Dear General:

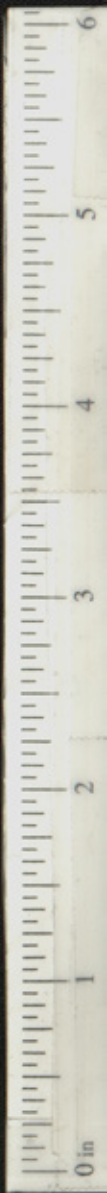

It is impossible for me to give you notes on Mr. Savage's article. The matters he discusses are of such tremendous importance — The Fall; the Atonement; Heaven; Hell; and the infallible Bible; — that I am far from sure I have a fixed opinion and belief upon any one of them.

Please read the book I send you. H. P. L. L.

What Would Jesus Do?

[Printed from the original autograph of Bishop Bickersteth, presented by him to Rev. Dr. Deems.]

When the morning paints the skies
And the birds their songs renew,
Let me from my slumbers rise
Saying, "What would Jesus do?"

Countless mercies from above
Day by day my pathway strew;
Is it much to bless Thy love?
Father, "What would Jesus do?"

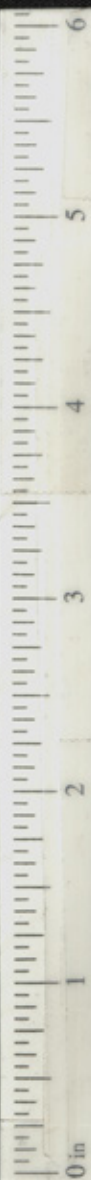

When I ply my daily task
And the round of toil pursue,
Let me often brightly ask,
"What, my soul, would Jesus do?"

Would the foe my heart beguile
Whispering thoughts and words
untrue,
Let me to his subtlest wile
Answer, "What would Jesus do?"

When the clouds of sorrow hide Mirth and sunshine from my view,
Let me clinging to Thy side
Ponder, "What would Jesus do?"

Only let thy love, O God, Fill my spirit through and through:
Treading where my Saviour trod.
Breathing, "What would Jesus do?"

SAN FRANCISCO, September 1st, 1889.

DEAR SIR :

Permit me to state that I have associated myself as a partner with M^CAFEE & BALDWIN, the well-known firm of Real Estate Agents and Auctioneers. For several years this firm has been known as a prosperous, active and upright one, and it is due to this that their constantly increasing business has necessitated an additional partner to assist in its management.

Representing, as we do, several of the largest and most successful colonization enterprises in the State, and a large clientage of San Francisco land-owners, I feel that I may, without hesitancy, be permitted to solicit from you such business in our line as you may see fit to entrust to us. Our facilities for the purchase and sale of city property are such that I am confident that your interests will be safe in our hands, and that we will deserve your continued confidence.

We solicit your correspondence or personal interviews on real estate matters.

Very truly yours,

R. P. HAMMOND, JR.,

HEADQUARTERS HOBBIE POST, No. 23,
DEPT. OF CONN., G. A. R.,

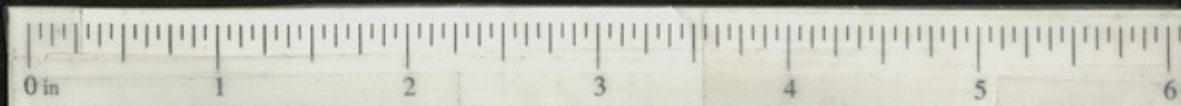

STAMFORD, September 1, 1889.

For the third time we come to the people of Stamford for their assistance in arranging for another fair.

By reason of a heated Presidential canvass last fall we did not realize the amount of money at our fair that we should at another time.

We expect to open our fair this year on the evening of Tuesday, October 8th, in the Town Hall. We shall conduct it on a plan not usually followed in Stamford, and an effort will be made to make this one surpass all others, and nothing shall be left undone on our part to make it so.

It is now a quarter of a century since the war, and the majority of the comrades are on the down-hill side of life. Old Time is weaving his threads of silver through their locks. One by one they are dropping off, and the time is not far distant when the last one will be laid away. There is not a week passes by but we have some on the sick list, which causes a constant outgo of money for their assistance. For the year ending July 1, 1889, Hobbie Post paid out in charity the sum of $768.45.

We have concluded that the best way to obtain funds for this work from the general public is through the medium of a fair. As it requires considerable money to get up a fair, the following named comrades, with the General Committee, are authorized to solicit for this purpose: Levi Dixon, John McGill, Elias E. Palmer, E. B. Lawrence, George W. Fowler, Lewis Provost, George B. Christison.

Contributions of articles for the fair are respectfully solicited. The ladies are especially requested to contribute fancy and useful articles for the tables.

Correspondence addressed to the chairman, or the corresponding secretary, will receive prompt attention. Parties sending checks will please make them payable to F. Hoth, Treasurer Fair Committee, P. O. Box 437

Dear Sir ^{and} Brother:

I write you as a brother in Christ concerning a matter pertaining to one of the Lords little ones.
 I am a minister of the gospel. and
 The Home and Foreign Missionary Secretary of my denomination, namely - the "Free Methodist."

I am here on the Coast opening our work.
 A while ago in one of my meetings a man past middle age was very clearly converted to God. A few days after his conversion he called upon me and said "I am in trouble, and have come to ask you what I best do."
 He then recited this much of his past history. First handing me an honorable discharge paper.

"In 1862 I enlisted as a volunteer for a term of three years, served almost my full time as my discharge shows, and was honorably discharged in 1865.

March 1866 I enlisted in Blank Regt. Regular Inf. (He has forgotten the no of the Regt.) for five years - and after serving about a year deserted. After about three years under another name I enlisted again served about the same length of time and deserted again."

He is perfectly willing to give himself up and take the consequences. He is over 50 years of age - served faithfully three years in the hour of his nation's peril. The thought has come to me that if I present a certificate signed by the officers of the Church certifying to his sincerity, and ^{a petition} signed by our Genl Superintendent (Bishops) and two Congressmen of my personal acquaintance & The Governor of Illinois ^{and a number of Army officers.} Whether or no our President could pardon him. Now General please to advise me in the matter.

The man will do what is right in the matter. will you please look the matter over and give me a word of counsel.

Would it be necessary for him to be tried before the President could act in his case?

Should he be tried and found guilty what would likely be the penalty?

Feeling an anxiety to help this my fellow man I write you.

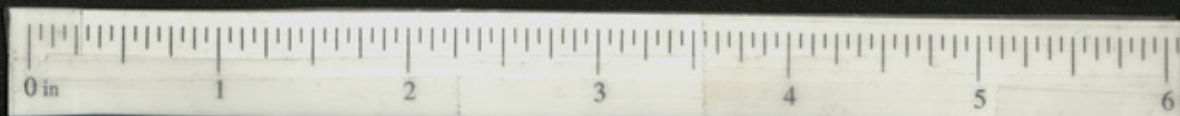

Trusting you may find a few moments in the midst of your arduous labors to give me a reply I remain

Yours Truly
