Department of the Interior,

OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,

Washington, D. C., December 1873.

My Dear General

I cannot tell you how sorry I was on account of the very unnecessary trouble I was the means of causing you. I hope you don't lay it to any intention on my part to do anything that would cause you the least trouble. It was purely heedlessness and thoughtlessness on my part. In fact I did not think at the time what I was doing and then did not fully understand the relations between the Comr. of Indian Affairs and Mr. Welsh.

The way it happened was this; I was talking with one of the Clerks in this office concerning the absence of Mr. Irwin, and made the re mark that you made. My reasons were asked with assurance and confidence, and like a foolish fellow I told it and then this young man told somebody else and then it got to Mr. Irwin.

I can only say that you are the last one in the world that I would try to injure and assure you of my sincere sorrow.

It seems hard to have that added to your troubles, just at this time especially, when you have so much to worry you.

It is really very strange that <sup>you</sup> cannot say anything in the of one of your best friends, without its going any farther, and I assure you if I had thought but for one moment I should never have told it.

Hoping that you will forgive this indiscretion on my part I am Yours Very Truly
Eamus B. Rankin.

Dear Friends
On behalf of the Ladies Union Mission School Association, I am deputed, as its Secretary, to express to you the deep concern of its members in the spiritual welfare of all at this Post, and to inform you of the plan proposed by the Association, whereby a religious interest may be awakened and maintained through a concert of action in the various Military Posts of the Army. As our name "Union" implies we are a Society composed of members of all the Evangelical churches, associated together in working for our common Lord and Master, and seeking to do good in a very humble manner by aiding in establishing schools in the frontier states and territories of our country & helping by contributions of books, clothing &c, those already established. Some of our members connected with the Army have represented to us the need that exists at most if not all of the Military Posts, of schools for the children of the soldiers, both religious & secular, and of Industrial schools, where their wives and daughters may be instructed in sewing and other branches of household industry. The children of the white settlers near the frontier Posts, and those of the Mexican and Indian population might be gathered into these schools. And thus a real Mission work be done. We are persuaded that at most of the Military Posts there are Christian women who would gladly undertake such work for the Lord's dear sake, and to them we would offer our sympathy and help. The "United States Military Post Library Association" has most kindly offered us to send free of expense on our part, anything necessary for the use of such schools, and we will therefore be glad to send to those who may desire them, books for secular and Sunday schools, maps, picture cards, and any aids of that kind that we can procure, also materials for sewing in the Industrial School; and we will have the clothing cut out if desired.

We <sup>invite</sup> ~~thank~~ the ladies of this Post, as well as others to become members of our Society by the payment of the Annual Fee of one dollar to our Treasurer, Mr James B. Dear Father

I received your note enclosing $110.00. yesterday. As we had no recitations from Wednesday noon to the end of the week, I went home with a former member of our class to New York.
Atterbury is his name & some relation to Mr. Wm E. Dodge.
He left <sup>College</sup> because his eyes gave out.
I called at Mr. Dodge Sr. & Jr.
Mrs. Dodge Jr. is in mourning for her father. I also went to see Mrs. Creatorer, Mr. As Pratt's sister & her studio, & enjoyed my visit very much. I expect now to go up to Vassar & see Grace, though perhaps I cannot obtain permission, on acct. of the nearness of time to this Thanksgiving Holiday - Dating this letter reminds me that this is Jamie's birth day.

Tell him I remember it. but am sorry I have no present to send. I hope mother is better & all well by the time you receive this. Give my love

Dear Sir your of the 25th 1873 this moment received, and I hasten to answer.

Genl Balloch wrote me under date of 21st March 1873. I answered March 29th 73. My letter covers all points.

All Books & papers, with the exception of my receipt Books, which I consider private documents, were transferred to Col C. C. Reman my successor, these books give the full amount of business done by me - Col Reman has not transferred them over to the Adjutant Genl's office, he should have them in his possession as I made enquiry at the office of the Major Disbursing Officer at this city, and was told that no books nor whatever papers have ever been received by transfer to him.

