I was vexed at her and there tone and sent them back with the request that she would be more consistant and ladylike in her correspondence that my intentions were honorable and what I said I intended to do with the help of God. but that events were shaping themselves contrary to my expectations and that I could do nothing further untill I am discharged. she knows my condition and my ability to support her which I am willing to exert to the utermort for her benifit if I have the chance and I am able to find something to do that will not over tax my strength. Major General O. O. Howard, U. S. A

Dear Sir

I received your letter of the 13th and was more than surprised at receiving this kind advice and suggestions to me from you. I can assure you that I appreciate your kindness and have given your suggestions much thought. I have made overtures tending towards a reconciliation and union. but have been treated in the same manner as when I was in N. Y. as long as every thing went smoothly my home was pleasant and happy; but trouble and disturbance were sure to follow the slightest opposition to my Wifes wishes. This state of affairs could not continue any length of time. hence my leaving home and friends

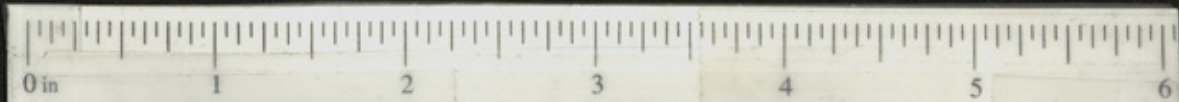

I never expected this absence to be as long as it has been, but circumstances over which I had no control willed it otherwise. When I enlisted I knew nothing about the army or its regulations nor the difficulties in getting discharged, as soon as I had learned these things I requested my Wife to apply for my discharge and that I would return home and make a new start in life her answer was that she could not do it. I then made preparations to leave the service; but the Mckintchen bill became a law about this time and I determined to purchase my discharge. but misfortune seemed to will it otherwise. I had the misfortune to break my right leg and have been unable to do much of any thing since. I was in the Hospital at Ft Douglas 4 months. I then joined my company and was carried on light duty for 4 months longer. I was then marked duty this was the 6th June 1891. I continued to do straight duty until the first of August when I was put in the Cook House and have been cooking until the first of July 1892. I was one month with F. Co and 10 months with I. Co. I have been with F. Co since the first of July last this was done at my request as I thought that I was well enough to make an effort to start life anew if I could get discharged knowing that I would never be able to finish my enlistment. I had Dr Powell examine my leg and ankle he told me that he thought that I would be able to finish my enlistment and that he would not discharge me this was a great disappointment to me at the time now I think it was for the best as it will be but a poor effort that I will be able to make towards my own support my Wifes Petulant temper would not help me much he I ever so willing to make him that I was getting no better and asked for a change of treatment he told me that he could do nothing more for me than he was doing (giving me liniment) but probably Dr. Tisson might help me when I got to St. Sidney. I hope so as I never have had a thorough examination. you tell me that my Wifes life is not altogether happy (neither is mine) while not being entirely free from blame for this I am not wholly to blame and will make what reparation I can without entirely forfeiting my manhood this I think is all that you expect of me. I do not want to make any farther counter accusations and would forget the Past if I could this I will try to do and if I have an opportunity will live a different life in the future I have after told my Wife what I would do had I an other opportunity and that I could not force matters. that I did not now want to get discharged through her application as that I think will give me a dishonorable discharge this I would not like to have happen having spent to much time here to entirely forfeit every thing that I may be entitled to and to consider the disgrace that will be attached to this kind of a discharge. this you understand much better than I do. as I am situated I do not know what to do farther than to follow your advise in making reasonable advances to my Wife. I cannot honestly advise her to link her life with mine in the army as I think it much worse than where she is. as soon as I can I will come back to N. B. and try and make a successful start in life. I will write to her by this Post and tell her that I have written to you and that I will follow your suggestions and any advise that you may choose to give to me will receive my undivided attention I will now bring this letter to a close begging your Pardon if I have trespassed to long on your time and Patience I thank you for your interest in my case and giving me Permission to write this letter to you.

I remain your obedient servant

All so far is going well with us. Fannie looks very well and has not been perceptibly weakened by the treatment.
We hope to leave next Wednesday for Koenigsberg, & after a short stay there continue our journey towards England.

We earnestly hope the cases of cholera reported from New York may not spread the disease generally through the city. I expect to avoid all infected places on our way back and the disease seems to be so confined within limits that it appears quite practicable to do so.

We hear by letter of Major Lord's serious illness, but hope the report regarding him is exaggerated. Fannie has heard from the Barrells that the Captain has quite recovered his good health.

