

675

Received June 193

The Cadets of the
New York Military Academy

Cornwall-on-Hudson, invite you to be present at their

Commencement Exercises,

at one o'clock.

June fourteenth.

676

Sturtevant W. R.

June 7, 93.

Replied June 9, 93

394 Carlton Ave.
Brooklyn, N.Y.

June 7/93

My Dear Sir:

If you can now commend me to one, or two of your personal friends in New York or Brooklyn with whom I may consult it would expedite our canvass.

It would not matter whether they were personally ready to give any thing, or not, since they may put me in the way to reach others.

Many times

W. H. Sinclair

Genl. O. O. Howard

Governors Island N.Y.

ESTABLISHED 1867.

OFFICE OF

S. Libman,

H. LIBMAN,
SUCCESSOR TO

Successor to F. LIBMAN & SON,

MANUFACTURERS OF

MOULDINGS & PICTURE FRAMES,

18 EAST BROADWAY,

Near the Chatham Square Elevated Railway Stations.

New York, June 7, 1893

Gen. O. O. Howard
Dear Sir.

Would you please give me a pass for two to visit Governor's Island on Saturday
May 10, 1893 and by so doing you will greatly oblige

Yours Truly
Charles Libman

180 E. 6th St
City

H. LIBMAN
SUCCESSOR TO

OFFICE OF

ESTABLISHED 1887

SUCCESSOR TO F. LIBMAN & SON,

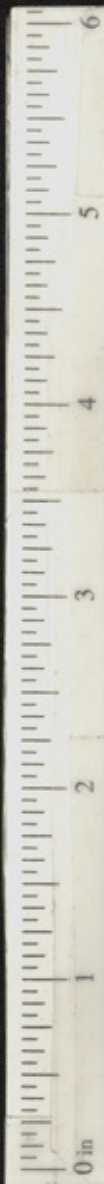

MANUFACTURERS OF

MOULDINGS & PICTURE FRAMES,

121 EAST BROADWAY,

Between the City Hall and the City Hall Stations.

Libman & Son
January 9th 93
Pass out January 9th 93

New York, June 7th 1893

Dear General Howard

The following are the most salient facts and advantages in the Contract for the Swampy Lands of the State of Florida

- I There are about 30,000 acres of which about 22,000 are located in solid Muck of from 2400 to 7000 acres near RR Suwannee River - The Gulf of Mexico in the vicinity of Cedar Key or Harbor Most of the balance is located at Lakes Jessup, Monro, and St. John's near a Net of RR. in orange - Volusia Co in the Central Eastern part of Fla much frequented by Tourists
- II The greater portion of all the acreage is Hammock and Timber Land, Cedar, yellow Pine, Oak etc which ought to pay if cut five or six times over the price demanded for the Land and the Land thus denuded of forests would be worth five or six times as much at the cost price for settlement and farming to say nothing of the prospective advances in all Florida Land through increasing population and Tourist travel year after year
- III Good Phosphate Deposits are known to exist in some of the Lands mentioned and much of it is in the Phosphate Belt and with little expense good Phosphate Mines could be located Thereon nearly all the Land is high and dry in the rainy season and in winter fuel

F. IRSCH,
General Broker,

1, 3 AND 5 OLD SLIP.

CABLE ADDRESS: "IRSCH, NEW YORK."

New York,

189

in settling and agriculture

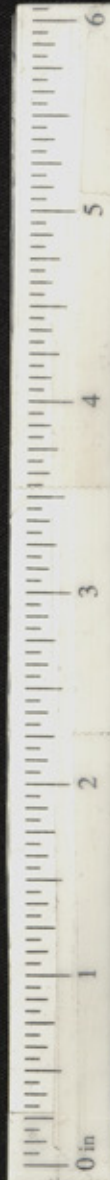

- IV Absolute security as to title is assured as the State of Fla gives same to purchasers which is important to investors as many titles in all the Southern States are cloudy or entangled requiring expensive and careful searches and corrections.
- V The price for all being \$1 per acre under my contract up to the 30th of June 1893 and from then \$1.25 till until 30th Dec. 93 and the present selling price price of the State being from \$1.25 to \$7 per acre averaging about \$3.25 on whole acreage, a difference of \$66,000. in favor of Contract appears on its face, hence the Bonus of \$10,000^{Cash} and $\frac{1}{6}$ % interest in the profit of a resale or development would leave a handsome primary profit on the purchase without development or natural increase in values, without development which must come from year to year, for timber and good farming Land. (Taxes on unimproved Land being very small) and even the State prices which would stimulate above profit, prima facie, is much lower than it used to be formerly; therefore purchasers would receive the first and best selections of State Land at the lowest possible price at the start: cheapness, safety, with reasonably certain large profits combined in the investment of their Capital

