Dear Sir: -

We are much disappointed that you have declined the Club's invitation to our meeting of April 25, in commemoration of the birth day of Gen. Grant. We shall spare no effort to make the occasion a worthy and appropriate tribute to the memory of the Great Soldier. We, early in our preparations, decided to increase the interest of the day by the presence of some one, at least, of those officers, who, like yourself held a commanding and prominent position in the memorable war. In selecting your name we voiced the sentiment of our club, and of this Community, because in Massachusetts as elsewhere throughout the Country, the fame and the name of Gen. Howard

Dear Sir,

It is much gratifying to you have declined the last invitation to our meeting of April 20, in connection with the last day of our month. It is a pleasure to see you effort to make the occasion a most one appropriate tribute to the memory of the last night. It is a pleasure to see you effort to make the occasion a most one appropriate tribute to the memory of the last night. You will pardon so direct an allusion to yourself in a letter from a stranger to you formally, but my justification must lie in the gratitude which all free Americans feel for your efforts in behalf of humanity, as well as your gallantry as a soldier. We are much in earnest in asking if there is not a possibility of your revising your previous intention, and accepting our invitation, hereby renewed, to be our guest on the 23rd.

Trusting that you will do

My dear Sir,

At the last moment on Saturday it was discovered that we could not get the 1000 chairs provided for the 22nd Regt Army, so that we should have been in great difficulty but for the transfer of the 9th Regt Army for Friday night instead of Thursday. Will you kindly convey our thanks to Gen. Howard for his kind acceptance and ask if he will admit the "amendment" to Friday night

I enclose invitations. Col. Morgan says that you will come personally.

If more tickets are desired please let me know

Yours faithfully,

My dear Sir,

Our "Y.M.C.A." at Suptkiville State Island has been prospering of late - It has secured an entire building very nicely located & now thro' the kindness of Mr Wm Butler Duncan we have a gymnasium apparatus.

We propose to hold some special exercises when this new room is opened - we want the Y.M.C.A. work & Christian Manual help up to our State Island people - for the influence of nearly all the other athletic associations has been injurious to their members.

Thursday would suit us best.

We wish to invite not only all our members but also many prominent men, who friendly aid & interest we hope to secure.

Apr. 14, 1891.

Major Gen. O. O. Howard,

Gen + Honored General.

Several times I have either written or spoken to you about my desire to arrange a meeting for the young men of this part of Brooklyn, to be held in my church some Sunday Evening, with yourself as one of the speakers.

My plan, a year ago, was to have you & Gen C. B. Fisk: but he has been assigned to duty in another world.

My wish now is to substitute Rev. Dr. Cuyler in Fisk's place.

It was my hope to meet you as well as Dr. Cuyler last evening at the reception given to Archbishop Ireland.

Failing that, I write this morning to ask if you can possibly do us the great favor to make an address (with Dr. Cuyler) in my church on Sunday evening, May 10th.

Dr. Cuyler can come then, & will do so if you can come.

You may remember that I wrote you, with a request like the one now made, almost as soon as you had taken command at Governor's Island.

Ever since, I have clung to this dear desire & plan, which I earnestly hope may not be impossible of realization.

Believe me, with high esteem, Most cordially yours

Wm. V. Kelley

When the detail were coming down from West Point with the horses for the staff officers to ride at Gen. Sherman's funeral they were to arrive at 5.00 o'clock and instructions had been given for them, in the absence of any public or army stables to remain in the street. As this would have exposed the horses and men to unnecessary hardship and fatigue in view of the arduous duties they had to undertake I asked Daggle's

Dying in a distant Land, His last thoughts returned to Home and Mother,

His wife told us, that He cried out to see his Mother's face once more on earth.
But Dear Boy he had to pass away without the wish being gratified.
It seems as if it would be a poor consolation to my Mother for the loss of him. If she could have the assurance of being provided for, while she lives.

My Mother regretted so much that she was denied the Honor of grasping your hand, and listening to your voice, But we hope you will visit our Village again, and then we hope to have you as our guest.

I trust I have not tired you with my story, and hope through you, that my Mother may be fortunate enough to get an allowance from the Government. I will close Hoping to be Honored with a reply.

Maj^r General C C Howard

Dear Sir

I have not forgotten, that you were so kind as to give me the privilege of writing to you, if I so desired.

Therefore deeming it an Honor and an exquisite pleasure I venture to address you. When I called on you at Mrs Smith's House on the evening of the 10th I felt somewhat embarrassed to disclose to you, with perfect freedom, our domestic affairs in the presence of the whole family. My acquaintance with them only extends so far as my dealings with Mr Smith Sen^r in a Business transaction, I called expressly to see you Hoping that your Influence would be of more Account used in our behalf, than any ordinary man, whom I could consult, on a matter of such vital Importance to my Mother and myself.

I am well and able to take care of myself, and could be useful in the world in many ways. But my Mother has entered her Seventieth Year and is not fit to live alone, neither does she feel that she can be separated from me now, in her decline of life.
We own a little home, but we have had to struggle with a debt on it for years, we have managed to keep the interest paid up, but still the Principal remains, and it is such a moth, keeping us cramped down, hindering us from repairing the house, as it sorely needs, When my Brother died. It took from under our last prop of support, and my Mother ^{and I} have had to look out for ourselves the best we could. You asked me if Brother Lewis was wounded, No. He came home without a scratch, but he was very much emaciated, and after getting married, and clerking in the Insurance Business in New York, for a few years his Physician told him, ~~if~~ that it would probably prolong his life if he removed to Lower California, which he did, but he was so broken ^{down} in health that he soon pined away, and died two years later. He was taken sick while on the march through the Shenandoah Valley and went to Hospital at Fort M. Henry with Typhoid Fever, and although he never recovered his former health still rejoined his Regt and participated in the Battle of Gettysburgh, and then went to Chattanooga and was one of dear old Sherman's Soldiers who marched across the Continent.

My poor Brother passed away in early ^{life}

My dear Gen. Howard,

I write in answer to the request of your messenger whom I saw Sunday evening. Our prayer-meetings are just now being conducted on a published list of topics, which will carry us to and through the first of May. If on the 8th of May you could meet with us, the people would be very glad to welcome you and to hear from you respecting your mission work. It is against our rule to take up contributions in the Friday evening prayer-meeting. I have found by experience that it does more damage to the devotional spirit than it does good to the charitable causes. But undoubtedly some account would be given in the press of your remarks, and I should be very glad if you could so interest individuals as to secure from them subscriptions for your good work. I must add in candor, that I do not think you can count on a great deal from Plymouth Church, because we are doing a large mission work ourselves in a district in Brooklyn which requires it quite as sorely as the work which you are doing in New York, and must therefore necessarily reserve our funds chiefly for our town work.

Yours sincerely
