

ago - I had only been an Indian school man for 2 years then - I had plenty - in fact a superabundance of good spirits - I had another ride which reminds me of to-day - I used to go to the "Saguna" (a small pond about 2 miles from here) to swim - I put out my bathing suit in horse - my shirt & a jacket over it & tied the reel of my clothes behind in the saddle (how pretty a figure I would have made in the "Row" or the "Bois" or even the Park) Now I had to pass a very pretty copse of old oak trees - It was in May - vacation one month off - the birds were singing - This must be a favorite corner of "God's footstool" for the carpet was - - - oh why is this peri- or why am I so stupid - I Well I felt like as if I wanted to fly - I pulled off my shirt I pulled off my jacket - tickled both underneath me - sat straddling horrors - don't throw this letter please - I commenced to utter Indian war Dear General Howard - ^{Oct. 7. 87.} (How seem to need cheering - let me try - A sort of a description of how your letter came & was read - will do it - ^{I hope} I had not had any school for this week - imagined myself ill - dying - (If I had anything I would have made my will) I sent over to the store last Mail day & there was no letter from you - So today - Friday ^{7th} - I got a horse - (perhaps you know that there is as much difference in horses as there is among men) & rode over myself - I had recently requested the Post mistress at the nearest P.O. - 20 miles from here, to put all my letters into an Off. envelope & close it up & address to me, so that neither the Mail carrier nor the store keeper (whose bite noire I am, for I fight his liquor selling as much as I can) can handle my letters. So I arrived at the place - The usual route of the world (so to speak) country store - a Quaman, an old soldier - happened to have arrived there that morning & he came out & said - Some Mail here for you Miss G. - Is there? I said - that is what I came over for - Will you not come down - No thank you - if you will kindly give me my Mail I will go back - Yes but there is a receipt letter & you will have to receipt for it - I got down & opened the Envelope - there were - yours & 4 others - Now I were official letters one my quarter's salary & the payrolls to sign - so I did that & had them duly witnessed & I never scrawled my name so before - Well they know I can write better - Then, forgive me - I opened yours - In this vile place - but I did not read more than the first page - I folded it & put it away - The storekeeper had been to his house across the way to his dinner & he came in while I was reading - The old German said - Don't talk to Miss G. He has a loaf letter. - You know - no you do not how nervous & sensitive I am - - Those words were kindly meant - but they jarred oh how hard ly on my feelings - Well in a very little while I left & had to go about a quarter of a mile to get out of sight - Then I pulled out my Mail & began to read your letter - I began & all at once I continued aloud now I never did such a thing in my life before It was very windy & the air carried my words away - They were your words - your thoughts I am quite sure that where they fell to the ground or wherever they alighted like song-fellows ~~arrow~~ song - the flowers will bloom sweeter than ever before - Then I put the letter back into my packet & I had a heavenly moment of rapturous thankfulness to God & to you - & then - now comes the cheering part - I commenced to whistle & hoot & sing & act like an Apache - I suppose - How mistaken you are if you think I have no faults Why I am forever doing unladylike things fearfully so - sometimes - then I am whimsical - uncharitable - conceited - selfish Oh dear - I am forgetting I am not in the Confession & I want to cheer you - well about 4 years looks like to day - . - To day it is Oct - it was ⁸⁰³ is rather cold - very cloudy - but your dear letter - made it May etc etc etc - for me - I am so glad that you are a married man - Six & age etc has nothing to do with "friendship" - God bless you dear General - dear friend. - I have a "getting up fit" just now & rise every morning before 5 - Venus is morning star now - You must have - perhaps somewhere on a battle field - in order perhaps worse circumstances than mine here - seen this beautiful star rise - the moon pale in the west - Your friendship is like that star What have I done to deserve it? - Nothing I am unworthy - but I can try & be very good - to become worthy of it & to prove to our dear Father - how grateful I am. - & Now it is 4.45 P.M. & I had nothing for lunch except a little bit of bread & butter & a small piece of apple & a few grapes & even your letter can not prevent me from getting hungry. - I must not forget one thing - Please, dear General, do not write such long letters when you are tired - oh do not - I feel like a brute - with your poor one hand - & the left one too - I have not taken off my habit yet - I will have "canned" oysters - do not heave a sigh & groan - "You poor wretch" - but they do not require much cooking - Did you let Mrs. Howard read my letter & will you let her read this one? Are you acquainted with Mrs. Fowler? Bishop Fowler's wife? - do you like her? ^{10 minutes later} Before I went to cooking I read your letter again & found the place in the Bible Math. 8. 8 - 5-13 - Lovely - Oh how I wish I could have been there - I mean when you read & spoke about it - Some body corrected ^{Westford} ~~Walden~~ - I see you did yourself - How say

