My dear General

Will you send me the 2115 of your address at the last meeting of the Loyal Legion, as we are collecting them with a view to publication, the Com. Secy having placed the matter in the hands of the Library Committee, of which I am the Chairman?

If you are free on Friday evening, I trust you will come to the Berkeley Theatre and say a few words at the close of Coppin's address. You probably know him, as he belonged to the Old Army. The Society meets in the Theatre, not in the small room where we were before when you were with us. Any of your family or friends will be welcome -

I have mailed you to day the Book of Instruction of this Society and two other pamphlets which I hope will interest you.

I believe the system of instruction has been in practice at Fort Columbus - and if not now in operation I hope may be renewed and also put in practice at other posts. The advantages of such instruction to any body of men with, I am sure, be apparent at once to one of your varied and many experiences.

Should you renew the instruction or it be renewed at any post, it will be a pleasure to the members of this Society to be informed of its results - and if at any time, this Society can be of any

I attended the meeting of the stockholders of the Telephone Company. The old number of Directors, with one exception, re-elected. They voted to pay a dividend of 1 1/2% Feb. 15th, for the three months ending December 31st. The Company is out of debt. They have, in the last year, improved and extended their plant quite materially. The President of the Company says that the outlook for the success of the Company was never better than at the present. I asked him what he considered the value of the stock, and he said it was worth par, in his judgment, although sales have been made at 60. He did not say how recently.

United States Indian Service,

Fort Hale Agency,

Ross Fort Idaho Jan 23 1880

General O. O. Howard

Governors Island U. S.

Dear General

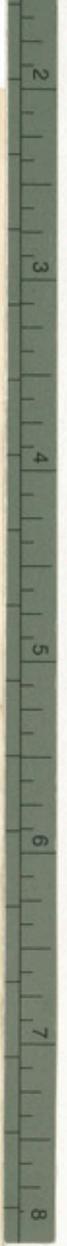

Your letter in reference to the Connecticut Indian Association procuring land here for missionary purposes was duly received. I have deferred answering until I could get instructions from the Indian office in regard to the matter, which was not received until a few days since, and now the snow is so very deep and weather so severe that I am unable to get a majority of the Indians in Council.

Those living ^{at} a distance (among whom are some of the head men of the Shoshones) have not been here for their rations during the last three weeks. Just as soon as the snow and weather will permit, I will call the Indians together and feel very hopeful that I can obtain their written consent; I will certainly use my strongest influence in the matter for I need all the help possible in my effort to advance these unfortunate human beings in civilization and husbandry.

I read with great interest the proceedings of the last Mohawk conference, and am free to say that it encouraged me to renewed efforts. What has been accomplished at other places in the way of civilization among the Indians, most certainly can, and should be accomplished here, which can be more readily done if the association referred to will continue to assist in the good work.

I will certainly work in harmony with them and do all in my power to bring about the desired result.

But allow me to say here, that I fully endorse Gen. Frank Armstrong, Inspector, when he says that the Bannock Indians on the Ft. Hall reservation are, in his opinion the worst Indians in the United States to deal with, but we must have patience and try and overcome their prejudice, and if possible gain their entire confidence.

I have been very successful in establishing a splendid Police force, with constant encouragement mixed with a little flattery I have them now worked up to a point where they render excellent service.

My aim is if possible to put a stop to the lawlessness and rascality of the Bannocks at the same time use every effort to induce them to pattern after the Shoshonis for whom at present they have the greatest contempt.

An Indian that will wear white mens clothes and work is just a little too low for anything in the eyes of a young Bannock "blood".

