BOWDOIN COLLEGE,

BRUNSWICK, MAINE, January, 1886.

DEAR SIR:

The President and Faculty of Bowdoin College have authorized the librarian to forward regularly the annual catalogue to every graduate who desires to receive it. For this purpose I ask your post office address, and especially to be informed of any change of the same in the future. With the annual for the current year the address on President Woods by Professor C. C. Everett, D. D., will be sent to all expressing a desire for it.

I take this opportunity to earnestly request your aid and co-operation in the work of building up the college library. Its deficiencies are manifold, the means to supply them limited. Efforts are now being made to fill two new alcoves devoted to the publications of alumni and to the literature of Maine. For these I ask contributions of books, pamphlets, magazines and newspapers, written or published by graduates of the college and natives or residents of the state, including town and municipal reports, catalogues of educational institutions, Masonic publications, etc. If you have but a single book or pamphlet you can give, please mail it directly to the library. If more, kindly inform me by postal card and I will provide for transportation.

Respectfully,

GEORGE T. LITTLE,

Librarian.

My dear General Howard,

Your letter has been duly received. I cannot but thank you for the kind and frank announce-ment of your reasons for not being willing to give a letter of re-commendation to Colonel Morris.
No one, General, is required to love his neighbor better than himself, and, therefore, you could not be asked to give a letter if by such giving your own interests were jeopardized.
Of this you are yourself the best judge, but it would seem true that one ought to be able to commend the patriotism and services of a friend without divi--lating one's principles. One hold-ing your views, General, could 3 4 5 6 7 8 day of an Officer that while he was eminently fitted for the position of a Brigadier General and has richly earned it. you could not recommend his advancement to the place without violating a principle which you have long advo-cated in promotions in the Army, namely, that every thing being equal promotions should be made by seniority.

In this way you would keep strictly within the limits of your principles and at the same time give a friend the benefit of a record which might be of service to him either now or at some future time. -

In your own promotions, General, it would seem that your claims should be based

3 4 5 6 7 8
are something higher than mere seniority, - they should be for services many and brilliant.
It does not seem right, General, that an Officer of your Record should be forced to claim a Major Generalship merely on the date of a Commission.

Be assured that though you have not seen your way to say a good word for the Colonel, the esteem in which you are held in our family will not be at all diminished. - We have many blessings to be thankful for and we shall become neither more nor defected if fortune withhold from us a thing which ought not to be at all essential to our happiness.

I am, with great regard

Very sincerely

Sabilla Morris.

My dear Gen. Howard:

Your note of the 4th reached me on yes-

hear of the welfare of you and yours.

I have not heard the subject of the new Major General discussed here but have frequently heard it remarked that when the time arrived for the appointment, Gen Terry would claim seniority but how or for what reason, I do not know; I have heard it said that Gen Hancock expected the question would be raised on the Hagen Court but that Gen.

Terry thought best to defer it rather than keep the Court waiting here for a decision on so important a matter -

Were I in your place, I would write to the Adjutant General of the Army and say that you had been informed that Gen. Terry had officially made this claim and asking if such was the case, that you might be heard in the case; of course it would not do to make any reference to the proposed promotion, when the question of rank is concerned for under the law the appointment can be made by selection; Baird was made Insp. Gen. for the reason that he was the senior as far as length of service was concerned; if that rule should follow you would have to content with

Dear Sir,

Some few weeks ago. One Charles Reese a deserter from U.S. Army was arrested here, and taken to Cheyenne for trial, where he now is.

Two years ago, soon after his desertion, he went to Georgetown where I was then preaching and in one of my revival meetings he was converted and joined church, and has lived a Christian life from that day to this, so far as I can tell.
The next day after he ^{joined} ~~joined~~ church, he came to me and told me all about his desertion and wanted to know, what he had better do.
I advised him to report

For pay, and make a true statement of the whole matter -

He did not do this however -

I write to ask for him as much money as is possible

I have a letter from the

to be holding on to his religious principles -

Any money you may show him, will be appreciated else where -
