My dear General:

Thanks for another Volume of the Rebellion Record just received. It is pleasant to be remembered so kindly by you. Old Col. Pollock, who by the way, is not a Colonel at all, even by brevet rank, but was a full Colonel of Volunteers, calls in to see me with great regularity once a month, and likes to talk of you, and the old days when he served under you. He is a modest man, very, but I discovered an ambition of his, without his knowledge perhaps, and that is, that now that brevets are being given for Indian service he would be very much gratified if he should be thought worthy of one. Did he not do good service on the Nez Perce campaign to entitle him to some consideration in this respect? He was in the Clearwater fight, and I heard his conduct there spoken of in the highest terms of his bravery and coolness.

All his service, with the exception of the short time at Vancouver has been in the Indian country, both during and since the war. I wish you could see your way clear to giving the good old fellow this small sop of commendation. He is getting very old, and, naturally, lives much in the past. He is now over 80 and tolerably vigorous for his years.

Give my love to Mrs. Howard, and the children, and believe me, Very sincerely yours,

J. Allen

Maj. Gen. O. O. Howard,

Dear Sir.

I am very sorry to say that I was compelled to leave the work of canvassing for the gas governor on account of weakness. That kind of employment demands excessive leg force which I do not possess. I am not so strong, physically, as I was twenty years ago. I have symptoms of the "tottering steps of age."

I was compelled to take to my bed for two days after one day's trial of the governor.

Things have a gloomy look. The Poor House cannot be far off.

My Dear Gen.

One time, after I had tried hard to make a good speech, you said to me "Why, Deane, you really can talk - I was positively interested in what you said & heard you to the end."

Well, I have heard you speak often splendidly, & I have read many splen-did articles from your pen, but by neither the one or the other have I been so gloriously enthused as by your article on "Military Reunions" in last week's Congregationalist - How do they allow you to speak so plainly in these days? When it seems the fashion to speak softly, so as not to offend!

Your article has the loyal ring - it sounds like a trumpet blast of freedom!

I am glad to see that our great man, at least, is still proud of being a "Yankee", even in these days when every body is so busy "burying the past" & putting southern men and their helpers on front seats, and even bowing down & worshipping them.

If, early in the war, a wise army surgeon had not found me physically incompetent for military duty, no doubt I should have fought & bled - or else, like three of our family, gone down to speedy death immediately after the war from disease engendered in the service. But however this may be I have a right to swing high my hat and shout loud & long in praise of all who wore the blue in the dark & sad days of our dreadful war.

I worship these men, I am about, in my aid, to say - let them have the right of way so long as they walk the upper earth.

Our politics have run unto the ground in these later days. The Cabinet and Senate and kitchen generally are engaged in an all round fight

My Dear Sir :

The Comte de Paris will sail for New York on the twenty-fourth of September prox. arriving about October Second.

Remaining but a few days in New York City after a journey to some of the Battlefields of the Army of the Potomac, he returns to Europe in the latter part of October.

It is intended by a number of his former comrades in arms, to give him a dinner in New York at such time as he may select during his stay.

Please advise if you desire to unite as a host in tendering this hospitality, and oblige,

Very respectfully yours,

Daniel Butterfield.

Dear General,

Since I wrote to you I have received one offer for work, but that is English work and far out in Wisconsin. On the other hand I have received a letter from the Agent General de la Société Centrale de Missions évangéliques. I send it to you with prayer to return it at your own convenience. I may decide to go to Wisconsin. But still, could I obtain the funds necessary for our maintenance through the first year, and for the journey, I think that I would go over to France. Whether I can

C Antilon

Wenatchee, Wash, Aug 21, 1890. 6 A.M.

General, I have just received this letter from the Swiss Soldier Scout who is a fine man and is on the watch on the Chelac. After the Indian Agent Cole had conspired to place these Indians on the reserve, these white foreigners pumped their lands - which are allotted lands and farmed by Indians of the Chelac; who were our reservation Indians, the Citizen Indians under the treaty. This "Hal Cole" from Spokane Falls, - and in league with country newspaper editors for notoriety, to whom he reports instead to the department at Washington.

