Dear Sir:

The family of the eminent inventor of the Corlies engine have erected here a Y. M. C. A. building as a memorial of Geo. H. Corlies. It is one of the best buildings owned by the associations in New England.

The officers of the Association unanimously invite and urge you to honor this Christian inventor by delivering the address at the dedicatory services which we want to hold on April 9th or 10th.

I have very pleasant personal recollections of you as addressing our Sunday School in New York soon after the war, when I believe you used to visit Mr. Kitcham, and shall be specially interested in having you with us.

I feel convinced that your coming would be very helpful to the association movement through out New England.

I trust you will consider this appeal favorably, and as the time for preparation is brief I will ask you, after fully considering the matter, to telegraph your reply at my expense.

Yours most sincerely

My dear General,
Many prominent citizens of New York and Brooklyn
and in other parts of the country would be gratified by the appointment of Colonel Louis L. Langdon of the First U.S. Artillery Regiment as Brigadier General. As he is under your immediate command you are probably acquainted with his merits and military record.

If you think him worthy of promotion and can consistently sure your friend would also be gratified by your corresponding efforts.

Dear Brother:

Your favor of the 20th is received. I doubt if Kitty can come by way of N.Y.- she will probably accompany John and wife on their trip to Omaha, leaving Bangor about April first. She will be particularly anxious to come as direct^{ly}_x to Glencoe as possible.

As to the Sherman book, I was chagrined that they should make use of your for advertising and you get no benefit. For what you propose, you should have had at least $10,000 of the profits- possibly you have some royalty or something to compensate you for the use of your name. I observe, that even in sending out your denial, you generously advertise Hubbard Brothers. That alone, is worth several thousand dollars. Of course you do not understand this advertising business- of how much money is paid for such things, and I think they have taken advantage of your inexperience. I do not mind any cutting into receipts from the Sherman ^{"Personal Memoirs"} ~~Personal Memoirs~~- That is ~~the~~ thing that will take care of itself. containing your recollections of Sherman and his campaigns. They will find themselves disappointed and never afterwards can be induced to take another.

As to the senatorship- no, I never expect another chance of that kind- I have no taste to enter into any political maneuvering as you well know. I shall be glad, however, if the people of the different states will turn over a new leaf with reference to senators and representatives, and no longer send a man either because he is a political wire puller, or because he is a millionaire, but rather- because he is an honest and able patriot, who will unselfishly support their interests.

You will notice that we inserted your denial which will serve you with some of our readers at least- I suppose we have 100,000 or more of weekly readers.

With love to Lizzie and each of your family-

My dear Friend:-

I receive a telegram to-day from Newburyport, Mass where they are to dedicate, in the second week of April, the Corliss Association building, a beautiful building given to the Association by Mrs. Corliss, of Providence, R.I., in memory of her husband, who was a distinguished citizen of Providence, but whose birth-place, I think, was Newburyport.

They very greatly desire your presence at their dedication, and have asked me to make request for them. They are very worthy, on whose behalf I write, and I earnestly hope that you can respond favorably to them.

George Hall is making the arrangements for the delegation to our next World's Conference which meets in Amsterdam, Holland, August 12-16. Can you go and see and hear with us of all the progress that has been made since we met in Berlin, seven brief years ago?

Mr McE. Downs of Helena Montana asks me to secure letters of general endorsement for him from you. These to be used in the formation of an enterprise to found a new town on the north side of the Columbia River opposite Astoria. I have written for two Bankers references from Helena to be forwarded to you direct concerning Mr Downs financial and moral character. Mrs Downs attends your Church in New York and you could learn something further of him there. Ask Mr L. to show a prospectus of Frankfort written by me. Every statement therein is correct.
