Dear Sir,

I became acquainted with Mr. W. S. Goodale in Oct. 1884. He came to my office and requested that a warrant be issued for the arrest of a man by the name of Smith who was residing at Powder River this County, charging that Smith had assaulted him with a deadly weapon. At first I refused to have warrant issued for the reason that Goodale's presence and conversation did not impress me with fact of his entire innocence in the matter. He then further represented man to let-run at large

I don't consider this as a hope that he was an employee of the U. S. Government as telegraph line repairer and he was afraid to perform his duties & Smith was not arrested & punished. A warrant was then issued and Smith was arrested and upon examination each was held for his appearance at the next term of the Dist. Court held in this County which was the 2nd Monday in Dec/84 Smith gave bond but Goodale could give no other bond than his own which to keep him from being committed to jail was accepted. Dist Court Command in re Smith appeared but Goodale did not and thereby forfeited his bond for his appearance.

Capt Auster:

Dear Sir:-

Referring to enclosed letter from Mr Garaghty relative to conduct of the man Goodale, would say we consider Goodale crazy and possessed with the most fiendish spirit ever put into a man.

After he was discharged at Forsythe, he came here and made statements against employees, which upon investigation were found to be without a shadow of truth. We had to lock him up here to keep him away from the office and finally told him if he didnt leave the country at once would have the train men take him out and hang him.

I dont consider he is a safe man to let run at large

This is to certify that during the month of October 1884, I was importuned by M. S. Goodale (an employee of the Quartermaster department under my charge) for a letter of recommendation; At this time I considered the man a half witted but harmless sort of person, and out of pity, gave him some kind of a letter the exact purport of which, I do not remember. Since writing this letter, however, facts have come to my certain knowledge about M. S. Goodale, which had I known at the time he applied for the letter of recommendation, I not only would have refused it, but would have pronounced him entirely unreliable untrustworthy and dishonest.

Dear Sir, - I am a young man of strictly temperance proclivities & a firm friend of the cause of temperance & among my friends argue that it is not necessary for those who have laborious work to perform to use it to make it possible for them to endure it. I am interested in procuring statistics in regard to the matter & as you had ^m ample opportunity to observe its effects during the war, would you please inform me if those who used it could or could not endure the hardships better than those who did not use it, any information on the above will be thankfully received.

OFFICE OF THE INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE OF THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS OF THE UNITED STATES AND BRITISH PROVINCES, 23D STREET AND 4TH AVENUE, NEW YORK CITY, March 30, 1885.

To the Young Men's Christian Associations of the United States and British Provinces:

DEAR BRETHREN—The Twenty-sixth Convention of the American Associations will be held in Atlanta, Ga., May 13-17, 1885.

All Young Men's Christian Associations, entitled under the Rules of the Convention to representation, are earnestly requested to send delegates.

I.—The meeting for organization will be held at 10 A. M., Wednesday, May 13th.

(For Rules, regarding Representation, see Note.)

The Committee is now in negotiation for reduction of railroad and steamboat fares for delegates, and would urgently request brethren who can aid in securing such reductions to do so on the receipt of this circular, and to report them to us immediately, in order that they may all be embraced in the Transportation Circular, which we desire to issue as early as possible.

Every delegate should be provided with one of the enclosed Credentials, properly filled out for presentation to the Credential Committee. This Committee will be in attendance the day before the opening of the Convention, and will give each delegate, in exchange for his credential, a certificate entitling him to entertainment by the friends of our work at Atlanta, and to admission to the floor of the Convention, where none but delegates thus accredited will be admitted until after the organization is completed.

A circular will shortly be issued by the Atlanta Association, embracing matters of detail within its province, including the reception and entertainment of delegates.

II.—The following topics are suggested for discussion at the Convention:

1. Association Secretaries, local, State and international,—their relation to one another, and the spirit which should actuate them.
2. What modifications can be made in Association methods for better reaching young men?
3. The kind of State Work needed by the Associations?
4. What is being done for Railroad men by the Associations?
5. The first year's experience in a new Association building.
6. The opportunities in college life for making religious impressions upon young men,—how is the Young Men's Christian Association improving them?
7. Is the Bible adapted to the young men of to-day, and, if so, why?
8. Spiritual mindedness in the working force of our Associations,—how can it be promoted?
9. The conversion of young men to Christ the primary object of Young Men's Christian Associations,—how can it be promoted?

A meeting will be held on Sabbath afternoon, May 17, for appeal and effort on behalf of unconverted young men.

III.—THE INTERNATIONAL WORK.—Following the instructions of the Milwaukee Convention the Committee has prosecuted the work, through its secretaries, in correspondence, in personal visitation, in the circulation of documents concerning Association work, and in co-operation with State and Provincial committees. Decided progress has been made in the various sections of the continent in State and local Association organization. In the secretarial department there has been more activity and growth than ever before. In the colleges, among the railroad men, the German young men, and the colored young men, the work has been pushed; and the details of this progress, which the Lord has granted to this department of Christian work for Him, will be submitted to the Convention at Atlanta.

