Maj. Gen. O. O. Howard
Kind friend:

I am over anxious
to have about five
minutes talk with you
on the subject of my
returning to the South
to an old post of
duty as teacher, and would like to be informed when it
would be convenient for you to have me come

and see you
once more in this life & I am
conscious that the Lord wants me
to return south as I can not make myself contented
north. I certainly ^{prom} ised the Lord that if he would commend me that I would use the remainder of my life in his service & I but have failed for over

a year and a
half in carrying out my promise.

I am ^{very} sorry ^{be forced to}
to express myself thus
But open confession
is good for the soul & I & you

with please favor
me with an ear
by reply and oblige
ours that truly
loves you as

General Howard.

Kind friend:

I wish to introduce to you my husbands nephew, Olyses S. Rush, in whom we feel great interest.
What I want is for you to interest yourself in him, in his spiritual as well as his mental welfare, and you will confer an everlasting favor on me your friend and sister in Christ. Mrs. Julia A. Hunt

Dear General:

This will present to you Mr. Edward Clarence Spofford of our City who is about to make a visit to West Point.

I take great pleasure in commending Mr. Spofford to you and in bespeaking for him while in your vicinity such courtesies as it may be in your power to extend.

Truly Yours

Dear Friend:

This will present to you
the Edmund Clarence Sheppard of our City who is about to make a visit to West Point.

I take great pleasure in eventually sending Mr. Sheppard to you and in hopes that he will find some interesting work to do as it may be in your power to extend.

Yours truly

Dear General.

This woman
promises me every thing, & a moment
after comes & retracts.

There is no confidence to be put in her, her one idea is to carry her point &
live in that house
with her mother.

Recd Augt 19/81

I believe truly she is a bad designing
woman, & there is
no confidence to be put in her.

I am sorry to have troubled you
more in regard to the matter.

One thing I feel sure there will be trouble unless
she leaves here.

Sincerely,
Pathe R. Bacon

CONCORD, N. H., August, 1881.

COMRADE: The Tenth Annual Reunion of the survivors of the Fifth N. H. Regiment, will be held at Veterans' Camp Ground, Weirs Landing, on Wednesday, Aug. 31, 1881, in the afternoon, which is the second day of Annual Meeting of the N. H. Veteran Association. The railroads will make special rates, and arrangements in regard to rations will be all right. New buildings are being erected, with the fund appropriated by the Legislature; the grounds have been grassed over, and everything has been made comfortable. There will be special attractions in the way of REGATTAS, TARGET PRACTICE, &c. For further information, apply to the Secretary, Concord, N. H. We earnestly hope to meet all the survivors of that "grand old regiment."

W. H. WESTON, President.

ISAAC W. HAMMOND, Secretary.