707

W. IRSCH
GEOGRAPHICAL BROKER
13 AND 15 OLD SQUARE
CART. ADDRESS: IRSCH, NEW YORK

Irish Traveller
June 7th 1893

...the price for all being $1 per acre under present up to the 30th of June 1893 and from then $1.25 till until 30th Dec. 93 and the present selling price price of the land being from $1.25 to $1.75 per acre amounting about $325 on what is now a difference of $6000, in favor of the land owner on its face, here the sum of $10,000, and 1/2 of interest in the profit of a acre or development would be a handsome primary profit on the purchase without development or natural increase in value, without development which would come from year to year, for timber and so forth and even the price which would be above profit price, is much more than owed to the owner, for the present would be the first and best collection of the land at the lowest possible price of the land, cheaply sold, with the present condition large profit to the owner on the present condition of the

(C O P Y)

F. I R S C H ,
General Broker,
1,3,& 5 Old Slip.

CABLE ADDRESS: " I R S C H , N E W Y O R K . "

N E W Y O R K , June 7/93

DEAR GENERAL HOWARD:-

The following are the most salient facts and advantages in the contract for the Seminary Lands of the State of Florida:-

- I. There are about 30.000 acres, of which about 22.000 are located in solid blocks of from 2400 to 7000 acres near railroad, Suwannee River and the Gulf of Mexico in the vicinity of Cedar Keys Harbor, most of the balance is located at Lakes Jessup, Monroe, and St. Johns River, near a net of Railroads, in Orange, and Volusia Counties, in the Central Eastern part of Florida much frequented by tourists.
- II. The greater portion of all the acreage is hummock and timber land, Cedar, Yellow Pine, Oak, &c., which ought to pay, if cut five or six times over the price demanded for the land, and the land thus denuded of forests would be worth five or six times as much as much the cost price for settlement and farming, to say nothing of the prospective advance in all Florida Land, through increasing population and tourist travel, year after year.
- III. Good phosphate deposits are known to exist in some of the lands mentioned, and most of it is in the Phosphate Belt and with very little expense good phosphate mines could be located therein. Nearly all the land is high and dry in the rainy season, an important factor in settling and agriculture.
- IV. Absolute security as to titles is assured, as the State of Florida gives same to purchasers, which is important to investors, as many titles in all the Southern States are cloudy or entangled, requiring expensive and careful searches and corrections.
- V. The price for all being \$ 1.00 per acre under my contract up to the 30th of June 1893, and from then \$ 1.25, ditto until 30th December 1893, and the present selling price of the State being from \$ 1.25 to \$ 7.00 per acre, averaging about \$ 3.25, in whole acreage, a difference of \$ 66.000 in favor of contract appears on its face, hence the bonus of \$ 10.000 cash and $\frac{1}{6}$ at interest on the

COPIES
F. I. R. S. C. H.
General Broker
1, 3, & 5 Old Ship
Cable Address: "HISCOX," NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, June 7/92

DEAR GENERAL HOWARD:-

The following are the most salient facts and advantages in the contract for the Seminary Lands of the State of Florida:-

