Dear Mother

Lizzie Orr wrote me a very brief note announcing the death of her Mother Friday last. She had been some time unconscious.

Thus closes the sad tragedy of that life which opened with so much beauty, joy, and promise.

When Uncle John brought her to our house in Leeds after the final visit to her dear lovers home, ^{and grave (Bourger)} in Greene, I will never forget how trustingly she leaned upon his arm, and, even now, I can see the love-light in her eye as she looked up to his. They were happy together

P. B. Howard can send this to brother Orr's like.

only for a little while. The winter in Washington was gay and jovous, but one misfortune after another came to her sisters. Uncle failed in business. Then came paralysis and death. Her fortune was a relief and comfort to him after the loss of his own. He was a pure, mat woman and a loving - though too indulgent mother in 1857 when I was tutor of Mary, Sam & Lizzie, and revelled among the old books. Then came the sad rumors about her association the plundering of her Estate, ^{by relatives & lawyers,} her desperate marriage to that ignorant, selfish, coarse-minded Coachman. She stole the rest of her property & she became partially insane. The children 3 have been industrious & frugal and kind to their mother. The story is ended. She had no apparent trust in God. no ^{confessed} love to her Saviour. The bitterness of deceit and disappointment fell upon her heart with no shield between. How thankful ought we to be that we can sing with Doddridge, With grateful hearts the past is ours,

 The future, all to us unknown, We to thy guidance care commit And peaceful close before thy feet.

When death shall interrupt these ^{songs},
 And seal in silence mortal tongues, Our Helper, God, in whom we trust, In better worlds our souls shall boast.

I saw Lizzie's note to Aunt

Martha Jane. I have read the new life of Otis with intense interest, as you will. There are many minor errors but, on the whole, it is a good & valuable book. I heard nothing from Glenora for a long time. Wish I could run in and see you. I wish to more than the full measure of my strength being troubled with a dizzy head. My family are well or usual. They came home last Friday. We expect Frank & Maria tomorrow & other company Friday. We have had some uncomfortable hot days & plenty of mosquitoes. But, on the whole, are getting along well. Otis expects to give up his place this week. go

Oellie wrote me an excellent letter yesterday. Reassuring prospects do not warrant any change in his domestic life or any place for David in his Office. David will try to find some Country work when he can do something. He is just about through with what his Grandfather left him and must depend upon himself. The vessel property is worse than nothing a constant expense, & Uncle Lincoln Tilton is poor too. Helen joins me in love to you all. You will get my new paper this week.

40 I have received the

It is the interest on the mortgage and amounts to about $85.

I forgot it at the time though I thought it would do just as well to pay the whole next November.

I have not yet seen the man

Captain Sladen wrote about.
He is the keeper of the lower place on the road to Carter Station and was accustomed to come to the barracks with a wagon to take men over to his place, & on that account was forbidden to come on the have not yet gone down

I have been spending some

My Dear Sir,

I am constrained to ask of you a favor. I know you will most readily grant if proper, and in your power. I am on my way to Salt Lake City, Santa Fe, Albuquerque, and have with me two of our faithful men of God - Rev. C. S. Albert of Baltimore Md. and Rev. J. A. Clutz of Balt. Md. the President and Eastern Secy. of our Board of Home Missions. Will it be asking too much of you to send me in addressed envelope to Denver, Col. letters of introduction to Commanding Officer at Salt Lake City, and Commanding Officer at Santa Fe? I know these gentlemen can be of great service to us, and add to the information and enjoyment of our trip. Any other persons you know at any of these points, who would be pleased to cheer us on our way, I will be glad to know through you.

I believe we not met since the P.S. Assembly

Dear Brother:

Your kind letter giving program for the tour, was what we desired. Miss Adelheid read it aloud in the carriage, last evening, as we were taking a ride. (Kitty does not use her eyes much for reading) I trust the trip will do all good not excepting the "sister". But Confidentially I must now say a word or two. The Aug. 3rd ^{for starting} is so fixed I suppose it better not be changed. But it so happens that not only Kitty but probably both the other ladies, as we learn, will need to refrain from horseback-riding beginning with Friday the 7th. Of course it is not possible to say exactly the day. It might be Saturday or Sunday, and for at least for five or six days Kitty should not ride horse-back. Perhaps, there would be no harm in riding in the Ambulance any of those days or all. And yet it would certainly be better for Kitty to have absolute Rest from travel for two or three days.

Just here your plan seems providentially adoptable to the need. From our somewhat imperfect data we conclude you will reach Ft. Washakie Thursday night - and could remain there until Tuesday. If that is practicable it will be the thing to do for all and Kitty could go forward part of the way in Ambulance, if not able, then to take to horseback.