I observe closely - Yes, too closely for my own good - But how can I help it? - Have those latest slang words reached you? "I am built that way" - ^{7, 22, 33 years old, Christ's age} You see another fault - Using slang - a young woman & nobody - writing to Mr. Gen. O. O. Howard using slang - writing about bathing suits riding ~~at the~~ (how do you spell this, please) canoe rippers - etc - If you are as lenient to your men - as you are with me - I only wish I could be one of them.
Father used to say that it was a mistake that I was a girl - I am awfully sorry for it myself - I always wanted to be a man. Dear me - what a family you have - I have 3 brothers & 1 sister ^{I mean here} with whom I am not on speaking terms.
Do you remember what our text was the last time I had the pleasure of hearing you? Math 5 -
- 22 incl (August 21 1887) - I took your words to heart specially - when you said - that it seems harder to forgive those nearer to us - well - when I take a "good fit" I pray for her & hers - she has 3 or 4 children - I only know 2 - two noble little fellows - Then I have a poor sister in law, the widow of my favorite brother & at niece & nephew in New York - My sister is married to a Spaniard & he is quite well to do. - My brothers are making a living & are not married - By the way you might have sent me one of your own pictures - Would you? Please to - but now I must stop this - It does not make me sad at all to think of death - Why should it? On the contrary - One of my most fervent prayers has been - Oh God shake me fit to die & take me - Good by - God bless you & yours - May this letter bring you 100% out of the fog yours did to me - Humbly yours

Saturday morning - Your letter has waked up in me ⁸⁰⁴ such a perfect flood of beautiful thoughts that I must write a little more - I will try & write a little more plainly, so that you will not have much trouble to read. - You know I pray with these Indians old & young - only once a month & then such lovely thoughts come into my head & mouth! When you are in your Bible Class - do it sudden thoughts come to you of which you never dreamed before? And don't sometimes - on special occasions - thoughts come to you which you are unable & kind of afraid to clothe - to I could nearly say desecrate - in words - The lesson you speak of Math. 5-13 is such a treasure - such an inexhaustible source of comfort & all sorts of good things that a short hour seems so little to spend with it - it seems to me - a man like you & in your position - would have special thoughts - new thoughts every time you read it. Am I not right? -

Can ask me, Is not faith unreserved, whole - faith a blessed thing? - God - ~~the~~ God - Let me keep what little I have - give me more. What would this life - this world be without it? - Oh ⁸⁰⁴ those poor - poor things who have it not. Your friendship - what would it be - I know I could enjoy nothing without my faith & love for God - When I see you again I want to ask you something about superstition - do you think it hard to distinguish among - faith - bigotry & superstition? - Oh I am so glad that I am alone (except for the One who is always everywhere) to have a nice morning talk - You need not read it all at once; do not - I beg you - & not just before nor after a meal - I would not cause you indigestion for the world. The thought of death strikes me very friendly - when I am concerned - but I am just mean & selfish enough not to want to see a few dear ones go before me. - I would like to meet your wife - The day I saw you last - there was our the landlady outside Mr. B. - (I forget the name) study a lady - she was dressed in dark clothes so I did not notice - but she looked so kind

