Dear Sir

I had an interview with Gen. Dandy this morning and he told me that he thought he would not send the Boys up before the river would rise, which will be probably about the middle of May — Now, as I told you I would take a pack-horse with me, I will need some one to assist me, the difference will be the transportation from Portland to the Kittitas Valley, because I may have to take an Indian from there with me. — I think I had better take Charles Chamberlain with me. I leave all this with you, if I wait too long those places will be taken. —

Respected sir

Will you allow an entire stranger to impose on your time and good nature by asking a question.

I am very anxious to procure a letter, or if that is out of the question, a simple signature of the late much respected Genl Phil Kearney to add to a large collection of autographs of military celebrities, and all efforts so far made in this direction have been of no avail. My object in addressing you is to ask if you can help me to the desired treasure and if so would you be willing to give such a letter or signature to one who knows how to properly appreciate the gift. or if for any reason you are not able or willing to supply the want

July 14 1880

Dear General:

I having been waiting from day to day thinking I should have something more definite from Senator Bruce's Committee to write.

The examination of the books of the F. S. & T. Co. shows such bookkeeping as nobody would have a dog on the evidence of. I think every account examined extending for any length of time was found to be full of errors. The check of $31.⁰⁰ about which the telegraphed you was charged up as 3000 odd dollars. But they also found under date of Dec. 19. 1870 a check for $5360 which was entered in your pass book as $53.60. The footings of the Ledger made by a clerk of the name of Heston were copied from the pass book and the ledger columns had not really been footed at all.

Aug. Oct 19. a draft on the 1st Nat Bank for the same amount of $5360 to the order of Paul Smith. which was presumed to be the same transaction because the amount was the same, and Stickney had told them he thought it must have been for the purchase by you of Y.M.C.A. building stock. I saw Paul Smith and reported to the Reports that Smith never sold you any such stock, that he never had had one transaction with you and he could not tell the amount or the time within two years. I made some further subsequent inquiry and presume that if the Check to Paul Smith was yours, it must have been a payment at Dr Rankin's house. If you really gave the Check for the larger amount, it would still leave you over drawn at that time about $2000.

There were two or three other smaller matters in 1872 after your pass books stop. For instance Nov 12 1872. There are several measures of entries which were all traced to some other account, where they properly belonged except one of $261 which they could not trace and does not appear in the Journal and Therefore they think was improperly made.

In absence also of pass books from July 14. 1872 until the close of the afc they could not explain.
Stickney told them, if the afc was not settled as it appeared not to have been they must have the Checks, but they could not find them. I told them that the books showed that your afc was kept by them and not by you and there was Every reason to believe you supposed them to have been correctly kept, and that while their investigation might furnish a reason for the Commissioners to Correspond with you on the Subject, the only thing the Senate Committee. On the sphere of their duties could report was that the books were kept with a looseness that was inexcusable.

I do not think the Committee can on the facts as they are presented make any report that will damage you, and unless they make further developments, it seems to me you do need to say any thing or do any thing on the subject. Senator Bruce has not yet rec'd an answer to ~~your~~ his answered by Dr Bailey

Dear General Howard

Your very kind and sympathetic letter of the 14th brought us great comfort. Dr. Bailey as well as Dr. Gray had cheered us guardedly that morning, but it was more satisfactory to know they had spoken to others for.

Our little darling is now slowly recovering, and our hearts overflow with gratitude to all who have felt and prayed with us, and especially to God through whose continued and great mercy we remain an unbroken family.

I am now attacked with the horrible malady. I presume it will be in a mild form, but it renders continued isolation necessary. I have not dared to tell Mrs. M. yet, for she is already greatly depressed.

Answered by Dr. Bailey

I have two good men idle at Walla Walla who would be of great service to me now, as well as later in preparing for my journey to Chilaw. If you think it proper I would like them ordered down by telegraph. They are Privates Jones and Miller Co. 1st 2nd Inf.

I fear that our imperfect water supply has been the cause of our trouble. The pressure in the pipes is always light, and they are often empty, or rather filled with impure air sucked in through all openings as the water recedes.
Among these openings are the water closet supply pipes, if joined to the same main as they appear to be. However this may be it has not been unusual to find the water offensive as it comes from the cocks. In my opinion something should be done to secure greater pressure in the pipes. Nothing else will insure certainty of flow and pure water.

Accept for yourself and your dear wife our grateful thanks for sympathy manifested and for prayers offered for us in our sneat trial.