, 188...

If you can settle satisfactorily this part of the trip so as to give the three days absolute rest with a possibility of ambulance for Kitty for two days more - the whole plan will seem to be feasible.

There are two other alternatives: one not to start till the 10th; the other not to take Kitty. She feels greatly concerned that I have no occupation yet - not leaving my riding since last February & even my past savings thoroughly vanishing or gone by various mishaps.

If I were in my former place

P. A. Walker says she is not at all able to take much a trip to Oregon - ^{He would not think of it. After suffering} ^{much from her} living Kitty would feel much better about going away.

I am offered a place with the American Oxygen Co. as Secretary & Manager of Advertising to begin Oct. 1 at $2200 a year. ^{1st} It is yet two months of silence - ^{2nd} Not very congenial & adapted to my educational & experience - ^{3rd} Not so large a salary as I ought now to have.

Are enjoying Miss Bodmeyer's visit. She desires to go to Chicago tomorrow. Will take a drive with me & Grandma this morning. Mother has full of the new book "Howard &c" sees the inaccuracies & is amused.

Dear General:

15 I think I express a very general wish of the command in saying that we would like very much to get back to your Department.
So long as there was any prospect of active service we were more than willing to remain, but now that there seems to be no probabilit-ity of active operations camp life has become very tedious.

The excessive heat under canvaps is also causing sickness among soldiers coming from higher altitudes. The sick list in my Battalion of the 7th & 8th is not very large, only nine this morning, but many of those that are sick are very seriously so. The mercury has marked 100° in the shade nearly every day since we have been here.

What one of the ninth fear most is, that if the whole or a part of our Regiment are moved here, that we will lose an chance for an exchange to an Eastern Station which we have been promising, as we are the only Regiment which has never served East of the Mississippi.

This Indian scare along the Kansas border is the most successful & successful one I have ever heard of. An Indian has not been seen in this country for four years.

Mein lieber Herr General.

Es ist so lange seit ich Sie nicht gesehen habe, dass ich Ihnen einen kleinen Brief schreiben muss, ehe ich zurückkomme.
Ich habe eine sehr, sehr schöne, angenehme Woche in Glenview ver-lebt. Wir waren sehr viel im Wald und im Boot auf dem See; ich war oft bei Mrs. Glenview, und sie erzählte mir Vieles; ich half ihr einige Kleider fertig zu machen, sprach den Kindern mit den Kindern, was ihnen und mir Vergnügen machte.
Die Zeit ging so schnell hin, dass ich nicht wusste wie.

Wenig ist wissend und eben so die

Mr. Hallways Buch jetzt, und abgleich sie nicht Alles richtig fin-

Seit Sonntagabend bin ich hier bei meinen Freunden. Sie haben ein sehr schönes Haus nahe bei Genard Hoffields. Wir amüsieren uns ganz ausgezeichnet, haben so viel Ge-sprächen über Göttergötter, und ich habe so viele Besuche und Einladungen von ihnen Bekannten, daß jeder Augenblick, den ich hier sein werde, besetzt ist.
Am Samstag habe ich in der Chinesischen Sonntags-Schule einen Chinesen gelehrt. Das war sehr sonderbar; er wusste nur einige Worte Englisch, und ich mußte ihm Alles erklä-

July 28/85.

Dear General Howard,

I hope that Genl. Meek will see fit to submit to your own personal supervision my official endorsement, No 7, on a paper recommending the discharge of certain civilian Employees at this post, The Quartermaster (Lith. Patten 2nd Inf) suggests to the deft. Commander the discharge of Mr.
Frank Grouard post guide & interpreter, which I have urgently disapproved.
I regard Mr. Grouard as one of the best men in this country connected with the military force. He has a wonderful influence over the Indians & for at least 10 years it has been exercised for the benefit of the govt.

From all I can learn Mr Grouard, at the Battle of the Rosebud, saved Genl.
Crook's army from a massacre.

I know no living man who so holds in possession the confidence of the Crow nation as Frank Grouard

I think it would result as a disaster to a campaign set on foot (as is likely to occur) without the services of this man. He is simply invaluable, & (for his past services) deserves like Col Croghan at the Upper Falls of Minn. to be pensioned for life.

I have written my official endorsement in order that it might be recorded. I write this to you personally (I hope you will pardon the liberty) in order that no adverse ruling may prevail against the services of our past guide.

Notwithstanding his intimacy with friends & soldiers he is absolutely free from any faults of disposition. He is a brave & loyal soldier to the United States.

I hope you will interpose your powerful influence to keep him always under the colors, and I am with great respect your obdt servt.
