Dear Friend, Try as I will I cannot make ready to write today, because of the confusion made in the house by the painters.
I send you one chapter of Freedmen's Bureau
and invite you to add to it all you will; it is not completed, and I may make two chapters instead of one long one as I have the room to do so.
The other two chapters are in better order. If you will read these & come to me tomorrow morning

I will be ready & go forward with the book. It troubles me greatly—
that my house should be in confusion when I am offered the opportunity of having your kind & service in this long—delayed matter. But—tomorrow I will be ready to sit down to it—and not stop again until it is in the printer's hands.

Sincerely,

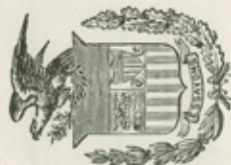

R. C. H.

Will see Mrs. Henry C. [unclear] [unclear] if she will be in.

Dear Sir, -

Pardon an additional and last request from me, in connection with 2^d. Lieutenantcy appointment.
You said, I believe, that you did not receive the note I sent you at Mr.
Barker's, and at our last interview I forgot to acquaint you with its contents, viz. a request that, if your personal and official relations with General Ordune (Adjutant General) were such as to render it proper, and not distasteful to you, you would write me a letter to him, introducing me, and with a view to securing his endorsement and assistance. If this request is in any way out of place, pray attribute it to my ignorance of the fact. It is the last with which I shall trouble you in this matter, unless you think of any military or civil officials whose aid you might voluntarily secure for me.

You have been very kind to me, and the only gratification I can afford you in return is, for your sake, to try even more than I should otherwise, to be what you would wish me.

Very respectfully,
Your most obliged -
Paul Eaton.

My Dear Sir.

It is with extreme regret that I am compelled to advise you that my efforts to obtain the passes, you desired, were unsuccessful. On calling today at the office of the Co. I found Mr Butler (the Priest) away, and his Secy informed me, that, in Mr R.'s absence he, himself, would Adelphi" is now a large & interesting one and contains the autographs of most of those that have appeared prominently and popular before the American people.

Men and women who have distinguished themselves in very many ways.
I have ^{nearly all} the most prominent of our Army generals -

I have Genls- Grant-
Sherman- Sheridan
Butler- McFellan-
Banks- Burnsgard-
Hancock- Rosecrans

Meigs and Schofield
I have long held space for Genl. Howard. and I ~~long~~ hope to

Be favored By you at your convenience
with kind regards
I am very truly yours
O. L. B. Howard.

I have seen Rev John M. Brown in reference to his note for $4000 - He says Mr Smith never said a word to him in regard to it as he sees him often and asked if you would let me know on what account this note was given as he had paid all the notes given for the property

While you please answer me as full as you can in regard to this at an early day

Very Truly
Allan Rutherford

Dear General

Would you please inform me where I could communicate with "Christopher. Christian. Got", brigade surgeon in the U. S. Army? He is the author of one of our hymns, about which I desire to write him.

Hoping you will excuse this intrusion upon your time and attention, and in your kind reply

You will greatly oblige
Yours Very Respectfully
