Mr. W. B. Lawrence

My dear Mr. Lawrence:

I have just received your letter of the 14th inst. and am glad to hear that you are still interested in the study of the life of the American people. I have been thinking of you very much lately, and wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy. I have been very busy lately, but I have managed to find some time to write you. My General Howard

The size of the full page is about 5+7 inches, the type page an inch or more smaller. Should it be necessary, of course, the publishers would not object to making the maps double the above size i.e., to cover two pages and to be inserted in the printed pages.

I quote from I Rees Fry. Would it not be well to state briefly who he was, or is, if living? I also think it would be of interest to give some account of "Old Whiting", Gen Taylor's favorite horse, and incidentally mention the fact of the "Iron Duke" possessing his portrait, as I described it to you.

Henceforth please write contents of each chapter on the end, as the loose slips are liable to be lost.

Very truly yours

Dear Sir,—

I send you enclosed two circular letters to which I want to ask your attention. The first one refers to a bill now pending in Congress, (Senate 2824 H. of R. 387) in which we are interested, as Association men. Nearly 200 Associations print Bulletins, under the existing laws they pay one cent for each copy mailed in the Cities where they are published, under the proposed law they can be mailed to all subscribers at one cent a pound, a privilege that is given all weekly papers. The passage of the bill means a saving of $10,000 to $20,000 per year to the Associations that issue Bulletins.

The second (Senate 2825 H. of R. 5067) our Associations as such have nothing to do with, but I write you personally, as a taxpayer who is made a party to a grievous wrong. As you are aware, paper covered novels and boys' and girls' flash story books are carried in the mails as second class matter at one cent a pound; while school books, Bibles, scientific, religious and miscellaneous books, bound or unbound, as third-class matter, are charged eight cents a pound. A bill has been introduced in Congress removing this unjust discrimination and requiring all classes of books (other than magazines) to pay the same rate of postage.

I will be glad to have you write to senators and congressmen and to induce as many others as you can to do so, in the interest of either or both of these bills. We will supply you with all the circulars that you wish. As Congress will adjourn in a few weeks, very prompt action is necessary.

Truly yours,

Geo. A. Hall

Dear Sir

Did you ever try to do any thing in Washington with regard to getting any redress for my being robbed & imprisoned by that dirty internal revenue collector by the name of Frank H. Sweat of Sonoma Cal. ^{the} S. Commissioner that Sweat said 25. dollars to give him a commitment to put me in prison is in Congress in Washington his name is Corothers, of Ukiah Mendocino Co. Cal. he has imprisoned more innocent people & liberated more murderers than any man on record he is one of the most dispisable out Laws there is in the world. I have suferd for want of the necessities of life in consequence of that robbery. I can prove every thing I say about those fellows. I am living now on the charity of a good man I have got the rheumatism on the account of being deprived of my rights and the provisions that are made for men of my age & circumstances by law a catholic foreigner can get a 100 dollars from the state but an american can get nothing this country is run by catholic foreigners

I can prove ~~every~~ every thing I say in this letter & a great deal more. E. Howard last fall I was robbed of a horse & waggon and clothes the only means I had of making my living and I could not get a warrant for the arrest of the robber because they belong to the same gang that run the county. I have a homestead right and if I could get one fourth of the damages I have sustained at the hands of some of our Scalawag Government officers I could take a homestead that would help support me the few remaining days that I have to stay in this unfriendly world I have written to ex-president Cleveland two or three statements of the robbery & abuse I have suffered asking him if there was any law for the protection of american citizens when chinese had their property destroyed at cheyenne Cleveland recommended they should have redress but he seems to ignore my cries for help and there is not a man in america done more for him than I did. if you can say or do any thing for me I would be thankful yours truly E. Howard

Dear Father: Adelle's sickness compels me to remain here longer than I had expected. She was taken sick with bleeding (perhaps "genuine" "concha") three weeks before we sailed. She was in bed the entire 13 days of the voyage. Then one day in bed in Hamburg - now ten days here at her home. The bleeding has continued for just 8 weeks. It has at last almost stopped. But the Doctor says she must remain in bed at least a few days longer.

and that you are to bring the body of Cousin Rowland Myself and others would like to have the re-

that you might have perhaps two weeks may be sufficient.