The greatest drawback to this Reservation is lack of water. Less than half a crop was raised by the Indians last year on account of its scarcity. We greatly need a large irrigating canal to conduct the water from Snake River to the arable land here, but the cost will be so great that I have hesitated in asking the Government to make a sufficient appropriation for its construction, feeling satisfied that my appeal would only meet with a refusal. However if the sale of the Pocatello town site secures enough funds to the credit of these Indians I shall use every effort to have the money (or at least so much of it as may be required) to be expended in providing water for irrigating purposes. For without it it is folly to talk about these Indians taking their land in severalty. As the water question now stands not to exceed one fourth of them could get farms which could be irrigated, and you are fully aware that a farm in Idaho is worthless without the facilities for irrigating it.

[Faint, illegible handwriting on aged paper]

It is safe to depend on a fair supply of water next summer as the snow is very deep in the surrounding mountains, with more in the valley than has been known for the last twenty years. Which, by way, is making it quite inconvenient for us here, as it has closed up our road to the springs, (some five mile distant) from which we have been hauling our water since last June, at which time this creek (Cross Fork) went dry. We are now compelled to melt snow, not only for culinary purposes but for the stock as well.

Knowing that you take a keen interest in everything pertaining to the Indian question of which you are so familiar induced me to go into details, hence this long letter.

Most-respectfully yours
S. Fisher

THE FRENCH EVANGELICAL PUBLISHING SOCIETY AND ITS WORK.

The missionary work among the French-speaking population of New England is now an accomplished fact. It is estimated that 1,000,000 French people have come to the United States, and that thousands of them become naturalized and intend to live permanently in this country. Most of them are Roman Catholics, or at least, nominally such. A large number are indifferent, and are drifting rapidly into infidelity. Besides that, it is recognized that the majority of those French people, by their religious and intellectual training, and too often, through a lack of any proper training, at all, are decidedly hostile to American ideas and principles, or, as in many instances, unable to understand them.

Hence the necessity of missionary work among the French of New England. It has been carried on successfully so far as the establishment of French Evangelical churches and missions in this State and elsewhere, and the dedication of the new building of the French Protestant College in Springfield, prove sufficiently. It is not a bitter and unreasonable aggressiveness, nor an endeavor to disturb Roman Catholics. It is a work of reconstruction, the object of which is to give to those people the same religious and moral rights enjoyed by Americans. The promoters and supporters of this important department of Home Mission work, want simply to give the Gospel to the French and educate them so that they will fulfill all the requirements of American citizenship. In order to further this evangelizing and educational movement, it has been thought wise to form a society under the name of "The French Evangelical Publishing Society," which was incorporated by the Massachusetts Legislature last Spring. The following words taken from its Charter, set forth the ends of the Society:

"This Society, recognizing the power of the press to-day, as a great factor in the religious and political world, intends to publish a newspaper, partly French partly English, that will discuss all the great questions affecting the French Canadian nationality and the relations of this population with our American civilization."

The need of such a publication is urgent. A French paper, well edited and widely circulated, will be one of the mightiest instrumentalities in bringing about the Americanization of this important portion of our foreign population.

The Publishing Society purposes to issue tracts and pamphlets bearing on the momentous religious and sociological questions of the day. The paper to be issued by the Society will be called "Le Citoyen Franco-Americain" (or The Franco-American Citizen). It will be published weekly and in both French and English.

The financial agent of the Society is authorized to solicit funds in behalf of its work. The constitution of the Society provides that all moneys received shall be used for the missionary work it has in view.

All contributions may be sent to the Treasurer, Ralph W. Ellis, Esq., 5 Elm Street, Springfield, Mass.

This important and timely enterprise has the sanction of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, and of all our French pastors, Revs. J. Paradis of Lowell, J. A. Derome of Ware, J. Bruneau of Holyoke, J. Allard of Fall River, T. G. A. Cote, General Missionary of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, Rev. C. E. Amaron of Springfield, P. Ph. Briol of Spencer, N. Gregoire of Worcester, and E. D. Pelletier of Marlboro.

In behalf of the Society,
Rev. J. PROVOST, President.

Presented by REV. P. PH. BRIOL,
French Missionary and Financial Agent of the French Evangelical Publishing Society.
