I can not begin to tell you how much we enjoyed every part of the journey: of course we went to Pompeii, Herculaneum, Pompeii (it was very active when we made the ascent) and Virgil's tomb: these are all easy excursions from Naples. At Naples our party separated: with the exception of the Cincinnati lady and myself, the party have gone to Syria, Egypt and Palestine: I was very much tempted to go with them, but could not on account of the thirty days horseback riding in Palestine. She & friend and myself returned to Rome, to join Mrs Calvin Prescott and her son from Boston: cousin Sarah & father is living in their house.

I expect to remain with these friends for the present. We go from here to Venice, Trieste, Munich, Vienna, Dresden, Berlin and Brussels: we are thinking of spending a time in Brussels for the advantages it offers for the study of music and French.

Providence has been very kind to me in every respect and I think I appreciate my entire dependence, much more than when in my own home. I have been in places here, where I realized so fully the awful sublimity and grandeur of nature My impressions of Rome were very sad: the city is dirty, unhealthy and so many ruins are to be seen there: then the superstitious of the people is peculiarly sad to me. I hope with the decline of the Pope, the people will be more universally educated.

Venice is a city of decayed palaces.
Milan is remarkable for its beautiful cathedral. Florence is one of the cleanest and most cheerful looking cities in Italy.

Naples is beautifully situated on the bay and is more thoroughly Italian than any city we have visited.