- I. There are about 30,000 acres, of which about 22,000 are located in solid blocks of from 2400 to 7000 acres near railroad, Suwanee River and the Gulf of Mexico in the vicinity of Cedar Keys Harbor, most of the balance is located at Lakes Jessup, Monroe, and St. Johns River, near a net of Railroads, in Orange, and Volusia Counties, in the Central Eastern part of Florida much frequented by tourists.
- II. The greater portion of all the acreage is hammock and timber land, Cedar, Yellow Pine, Oak, &c., which ought to pay, if cut five or six times over the price demanded for the land, and the land thus demanded of forests would be worth five or six times as much as much the cost price for settlement and farming, to say nothing of the prospective advance in all Florida land, through increasing population and tourist travel, year after year.
- III. Good phosphate deposits are known to exist in some of the lands mentioned, and most of it is in the Phosphate Belt and with very little expense good phosphate mines could be located therein. Nearly all the land is high and dry in the rainy season, an important factor in settling and agriculture.
- IV. Absolute security as to titles is assured, as the State of Florida gives same to purchasers, which is important to investors, as many titles in all the Southern States are cloudy or entangled, requiring expensive and careful searches and corrections.
- V. The price for all being $1.00 per acre under my contract up to the 30th of June 1893, and from then $1.25, ditto until 30th December 1893, and the present selling price of the State being from $1.25 to $2.00 per acre, averaging about $2.25, in whole acreage, a difference of $66,000 in favor of contract appears on its face, hence the bonus of $10,000 cash and 1/6 of interest in the profit of a re-sale or development would leave a handsome primary profit on the purchase, without development or natural increase in values, without development which must come from year to year, for timber and good farming land, taxes on unimproved land being very small and even the State prices which would show the above profit, prima facie, is much lower than it used to be formerly; therefore purchasers would receive the first and best selections of State lands at the lowest possible price at the start. Cheapness, safety with reasonable certain large profits combined in the investment of their capital.

(2)

(Gen'l. Howard).

2. The above is a summary of the and will be found in the report of the

*the report of the
the report of the
the report of the*

profit of a re-sale or development would leave a handsome primary profit on the purchase, without development or natural increase in value, without development which must come from year to year, for timber and good farming land, taxes on unimproved land being very small and even the State prices which would show the above profit, prima-facie, is much lower than it used to be formerly; therefore purchasers would receive the first and best selections of State lands at the lowest possible price at the start. Cheapness, safety with reasonable certain large profits combined in the investment of their capital.

H. A. FISCHER.
WHEATON COLLEGE.

WHEATON, III., June 7, 1893

Gen. O. O. Howard,
My dear Sir:

Last winter you kindly consented to write a letter for me to use in my work as financial agent in New York City. You asked me to write to you from Boston, but I found that I could not return to New York City before coming home, and so did not send for the letter.

Since then, I have several times wished I had such a letter, and if you are still willing to write it I shall value it. Enclosing circular shows what some of our thoughts of the College, and also what use we may possibly wish to make of your paper when we print the circular similar to the enclosed.

Yours fraternally,
H. A. Fischer.

678

Parker H. A.

Jan 7. 93.

Replied Jan 9. 93

Dear Mr. Parker
I have received your letter concerning the matter of the to me in my work as far as agent in New York City. I have I write to you from Boston, but I found that I could not return to New York City before coming home, and so did not send for the letter.
Since then I have received the letter. I had sent a letter, and if you are still willing to write it I shall value it. Enclosed is a circular showing what some of our friends of the College, and what are the many friends of the College of Arts and Sciences at the University of the City of New York.

Howard University,

Washington, D. C., June 8th, 1893.

My Dear Gen. Howard:

We have closed the year,
on the whole, very successfully: 512 students 97 graduates. The elegant casket, you sent in my absence, has been appropriately framed, & is in the Pres. room. It will finally go to the new chapel: which the Trustees have voted to build. We have $12.00 in hand for it. Did you promise to help us, in the matter of windows?
Why could we not have a "Howard" or don: to the three brothers: O. O., C. H., & R. D. or perhaps, me to Mrs. Howard, the woman, of much excellent judgment. By the way, when your last letter came, my wife maliciously said: "Why doesn't he ask his wife?" What trials we have!

6.80

We are going to spend a few days at "Linn Cottage" Saratoga. If I had any time at N.Y., should be glad to report.

We did not elect a Quaker: a tie, 7 to
7. Amos is the man, I want to see there.
Our oppos. American friends need him, though they do not want him. He is a man of great good sense, & not easily influenced. Sen. J. M.
Edgar advocated him strongly. Wm. H. S. Knapp

Personnel

UNITED STATES ARTILLERY SCHOOL, COMMANDANT'S OFFICE, FORT MONROE, VA.

June 8, 1893

Gen. O. O. Howard
Governor's Island
N. Y.

Dear General,

I beg to thank you most sincerely for your letter of recommendation which I shall ever appreciate. With great respect I am 679 Very sincerely yours

Frederic T. Frank

June 8. 93

June 8, 1893.