Per. J. A. Hall
April 24-1885

The cost of the work during 1883 was $28,874.21, and during 1884, $30,496.28.

Each Association is requested to instruct its delegates how much per year it will subscribe for 1885 and 1886.

IV.—Arrangements have been made for the prompt publication of the Proceedings of the Atlanta Convention, so that the book will be in the hands of the brethren in July, in time to be of service in arranging for the Fall Conventions. The pamphlet will also contain tabulated reports of Associations in this and foreign lands, lists of Association buildings, building funds, State and Provincial Conventions, General Secretaries, &c. The price of each copy is fifty cents. Please notify the Committee how many copies of the report you desire to subscribe for.

The Committee sent to each Association in February a blank form to be filled out with the annual statistical report of its work, and to be returned for publication in the Report of the Convention. Associations which find a duplicate of the blank enclosed with this circular are reminded thereby that the former blank has not yet been received by the Committee, and are urgently requested to send in a full report at once. The labor of tabulating these reports will be greatly facilitated by their prompt reception. Each report should be duly authenticated by the signature of the President or Secretary of the Association sending it.

The Committee earnestly requests the Associations to pray for a special out-pouring of the Holy Spirit upon the Convention to meet in Atlanta, and would urge that the two Sabbaths preceding the Convention, May 3 and 10, be observed as days of special prayer for this divine blessing, and for the extension of the Kingdom of Christ among young men.

NOTE.—The following is a summary of the Rules of the Convention in regard to representation :

1. Associations entitled to representation are requested to furnish the International Committee a copy of their Constitution. Associations which have in previous years forwarded such copies, need not send a duplicate unless a change or amendment has been made in the Article on Membership.

2. Each Association is also requested to send the Committee a statement of the number of its members, showing how many are active and how many associate.

3. Representation is based only on the number of active members—Associations having one hundred active members, or less, are entitled to two delegates, and one additional delegate for each additional one hundred members. No Association, however, is entitled to more than ten delegates. But it is customary for all members of Associations in attendance, and not regularly accredited as delegates, to be constituted by special vote Corresponding Members of the Convention. Such members enjoy the right to the floor, and to all the privileges of delegates except voting and entertainment.

4. No Association, organized or reorganized since the Portland Convention (July 1869), is entitled to representation unless it has the test of active membership prescribed by that Convention in the following resolution :

“Resolved. That the Associations organized after this date shall be entitled to representation in future Conferences of the associated Young Men's Christian Associations of North America, on condition that they be severally composed of young men in communion with Evangelical churches (provided that in places where the Associations are formed by a single denomination, members of other denominations are not excluded therefrom), and active membership and the right to hold office be conferred only upon young men who are members in good standing in Evangelical churches; and we hold those churches to be Evangelical which, maintaining the Holy Scriptures to be the only infallible rule of faith and practice do believe in the Lord Jesus Christ (the only begotten of the Father, King of kings and Lord of lords, in whom dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead bodily, and who was made sin for us, though knowing no sin, bearing our sins in His own body on the tree), as the only name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved from everlasting punishment.”

Dear Sirs:

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th inst. in relation to the proposed amendment to the constitution of the American Horse Groomers Association, and in reply to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the Executive Committee of the United States Department of Agriculture for their consideration.

I am, Sir, very respectfully, to come. Even if Surges does not retire it will only be a few months until Genl sure be promoted to this Regt and I will still go to the 4th in Genl Dept

I have not been well for some time past and the Doctor has and go off for a while. But I am going to try to hold ^{on} until I get my promotion.

I wish when I come down there I could be at Omaha for a while. I should like it ever so much. I do not care for a Command unless there is something to do. I might keep up the fires or keep anything you think.

You will not be long then
I apprehend as Pope goes out next March and you will be the next Major General. I know that I was a Republican but I have been treated so nice since President Cleveland came in I think I am now something between a wimp and an Allegator. The truth is it is better for the Army Democrats should rule than Republicans still I don't like the Democratic principles. Several of my old friends have come to power

Under Cleveland and they write me very nice friendly letters. I had hoped Doct. Miller of Omaha who is a very old acquaintance of mine would have been made Postmaster General under

However another of my old friends was very glad of.

Dear Genl.

For Wens. eve, I have thought the ^{suggest} "Christ our friend" would be a pleasant and profitable one about which to group some helpful thoughts.

May I hope for yr. presence and voice.

Yrs. sincerely

Dear Sir,
I have thought of writing you often but have not time to do so now.
I am very truly
yours,

Dear Sir. Your intimation in yours of the 17th inst.
that you might be able to be with us on Decoration day and lecture in the evening. How will it be? We should be pleased to know as soon as possible that we may be able to make our arrangements.
If you do not go to town
we should be glad to have you on terms mentioned.
If you could advise us by return mail would return it as soon as our circumstances permit.
Remember me to Col Stanton if you see him. He is my brother in law. Yours truly, W. O. Mitchell
