Dear Sir: You will no doubt remember that on the 3rd at Gettysburg the 106th Regiment P. V. was detached from the 2nd Corps and sent to you and by you posted on East Cemetery Hill supporting Mudick's Battery. There is a tradition or saying among the members of our regiment (the 106th) that you said to the Commander of the battery, after the regiment had been posted "When this regiment runs haul off your guns" or words to that effect.

We are going to erect a tablet on the ground occupied by the regiment and propose to put your words on that occasion, and your name on one side of the tablet. Will you kindly inform me whether we have the words correct and whether you have any objection to the use of them for the purpose indicated.

Dear Sir

My son writes me that the sentence of the court in his case is 4 months light prison and Sentinel duty for a like period.

This seems unnecessarily severe. After what you were kind enough to say to me I left with the impression that if he were made to suffer light prison it would be for only a brief period, but one third of a year, seems a long time to be deprived of liberty for striking a guard with a feather pillow.

My dear Sir.

I have a lecture on "the nature and effects of alcohol" which I prepared at the request of Prof. Lattell and the Faculty of Lafayette College, Easton Pa. and delivered there I think to their satisfaction, as they sent me a letter expressing of their pleasure. I am especially interested in this subject as I am the Supt.

Inebriety and I am also an

I do not know whether such lectures are allowed or denied at West Point, but if they are and if my lecture after being submitted to your inspection should meet with your approval it would give me the greatest

Dear General,

The demerit report of my son for the month of September has just come to hand I see that he has received for the month 24, and since the commencement of the academic year of ~~the~~ 98. This of course does not include Oct. and if he has kept up his proportion, he has already received the 125 which subjects him to the consequences for being deficient in discipline.

This matter gives me great distress and uneasiness and I cannot resist the impulse to trouble you by a letter on this subject. From time to time I have written and admonished him since his report have commenced and from my knowledge of his character I know that he has been making an honest effort to avoid these demerits. He sent me a list some weeks ago of the reports upon which these demerits were founded, and they were all for trivial matters such as wearing hat on side of head, &c. indicating carelessness alone, and involving no misconduct whatever. I imagine that it is exceedingly sufficient if not impossible for a young man who has hitherto been subjected to little restraint to avoid these marks, and I earnestly trust if compatible with the regulations of the Institution that in some way his difficulties may be bridged over. - I know my son to be a young man of lofty Character and tone, and besides morale in his habits of life, and I should regard it a calamity to him and his future prospects if his Career which might otherwise be creditable and promising - should be marred by causes which do not involve either. I inferred from what he said in one of his letters to me that you had either promised or intimated to him that some of his marks would be removed, but I see that this has not been done, and I fear therefore that he misunderstood you.

Some time ago an Army Officer and graduate of the Academy told me that all the demands received by the fourth Classmen during Encampment were removed upon entering Barracks, in consideration of their want of Experience and the difficulty of conforming to regimental novel and embarrassing - but I fear that the rule has been changed. If not giving you too much trouble my dear Sir, I would be glad to be advised as to the status of my son, and what I may have to expect. I write to you directly because you were kind enough to Express to me an interest in my son when I had the pleasure of meeting you last June, and because besides I am greatly distressed and scarcely know what to do, with the hope that you will pardon the liberty in view of my anxiety Dear Sir

Very truly & Respectfully yours

My dear Sir—

I am informed that college secret societies are excluded from the U. S. Military Academy at West Point and also from the Naval School at Annapolis.

I much desire to know whether they ever had a foothold at West Point, and, if so, when they were excluded and for what reasons. Can you give me the desired information?

There are no fraternities now connected with this young institution (one of the U.S. land-grant colleges) and we desire to keep them out, fearing their influence on our non-denominational college which is aiming to meet the conditions imposed by the act of Congress endowing it. The example of West Point will greatly strengthen us. An early reply will greatly oblige.

TO ALL SOLDIERS WHO SERVED WITH REYNOLDS:

At a meeting held at the Union League in Philadelphia, on the 1st of July, 1881, the eighteenth anniversary of the death of General John Fulton Reynolds at Gettysburg, it was resolved to form an association to erect an equestrian statue of that heroic soldier. Mr. J. E. Temple subscribed twenty five thousand dollars. The Grand Army of the Republic, the Society of the Army of the Potomac, the Pennsylvania Reserves, the 3d U. S. Artillery, the 5th and the 14th U. S. Infantry, the Association of Graduates of West Point, the First Corps, the Third Corps, the Eleventh Corps, and Buford's Cavalry Division, and other military and civil organizations, heartily endorse the proposed Monument as a fitting recognition of Reynolds' services. All soldiers who served with Reynolds are invited to contribute according to their means. A dollar from every man who was with Reynolds in his successive commands, from the time he left West Point until he fell at Gettysburg, will abundantly provide the sum required. Send whatever you can give, be it much or little; do what you can to secure additional subscriptions, and forward them to J. G. ROSENGARTEN, Treasurer, 532 Walnut St., Philadelphia, who will promptly acknowledge the receipt.

By order of the Executive Committee

Reynolds' Monument Association.