My Friend
Maj. Gen. O. C. Howard
Governors Island
New York City

Dear Sir:

I was in Capt.
Barrett's Company
E. 72 New York Vol.
3rd Excelsior or Dickles Brigade. I went at the age of sixteen. Gen.
Dickles thought a great deal of Capt.

Barrett. I served with the Gen. all through the Peninsula Campaign and was wounded twice so I was unable to be at Gettysburg. Was discharged July 30-'63
My wife's father was captured at Gettysburg and starved to death in Libby's prison. I see in the call to give transportation to Gettysburg July 1st &c they say actual participants in the battle. Will General
I work hard every day from 5 or 6 A.M. till 8 or 9 P.M. on my farm and my wife

works harder if anything and I'd like to go to Gettysburg and take her. I thought I would ask you if I could take your pass that I had on the Sea Great Shore to Buffalo. and come down to N. York City and get transportation from there to Gettysburg & come back the same way. Perhaps Gen.
Dickles would give me transportation from there (N. York City)
I have 40 acres of land
a good many stumps left.
Have a good cow - & horse
Clover hay growing fine
- some winter wheat

691

Planted lots of corn &c about $1000. Col. Jefferson Parker formerly of your Command lost his wife a few months ago. The Col.
is either 68 or 78 straight as an arrow speaks very hily & friendly of you. I think he was not in Gettys. battle

Yours truly

Geo. S. Torrance,

Gowanda,

Catt. Co.

N. York.

Reply sent

June 10. 93

P.S. Perhaps if you would kindly refer this to the Gen. (Sickle) might be able to me transpor in N.Y. City
P.S. I am in 710

Pratt's Letter
June 8. 93
Repl. w/ June 15. 93

New York, June 8, 1893
57 East 61st St

Gen. O. O. Howard,

My dear Sir,

On my return from Newport I ordered the books, of which I spoke, to be sent to you & trust they come safely to hand. I also send you herewith the eulogy on Gen. Taylor & have added to it two bits of "ancient history", which I do not expect you to read. I wish to get rid of bulky old prosephlet!

It gave me great pleasure to meet you last week for the first time; & that in company with my
"New Bedford boy" & dear old friend, Dr. McKenzian.
May God bless you & all yours; together with him & all his —

Most truly yours

Geo: L. Prentiss

R. B. PARKER, PRESIDENT.
E. C. HILLIARD, VICE-PRESIDENT.

STEPHEN BALL, SECRETARY.

W. A. COWLES, ASS'T SECRETARY.
A. T. SMITH, SUP'T OF AGENCIES.

Hartford Life and Annuity Insurance Company,

Hartford, Conn. June 8th 1893

Maj. Gen. O. O. Howard Governor's Island, New York, N.Y.

My dear Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your communication of the 7th June and to say in reply that all you can reasonably be expected to say in answer to Mr Patterson's letter (which is herewith returned to you) is that you have carried insurance with this Company since 1880 and (if you think so) that the connection has been satisfactory.

In mentioning the names of the most prominent policy holders to agents it is not intended that they shall be annoyed with letters asking for their opinion of the Company and we regret that Mr Patterson has intruded upon your time.

Mr Patterson's statement to you respecting your participation in the benefits to arise from a completed Safety Fund is a fair prophecy of the future.

Very respectfully

Stephen Ball
Secy

Mr Patterson's letter to Gen. O. O. Howard enclosed.

681

Wm. Stephen

June 8. 93

June 8. 93

Wm. O. Howard
Governor's Office, New York, N.Y.

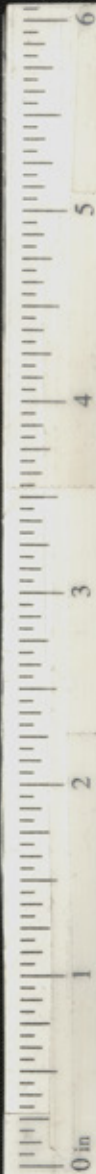

My dear Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of the 7th inst. and to say in reply that all you can reasonably be expected to do in answer to the Governor's letter (which is herewith forwarded) is that you have caused communication with the Company since 1880 and if you think so that the connection has been satisfactory. In mentioning the names of the several persons making claims it seems to me not intended that they shall be conveyed with letters asking for their opinion of the Company and no report that the Governor has returned upon your time. The Governor's statement to your respecting your participation in the benefit to arise from a completed Relief Fund is a fair specimen of the kind.