So good & nice. She asked me if I knew you - & I really could not very well say I did, but after hesitating a little I said - I may say so - I wonder was she Mrs. Howard, how she must have laughed at what she I said - I saw you are dear General - to write such a long letter - I hope that none of your own dear ones had to suffer for it - so many who would anxiously wait for a word from you - And yet you wrote - & strange your words though written with a tired hand - gave me rest & peace - joy that joy, which you spoke of when I saw you last - I think that joy - as you meant it, I believe - that is as far as a stupid thing like I can understand it is one of God's greatest gifts - better - oh how can I think of it even, than wealth, yes a ^{million} times better. - Don't you laugh at my composition - construction I mean? - something like - shopping woman - Have you any gauge ladie's nests? - Clerk - No madam - but we have ladie's gauge nests - I hope I will have an opportunity to send this today - as I am quite sure to - ^{will} ~~marrow~~ or before the next Mail day (Tuesday) I will be ashamed or afraid to send this - Well I ought to be - But I never - no not quite as bad as that - but I rarely do what I ought.
Just read over - this letter - not a bad letter - ^{the result of} ~~combined~~ ^{your own} ~~combined~~ - But do not thank me for it - ^{the result of} ~~combined~~ ^{your own} ~~combined~~ - ^{Vote me} ~~Vote me~~ ^{Love} ~~Love~~ ^{Edwin} ~~Edwin~~

My dear General:-

928

Enclosed please find press report of the recent reunion of the 3^d Maine Regt at Augusta -

I was unexpectedly complimented by unanimous Election as President of the Association for the ensuing year - and I take my initial step in that capacity by inviting you to be present at our next reunion at Oakland Aug 16 - 1888. and also to the dedication of the regiment's monument at Gettysburg July 2nd next -

The reception given by the citizens of Augusta surpassed in spirit and in proportions any honors

Ever shown to a Regiment in this State - Governor Bodwell, Attorney General Baker, Judge Whitehouse, Col. Staples and others spoke of you and yr name was cheered most heartily -

As the years go by our reunions seem to take on more dignity and strength of influence -

The National Association of these occasions seem to teach the young people something of the cost of National unity - and of the broadest duties of citizenship -

Seeing this growth of the higher sentiments among our members and the increased public attention to and attendance upon the Evening Ceremonies (which, usually, are held in the Churches of our thriving Towns,) I feel sure that you will find keen enjoyment in again meeting with yr old Regiment - and if yr duties will permit you to come I can promise you, in its name, that its warm greeting such fun to see those stupid little things wriggle!"

"Is it, really?" said Arbuthnot, with impeturbable gravity, while the speaker began to angle his absurd little line in the water.

"Do you know what that makes me think of?" he continued, in a low tone, which only Sybil heard. "It reminds me of a definition which I once heard given for a fishing-rod—a stick with a worm at one end, and a fool at the other."

Sybil broke out into a merry laugh, which made Evelyn turn around to see what the fun was.

"Won't you try now?" said Mr. Arbuthnot. "There are not very many people at the table."

"Yes," said Evelyn, sweetly; "let us try now, by all means. Do you know, Mr. Arbuthnot, there is to be a german after the fishing, and we ladies have to fish our partners out of yonder bowl?"

"How momentous!" Arbuthnot exclaimed. "I hope heaven may be kind to me."

Evelyn smiled at him, and Sybil, having a sense of being in the way moved toward the table.

"Come ladies!" cried the youth with the eyeglass. "There is as good fish in the sea as ever yet were caught."

"Allow me!" said Dick Travers, a brother of the hostess, to whom Sybil had been presented, and she found herself in possession of one of the gilded willow rods, which were gaily adorned with bows of ribbon.

She cast in her line, and almost immediately the others were cast alongside.

"I am fishing for you, Miss Weir," said Dick, boldly. "I want a good partner, and you look as though you danced divinely."

"I am very fond of it," Sybil said, modestly; but I don't know much about the german. I think I should be almost afraid to try."

Evelyn frowned and bit her lips. What a fool the girl was!

"Why, Sybil," she said, pettishly, "you are fishing on my side. I want that little fat fish. I am sure he has got something nice in him."