Please tell Fannie that I have his letter and I will write him at some other time.
Adelheid has written us of her plan to return via Bremen.
The trip to Liverpool would be harder than the trip to N.Y. direct.

I hope Mother and Harry & Ken will have a good visit to John & that by the time they return the cholera within the quarantine will have disappeared.
Give Fannie & Captain Gay our love. Your affectionate son

General Howard,

Governor's Island, N.Y. City,

My Dear Sir:-

With the return of the summer absentees, I am resuming my canvass among persons likely to be interested in the local work as indicated in the enclosed letter-form and points of a proposed plan, the latter being simply something tangible to work with. The practical thing is to get adherents to that $10,000. league or fund. The matter of administration will take care of itself. Nevertheless, the plan as suggested is the outcome of the judgment of men like Dr. Storrs, not as a final expression of opinion, however.

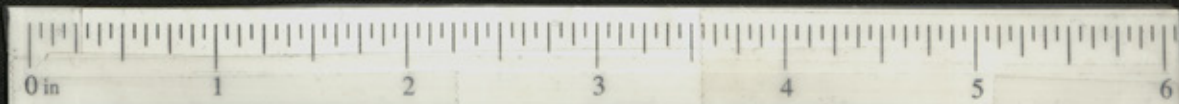

I am urged on, not merely by the approval of the gentlemen named, but also by the peculiar position of the young church of which I am ~~the~~ ^{the} acting pastor, which has almost within its grasp a most generous offer, but which cannot be availed of without other aid, present or prospective. And there are other cases.

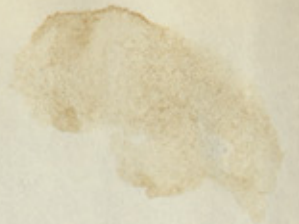

I hope to have an early opportunity of seeing you, when I may have the good fortune to find you at liberty.

With much respect, Believe me,

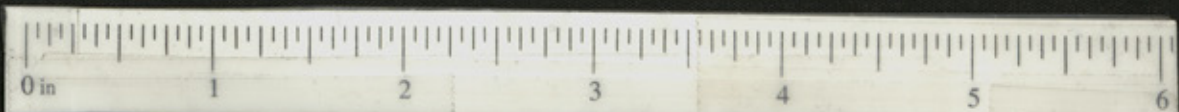

Sincerely Yours,

W. T. Stokes.

Major-General O. O. Howard,

Honors & Sir: Farther research has given me the date I asked for; that of the repulse of Major Taylor at Rock Island rapids. It was the 6th of September, 1814. Duncan Graham, a lieutenant in the Indian service, commanded the very small force of British. His official report can be found in vol. IX. Wisconsin Historical Collections. In this he does not name the Indian commander. But I am decidedly of the opinion, as I have already stated that it was probably Black Hawk. Here are some of my reasons:

"From the beginning of the present century the principal character" in the Saginaw region near the mouth of Rock river "was Makatamiskiahiak, or the Black Sparrow Hawk, commonly styled Black Hawk." [See vol.

Nov. 1. 219
fious. Al Ritete

xii. p. 219 of the Wisconsin Historical Collections.

About July 1812. Robert Dickson the British agent in this region "selected Black Hawk as leader of the warriors of the allied nations." (same volume, p. 141.)

As in August (probably), 1813, "Black Hawk and many of the western warriors returned home" (same volume p. 147) he would probably stay thereabout during the winter. In the spring the Americans moved sent an expedition up the river which established Fort Shelby. A movement of this sort would probably put Black Hawk on the alert for the defense of his home.

Finally, we have his express statement that he did command the Indians not only at the repulse of Campbell but also at the repulse of Taylor. Doubtless this statement is to be found in his autobiography which I have not at hand. I find it Black Hawk's ~~version~~ account of the fight in Smith History of Wisconsin, Vol. II Documentary.

Handwritten notes on a separate piece of paper, partially visible at the top right corner. The text is written in cursive and includes the words "Lafayette", "Lafayette", and "Lafayette".

Handwritten text on lined paper, mostly illegible due to fading and bleed-through. The text appears to be a letter or a report, mentioning names like "Robert" and "Black", and discussing various topics. The handwriting is in cursive.

Probably you are familiar with all this. If so, I beg your pardon for troubling you with it. But even if there were only one chance in twenty of its being of service to you I should be glad to try to be of ~~even a~~ very little ^{help} ~~service~~ in your important work.