Very respectfully

Wm. Stephen

Wm. O. Howard
Governor's Office, New York, N.Y.

80 BROADWAY.

June 8th 1893

My dear Gen.:

Will you kindly sign and return the enclosed notice by return mail, as I desire to commence publication at once,
and so greatly oblige yours sincerely

Genl. M. W. A. J. H.

J. H. Buchanan

682
Washburn W^m J
June 8. 93.

Notice sent June 9. 93

44 West 35th St

June 8th. 1893

Dear General,

The enclosed as to Gen Taylor is every way so very valuable that you ought to have it to keep & I give it to you.

But, if you have seen it already, I now have a copy of it then, in that case & in that only, please, bring this copy with you, when (as you said,)
"you" (I others I hope) would take foot-luck, on Sunday next, with

Most Cordially Yours,

Francis W. Upham.

684 P. W.
Upham
June 8. 93

You on Friday evening at 8 o'clock, 685

With many thanks for your kindness Believe me

Very sincerely yours

Newton Sedgwick

Asst in Charge

St George's Church

June 8th 1893

St. George's Memorial House, 207 East 16th St., N.Y.

You L. O. Howard
Governor's Island.

My dear Sir:

Thank you very much for your reply to my note, which I left the other day as I failed to find you.

I shall look for 686

Gray David W
June 8. 93

The Honeysuckles

NEW CANAAN, CONN.,

JUNE 8, 1893.

DEAR GEN. HOWARD:-

I REGRET VERY MUCH NOT SEEING YOU WHEN YOU CALLED, AND I FEAR I WILL NOT BE ABLE TO MEET YOU THIS WEEK. I HAVE TO GO TO THE CITY TO-MORROW, 'FRIDAY', TO OFFICIATE AT A FUNERAL, AND AFTER-WARDS GO TO THE GRAVE AT WOODLAWN, WHICH WILL TAKE THE WHOLE OF THE AFTER-NOON,
AND ON SATURDAY MORNING I GO TO ITHACA TO PREACH AT CORNELL THE NEXT DAY.
AFTER THAT AGAIN, I GO TO R. I. TO MEET

SOME ENGAGEMENTS THERE. I AM SORRY THAT IT IS SO, BUT SO IT IS.

BELIEVE ME, VERY SINCERELY YOURS,

Hand to Hand

GEN. O. O. HOWARD,

GOVERNOR'S ISLAND,

NEW YORK CITY.

