We are keeping Christmas

quiet family thankfulness,

of peace & good will
it does us good to

courage, light & peace.

Our one day's

your face was unknown
your name was not

you, leave their deep impression.

Your kind invitation is at hand, and I regret to be obliged to deny myself the pleasure of being your guest from the fact that I have some days since accepted an invitation from Genl. Sandy. Sandy's invitation is of long standing. But I shall hope, my dear Genl. to be much with you while I am in Omaha. In love so much of interest & talk about that I fear I will not get as much as I could desire.

Thine ever & Mrs Howard

Mon général
 J'ai reçu avec
 reconnaissance le
 rapport que vous m'avez fait l'honneur de m'envoyer sur les
 manoeuvres du 17^e corps
 cet automne.
 Je l'ai lu avec
 grand intérêt et regrette
 que n'ayant pas fait
 imprimer le mien je
 ne puisse pas vous le
 faire connaître et vous rendre ainsi le même
 politesse.

Depuis les manœuvres
il a paru en France
quelques articles dans des revues sur les
manœuvres; l'un très
intéressant & détaillé
doit venir de l'état-major du général Lewall & par conséquent fort
en éloges, un autre
qui a paru dans la
revue Scientifique (note)
est moins louangeux
et critique surtout tout
le bruit qui a été fait sur l'écadence des
marches du 17^e corps,
disant que ces marches
n'ont rien d'extraordinaire dans les circonstances
où elles ont été faites,

que les troupes avaient
été entraînées comme
des chevaux de course (race horses) mais que en temps ordinaire elles
n'y résisteraient pas;
il y a bien quelque vérité
dans cette appréciation.

Voici quelques mots qui expliquent le peu de critique aux quelles les manœuvres ont été
soumises; en revenant
de Bordeaux. Paris,
j'étais en chemin de fer
avec un officier d'état
major français qui avait suivi les manœuvres.

Je lui demandais si
il croyait que il y avait des publications françaises rendant compte des

~~manœuvres~~ et les supposait