The work was commenced here on the rocks where I now write, and continued on the rocks at Grand Coulee, and Wematchee Falls, with one month of travel, rest and recreation among the Children of the Mountain Moor, whom this Government has starved poor - Children of the Sun and air, whom Christians forget in prayer! Oh! Yes, General, Children of the Christ to be; Children of the Trinity; Children who know how to please - Children denied fraternity, hence, the fires and floods to come; hence, the heat of Sun and blood in some - who - fattened on the gain of spoils, whom Indian Americans - whenever slain - will truly come to return their evils - and home again.

Figure this above to suit yourself. Perhathian, Occela, Tecumseh, Logan, and the Old Moses were patriots. Their tribal daughters married white men - had children. They are scholars, solons, savans, sages, and historians - by legend - greater than by dime novels made. It is no honor to any man to travel on his record of killing Indians and brutalizing their daughters. It is no honor to any nation to murder its defenceless poor, - steal their homelands, and drive them on waterless wastes.

I am writing a plaintive letter to you. I am not writing as Frank Marion Streamer, but as a truthful, honorable, self-denying, pioneer patriot who has no enemies, - no favorites, - no prejudices. I write now as the words come in my mind as known and heard in Medicine Council, which is the Dove Lament for its mate that was left in the Ark; after its companion failed to return on the second sending away! Be careful not to disparage these truths.

Hear the words of Moses: "Tell General Howard that Jim Monagan - the Suller at Camp Spokane, charged him one hundred dollars every time he cashed his Government annuity of one thousand dollar gold check; - three different times - thus robbing him - Moses; of three hundred dollars - and Moses grieves". "Tell General Howard, that J. Moses - tried time and again to get this money at the Post; and they pay no attention to my plea".

My people are poor, starving, and shot at and killed, when on the reservation, and when they leave it; and my life is threatened. My sons are all dead. They were kind children and were pursued by enemies of Moses as Soldiers know.

Chief Moses daughter has a child by an officer at Camp Spokane - 1883. Moses supports both. What part of the Army discipline provides rules and regulations for official half-breeds? An army appropriation is now required for Soldier half-breeds and Quarter bloods. Better make scouts of them!

Chief Suweptkin speaks: "The priests build Catholic "churches on my people's land at the Omack; and "take all their money for their church; make them "neglect their work to spend days and weeks there,
 "to get prejudiced against the whites and the George "Washington people. The church is a "King George church, "and the priests make enemies of the Indians. My lands will soon be taken from me and my people on this Colville reserve; and I am the oldest living Chief; and a patriot Indian; who has no right to sell his children's home lands. The agents do not care for me and my people, because we mind our own business, and never fight the soldiers, as some of my men are soldiers. Tell General Howard: "That "I am no priest man. I am a true Indian, and object to priests stealing lands for churches, and forcing our women. Priests ought to have women of their own.
 So ought the agents. The Catholics may be all right, "but the Virgin Mary had a husband and had children,
 "and she was no priest or agent either." Su-wept-kin is the greatest Indian scholar on the Colville reserve. He lives near Omack Lake; and on the Okanagon river. He is a Holy Catholic, Indian order.

Wappato John - Tulu Chelau speaks; "My people are taken from their homes and carried to the Colville reserve; and they are citizens and pay taxes. The Soldiers surveyed out their lands and they lived on them in accordance with treaty. Now, some of them filed on their lands to hold them, as they were told that the Yakima land office did not know of the surveys made by the agent from Washington and the Soldiers. So, while some have filed on our allotted lands; and great trouble I have. Tell Howard, that I paid twenty dollars taxes to Okanogan County; and that the Special Agent from Washington City, said I should not pay any taxes, as I was a Washington City Indian by treaty of the Chief Moses reserve. Now, some of my Indian people are obliged of their farms, and I will go next; I am afraid. I want to know from General Howard and Washington City; if their treaty is true, or whether the Chelan Indians must lose their old farm homes; and obey the Colville Indian agent; - Hal Cole; or obey the treaty made at Washington City with Chiefs Moses, Susepkin, Tomahit and Leto.
 The whites now survey the lands, and steal them from us by paper law at Mt. Yakima; and then, drive us away; and the Soldiers help them."

The Womathee Indians want to know what has become of the Col Wright, Lt. Arthur-Sam-ow Treaty granting them an Eight miles square reserve from Mission Creek to Womathee Falls in 1856; which the Indians lived on, and is now settled upon by the Whites; and a few Indians, who had to pay for their tomsteeds thereon $22, apiece, when they should have had them free; as the reserve was theirs. Another Survey was made for their reserve by General Gordon, a special agent, ¹⁸⁸⁷⁻ further up in the mountains, where a bear could not live; and now that is stolen; and the Womathee Indians are very poor; yet they fought for Colonel Wright and Washington City.