My dear father,

You have learned from mother's letter on Thursday last that we arrived here on that day and now find ourselves comfortably settled in the Cossini Palace or in other words El Hotel de New York near the Ponte Carraia.

We thought an entering that this was a strangely built house. In a hotel as all rooms are in the wrong place and parlors, dining room etc have little flights of steps leading to them most irregularly, some rooms are on half floors, & our have no connection with those of the front of the house.

me who

We arrived in rain & it was Saturday so the weather is quite cool. I felt tired on arriving but today feel rested & pretty well but have to be careful not to do much or I make my head dizzy. We found your letters up to Apr 1st waiting for us. We are glad you got home safely & had an enjoyable trip. The measles must be over by this time.
Jamie writes that Adolphe is ill at her home but he hasn't yet written particulars.
We won't be able to meet him in Paris as I want to gain strength & travel slowly and Mamma wants to visit Mr & Mrs Torrey ^{at Lyons} for a few days after we have come back from Venice ¹² which we expect to visit, leaving here next Thursday Apr 21 to Bologna for night & spend Apr 23-24-25 in Venice; then to Pistoia for night & Wed 27th to Carrara and leave ride from Pistoia towards Lucca We plan then to go to Livorno Friday 29th for night & back to Nice or Mantone & Monte Carlo for a day, & then direct to Paris.

We don't know where we will go in Paris, as M.

Bernardo's is five flights up, too high for mamma now, for me and I wouldn't feel strong enough to study.

You were afraid I had been very sick. There was nothing alarming. Dr. Rochet only came to see me every day. He said, you need only sit, good food, no excitement and "let the Acropolis stand" meaning for me not to study and work over, tiringly, the rights I would see in my trip. I was in bed only five days but it left my head weak & I suppose it will be some time before its quite clear (i.e. strong) I eat & sleep well.

I have especially enjoyed Florence because I have felt like walking on the streets while Bessie & Mamma are in some gallery or church Friday I walked by the river seeing all the bridges & especially enjoying Ponte Vecchio which I walked over.
In the afternoon we three walked by the market with longer bear to the Piazza Signoria & got a good view of the Palazzo Vecchio the Loggia Lunga etc. statuary & the fountain of Neptune. We then walked through the Uffizi Loggia under the gallery & back by the Ponte Vecchio.

Yesterday it rained so I stayed in all day. Mother & Bessie went to the Piazza in front of Cathedral & saw the ceremony of a dove lighting off a lot of fireworks on a car that commemorates the bringing of a lighted candle from Jerusalem during the Crusades.
This morning when Mother & Bessie were at Church I walked to the Piazza Maria Novella examined the obelisks & went into the church a minute

I continued my walk to the Cathedral. I think the Cathedral, Baptistery & Campanile are fine outside but very plain inside. I walked back to Hotel & to the falls in river which look artificially made. I returned & read Ref. Herald. Tell Mother W.B. came in for lunch.

Mother is now answering Mr. Torrey's invitation to visit him in Carrara.
Prasie is figuring on what they want to see there.

Florence is almost pleasant we enjoy it better than Rome or Naples.

We had pleasant steamer run to Leghorn from Naples.
Mother even didn't get sea-

4 sick but came to meals

I felt the motion a few days after getting ashore.

The embarking & debarking in small boats were tiring because we had two trunks which are the greatest nuisance and I have been distracted about them many times. Jamie has kindly consented to take my trunk at Paris & my bicycle, home with him thus relieving me that much.

We have read Alice's good letters yesterday. We are glad she is with you. We now look forward to reaching Paris soon where we will feel somewhat near home

Our finances are in good shape. We have spent about $750 so far & I think $250. more will carry us through to Paris, where Mother & Bessie expect to buy dresses.

We want to go into Switzerland & down the Rhine in June & make Adelheid a short visit, then to Holland & to England, so I will write you about that from Paris. Mother & Bessie send love to Chauncey Alice & children & to Guy's family.
We talk of taking the City of Paris for home in July.

With much love to all
Your loving son
Harry.
