Gen* O* O* Howard,

Governors Island, N. Y.

Dear Brother:

Sister Helen writes that by a letter from Guy she is informed that you were to be in Massachusetts on May 30 and possibly would not return to New York, but would go on to Leeds to make all the arrangements for the funeral. She asks about the minister, about who would see to the remains etc. etc. I have written a preliminary letter to Francis Lothrop on these points but stated to him that if ~~he~~ had had any correspondence ^{with you} that my letter was not to interfere. It occurs to me that it would be well to have the Leeds minister, if there is a pastor in the Baptist Church, he might conduct the principal exercises in the church. It might be well to have the ~~Compton~~ ^{Fairington} minister, as he knew Rowland and has given a memorial address already, which was printed. It does not seem necessary that Mr. Bushnell of Arlington should go with ^{us}, but he might go to the cemetery in Arlington and thence to the boat. Helen suggests that we might go by boat Monday night or by train Monday morning, but whether the casket could go that way is very doubtful. It might be sent directly by rail to better advantage. I thought I would leave here about the morning of June 3rd and spend the Sunday with Helen, going directly to Boston. There is a reason why I should remain here over the 2nd if practicable. I can modify this plan and go by way of Governor's Island if thought

Dear Professor:

At the first meeting I had a talk with Mr. C. H. Smith of the New York Stock Exchange, who told me that the market for stocks was very poor and that there would be little chance of getting a good price. He advised me not to buy any stocks at present, as they were likely to fall in value. I followed his advice and did not buy any stocks. However, when the market improved, I sold some of my stocks and bought others. I also sold some of my stocks when the market fell again. I continued to sell stocks until the market improved again, and then I bought more stocks. This pattern repeated several times, with me buying stocks when the market fell and selling them when it improved. I did not make any money from this strategy, but I learned a lot about how the stock market works.

New-York, le 23 Mai 1892

Monsieur le Général,

Il ne pleut pas en ce moment, mais il pleuvra peut-être dans une demi-heure. Il pleuvait hier, quand nous sortions de l'école. Le Dimanche, il a ensuite plu toute la soirée; il avait plu la nuit précédente. Je suis assis à une table de la Cooper Liberry, et peut-être quand je sortirai, il aura plu. Pourquoi faut-il qu'il pleuve tant au beau mois de Mai! Bah! je voudrais qu'il plût jusqu'au 31, pour que ce soit complet! Mais non, je ne veux pas cela: car alors il pleuvrait maintenant et il aurait plu ce matin, et j'ai besoin de me dégourdir le corps et l'âme par une longue course.

Vous êtes capable de me faire savoir que cette laborieuse conjugaison du verbe pluvoir ne vous a pas plu. Tant pis.

J'ai commencé cette petite correspondance en parlant du temps. Pourquoi se moque-t-on tant de ce sujet de conversation? En est-il un plus important, et susceptible de plus de variété? Mais, me dira-t-on, quand nous vous ciriez: Ah quel beau jour! vous ne m'apprenez rien de nouveau. A cela je réponds: Le langage n'est pas fait seulement pour se communiquer des nouvelles: il nous gert à mettre en commun nos impressions, afin d'en joindre une manière collective, sociable, essentiellement humaine. Même celles qui sont déplaisantes, s'adoucissent ainsi. Quand je dis: L'air est doux! je n'ignore pas que vous savez cela aussi bien que moi, mais je vous fais remarquer que je sais aussi, que nous le savons en commun nous deux, et en commun avec une certaine portion du genre humain. Cela grossit, amplifie, intensifie la sensation.

Le matin, tandis que, les yeux encore fermés, vous prenez congé de vos rêves avec des regrets mutuels, vous entendez des bandes d'oiseaux gazouiller, avec un enthousiasme furieux, sous toutes vos fenêtres. Ça'ont-ils à se dire. Voilà! Quel beau jour va se lever; l'herbe sent bon; elle porte des gouttes pesantes, d'une pureté étonnante; le soleil va venir le ciel n'a qu' de rares petits nuages laineux etc. etc. Imitons les oiseaux.

Tout à vous Geo. D. Beck, 188 Chrystie St.

Seck. Geo. S.

My dear General Howard

I returned from Gettysburg last night where I have been to complete arrangements for the dedication of the "High water mark" monument Jan 2nd.