Very respectfully,

John H. Davidson.

In connection with the National Prohibition Park, on Staten Island, we are organizing a Building and Loan Association. The object is to encourage the people in New York and the neighboring cities to leave the crowded tenement-house and saloon regions, and build homes of their own on ground that prohibits by deed the saloon. We wish a strong Board of Officers, and should like to have your name as one of the Trustees. Dr. Deems, Dr. Gregory, and myself ^{would} represent the clergyman's side. As you know, under the building and loan association laws of New York, there is exemption from liability on the part of the Trustees, and scarcely a chance for wrong doing. Your name will help on a philanthropic work---that of relieving the overcrowded portions of New York.

Commanding Division of the Atlantic,

Headquarters Governors Island, N. Y.

Dear Sir:-

It will afford this Committee great pleasure to have the Steamer assigned to your Division take part in the Naval Parade of October 11th.

I will be glad to meet, at this or-time, any representative you may send, to arrange the details connected with your participation in the ceremonies of the day mentioned.
Respectfully yours,

Representing the Committee.

we had a good passage, and were permitted to preach the Gospel twice in the Saloon of the Ship. Owing to a north east wind all the week we were in the trough of the sea a good deal, and were well rolled. Both my daughter and myself had a good time of sea sickness, but were the better for it. when the voyage ended.
So well it be when we end the voyage of life. We shall say with David Fight is good for me that I have been affl-

STRAND HOUSE
LIMERICK

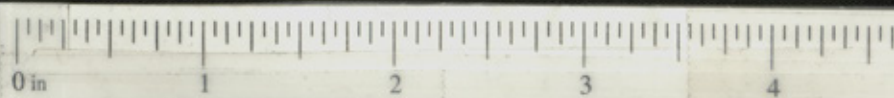

Sept 22nd 1892

My dear General Howard.
Your kind letter of the 10th inst came to me last evening, and has found its way to day, to my daughter, who is with our friend Mr Stone in London.

Dear General, I

value very highly your love and esteem, and appreciate very much indeed, the kind attentions shown us by you in your accompanying us to West Point, and in seeing us to the Ship, in commending us to God, and the farewell, waved from the Sea Wall of Governors Island on Saturday Morning as we passed down the Bay on the "Umbria". We saw you distinctly through our glasses, and were all there waving our handkerchiefs to you. It was very kind of you to give us this parting "good bye", as we were leaving our native land. My dear girl, and Mr Stone and our English Ladies, were all grateful.
My Mary has quite fallen in love with her father's old Commander, and is very proud of her Loyal League Button.
You will be glad to know that Mr Moody's work is being greatly blessed in Ireland. I have never seen the people more stirred by the gospel. I am here for one week in a theatre accommodating about 1400 - and it was filled and crowded last evening with all classes - Romanists and Protestants - and about 100 remained as inquirers, keeping us until nearly midnight. It is best for the work, that nothing should get into our American papers as to Catholics attending the meeting - but - hundreds do attend - and listen eagerly to the story of how "The blood of Jesus Christ His Son Cleanseth us from all sin." I have this text in big red letters back of my platform, and told the Soldiers of the famous Black Watch on Tuesday night how God used it to give you light.

With many thanks General for your good letter, and for your prayers, and with my affectionate regards for you and yours, I am your very truly

General O.O. Howard,

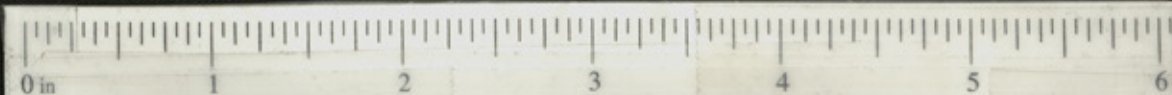

Governor's Island, City.

My Dear General:- I am sorry to hurry a busy man. You made us very glad by the promise of that photo but it delays to come and our engraver and printer are only waiting its receipt to go ahead. As our Rally Day is fixed now for the Sabbath before Thanksgiving, we have all too little time to engrave, print and circulate the cards. May we not hear from you at the earliest date possible?

I have taken the liberty, in the October number of the Home Missionary, to promise the young soldiers in the Home Missionary Army a stirring appeal from the Commanding General in the next issue of the magazine. A few words from you will be a great stimulus to this effort and will bring thousand of new recruits into the army. Will you not between this date and the 1st of October address a few words, as you know how, to the boys and girls of the army. This we will publish in the November number.

Cordially yours,