Most affectionately

My dear General:

Your cordial offer to do what you can while in Washington to aid me in obtaining a change to an Eastern Station, adds another to the many obligations I am already under to you. During the two years that I have served with you as your Chief Quarters, I have much of official courtesy and many acts of kindness to thank you for. I trust I have performed the duties of my office to your satisfaction. You better than any one I know the conditions in which I found my Department on my arrival here in the Spring of 18- Govt imperfectly supplied.

A. A. G. was ignorant of their duties - the large indebtedness of the Reg Forces has unsettled - and the Credit of the U. S. D. at a low ebb throughout Oregon Washington Territory & Idaho & then, before I had time to get these matters into good shape, the Bannock Outbreak occurred - I think I have now gotten my Dept into my good condition, & that I have done much towards the restoration of the Credit of the U. S. D. in this Dept - This has not been accomplished without a good deal of hard work -

I have now the most urgent personal reasons for desiring if possible an Eastern Station for a time - while I should greatly prefer a Station at no great distance from New York City, I should be glad of a transfer to any part of the Mississippi River, whenever such change can properly be made -

The enclosed printed Memorandum of my Official record shows that a large proportion of my Service during nearly 26 years has been West of the Mississippi & much of it on the Pacific. This being my third tour of duty on this Coast - Perhaps this fact may be considered by the War Dept as sufficient to justify my being now ordered to an Eastern Station -

Wishing you bon voyages &

Gen. and Mrs. O. O. Howard.

Dear friends.

We are already three days late for the Silver wedding at which it would so greatly have pleased us to be present.

The invitation even was two days behind the time. Distance is not yet annihilated.

But we are not too late to thank you heartily for your kind remembrance of us: nor to send you our hearty congratulations, with a prayer to our common Father, for his best blessing on you in the many years which I trust await you here. The reward beyond, - through the grace of Christ - is already assured.

You will, I am sure, be inter-pleased to know that Mrs. Pond has her mother (Mrs. Woodhull) with her this winter, - a young-hearted & delightful Christian lady of 71.

We are quite well. The work goes on, under wright, but not without returns in answer to prayer.

With cordial and fraternal regards, in behalf of Mrs. Pond and myself,

Yours sincerely
Wm C. Pond

Dear Sir

Since seeing you a few weeks since I have taken the pains to look up Chief Joseph's statement as published in the North American Review, and it is nothing more like his statement than day is like dark. but when I tell you his statement was made, to a Mr Barron a representative of the North American Review, afterwards rewritten by A. B. Meacham afterwards rewritten by William H. Ware and you can judge the coloring it got. And beside Meacham talked with these people without my being present. I think they do you a great injustice. And as my brother and I are now getting up a history of the Indian war of 1877. I will not forget to straighten up Joseph's statement. This all calls to mind a remark I made at a gathering in Washington. how they received

The appraiser, (whose office has the appointment of hundreds of subordinates) going elsewhere a special officer came to A. P. while ^{he} was yet confined to his house to ask, as from Sec. Sherman if he would accept the place. A. P. answered yes, and was requested to write to the Secretary accordingly. He did so, and (having been sounded as to his preferences for next President) said to Sec. S. that upon the order of the adm^l he had granted active political service, and continued obedient to the order. He said he was free ~~from~~ at all times to choose upon the great question before us, and took occasion to tell the hon. secretary how highly he had valued the support which his action upon the judgments he had given had sustained the work of the General Appraiser and cheered him in it. But the politician went down to W. and (as is said) told the President how dreadful it would be of a man like A. P. K. sh^d be put into so influential a place, and got — a different kind of man put into it. You know A. P. K. is a ~~fine~~ man, and one with knowledge enough of affairs — and right and duty, to stand at his post without bowing to the behest of politicians and doing their miserable work — while yet an ardent Republican who has done battle bravely as much for the country — and the cause. The papers East and West have on public policy denounced the thing that was done. But A. P. K. stands, coolly doing his duty as before — with no lamentations and no reproaches. As for me, dear General, I am gliding along the Canal appendage of Bankruptcy, left by the

