P.S.

I thank you for your letter saying you had written the other members of Comtee.

Please do not let up on the quest for help for us. Our needs increase & cry louder with every passing month.

Men with a few years experience in the ministry are better than those just from the seminary.

I write nothing for the press because we do not care to invite any to come whom we sh'd have to decline.

It is better to select our men before asking them to come.

Our love to your self & family, J. F. E.

Dear Gent Howard:

Will you have patience with another letter? We must have men - if they can be had. - I have just returned from La Crosse, 70 miles north, which Rev E O Tade has held thro' storm & shine for three years past. We must settle a man there now or lose all. It is the center of a very rich & now rapidly developing agricultural region. We want a good man for that region.

Our plan is to settle men at strategic centers whence to cover all the adjacent territory they can to advantage.

Our country is steadily filling up and earnestly pleads for labours for the Lord's harvest.

Yours faithfully, J. F. Ellis,

My dear General

In regard to the matter of a tutor for your sons, a Capt for S.S. a Lieut for the assoc'n, and an Asst Chaplain, all in one, I have been thinking a good deal.

It seems to me I have found a man who may be secured if you still feel it to be a desirable thing and practicable.

Rev. A. V. S. Wallace a young Presbyterian clergyman, a graduate of Union College and of Auburn Theol Sem: has been supplying the pulpit of the Pres Church here for a year but has just resigned, because of a desire to pursue some special studies and for a rest from sermonizing - He finds the care of a church and preparing two sermons a week is too much of a strain upon his physical system -

Besides the very great anxiety for the salvation of his people has had a wearing

Worn* upon him. He is a very devoted Christian. Was Gen Sec of our Assn at Schenectady Jr about two years; has been at Conventions and is well posted as to Assn work. He is now Supt of his Church Sabbath can lead singing if necessary
and altogether is a very valuable man.

I have never heard him preach but am told, he is a man of more than ordinary abilities. Still he prefers not to preach much for the coming year.

If you think favorably of it and desire to see him. I believe he would seriously consider the offer. My suggestion would be that you write him at once and if it seems feasible to you, have him come & see you &
you can talk the whole matter over and fix it at once. Still he would not be ready to enter upon it until before Sept. He now plans to go into the woods for absolute rest for the summer. May I trouble you for a line as to your decision. His address will be Lyon Falls, N.B. He is single; about 25, & a fine scholar.
Yours in kind Geo A Hall

Sir;

As chairman of committee appointed by the Y. M. Christian Association of Allegheny College to secure a speaker to address them on the Sabbath evening of Commencement week I write to ask whether you can do us the favor to be with us on that occasion.

Many of our boys belong to the cadet corps of the college & would come to hear you when they would fight shy of a regular preacher. We therefore trust it will be possible for you to be with us.

Gen Howard

Dear Sir

With this letter I have taken the liberty of mailing to you a box of May flowers. will you please accept them as a token of respect, ^{and} admiration from a young girl who admires you very much. If the flowers are faded, dip them in water and shake them dry, and they will keep fresh for a week. I thought you might like them because they grew in your native State, and I suppose you used to get them when you were a boy. Last August I was present one day at the Amay reunion in Portland. I thought your short speech was amusing. I thought then I would like to know you I wanted to shake hands with you

I have often thought of you since.
you seemed so good and happy,
not a bit old and gloomy, and you have had trouble too the loss of your arm, must have been a sad blow for you. I began to sell ^{flowers} ~~flowers~~ when I was ten years old. I am now fifteen, in person I am small and plump, many people call me fine
looking, because I am a blond with golden hair, and fair skin. I am the second child of a family of six children, my life is a very busy
one every Spring my sisters and I supply the people of Cordiner and Argosta with flowers we earn our Sabbath school cloths, and school books.
I wish your picture were for sale, the only one I ever saw was in a book.
 Hoping the flowers will please you

Dear Youth:

Please accept my apology for card preceding this, but from what the firm said I thought your letter had been lost - not that I thought for our account! but that if the bill was for a thousand dollars and had O.O. Howard's name backing it, it would be good. As I wrote a member of the firm this morning - if all were as good and honorable, as the distinguished officer and Christian gentleman Genl O.O.H. there would be far less Govt defalcations, and jobbery put up in the National Capital by Arthur and his "Straw hat Party".

Dear Father:

Chamney, Willie and Lou, and plus Perot and I returned in safety.

I went to the rail-road
office to get a package while the boys
went on up the hill.

As soon as I got my package I ran after them. I ran as far as the "Boulevard" where I met a friend of mine with whom I went up towards the Post office.

Lou and Perot had waited at the corner while Chamney went up to the Fillos. I must have passed them

while they were looking the opposite way.

I went up to "Mamons". to get some lozenges because my throat was so dry.

After I got them I ran after the boys but did not catch up with them until they got up to the school.

I think that I went up the hill at the rate of six miles an hour.

Mr. Cobb is getting a list for stationery which he will deliver some time this afternoon.

Mr. Abbott was up here last night.

The question which I had to tell about was - "Was there any corn growing in Palestine?" and "If not ^{what} was meant by cornfield in the Bible?"

Love to all from your loving,

son
