General Howard

Dear Sir:

Excuse the liberty I take in addressing you, I must thank and bless you for the great mercy you have shown me, a poor unfortunate sinner. But for you, God only knows what would have been my fate, and the fate of the one I love so well. You have been our Saviour, you have reunited us at the moment our lives were about to be wrecked. God bless you General, you have strengthened my faith in Him above and have taught me that there is forgiveness for those who repent and that God helps those who ask for help.

My promised bride joins me in our heartfelt thanks to you, and we shall always think of you as our saviour who rescued us from a fate that I dare not even think of.

Thank you, thank you General from the bottom of my heart. You have given me more than life, you have saved my honor.

Trusting that I have not taken too great a liberty

I remain

Very Respectfully your obedient servant,
Frank B. M. Hileman.

My Dear Sir:

Please excuse the liberty of sending you my book in this way. From necessity I have adopted unusual methods to gain a living. I am deaf, wife & deaf mute. Was successful over 30 years, had an honest fortune of $25,000. In 1882 fate lured me to the stock market, made $7,000 at first, this led on to the usual result, by 1886 my money was all swallowed by the octopus. I am getting old, am unfit for manual labor and shut out by infirmity from positions I might otherwise fill. I would do me no good to sell through News Co's, they take 50% off, ^{for vendors profit} and such books are not allowed sale on any of the Rail ways. Monopoli boy cotts them. Many eminent men have bought and commended the book. It is a full exposure of Wall St methods and contains much information on monetary and other matters. My home was broke up over a year ago, have not seen my wife since, she is 170 miles off, while I am in a garret room trying, against odds my own do not have, to get a little start and have a home again. Treated as I am can you not excuse the method? If so kind as to buy it will really be an act of charity. The 4¢ stamps are for return of book, if you are not pleased with it and to keep me a trifle. Very Respectfully
"How to avoid losses" is in Chap XXVI. Moses Smith Dr Thaddeus L. Angler wrote me: "I think it a valuable book for young men." A County Judge wrote: "I find its perusal both interesting and profitable".
I will never trouble you but once, please.

My dear General:

It is proposed on July 1st 1888 to dedicate a monument to the 119th Regiment. I have thought that if you could be present on that occasion, it would be very gratifying to all of us. The 11th Corps will be quite well represented, and as our battle occurred on the 1st day of July, it seems to have been lost sight of, and yet it was the dispositions made by you with the few troops at your command that checked the Rebel advance, and made them pause. As I lay wounded on the field, I heard the words "The Army of the Potomac is here" passed among the rebel soldiers, and communicated to the officers. At once they moved with greater caution, and time was gained to make the admirable position you had taken secure, and it remained so during the whole battle.

If you can make it convenient to be present, send me word at once, so that arrangements can be made.

I have the honor to remain,

Very respectfully yours,

To

General O.O. Howard.

Dear Friend.

I am sorry to be absent from your Bible Class so long - but do not wish to appear there while my face is in this swollen and inflamed condition.
It is much better, still I do not like to see as many strangers as I meet there. I just begin to see that I have been very forward in asking favors of you;
and that you have been very patient

Beside the respect- and reverence, I feel on that- a count- I have a kinder feeling from of your remembrance to my father, who was about- your age when he died. But- were he living would be very much older ~~than yourself~~.

I wish now, after the hard struggle you have passed through that- you might- have an easier life, time and money for travel, study-and your family- which I know you ^{very} respect ^{and} ^{very} ^{much} ^{for}.

and forbearing. Then²
I asked you to come to the Baptist church
and asked a great favor, and did not realize
it. When I come to you again, I asked a greater, and of course, when Mr. M^r. Bay was compelled to do what he did not want too, because he could not refuse you,
I was taking advantage of circumstances, to a degree of boldness. I never expected to stoop too. I have since seen Miss Homlin sick and ready to die; then he reveals himself. Your Christian teaching has done me good, I have caught from you a deeper meaning in life; and again you comhave done for our country. Doubtless introduction. I have not looked at things right, or understood what was right and proper to do. But if you all knew how sewildered, and terrumted I have been, you could not laugh at

me. I have had no right to drag others in to what they had no faith in, or relish for. Those who have heard me, may well
ask. What merit does Miss Cofford claim?
I answer - only the merit of a shriveled groups small to my vision, and sweet unfoldings, of life eternal.

Meal in and make the grey clouds and powerful as babies when God is silent. We long for the strong firm grasp of friendship.

But when he wishes to teach us to trust - wholly in ^{him} ~~himself~~, he determined to expand.

Do you think I like to show myself, to give up that holding myself apart from the crowd, which is a natural instinct with me? But I have done it, and shall go on. Urged forward by debt, dependance and a dread of becoming imbecile.
I can never go back to the quiet refined life I always expected to live, but I shall walk true, and faithful with God. and stand

Dear C. G. Howard
I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th inst. and in reply to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration. I am, however, unable to say whether or not they will be successful in their efforts. I am, nevertheless, very anxious to see that you are satisfied with the result. I am, therefore, very sorry that I cannot give you a more definite answer at this time. I am, however, very sure that you will understand my position.