"You are welcome to him, I'm sure," said Sybil, abandoning her game very pleasantly. "I'd rather have that slim little fellow. Perhaps he hasn't anything in him, and I shall be allowed to look on."

"Aha!" cried Dick, whose skilled hand had hooked up the first fish. "What have we got here? No. 17. Amy, what is No. 17—gentleman's prize?"

"You dance with Miss Irwin," said Mrs. Bayard, putting a box into her brother's hand.

Dick groaned.

"Never mind," said Arbuthnot, laughing. "We are only going to have six figures. Let us see what you have got."

Dick produced a very pretty leather pocket-book, which they were all admiring, when Miss Evelyn's cry of triumph rivetted attention on herself.

"I've got him!" she exclaimed, lifting the fat fish out of the water.

But great was her chagrin when she

The reunion of the Third Maine regiment at Augusta Wednesday, Sept. 21st was the largest and most successful ever held by them. Deputations of Grand Army men were present from all over Maine and many other parts of New England. Headquarters were established at the Augusta House.

Among the many prominent Grand Army men present were the well-known and honored veterans, Col. M. B. Lakeman of Malden, Mass.; General James Smith, Bangor; General Harris M. Plaisted, Augusta; Major Frank W. Haskell, Waterville; Lieutenant C. T. Hooper, Bath; Major John S. Wiggin, Bath; Captain John R. Day, Vassalboro'; Colonel Henry G. Staples, Augusta; Major William Thombs, New York; Captain G. Fuller, Hallowell; H. N. Fairbanks. At a business meeting held at Grand Army Hall, at 10 o'clock this forenoon the following officers were elected: President, F. W. Haskell of Waterville; vice presidents, B. D. Savage of Skowhegan, Henry Penniman of Winthrop, H. G. Staples of Augusta; secretary, William McDaird of Augusta; recording secretary, Lewis Selbing of Augusta; treasurer, George P. Fuller of Hallowell; surgeon, George E. Brickett of Augusta; chaplain, S. F. Chase of Salem, Mass.; committee on resolutions, H. N. Fairbanks, G. S. Fuller, Henry Penniman, H. A. Goulding, F. W. Haskell; executive committee, M. B. Lakeman, H. N. Fairbanks, John Lord, G. F. Gannett, Charles Landers, W. H. Higgins, G. S. Jolman, H. A. N. Dunton, H. S. Goulding, J. R. Day, George H. Fisher, H. Snell. One thousand dollars were raised for a Gettysburg monument. The meeting continued in session until 1.30, when a procession was formed, headed by the Hallowell band, and marched to the Augusta House for dinner.

In the evening, the city was fairly alive with people, and it is estimated that 5000 people from out of town witnessed the parade. At 7 o'clock Seth Williams Post, G. A. R., and the Capitol Guards, M. V. M., formed in line, headed by the Hallowell band, and marched to the Augusta House to escort the Third Maine Regiment to Meonian Hall, where a grand banquet was held. As the line started all the bells of the city were rung, cannons boomed and brilliant fireworks lit up the streets all along the line of march. The illumination of private residences was very fine. Along Water street the stores were illuminated and bunting and flags profusely displayed.

The procession marched directly to Meonian Hall, where the Ladies Relief Corps had prepared a sumptuous banquet to the veterans. Over 300 plates were laid for the veterans and the invited guests. On entering the hall the men were welcomed by Mayor Macomber who proffered them the freedom of the city.

The veterans then sat down to their banquet. At the close of the banquet the exercises began. Captain S. A. Lane acted as toastmaster. Among the many prominent gentlemen who responded to toasts were Governor Bodwell of Hallowell; General Selden Connor, General H. M. Plaisted, Hon. J. Manchester Haynes, Hon. O. D. Baker, General S. J. Gallagher, Judge A. G. Andrews, Colonel E. C. Allen, Augusta; General Luther Stephenson, jr., Governor and Captain Cobaugh, treasurer of National Soldiers' Home, Togus; General C. W. Tilden, Hallowell.