I would then ask to refer to that letter of mine to Genl Balloch. If at any time it was desirable to you to obtain any further informations, I would do my best to furnish them to you.

I remain, General, Very Respectfully

Permit me to invite your attention to some ships of the one, of your letter to Gen. Sherman.

I should dislike to see the errors in print. At the bottom of the first page, speaking of the work of the Bureau your copyist makes you say that it developed into "erroneous proportions".
You doubtless wrote enormous.

Some on the next to the last made to "desire to preserve an in ~~corrected~~ record". You doubtless wrote irreparable.

On the ~~last~~ line, of the letter you doubtless wrote "belongs".
The copy omits the s.

These matters are of no account as in my copy. But if a like copy, and not your own one was sent to Gen. S. I think you will want to correct it. Pardon

Gen. D. Howard U. S. A.

Respected Friend,

Delivered your kind note to Mr. Vanderbilt on Friday Dec 5th

He desired me to say to you, he was sorry, he could not comply with your request in my regard - I understood him, that hereafter there would not be any more examinations for nine hundred dollars clerkships - Also Asst Sec. Sawyer has the appointing power for a limited number at sixty dollars per month - Gen. Skinner makes his own appointments - Mr. W. think, affairs will be even worse than the present in Mr. McCarter's Bureau of Civil & Eng. We are now 163 only employed three weeks in each month.

See Ladies constantly transferred, for sixty and seventy five dollar positions - some have never gone before the C. S. Board - I have been told it was strong personal influence alone that could obtain a position forthwith.

Allow me to thank you, for your kind efforts in the behalf of the widows & orphan.

Yours Respectfully
Martha Newton Copking

in reply a word with Rowland's letter relived our painful anxiety a little - but we shall be very solicitous until our Heroic Sir is restored in strength -

The letter to Gen. Sherman was good & I approve your action. I should think Seamanworth would be a place of usefulness in the relations of that Department to the Indians - Perhaps, a new Dept could be constructed with Headquarters in Colorado or Indian Territory.
But you will leave all this to the War Dept & Gen.
S. I suppose & take what

(3) Robinson wrote for my terms, & I wrote him - I have brought out Number 4 covering the whole thing - Garrison writes he will compare <sup>occasionally</sup> you will retain Bartlett also. I think as we want something extra & he does it well - If he don't put Long but then, right will dismiss him.

I must push with transmending, every man in there "hard times" or I shall risk the $2500 dollars invested & lose my living. Please energize Leigh & Robinson. Have you got the 100 maps? Someone named for Baltimore - Why not Robinson, to convey the Cong<sup>l</sup> Church - Do you know the Parker?
No give him letter of introduction and let Come without question or complaint - I know that is your way & is soldierly. Capt Wilkinson sent Chicago yesterday & I thought he deplored a little, leaving Washington.

A word or two in the letter to Gen. Sherman I would like to change, if in permit publication -

One place smacked too much of boasting I thought where you recounted being how you faced death - I would rather say "You know what my conduct was in the Campaign & on the field of battle" - merely implying that you did not lack energy or bravery. But this is only a matter of taste -

Now as to my business

Washington D.C.

My dear Genl,

I understand,

if newspaper stories are correct, that you have resigned the presidency of "Howard University." I was in hopes that before you left that I might have obtained an appointment with you as professor of some department - Am afraid that it is too late now.

Do you go back into Army life?
In case you do and the U.S. should go to war with Spain I should like a place on your staff or under you somewhere. Will you remember me? I shall be ready for service whenever wanted.

If you are coming back this season the people of Madison would like to see you and hear from you and I shall be glad to give you an audience for one of your lectures - Will promise that it shall pay you - Mrs. Chase and myself shall endeavor to do our best to make your stay here pleasant - and we, as you know should feel sincere pleasure in entertaining you -

Please let me hear from you and Alice

Yours very sincerely

Dear General;

at one distance from Washington & with the means at one disposal for forming an opinion. A war with Spain seems not improbable. In such an event, should you go into active service & could make me useful on your Staff. please consider me at your service & ready to report at short notice.