I am making up my programme. Dr. Giv' Beaver of Pennsylvania will deliver the oration. The President and Gen' Schieff will both make brief addresses, and I have secured representation from or alternate, for each corps except the 11th Gen' Hawkin and Judge Meagher for the 1st. O'Brien and Webb for the 2d, Sickles and probably Conner for the 3d, probably Crawford and Chamberlain for the 5th, Wright and Grant for the 6th & Slocum and Greene (?) for the 12th and Gregg for the cavalry. I tried hard to get over to the Island on Saturday; but it was raining and the time for the boat to sail

Came to town, I called on Gen Schuyler but he was out, otherwise I met with marked success.

Had I need dreamed that you contemplated visiting the rule of declination which I found from you I certainly should have managed better you,

In the meantime my programme is in type, and I have both your name and that of General Schuyler to adorn the 11th cups in five annual speeches (just to allow the people who figure so conspicuously a quarter of a century ago in our country's history, I doubt if another such a gathering will take place, and I do hope you will allow your name to remain on the list).

Please answer by return mail,

and oblige

Very truly yours

~~Mrs O O Howard~~

Last evening about twelve o'clock from the Art Association after hearing good speeches and singing. Harry did not go. To day we have all three been to the Pantheon. church St.
Etienne du Mont (St Genevieve) and to the
Lувенбонг while he went to "Sainte Chapelle", the old palace cloister. We found Harry at the Louvre when we reached home. The cars are all taken now so we have gone to eat at the Hotel (dinner)
I must go to sleep and close my letter now.
The weather for two days has been very warm.
too warm to walk much. Met the Scotts and the Battlins to-day. I hope all are well on the island. I am looking for Francis' address.
I have no letter from Come Linn. With best love to all I am ever your loving wife

Paris, May 23^d 92 410 $\frac{1}{2}$

My dear Otis You will be very much surprised to learn that we leave Mr.
Murdy ^{yesterday} preach last Sunday at the American Chapel. He came in with his wife and took seats in the audience where the pastor saw him. I spoke with him after service, and then to Mrs Murdy. I saw there also Mr. Scott the brother of the one you know at Lake side, and Miss Smith the niece whom Berrie and I know. Mr Anderson called one day but we were out. I saw him at church. Harry called on him last Sat. while Berrie and I went to see women's work of all kinds on exhibition. Tuesday night we are to go to the anniversary of the Art Association of Paris by invitation of the Pres.
Harry went to the Bank this morning while we stayed in, and he stayed in after lunch while we visited Napoleon's Tomb, we came home early because Mr. Clark and his daughter are coming to dine with us. I called on Mr. Charlton but found her out - Unfortunately she invited us to tea this afternoon and we could not go. I hope to see her some time. I have been to the Louvre but once as yet. I was very happy that Harry wanted to take me to see some ~~of~~ special things that day, and did not get tired. I wonder if I wrote about going up the Eiffel tower Harry or Berrie was pleased to go to the top. I waited half way. It is very beautiful. last evening we had a visit from Prof. Bernard. His voice is pleasant and he announces so distinctly it would be a pleasure to take lessons of ~~from~~ him. Harry went with Berrie ^{last week} to pay him the small bill they owe him. Harry does now what he could not have done when we first came. But we are careful of him. On our way home from Mr. Charlton's we bought a trunk and he enjoyed doing that much. He cannot go about the noisy streets with any comfort. We are going to visit Adelheid and make the journey from here to her through Friesland as easy as possible. Very likely Jamie is now in Berlin, I had a note from him after his return to Göttingen from here. Adelheid is improving. I hope a few weeks more will bring her strength back. I wonder if you have had any more visitors. Our friends were expected early but they have not yet come so we have had our tea without them as it would be too late to wait longer. Harry has brought home a book to read and got one also to take on the journey. Surely I will not get time to read any before that time. I have not read the paper today. Harry started out before finishing it. Mr. Clark and daughter have gone. Harry enjoyed their visit. Harry to go to bed - faithfully at ten o'clock and Berrie and I will soon be asleep. I wrote in my last letter about more money. I think you will get the letter and send the money so we will not wait to hear, but go on to Germany through Friesland. We propose to leave here on Wednesday June 1st having seen about all we can to. I did not finish my letter last evening and it has been on the table all day yesterday and to-day. We have been as very busy. We returned
