My dear General.

This morning at $\frac{1}{2}$ past 9 o'clock I was placed in arrest, by the Commanding Officer of the post, without any reason or explanation being given.

As I have been nearly 27 years an officer in the army without arrest, or even reprimand, you can judge of my humiliation and mortification.

The circumstances are these:

I had inspected my Company, returned to my quarters, after registering my intended absence to go to Church in the City, and changed from full dress uniform to citizen clothes, was about stepping into Lieut. Harris' car to be driven to California St. when I remembered I had not any cigars, I stepped into the Club room, a few yards off, and purchased some was about entering the car when the Adjutant called me aside and placed me in arrest.

Very Respectfully

Your Obedt. Servt.

H. K. Tisdall.

My dear Aunt Howard -

My dear Aunt -
I have lately returned from Honduras where I have been nearly all the past year, - I am now making an endeavor to raise Capital here to develop some very excellent mining property I have there, and with very good prospects of success - I have met our friend Cal McLamburg, and he has taken quite an interest in giving me access to the best men in the City - as I find him to be one of them - I should like much a letter from you saying what you know about me, Your name would at once give me great assistance, and place me on Vantage ground.— All of course subject to your pleasure, My health has been excellent—never better in my life.—

I had hoped to see you in Chicago, but it seems you are not to come at present.

Please accept my highest regards while I remain as

My dear Father

Your good letter of the 28th is here. I thank you for the check for $75. That will pay for everything except the suit of clothing which I had expected to obtain. I can, gladly, ~~manage~~ do without the suit for a short time longer.

I manage to get a good suit, coat pants & vest for $15. I must have a good new suit when I finish here & begin with Mr. Barber. Education & Character are much helped by demeanor & a neat appearance. I hope to attain to these four things. They go a long way among men in business. My object in life however is "Godliness & contentment" which are success, or which are success.

As to your letter to Adelheid concerning our marriage here, it was a good letter & helped us both. She is a woman of circumspection & I endeavor to be her equal in wisdom. Whatever you write in good & we well understand your interest & that you will record our efforts in life.

My schooling & travel seems to draw to a successful end & I hope to make no business mistakes. Now nervous. As soon as I am established in business, then comes the time for my marriage.

Adelheid will sail on July 5 on the Steamer HAMMONIA from N.Y. to Hamburg. She has (engaged) a good stateroom & there will be but one lady, besides herself, in it.

I am glad Harry has such opportunities to learn. Personal instruction from teachers who are interested in subject & pupil is of more value than the usual "book method of learner" (not a teacher).

Please send me $15. as soon as you conveniently can. Good news comes from Grandmother. John's progress is steady & sure. Write him when you can. It does him good. I had rather have him hear from you than receive a letter myself. Great however the pleasure is to me to get a letter from you sometimes. You speak of a mother's influence. Do you know that I feel my mother's influence in business life into which I have already entered, I think I have from her reticence & a perception of men's motives & more perhaps.

With much love to all from Jessie

My dear General

I regret extremely that your order to me to direct Capt. Liddell to report to you this morning at or before 11.30 o'clock was overlooked, and can only hope that you may not have been put to serious inconvenience by the neglect. I would like

To explain how the our sight, on my part, occurred, without, however, desiring to excuse my self for the neglect. on my return to my office from your Hd. Qrs on Saturday, I directed my adjutant to remind me this morning of the order, he made a memorandum of it but in the multiplicity of duties attending the preparation for review, instruction & much, this morning, he forgot his memorandum

I did not meet the Infantry battalion, I think, should have remembered it myself on seeing Capt. Lister, and I had just gone to the duties in connection with the other part of the Command when Mr. Chase's dispatch was received. It is very worth seeing to me to ever find in any def. and I hope you will be so kind in your estimate of me for this failure as possible.

Dear General,

I find on returning to the Post, this 8 p.m., that I have been detailed for Officer of the Day to-morrow, consequently I cannot keep my engagement with you. I have concluded not to say anything to Genl. Graham on the subject. If you desire the papers I have, before I see you on Wednesday, I'll send them to you, on notification, by the mail-carrier who leaves here 12 m. or give them to any person you may send for them earlier.

Respectfully,

Wm K. Fiskall,

Genl. O. O. Howard, U.S.A.

Dear General,

I find on returning to the Post this 8th inst. that I have been selected for Officer of the day to-morrow, consequently I cannot keep my engagement with you. I have concluded not to say anything to Genl. Graham on the subject. If you desire the papers I have, before I see you on Wednesday, all sent them to you, in satisfaction, by the next carrier who leaves tomorrow. It gave them to my former post and sent for them earlier.

Respectfully,
Wm. K. Thibault.

Col. C. T. Howard.