My very dear friend and noble General, On this morning I receive your valued memento, your own handwriting on address over your card of "At Home" for 14th of this month. I have read the Post Stamp, "Vancouver, Wash." in the Territory, and upon the card "V. Barracks, W. T." — reflected upon the far distance of the place from these quarters of mine in Penn. nett Building, and the want of any balloon to take me to you, — as Gambetta went from Paris to Tours, — and concluded that I would write to you and your dear wife my sincere regrets, desiring myself the privilege of seeing you on the happy occasion at your military Post. Believe me then my dear and honored friend that I count as one of the chiefest of my honors and privileges my friendship with you and your family, and the association and service through the memorable 13 weeks of 1870 when we fought and won the battle spoken by the Honorable Fernando Wood, and set on by — H. V. Boynton. Now allusion to that leads me to say that I have had my own conflicts in the current years, and that like yours they are ended. And they were the fruits of a Government Service Co. Then in 1865, as a Coll: of Int. Revenue I seized a distillery under order for alleged fraud and while holding it, encountered a flood of flaming rosin that rolled down the hill side it stood on, from a foreign territory at midnight, pretty much destroying the distillery. Nothing could save it, and nobody complained of me until nearly six years after when a suit was brought ag^t me for $25.000 and interest. It seemed to me black mail and I treated it accordingly. Gov^y by the Dist. Atty Gen^l defended me, and he, and I, forgot it for 7 years when reminded of the existence of the suit I had it pressed to trial, employing a noble lawyer to attend - at my charge of course - for me. In Nov. 1878 there was a trial and a disagreement of the jury. The jurors were a German and some of his country men on the jury would not find against him. The other jurors would not find ag^t me. Hard pressure ^{by us} ~~but~~ on a new trial in Nov. last, and 9 jurors were for Deft and 3 - (Germans) were for Pltff. The 9 labored 3 hours into the evening to bring down the net from them $50.000, and at last all agreed on $1000. The former gathered near me ^{after} ~~at~~ the end and said they thought I would rather pay a small verdict and get rid of it than go on more years with it hanging over me. I said Yes indeed, and thanked them.

The Judge came down and said to me and the pltff: conund the same thing, and was evidently gratified, tho' he had said to my friend Marsh while the jury were out that he tho^t it would be $500.

Marsh is very able, and a very fine speaker. I had a stenographer and put his report in type, and will send you a copy of the pamphlet along with this. Perhaps you will take the trouble to read it. Of course I paid the judgment immediately and don't think of asking indemnification from Gov^t. An act of Congress would be necessary and I will never go about after Congressmen.
"Let us have peace." And I have it - largely! How good it feels to see brushed away these vexatious pursuits of rogues and robbers, and know that we may live the rest of our time here freed from them all, and perfectly free! You dear General know this so well and sweetly.

Our Heck has been very low with pneumonia but is recovered and is again at his official work as General Appraiser of this Port. He has done a great service, saving by his decisions fully sustained by the Collector and Sec^y of the Treasury very large sums of money to the Gov^t, discouraging the shameful undervaluation of imported merchandise by too many of our "Merchant Princes".

20 or 30 years ago - which had paid me reasonably, but for 2 years h^d little more than losses. They gave me $ 30.00 forth and I was left by it more comfortable in my holding of dwellings I had built, some of which were not entirely valued from their of meagre made for their completion. I shall be very thankful if by this means I am enabled by and by to welcome a relief from such labors as have held me firmly and constantly (and far from disagreeably) for 50 years. Be assured my view is not limited to my own; - and my particular family's, wants. These are easily supplied; but while I live I hope to "communicate unto" others, as well, - especially the children who have gone out from my home and have their own homes now. Your dear daughter Grace is married, and I send my heart full benedictions upon her and her companion and upon you her parents. Some year - I mean in Oct. 1878 my precious son Daniel (33) a merchant and scholar, and Christian man, was taken from us over ing causes not depending, and undetermined, my income thence lessening by degrees, less or more and mostly, more, so that I may contemplate the condition of graceful rest from heavy labors in the law by the time I reach the "three score years and ten" about the middle of 1881. I am in perfect health and constant busi-ness, and have something to engage me beside Bankruptcy, though not choosing business in as counsel, and which I would rather not resume became it brings anxiety and pain, and the last year many had enough of that for me. Some real estate I had was wanted by the Elevated R.R. (another party appearing) and I sold it - a wharf etc. I had built

My dear Genl. Volney Howard:

This will be after the wedding is over: but, you said only came today. The congratulate you both, I remember the sweet Christian home, an University site, where I so often met you & your children. I congratulate you upon them. Chauncey was at his uncle's, last summer, when I was there, & I quite admired his ready ways: particularly, his attention to his grandnephew.

We have passed our silver wedding, which was quite a surprise. What if you had heard this allusion to yourself: "Gen. O. O. Howard had just dis-creased at West Point, & was thinking of his uniform & the dum cake lady to whom he was engaged!" This among allusions to Gen. Chas. Frankl. & Mr. Westbrook, you know.
Looking back the events, transpiring 25 years ago. I did not say precisely that, but something!

Though I have not written you, I want you to remember that your name is just as precious to me, & the more comes of the heart, when you & your dear ones were here, and just as sweet as ever. Wm. Howard has passed me & Lime Dale. Aff. Yours. L. E. Howard.
