Dear General;

Since I received your telegram, I have seen the city tax collector, who had the property of Anna White, alias Anna Smith, the woman with you, advertised for sale, under a double tax, as defied by her failure to give in. I have succeeded in getting the Council to reduce it to single tax, and this day paid it with cash. The single tax is $20 & the cost $4, as you will see by the enclosed receipt, which I send you for her. Please remit the amount as stated in your telegram.

She is the sister of a woman I owned during the days of slavery & is I think a very good woman. She contracted a very unfortunate marriage her name was changed to Anna White. Her husband lived with her but a very short time & left her & went back to Carolina & has never I think even visited her since. I suppose on that account she has again assumed her maiden name, Anna Smith. Wishing you much success in your enterprise, I am Having been unable by reason of illness to canvass for subscriptions sufficient to complete the iron railing around the Church, and the time for our separation drawing near: I have chosen this method of endeavoring to raise the amount needed, and at the same time to secure to the patrons a sufficient realization of the value of their contributions, by witnessing the exhibition of the magnificent views of different portions of the Yo-Semite Valley, rambles among the big-tree groves, &c., which Mr. J. M. Hutchings has kindly consented to place before us at a very reasonable rate.

I take the liberty to enclose Two tickets. Should you be pleased to accept them, return the amount in the accompanying envelope, if not, please return the tickets, prior to date of lecture, and much oblige!

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The Yo-Semite Valley presents some of the grandest and most attractive scenery in the world. The stereoscopic views of the most salient points of this great natural wonder, together with the pictures of other California scenery, now on exhibition at Tremont Temple, excite the admiration of all, and renew the pleasant experiences of travelers in that remarkable region.—Boston Evening Transcript, December 22, 1871.

The best photographic views of the Yo Semite Valley, and its surroundings yet given in this City is that presented this week at the Athenaeum. The pictures are graphic illustrations of the beauties of the Valley, and great interest is imparted to the entertainment by the very lucid and intelligent verbal description of the Valley given by Mr. Hutchings, the famous valley guide. Being an educated man his description of the points of interest and his anecdotes of incidents and occurrences in the Valley, together with his religious appreciation of the "Sermons in Stone," which nature has preached to him in this magnificent temple, combine to make the whole entertainment one of the most instructive as well as enjoyable that we have ever had in this City.—Brooklyn, N. Y., Eagle, Jan. 20, 1872.

In less than two hours persons can be taken over land and water through three thousand miles of the most delightful scenery on this continent.

To describe it fairly is impossible; it must be seen and the easiest and most convenient way of doing so is to take the trip with Mr. Hutchings.—Brooklyn, N. Y., Union, January 18, 1872.

The illustrations of the grand scenery of the Yo-Semite are very fine, and one could never tire of looking at them.—Boston Journal, Dec. 28, 1871.

A large and highly select audience braved the storm last evening to see Mr. Hutchings' exhibition of the marvellous scenery of the Yo-Semite Valley and we venture to say are, one and all, highly gratified that they attended.—Boston Daily News, Dec. 20, 1871.

Exhibition of Yo-Semite at Tremont last evening. The audience testified its appreciation of the many beauties of the artistic portion of the entertainment by frequent enthusiastic applause. Mr. Hutchings personal experience is especially interesting.—Boston Post, Dec. 20, 1871.

There has been nothing equal to it since Barnard's great panorama of the Mississippi.—A. B. Hutchinson, Hutchinson Family.

Dear General

I have concluded to put in a bill for extra work done outside of Office hours in 1868 & 1869 I have the time (in hours) worked each month the total of which is 1209 hours.

The work was done in examining & checking off the different Bank statements filling in vouchers & making out ~~and~~ Monthly Pass papers.

I kept the time for the reason that Genl Ballocks intimated to me that he would pay me, I did not press the matter & when I again spoke to him he told me he did not see how he could pay for extra work - I did not stop ~~there~~ ^{as} as the work had to be done & he looked to me to do it - I have ~~not~~ labored more hours than the above outside of office, but kept as record of the time - I have made out the account & sworn to the same shall accept as final your decision

Prof. Gail Howard Esq;
Pres of Howard University.

Respected Sir,

I humbly beg pardon for trespassing on the valuable time of one so fully pre-occupied as yourself; in explanation I plead the urgency of my case, and my earnest, ardent desire to acquire a thorough education; and I feel confident that you will not treat me with indifference.

To be brief, I will introduce myself, I am twenty two years of age, "sans argent" and consequently "sans amis", possessed of an ordinary share of ability, and an insupportable thirst after knowledge; for which I cheerfully make any sacrifice, in fact the limited education I now possess, has only been acquired by a continued practice of the most rigid and persistent self-denial.

But to proceed further, I will relate you a slight sketch of my life during the past five years.

In '67 I shipped aboard "Le Corvette Alexandre Paturet de la Marine d'Haïti" as Ship's clerk a few days out to sea, I was disgusted by the malignity of the Executive Officer, I also incurred the hatred of the Admiral, (white) by refusing to be his servant; and for nine months I endured every indignity, which could possibly be imposed upon any poor mortal in the power of malicious man.

The President, the late lamented Turin, Submarine, noticed me and taking a fancy to me, promoted me to the grade of second class Midshipman; and transferred me to the gun boat, Submarine, where I successfully passed through the intervening grades of Third class Midshipman, Ensign and Lieutenant, which position I held on the occasion of our disastrous departure, a spirited contest of over four tie hours, off Obayama; when we were driven into the harbor of Cape Nagai, and there blockaded, until at last forced to succumb to superior numbers.