Tuesday an excursion to the National Home for disabled volunteer soldiers at Togus was made. There they were tendered a reception by General Stephenson, governor of the Home.

It was voted that the next reunion be held at Oakland, Aug. 16, 1888.

shall quicken yr heart beats and that you will feel satisfaction in the honorable progress of yr old Command.

I take this occasion to thank you for the letter which you kindly sent to Gen. Black in my behalf - It failed to reach me at Boston but was sent to Gen. B. by the P.O. Sept months afterwards -

I thank you for it but I was not appointed - The G. A. R. of Maine unanimously endorsed me ~~and~~ ^{as} also, did all the progressive young democracy of the State - but the old Bourbon brigade objected on the ground that I was not an orthodox democrat -

I therefore withdrew my papers. yet - it is with much satisfaction that I tell you that ^{a year} after, the Young Democracy of this district, last fall, nominated me for representative to the Legislature and although defeated by a brother Grand Army Comrade I was complimented at my home, in this University Town, by receiving the largest vote ever cast for a democrat.

Candidate (504) - It is honored by being 13 Copperhead votes and by receiving nearly 100 Republican votes as an offset -

Pardon me for telling you all this but I want you to know how difficult it is for a Union Soldier, who has not yet apologized for having enlisted in the Union Army, to satisfy the moss-back variety of Maine's Democracy.

Mrs Hackell joins in kindest wishes for your welfare.

Very truly, Your friend -

Fort Buford, D. T.

October 10th 1887.

General O. O. Howard, U. S. Army, San Francisco, Cal.

General:

Soon after the note sent you in June, I went into the field, and have just returned. Mrs. Turner reported to me the names of the General Officers responding to my request as their replies came in, and I came home under the impression that your name was mentioned. Otherwise I would have made explanation sooner.

I fail to find any letter from you among the kindly ones received, and as it is my purpose to send all I have to say through regular military channels, I would like to add your endorsement to those already received. I think I will have time to embody it.
If not, would like permission to send it to Senator Frye, who has agreed to push the matter as soon as it reaches the Military Committee.

I have been writing on the presumption that you received my first enclosure, and refrained from reply upon the principle of objection to interfering in matters of Army legislation. The fact that I am moving by military methods will probably remove that objection.

Please Consider the poorly Cared for Acting Assistant Surgeons, and the proposed measure of relief; and give me the benefit of your views thereon.

Very respectfully

My dear General,

Last night I was pleased by the receipt of your kind words

Unfortunately, I am in no condition of mind to write cheerfully so I will say but little. Mrs Wood writes me of the almost hopeless illness of our youngest - a baby boy - and I feel in my heart that none are so young that we can spare them, from what I hear to Mrs Wood must be almost prostrated with work and anxiety.

I have not those external sources of consolation which

2 3 4 5 6 7 8 you and most men have and which I have in vain tried to convince you I would so joyfully welcome if I could.

A man would be a fool to blacken his sky with my hopeless belief if by any plausible trick of the mind he could persuade himself into the sunshine peace and comfort of a belief in immortality and salvation.
Change annihilation into a mere parting for a time with all we love here, But it is as impossible for me to drive myself into the blissful region of faith as it would be for you to join me, which I hope my dear General is impossible.
So without aid or consolation I simply lie here and suffer.

Give my love to Mrs Howard Grace and all the others.

Believe me yours very truly

C. E. Wood

My dear Father

Yesterday in my short letter to you I said I would write you to-day how much I will need before Oct. 21, to pay all my necessary expenses until then. I need as follows.