Now, we are told we must all go away to the Colville reserve and lose all our farms; and by and by, lose the Colville reserve; and forget where we belong, and who owns us; and whether we ever had a good father or mother; or whether we are only Coyotes to be shot at, and called like Coyotes. Tell General Howard, that we know him and Strawner and "Sam"; and if he will make good that Col Wright, Sam-ow Treaty; we will then know that Washington is true. Now, Strawner, we want General Howard to write to you.

In the case of the Orphan minor girls homes that were stolen by timber culture filing by Bundy, an attempt was made yesterday, to take the lands by force, which was foiled by a letter I had from Indian Commissioner Mingau of Jan 14th 1890, stating that he had laid the whole matter before Secretary Noble for final decision on Jan 9th 1890, and recommended that the decision of the Public Land Commissioner, Judge Goff, be approved, and Guardians be allowed to file on their homestead at once. I wrote to Secretary Noble yesterday, and I feel relieved now, - as I hope I have done a kind good act, which God will reward me for in good health, - as he has, by the gift of these Great books, and the "Wonderful words, Wonderful words" therein scribed, sensed, and selected. Oh! General - do you not see a "light in the window" for me? I began my life's labor in great love for every creation. I am full of pity for the sick and helpless, and I do my best to save myself and friends from trouble. You see what a pathos - I write this letter - on these rocks, under a Balm of Gilead tree, at the junction of the Wm. and Columbia rivers; and I write on the Rock of Light - Oh! that you may see it.

I want you General Howard to be up and doing on this letter. There is no time to be lost. Catholics and Mormons, Mexicans and Indians, Chinamen and Irishmen are all with King George in the South, and it is grief, grief, grief; our taxation, stealing horns, robbing the poor, starving women and children, and making major politics, pensions, and Senatorial slanders of the poorer classes.

As for me, I will once again ask this or any other Government on earth for a support, by payment for services rendered patriotically, as in this letter to you, as well as in letter September 11, 1889, at which time, I sounded the alarm, and you acted in time.

The time is now at hand, when I must be paid for my Counsel and labor, and no more silly misrepresenting me, you, or my friends, by pseudo priests, agents and British conspirators. The Regular Army of the United States must be honored and paid, or the United States-San Salvador-though Spies, and false traitors to involve us in war.

You done very wrong in not answering promptly my plea for help. The Army should pay me a regular salary for Indian Scout; and I be independent-to report only to Head Commanders. It was a mistake to keep me poor a Non-General, who is your friend? Me or Chamberlain? Thank M. Streamer

Private

General Howard. Will you please return me a copy of this letter by type writer after you have read it; so that I may show the Indians that I did do as I agreed - write you their words; - and you had heard them - and write them to me again - for them to hear and keep in good heart.

They have great faith in you and are bringing such good friends; and; as I told them, you were now the Head Chief - whom war would be

They all promised me to be quiet until you can be heard from. You must not delay: you know enough of Indian character to know that you must talk sure and sincere. Give no advice. Answer only what they talk about as in the letter. I was allowed in all their councils; and attended their Churches at Omack, Chelaw, and Metchie. Been at all their fisheries; and kind by Chief Moss at July 4th celebration - at Grand Coulee; and introduced him in a pitiful plea for peace - among the whites; who want to steal his reservation; on which are saw cockneys and sealaways of white men secreted; doing cattle and horse stealing - on Indian credit; - perpetrating to break up the reservation, as they did the old Moses reserve, on the Okanagan Side.

I have been writing for 70 days - altogether all day; and my right fore-finger is worn to bone and soon so, I cannot preserve this copy.

I trust to your honor to confer the favor of returning type copy, for benefit of whites and Indians, - to prove patriotic impulse only.

Chief Joseph and his people, say nothing; my opinion is, that all will wait on Washington to be true to treaties and so decide. If not, I will leave the North and go South. As I, then, will have cause to be ashamed of my own race and Clime of nativity. The Indians would then hate us.

I am very poor; but I am in excellent health and of changed heart, as the books have made me acceptable unto my Great Creator, and convinced me, that I can be a useful patriot in the coming emergency, as everybody feels the gloom.

Accept for yourself my sincere regards, and
