the Arm you now carry while the right one was being amputated I have some little news that I have told the story to many times & I promised them this year I would write you asking you for one of your photographs taken back in them years taken with the arm or without I have seen you both ways think the last

My dear brother:-

The date you mention, the seventh of June, to go to Leeds, will accommodate me; indeed any date, that will be most convenient for those at a distance I will make convenient. As soon as it is decided, I would like to know, so as to inform several relatives and friends who have desired to know.

Several matters have suggested themselves to my mind in connection with going there, which no doubt have occurred to you, but I will venture to mention them.

There being no accommodations for strangers in town, it will be necessary to fix upon an hour for the services, that will allow friends to come <sup>9<sup>o</sup></sup> & return the same day, will it not? Friends from Farmington have expressed a wish to be there. There is only one train on wh. they could come.

It arrives <sup>in Leeds</sup> about ten o'clock in the morning and leaves about three o'clock P. M.

There is a morning train in from Portland and one leaves Leeds for Portland about four o'clock P. M. - All this you know probably better than I. What minister had you thoughts of having? When would it be necessary for the casket to be taken there? Of the day before, would it be taken to the church? It is very, very heavy - must it be taken to Leeds in the metallic coffin? If it is taken before it is unsealed, can it be done there? Must an undertaker go with it?
These are questions wh. I should ask you were you here - It is not necessary to answer them, only I wanted to mention them, but possibly some of them should not have occurred to you -

Dear General:

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter addressed to me, as well as one addressed to the Secretary of War, which previous to his departure from the city he delivered to me, with instructions to see the Secretary of the Treasury, and use his name in furtherance of your desires regarding the landing slip at the Barge Office. I called at the Treasury Department this afternoon and was informed that Assistant Secretary Spaulding was now in New York for the purpose of investigating matters in relation to this very question, and, therefore, I have just telegraphed to you that fact, suggesting that you confer with Assistant Secretary Spaulding.

On the 28th of March last Assistant Secretary Crounse made a long report in this matter, and in conclusion recommended action which he stated would meet your wishes. No further action will be taken by the Treasury Department until the return of Assistant Secretary Spaulding, which will probably be in a day or two, and I will then call to present again your requests as endorsed by the Secretary of War.

My dear Brother:--

Your kind letter of April 29th., enclosing one to Mr. Paine and relating to the expense of Rowland's sickness, &c. is received; also, your telegram with reference to the date of burial at Leeds. I do not see but that the 7th. would do as well for me as any. <sup>date</sup> I should need to go on to Boston and spend Sunday and so meet you there, I think. I am afraid no other member of my family can well go, though Kitty had hoped to do so, but the wedding of ~~Ellis~~ Gilmore on the 14th. of June, which Nina is to attend, will I fear, keep Kitty too busy to admit of her going East. It is possible that wedding may make it desirable for Dell to have some other date, though he could return to Denver in season after the 7th.

Now as to the expense: I can better talk the matter all over with you than try to write much about it. My salary is not equal to my constant and regular expenses, so that it makes it difficult for me to attempt to pay anything not absolutely my duty to pay. What is my duty to pay must crowd out other expenses, even including ordinary benevolence and church contributions, if necessary. My thought was, that as there was $1,000.00, as I understand, of life insurance that was taken for David, Otis & Frank, and as they are young men, and that fund really belonged to the estate, it could properly be used by them, if they saw fit, to help out in the burial expenses. Helen wrote me, also, that David had proposed that this money should not be taken by the boys, but should be used for necessary expenses. So, also, there is something like $3,000 worth of the Starr notes, and one-quarter of this from Mother's estate would go to Rowland's estate. This, when it matures and ~~is~~ available, might, also, be set apart in that way, so that in either event there would be no subtraction from what Helen has in hand and really is depending upon. However, she is of course in straiten<sup>ed</sup> circumstances, the best we can do, and I desire greatly to do anything that I properly can to relieve her. I am in correspondence with reference to place of matron for a school, which she thought she would like and where she could have her two children with her.

I could easily explain to you that it would not be proper for me in any haste, or <sup>from</sup> mere impulse of kindness, to say that I would pay even 1-3 of the $616.00; at the same time, it does not seem fair and just that you should pay the whole.

It is possible I may conclude to come on and spend the Sunday at Governor's Island, and then go to Maine with you. Meanwhile, I would be glad to have any further suggestions that you may make.

My dear Sir,

The first Sunday succeeding Independence Day, has been set apart by our Association as G.A.P. Day, and on that Day a special effort is put forth to reach and influence G.A.P. men. This year it falls on Sunday July 9th and we want to make it a day long to be remembered by our veterans. We realize that to get them out to the services of the Day, we must have a strong man. While thinking over possible speakers, your name flashed into our mind, as both a man strong in the affections of army men, and strong in the great Captain of the Host. We know it is asking much, yet after prayerful consideration and

As His hand seems to point to you, we have taken this liberty. We are justly proud of our old veterans, and long to see, won for Christ, many who are as yet not enrolled in His Grand Army. From our 'beautiful Switzerland' came Col's Jas. Miller and Eli J. Conner and the 81st Penna. was largely up from Mauch Chunk. Some of the boys still reside here and say it would give them great pleasure to greet their old Commander. A warm invitation, with the assurance of a hearty welcome and a pleasant time, in His name we extend you.

I send cheque for $25. in payment for the second article. But I should like, if you are willing, to have some changes and additions made. Wouldn't it be best to make the whole article about "Divided Families in War Time?" stories of families, some members of which were on one side and some on the other. The first part of the article would naturally come to such a paper. I should like to have the subject treated so that it could not possibly give offence even to Southerners who may not yet have ~~possibly~~ become entirely reconciled. I should think it would be wise to use the first part of the article as a starting point, then give other incidents similar in nature, so that the whole article would be consistent and upon one theme. All of the matter that you have here is interesting, but it does not seem to hang together.

I am sure you will have no trouble in reconstructing the article as I have suggested. No doubt you can do it immediately.

We have concluded that it is our unfortunate time of the year to hold our University and taking everything into consideration have concluded to postpone it. Thanking you for your interest and help in the same.
