My Dear General.

The Commissary
Sergt. of my old Regiment (the 5th N.H. Hampshire) is about writing a history of that organization, for which he has ample materials. He, as well as the other survivors, would be glad of a tribute from you.
As it was one of the Regiments forming the old First Brigade, I think you can speak knowingly of it, not only as a Regiment, but of many of its officers. The address of the historian is J. M. Hammond, Asst Secy of State, Concord N. H.

Hope you will come & reach here on Saturday as early as possible.
Cheney was well yesterday but is not feeling well to day. is sick to his stomach &
quite lame through out his body. The doctor says he will be out to morrow. I am now walking on my foot with a cane
but its sore heal slowly. If you can-

Saturday but will have to get here Mon. or Tues. I think you had not better come.
Lennon & I
going up with you both.

I will arrange for preaching after school is closed.

Coming to Andover

against - the saloons in V. they winced and rotot - in the "Indehas - I understand - the larger circulation and is increasing it daily.

Bessie continues well and says mamma very distinctly and says something that is suspiciously like papa and other sounds intelligible only to babies and mammae.
Grace worked too hard moving and consequently is very much exhausted. I hope she will soon feel stronger. She thinks she will like the new house better than the old.
I have just finished "Chief Joseph"

West Point N.Y.

Dear General
Your letter of May 14th should have been answered before but - I waited several days to see Himes then came the moving house then business and so on. Himes says he will pay as he can. he intimated that if the note were collected by law it would very seriously embarrass him and that there was already a chat-tel mortgage on all of his stock, so I thought it best to let him pay as he could.

I received $20.00 the 7th of this month.
I paid 12th asst. P.S. & Co. ($10.00) the 8th inst. receipt enclosed.

Grace has probably told her mamma all about the house moving &c. We have sold the little house in town for six months.

The Van. J. Co. is progressing slowly against the opposition.
People take a great interest.

in the contest, so much that fights were frequently reported about the relative speed of the Ludlow and Washington.

Genl. Tammatt has gone to the East - I hope he will call up at West-Point. I had considerable conversation with him about various topics which he could report to you.

Mr Baubles had a temperance rally at Vancouver yesterday which attracted quite a number of people from the country around and from Portland, &c.
I think he is making headway

Contrary to my usual experience I found the book too short.

My Father and Mother have just returned from attending the funeral of my aunt - Mrs Godley of Albany Oe. she was two years younger than my mother who was with her when she died.

We heard a rumor this morning that the 5th Infantry was coming to this department Col Mason leaves with his family for Fort Sanders to 27th this month.

If the exodus of our friends continues Vancouver will be uninhabitable for us.

With much love and respect

Yours very truly
