Dear General:

A notice in this morning's paper that you were going abroad shortly reminded me of a pleasant task I've too long neglected; - that is to write and learn how you and yours have been doing all the long years since I saw you last.

It will please you to learn that Mrs. C., myself and our three children Jessie, How-and and Billie are well and getting along quite comfortably.

I am still in the P.O. Dept. and in good standing with my superiors. My salary remains the same $1200 per annum.

I presume, General, that you will come to Washington before your departure for the East; if so, let me beg of you to make us a call. We are still living on 5th St. in the same little house you visited when you honored us last.

Mrs. C. joins me in love to you and Mrs. Howard.

Remember us kindly to Capt. Pladen & family. By the way, will the captain accompany you to Europe?

I should be greatly pleased, General, to get a line or two from you.

Truly & affectionately, Credlip.

Wesley's remark about our dear old Gen. Sumner has roused my ire. I shall write him and give him some "doubtconister" as to Hooker at Chancellorsville.

We (the 5th) were within a stone's throw of his headquarters and had our eyes open.

But I am off again. To be brief. You will revise carefully of course before the History is republished. If you will take the trouble to mail me a postal with your address on receipt of this I shall be glad to make a few notes and correcting as to some details that may be of service to you. Please understand that I shall in no wise be put out if you deem them of no account.

Your work is arduous, I know. If I can help even a little it will afford me much pleasure to do so, and I shall feel amply repaid if it proves useful in any way. Wishing you abundant

My dear General.

Although not personally acquainted with you, when I introduce myself as an old soldier of the 5th N.H. Volunteers you will pardon me when I claim to know you well.

Just before you left West Point I started twice to call on you and was delayed both times very much to my disappointment.

I presume you will remember the bugler you had at Camp California Carlo Benidicti - Carlo had an intimate acquaintance with a chap of mine through whom I came to know him.

Once I did him a friendly service and ever after that his devotion was almost overwhelming as is frequently the case with those of his rationality

The day before our brigade broke camp in the spring of '62 for that expedition to the Rappahannock I was taken down with a severe attack of Pneumonia & so was left behind. When our old camp was broken up I was carried to a General Hospital at Alexandria. One day when I was more "dead than alive" (so to speak) Carlo came rushing into the ward where I was, singing out - "Where's that 5th N.H. boy where's my Charley" - & though hardly able a moment before to move my head, the joy of seeing a friendly face gave me strength to sit up & embrace him -

"Some of your boys said you were dying he said & I told the General I must go back to Alexandria & find my friend. & the General sent you these papers (& he pulled out some American Messengers & a Tract Society Almanac.) & said he hoped you would get well to come back again &c."

Whether it was the proud satisfaction of receiving such attention from my General or whether it was due to the half dozen lemons that Carlo secretly took from his pockets & stuffed between the mattresses of my cot, suffice it to say that before night I had eaten the last bit of lemon. This and all, and the next morning was able to sit up in bed and read the papers you so kindly sent -

But this is not what I was prompted to write you about. How these reminiscences carry us away when we start to talk about them - A comrade of the 5th from Boston called on me a few weeks ago, and called my attention to the History from your pen in the "National Tribune", and I at once subscribed for it - Am sorry I could not obtain back copies, so as to have the full history - Your reminiscences, I see are calling out considerable criticism. That only goes to show that the articles are thoroughly read - Capt Masley of the 2<sup>d</sup> N.H. I see is fairly aroused about Williamstag

I know him well. We 5th & 2<sup>d</sup> boys have hot times when we fight our battles over again

My dear Genl.

In yesterday's N.Y. paper I saw leave of absence to go beyond the water granted you for Melrose for four months. At once I saw you would just miss the meetings of the Evangelical Alliance in Sweden & our World's Convention at Berlin.
The former meets early in Aug & the latter the last of Aug. Now I write hoping you can arrange to be with us especially at Berlin. Your position will help us to increase the interest we have already among officials there & greatly aid the cause. You know perhaps both the European & Russian have endorsed our work there both by word & subscription

I am now en route to the dedication of the Buffalo building.
Fearing you may not be there I write this. We hold our annual State Convention at B. Feb 21-42 then any probability of your being there near that date?

With kindest regards to Mrs H &

I am yours

Sir:-

I would respectfully ask to present this, my statement in reference to my Case.
On the 7th inst I was arraigned & tried before a General Court martial at this Post.
Charge "Absent without Leave;" to which I pleaded "Guilty." & as you will see from the Enclosed Dept Circular, the times I have been tried, I wish to state that on this, my last trial, I had not only the charge of "Absent without Leave" against me, but all the past charges that have been put against me <sup>and</sup> for which I have paid.

The penalty by serving the sentences prescribed by the different Courts.
The last charge to which I pleaded guilty on the 4th inst, ("Absent without Leave") I am Compelled to admit was owing to my giving up to the temptation of Drink, <sup>and</sup> for which I am Extremely Sorry. I pleaded Guilty, <sup>and</sup> ask for the mercy of the Court.

I am now serving a Three (3) months sentence, which will expire Mich 14th 1884.

From the fact that the back charges were brought up against me in this last Case, I am afraid it would influence the Court, <sup>and</sup> induce it to inflict a severe punishment upon me.

I would respectfully ask the Sept Comdr if he deems it just to use these back charges in this last case against me.

