WAR DEPARTMENT,
QUARTERMASTER GENERAL'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON.

November 28th, 1891.

My Dear General,

Yours of the 25th is received.

It is only recently that my attention was called to the appropriation for the Signal Service, for the present fiscal year, which provides for the pay of civilian operators and other military telegraph employes. By reason of this, the Quartermaster's Department has no longer the authority to hire civilian operators, and General Greely has been asked to take charge of them. He has the power to retain the present operator or to assign the duty to a Signal Service Sergeant.

Yours sincerely,

H. M. Batchelder

Dear Sir:--

We are making the most elaborate preparations for Sabbath services throughout the summer of 1893 at Harvey, Illinois, where has been established a head-quarters for temperance people, church people farmers' alliance folks and reformers generally. Whatever the World's Fair authorities may choose to do regarding the opening of the Fair on Sunday, the people who will choose to make their home during the World's Fair at Harvey will be among those who could not be induced to attend a Sunday Exposition. These meetings will be in charge of a special committee, whose names are given above, all of whom have promised their hearty co-operation and support of this undertaking, and whose names are used with their express authority in this connection.

The plan has the endorsement of every religious, temperance, agricultural and reform paper in the City of Chicago. These meetings will be attended by many thousands of the most intelligent visitors at the World's Fair, and from every portion of the world, and will be addressed only by the most eminent teachers, clergymen and other public leaders. Appointments will be made under the special direction of the committee on public meetings as it appears at the head of this

My dear General

Herewith I send you a printed copy of the Taylor letter as promised. After using it, kindly return the article, as it is taken from Mrs Wilson's Scrap Book, and I have promised that it should be returned and replaced in her collection of my scribbles in the newspapers

I am also obliged by your sending me the vol of Revolutionary letters, as the price for volume is now daily increasing. Am sorry that I am not to have the expected article from you, as the publishers limit is greatly below the sum you have named. Believe me,

Very truly yours

My dear General

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 14th inst. in relation to the article on the "New Province" which I have returned to you enclosed in the collection of my writings.

Very respectfully

I am also glad to hear that the article on the "New Province" is now being incorporated in the history of the city. I am sure it will be a valuable addition to the work.

Washington, D. C., Nov 31st 1891

Dear General.

Yours of Oct. 26th with a copy of the Independent. Came in due time. Mr Noyes of the Star is in Europe, but I have this morning - after several visits to the Star office - succeeded in seeing his son, who manages in his father's absence. I stated the matter to him in a few words, and he looked over the article and said "would see what he could do, and he could not publish it in just its present shape would give the substance of it". That is the way it now stands. If you have not already sent the paper to Dr Rankin please do so, in order that it may appear in full in the College paper. I shall see the Doctor tonight about it. I know how deeply you sympathize with Mrs Cornery in this matter, and I know I do. You and I having had a little experience of that kind, can sympathize with her as others cannot. At the time of the Senator's death, I had a long Conversations with John F. Cook, (who is a very level headed man) about the Senators troubles in Kansas at the time he was defeated for the Senate: and Mr Cook said emphatically, that it was his firm belief that Mr P. was the victim of a Conspiracy. that the Senator was too shrewd a man to do such a foolish thing. At any rate we know what he did for the Congregational Church, the Howard University, and Bang Farm. He of the University Board shall miss him in ^{our} Councils, as he was a very Cautious, far seeing man, and wise, safe Counsellor. Remember me kindly to Mrs Howard and others of your family. We had a very pleasant visit from John, after he had passed the official ordeal -

Sincerely & truly