I am very respectfully & sincerely Yours etc.

New Orleans Land Dec 10th 1813

Gen<sup>l</sup> Howard, Dear friend.

I take great pleasure, in addressing A few lines to you.

I think it my indispensable duty, to tender to you my humble thanks, for the great favor that you bestowed upon me, when I was about to leave the City of Washington, in the act of spare-ing no pains, to get the money to help me out of the City, on my way home, no greater love hath any man manifested towards me in all my Christian life, but I would wish to say to you, that I had in view, the education of my family in the Strait University of New Orleans, but I am afraid that my two sons that are young ministers, will not be able to accomplish the object, but if I could have received half of the money that is due to me for my labors and expenditures for the freedmen and their children in the South, I could have educated my family, and also, I would give myself to the Strait University for a time, that I might be benefited as a Minister, but my two sons that are engaged in the ministry, and myself are all deprived of the blessing, that we could have enjoyed, if I could have received only one half of my losses, of the eight years services. Therefore dear friend, it is a great pity, that in this Christian age, that a man and his family should do as I and my sons have done in sacrificing so many years of our time, and all we have, and then to be sited as we have been, to sink down in poverty and want, I think it a slang upon the Christian community.

I also wish to say to you, that I only have one son going to the University, inst of four of them, and myself also, therefore I am now discouraged, and I never intend to make another struggle for Education, when struggling thirty years is and miss the mark, I shall now let go. because what I have lost, is too much for one man, I am yours in behalf of the oppressed

Dear Bro

I wish I could have had liberty to publish your letter next week - send that let me have them by next Thursday (18th) if you can -

The saying of Mr. W. H. R. R. R. shows pretty bad to the public & should be met by a succinct counter-statement.
From you I think - showing the facts when not accounted for than or stated so as to mislead - 2nd the difficulties in the case & the impossibility of proving that the more likely to be genuine than

Gen. O. O. Howard.

My dear Bro.

My prayer for you this morning is, that God may be with you, guide you by his own wisdom, shield you by his protection, defeat the machinations of your enemies, and bring forth your righteous (which you have in Christ) clear as the light.

It seems to me that you were never in a more critical condition than now, never so much in the power of your enemies, never so much in need of a sustaining faith in God, never so much in need of the help of prayer as now.

Your enemies have taken from you your defense. The papers which constitute your defense have been taken out of your hands, and been for months in the hands of those whose purpose is to destroy you. Their conduct in the past, the unmitigated falsehoods they have circulated, their falsifying of testimony, leaves no ground for hope that your vouchers and records have been preserved inviolate. Yet God is wiser than your enemies, he can make their wisdom foolishness, and he will do it. Let us trust him implicitly. Shall not the Judge of all the world do right? A more truly Yours most truly, Geo. Whipple.

Dear Brother

The knowledge that you can hardly feel that you have time for family gossip keeps me from writing.

Your note about Lizzie made me feel sad for her. She will be relieved if the care of another little one, but I fear her health will suffer from the turn which affairs took - We are all well as usual - Alice & Dadie at School. Thomas always at play with cars, trucks etc - most of the time of-fparently with his Aunt in Putnam - He & Helen are much alone together & they popular with his party. They will believe or profess to what he does about you. It seems the Senate which Carpenter unjustly abused - Corn & Oats are rising & the people now cheerful after the panic.

Charles has taken all he can carry in the Advance. Pecuniarily, he has run great risk. I hope spring that he may succeed.
If his facility for publishing business was as great as his principles are sound there would be no doubt. Helen joins me in love to you & Lizzie. We have a very blessed home, at which we would gladly welcome you all - Affly. Remond love each other dearly. I have just declined an invitation to preach in Ottawa. I was a candidate. I am content here & mean to be as long as God seems contented with my stay. We are in the midst of a religious temperance campaign & you will see by enclosed that I am busy away from home a day or two each week.

The papers say you have resigned the Pres. of A. V. C. which I believe. They also say you have asked to be retired & then asked to recall your request.

You note me you would ask for active Army duty.
May God guide you every step. Fernando sees