Also that in reviewing ~~the~~ the proceedings of the Court to deal as Lenient as he deems Consistent.

If I am fortunate enough to escape severe punishment in this case I will promise future good behavior <sup>and</sup> perform the duties of a soldier.

le 28 Jan. 1884.
(Lundi).

Mon Père bien aimé

Il n'y a qu'une demi-heure que votre lettre en français du 12 Jan. est venue, et j'en suis bien content. Vous viendrez à Anvers (Englis Antwerp) alors.
Cette ville n'est pas loin de Göttingen - pas plus que dix heures en chemin de fer. Il ne vaut pas la peine d'aller d'ici à "Antwerp" en bicyclette - le voyage serait trop court et il me faudrait renvoyer ma machine à Göttingen. Je prendrai le chemin de fer.

Si je savais le nom du navire dans lequel vous allez venir il me serait très facile de vous rencontrer à votre ar-rivée. Si vous ne pourrez pas m'écrire la date exacte de votre départ de New York, je le prendrai comme sûrsécurité que vous partirez le 15 Mars. La traversée prend 10 jours; Alors j'arriverai à Amers (Antwerp) le 25 ou le 26 Mars. Je vous écrirai le nom de l'hôtel où je descendrai pour que vous puissiez y venir à votre arrivée, si vous ne me rencontrez pas au quai où le steamer arrivera.

J'aimerais bien savoir le nom du navire qui vous mènera de New York à Europe. cela m'aiderait beaucoup pour vous rencontrer exactement à temps. Si vous arrivez à Amers et je n'étais pas encore là, envoyez une dépêche à Göttingen. Dieterich 2A, une dépêche coûterait peut-être un peu moins que 40 cents et vous pourriez en-ployer autant de mots que vous voudriez. Mais je crois que je serai au quai à votre arrivée, à peu près le 25 Mars.

Je suis bien content que vous ayez eu une des "pases" cela vous sera une grande économie à peu près $200. pour les traversées, (deux fois) de l'océan, et encore $60. pour les chemins de fer en Amérique de Chicago à New York et retour. En tout peut-être plus que $250. Cet argent-là sera assez pour payer tous mes frais peut-être lorsque je serais en voyage avec vous.
Si vous voulez vivre comme moi, de temps en temps lorsque nous serons dans des petites villes comme des étrangers, nous irons dans les "hôtels du pays" et ne pas dans les grands

Il ne me reste plus à écrire pour le moment, j'espère que mon écriture (en français) ne soit pas trop embrouillée pour que vous puissiez la lire. Quand vous venez, voulez vous m'apporter une bible que vous me donniez à Portland, Oregon. La bible est brune et très bien reliée, avec un index, des cartes et surtout des "references", ce qui est bien rare dans les bibles publiées ici. Je la veux à ceux de l'index et des "references" renvoyés.

En mieux que cela, si vous voulez m'emprunter une de vos "Bagster concordance Bibles" dont vous avez deux, je crois; voulez vous m'en apporter une. ~~de celle-ci~~. J'en ai bien besoin de temps en temps.

Je suis content des nouvelles générales que vous m'avez écrites de la famille.

Il me faut maintenant écrire à Guy et à sa "femme à être".

Avec empressement et de l'affection votre fils James White Howard. que vous ne <sup>5</sup> le pensiez. Une lettre de crédit en livres (Pounds) Anglaises est très commode pour voyager. Mais je ne sais pas si ce système soit ce qu'il y a de meilleur marché. Si cela vous paraît possible, il vous faut visiter le secrétaire de la guerre à l'é-gard des manœuvres qui on lieu en France et en Allemagne chaque année.

Ces manœuvres sont énormes et ils commencent pendant les derniers mois de l'été et durent, dans un endroit et or dans un autre, deux ou trois mois. Ils s'assemblent jusqu'à 50.000 hommes militaires; <sup>à chaque endroit</sup> et les officiers des Etats-Unis sont reçus avec empressement et surtout en France et l'Allemagne.

Quand un officier represente une nation, de quelque rank qu'il soit, il est reçu au quartier général (Head Quarters) du Commandant en chef, et il ne lui est pas permis de dépenser un "penny". Mais généralement l'officier loue un cheval pour les deux semaines, plus ou moins, de la manœuvre. Les manœuvres n'ont pas lieu toutes à la fois. Elles commencent dans le sud de la France souvent plusieurs semaines ~~avant~~ <sup>après</sup> celles du nord, et en alle-magne souvent très tôt.

J'étais à Evreux pendant les manœuvres du Nord-Ouest ~~et~~ de la France au tour d' Evreux dans l'automne de 1882. J'étais à Frankfurt au commencement d'une très grande manœuvre le 15 Septembre 1883. Je n'avais jamais vu tant d'officiers, sans parler des milliers de soldats, ensemble dans ma vie. Il n'y avait pas une chambre dans aucun hôtel à louer, toutes étaient prises d'avance.

Tout marche exactement comme à la guerre, et les habitants sont forcés à loger les soldats. Si vous voulez en faire part en France, vous n'aurez qu'à montrer votre carte au secrétaire de la guerre ou faire visite chez Monsieur le général Boulanger.

En Allemagne j'ai des connaissances parmi les officiers qui vous verraient avec grand plaisir et vous présenter aux généraux en chef, etc. Mais nous parler-ons de tout ceci après votre arrivée.