After the expiration of our Purities, I returned to New York, and there engaged as copyist in a law office; but receiving no compensation, I was necessitated to seek other employment; unable to procure any, excepting in an menial capacity, I proceeded to Europe.

I at last reached London and there lost everything I possessed in the world, excepting a few sovereigns, I then went to Wales, where I shipped before the mast for Galveston.

In that place I soon exhausted the proceeds of my voyage, and was on the eve of departing for some other place; when I was offered (and I can assure joyfully accepted) a situation as teacher in a private school; which I retained till the inauguration of the present system of Public Free Schools.

I applied, was examined for the second class, rec'd a corresponding certificate; and was assigned to this place, as Prim. of West School no 3. (115 scholars). at a salary of seventy dollars per month, which was subsequently reduced to seventy five.

Situated as I am in this isolated portion of the country, in the midst of the most virulent, unmerciful type of the Southern Negro-hating Ku Klux Democracy: there is not of course, the remotest possibility of remaining here, and successfully prosecuting my studies.

Even if I attained any proficiency, I could not pass the Bar. They would have recourse to some ruse to exclude me.

My Mother applied to several of the leading lawyers of Syracuse, and was informed that it would compromise them too much. One a Republican, and an old friend of the family's, recommended her to apply to you and seek the usual directions.

You will perceive from the above that I have used every exertion to educate myself. Now as "le d'œuvre" I appeal to you, feeling assured that one, so philanthropic as yourself, will not turn a deaf ear to my entreaties,

I do not ask pecuniary aid, I only solicit your influence (if deemed worthy) to procure me a situation, where I will receive sufficient compensation, to partially defray my expenses in the University.

I can furnish unexceptionable references from the Board of Education, in this state, in relation to sobriety, morality and good deportment: as to qualifications, you of course are the best judge. I will also, if necessary procure letters of introduction from T. S. Titus, Esq. of New York, ^{Pres} M. H. G. and others of Syracuse.

In conclusion I respectfully pray you to accede to my entreaties? And I will assure you that you will find me a diligent and indefatigable, though not an apt Student.

Please answer at your earliest convenience, and inform me if you can receive me on those terms?

If you can not possibly do anything for me?
Please inform me of your most favorable conditions? or as to what is necessary to secure a scholarship in the University? Please transmit full instructions? Until then I remain in a state of anxious suspense, as time is too precious to throw away here.
Sincerely hoping that I have not encroached upon your valuable time. I conclude. Very respectfully, Your Obedt Servt.

Copy of Instructions

139

Washington D. C., Feb. 29th 1872.

Sir:

On the 21st July 1871, Vincent Colyer Esq., Secretary of the Board of Indian Commissioners, was directed to proceed to New Mexico and Arizona Territories, to take such action, as, in his judgement, might be deemed wisest for locating the nomadic tribes of Indians of those territories upon suitable reservations; bringing them under the control of the Indian Department, and supplying them with the necessary subsistence, clothing, and whatever else might be deemed necessary.

He was invested with full powers to be exercised according to his discretion in carrying into effect the above objects, and was directed to report, from time to time, to the Secretary of the Interior, his action and progress. On pages, from 32 to 86 inclusive, in the "Third Annual Report of the Board of Indian Commissioners" (see copy herewith), will be found the reports made by Mr. Colyer upon these matters.

On the 7th November 1871, I, after receiving said reports, addressed to the President of the United States a communication, a copy of which will be found in volume of "Report", above referred to, p. p. 83. 84. wherein the policy of the Government, in reference to the Indians in Arizona and New Mexico, is distinctly set forth.

This policy was approved by the President and Secretary of War and instructions were given, as I understand, to the Officers of the War Department to carry out that policy in the treatment of said Indians, and to cooperate with this Department in so doing.

Circumstances have recently arisen, creating apprehensions that hostilities may be renewed between the Indians and the military authorities, whereby the policy, thus inaugurated, is in danger of being defeated.

To prevent, if possible the occurrence of such a result and to maintain peace and insure the execution of the policy of the Government, as indicated in the letter to the President, before referred to you are hereby authorized and requested to proceed to the territories of Arizona and New Mexico, and there take such action as, in your judgment, may be deemed best for the purpose of preserving peace with the Indians in these territories.

It is especially desired that such Indians be induced to settle and remain permanently upon reservations; that they cease, entirely, their nomadic habits and their practices of injustice, and cruelty ^{towards} ~~against~~ the Whites, and that the Whites be induced, if possible to treat the Indians with humanity, justice and forbearance, and that the military authorities be fully impressed with the necessity of inducing both Whites and Indians to conform to the wishes of the Government, as herein expressed.

The Department invests you with full powers and a general discretion, to be exercised, as your own good judgment may dictate.

state, in carrying into effect its views in relation to these Indians, and you are requested to report, from time to time, to the Secretary of the Interior your progress and action under this authority.

You are further requested to consider the propriety of inducing the nomadic tribes of Arizona to unite and accept a reservation further East, in the Territory of New Mexico, where they may be more readily reached by the efforts of the Government, and of philanthropic citizens, in the work of providing for their physical wants, and with a view to promoting their civilization.

The great object of the Government is: First - To preserve peace between the U.S. and these as well as all other tribes of Indians.

Second - To induce them to abandon their present habits of life, and go upon permanent reservations, and be placed under the influences of education and Christian civilization. You will therefore spare no effort in your power to induce the Indians to conform to these wishes of the Government, assuring them of its full protection and assistance so long as they obey its wishes and comply with its requirements.

You will be authorized to employ a clerk, whose expenses and compensation will be paid by the Office of Indian Affairs.

Very respectfully,