For Room rent, my share, 4 weeks @ 3.25 -	$13.00
For Board 4 - @ 4.00 -	16.00
For Books 2. paper & envelopes 1. stamps .80 pencils .15 -	4.45
For dyeing & repairing old winter overcoat	2.20
For a pair of shoes	3.50
For chemicals & glass tubing for "Blow Pipe" work	1.25
For use toward data, plans &c for "Graduating Thesis" -	4.20
For washing 2. Toilet soap .10; soap .25	2.35
For expense of visiting Mr. C.C. Walworth	.20
Total	47.65

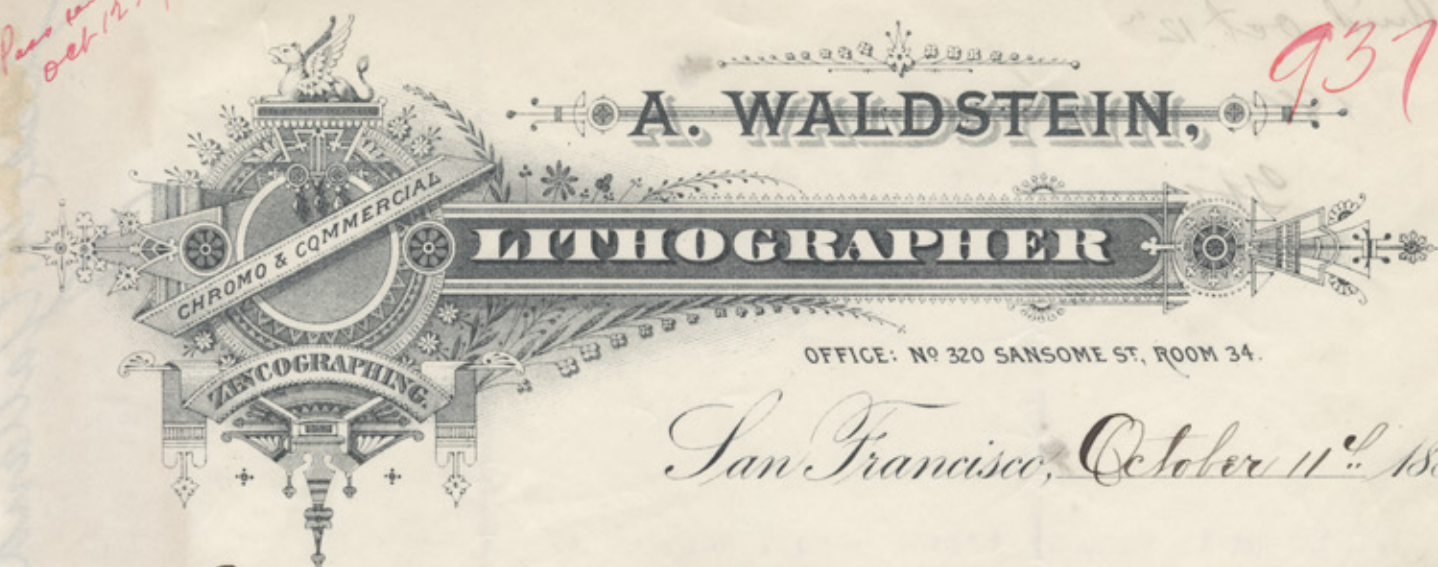

Please send me this much sure from San Fr. on or before Oct. 21, st. I am trying to live even for less than heretofore, because of examples sake (we preach) and because for at least a short time after I graduate I will need to have you help me a little financially - probably, and I wish to be of as little expense to you as possible during this year - That you may possibly feel better able to help me a little then. I was successful in getting a suit of winter clothing - excellent.

Thick, rough material, black with a broken dark blue line in it, fits well for only $14. for the whole suit. It is the best bargain I have ever made in my life. I think clothing is cheap here in Troy if one will insist upon having it as I look about mine carefully. John is doing very well, stands well, will probably astonish us in many ways, is much interested in his studies especially - really makes his time wonderfully well.

I am well, my work this week is very hard.
I insist upon retiring surely before midnight every night. I have not failed in any recitations yet except to-day I did not know the exact difference between Kind Sir: If not intruding upon your kindness, I would consider it a special favor if you would please send me a pass to visit "Angel Island" on the General McDowell on Thursday, with my wife and six friends.

Being new arrivals in San Francisco, they are very anxious to visit the island and hear the "Angel Island Band," etc; and I desire to say, that they are people of good standing, and hence these lines.

If you would favor me with the same you would greatly oblige me.

Thanking you in advance for the kindness here-
