Gen. O. O. Howard,

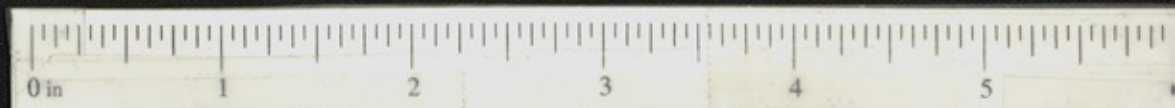

Dear Sir:-

Please accept with the compliments of the publishers, a copy of David Barker's Poems, forwarded by mail to-day. The presentation of this book to you is on account of one of the poems entitled, "The Empty Sleeve," the title of which was conveyed to Mrs. Barker by being an attentive listener to a speech delivered by you on the balcony of the Bangor House during the exciting period of the war. We trust you will derive much pleasure in its perusal.

With kind regards, we remain, Yours truly, O. F. Knowles & Co.

Maj. General O. O. Howard;

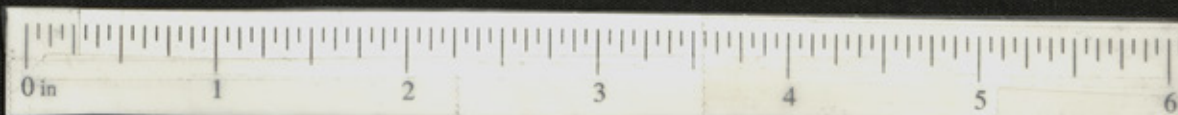

Dear Sir;

If there had been opportunity the other night when I shook hands with you at Berkley Temple I wanted to ask if you would not write an article for the Congregationalist on Temperance. You have had a very wide observation on this subject and we should be glad to put before our readers your freshest thought in the matter. One important point to be urged now, as it seems to me, is the importance of unity among the friends of the cause. Especially is this the case in Mass. where Constitutional prohibition was defeated as a large proportion of the true friends of temperance did not believe that movement to be a wise one. But you have your own thoughts on the matter and I wish you might consent to put them on paper; and we shall be glad to send our check in return. Doubtless you are exceedingly busy, but so are most of the men who are accomplishing anything, and therefore I have the confidence to write you.

In referring to my brother, A. D. Richardson, the other night I do not think you recalled just then the sad affair of his death--shot by McFarland now twenty years ago.

Yours Respectfully;

C. A. Richardson

My dear General Howard:

As suggested by you to day, I furnish you with the following sketch, to afford data for any statement you may kindly prepare for me. -

Born in Vermont; graduated at the University of Vermont ^{in 1854}, receiving the degrees of A. B. and A. M.; resided in Kentucky from date of leaving college until the war broke out. Had law ~~with~~ mainly at Richmond Ky, with Major Quinn Turner; joined a company of "Home Guards" early in the winter of 1860-61 and did duty with this company until the fall of 1861 The object of the formation of "Home Guards" in Kentucky was the defense of the Union and later ^{also} to resist the secession of the State. The company to which I belonged was called into service and participated in the campaign which ended in the battle of Mill Springs: Was appointed Paymaster's Clerk in Sept or Oct 1861, served in this capacity with Major William Smith until Sept 1862 and ^{thereafter} with Major J. W. Felt 2 until he until he resigned in Dec 1863, making nearly all of the latter's disturbances. Major Fell procured my appointment from President Lincoln without my solicitation or knowledge. The letter appointing me was dated Dec 23rd 1863 but I was not commissioned until February 1864. From that date, served in the Department of the South at Hilton Head, Beauford and Charleston until August 1865: Served in the Department of the Missouri from Sept 1865 until summer of 1870, from a time when there was not a mile of railroad in the Department and during a period of almost uninterrupted Indian hostilities.

During this period, was attacked several times by Indians.
I mention but two of these attacks, viz one in May 1867 by from 50 to 70 Indians and again in September 1867 by about four hundred. My journeys by Ambulance in this Department for payment of the troops were from twelve hundred to sixteen hundred miles.

From 1870 to 1876 served in the Department of Dakota - a year at Sioux City paying from that point to Fort Buford - a year at Helena, paying at Forts Shaw, Benton, Ellis, Camp Baker and Carroll two hundred miles from Helena and four years at St Paul, the service in the Department of Dakota being also from a time when rail roads gave little relief from the weary distances traveled by Ambulances and little protection against the unspeak-able hardships and exposure of winter travel. Served in the Department of Arizona from 1876 to Dec 1878 before the introduction of any trips. I

the last

Office Chief Paymaster, of any railroad, being Chief Paymaster but making the regular pay trips. Served in the Department of California from Dec 1878 to April 1882, the latter part of the time as Chief Paymaster of the Pacific ^{DIVISION OF THE ATLANTIC} Dept.

of California; from April 1882 to Sept 1886 in the Dept of the Columbia as Chief Paymaster but making the regular pay trips; from Sept 1886 until April 1888 at San Francisco as Chief Paymaster Division of the Pacific and from the latter date in N.Y. City as Chief Paymaster Division of the Atlantic.

At all of these stations I have done my full share of office payments and of payments at posts. My disbursements have been large A final settlement of my accounts up to June 30, 1888 discloses no stoppage or suspension against me, From the Commencement of Service as Clerk in 1861 to the present time, I have not been absent from duty to exceed six months.

Very Sincerely Yours

In reply I would say that if you will kindly address an early letter in my behalf to the President I think that would be best.

the following gentlemen united in a request

J. H. Smith, Esq., A. S. Pratt, Esq., Prof. J. Richards,

We desire Dr. Rankin. I have carefully studied university interests and I am sure that my judgment is right. Any advice to the contrary is founded in a mistaken view of the situation. Please endeavor to attend the special meeting.

I told my wife (who is a native of E. Now dear Gen.^l comes the penalty for your condescension, I wish to possess your photograph with your autograph at the bottom, this is what I cannot purchase, or I would not trouble, but my wife, son and self will be truly grateful, and keep the "counterfeit presentment" of your features as a treasure. By the way on the Friday eve. prior to "Memorial Day" I had the pleasure of meeting the Chaplain of W.S. Grant Post. G.A.R. Dear General, Yours of 7th is at hand. As far as I know. McNulty is all right. I have only seen him occasionally of late years. Dr Patton has resigned, to take effect Jan 1st 1890. The step was a great surprise to all of us, as not an intimation of his intention had been hinted to any of us. His reason is a good one. he has no home now since Mary was married. and he feels lonely and "broken up". He will remain on the Board and we shall get the benefit of his experience. He is a man of rare qualities, and exactly fitted for the place. Stranger things have happened than that "our dear friend Dr Rankin" may succeed him. I think the Doctor will entertain such a proposition if it comes to him, with anything like unanimity. On my motion you were put on to the active list of Trustees. You are now so near that you can be with us occasionally. Deane is sort of disgruntled with everybody, not excluding himself. He thought he was not appreciated in the Old Church, so with a sigh went over to the Tabernacle, and I hear he is not happy there. Our friend Col. Kelton has won the Star of the Adj. Genl. I wish it was my old friend of the "Army of the Cumberland" Genl. Whipple, now on your staff I think.

My old associates in the Army of the Cumberland, have a very warm place in my heart.
He thought to have seen at least Harry & Persie over here at Lina Whittneys Wedding. I owe Harry a letter. Tell him those two young ladies on 11th Street are going to Wellesley this fall. May enjoy a meeting your self & family in Mobile very much. She is at home, and he has been & come with her, as his health gave out, and he has to leave.
Kilwin has just come in, and begs to be remembered. Extend our kind regards to your family

Sincerely
G. W. Farrow