683

Walker Louis
June 8. 93

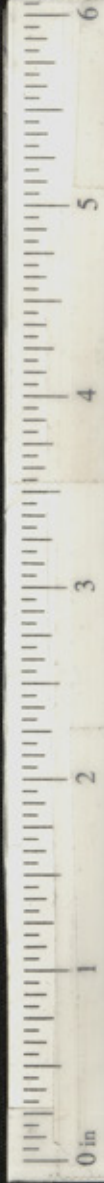

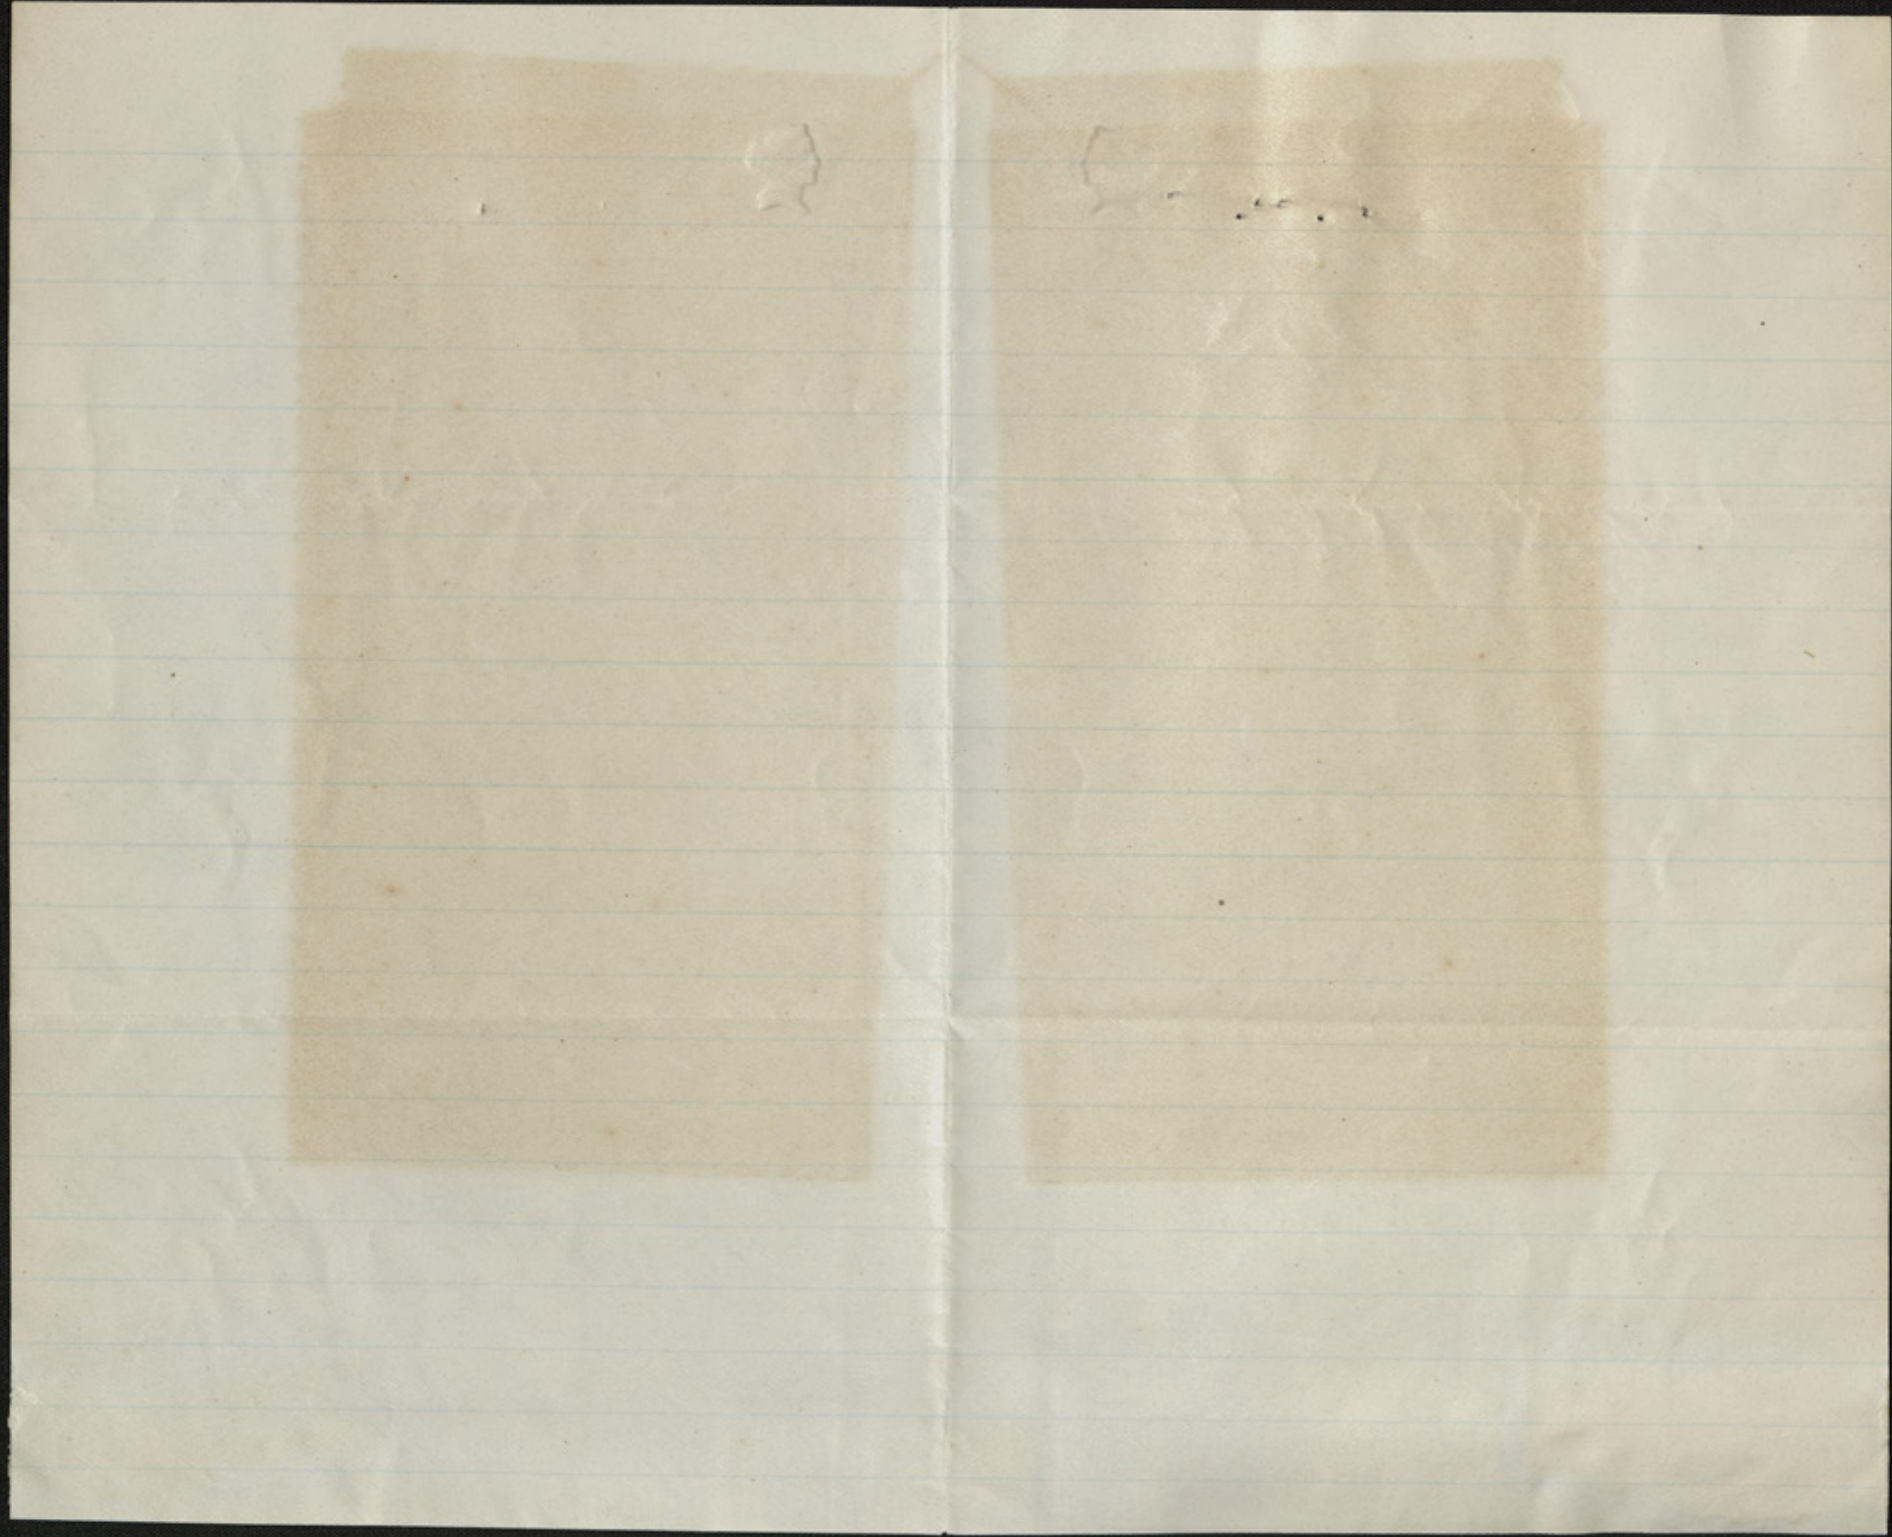

Replies June 8. 93

Cincinnati, O., June 8-93.
Gen. A. C. Howard

Sir:

About a year ago,
I sent you the Commercial Gazette of the 9th of June 1892 when I claimed that I captured Ex Speaker Crisp and I saved Sherman's Army on the March to the Sea, you never answered me, enclosed you find a little story which might interest ~~you~~ you. I would like to hear from you. I remain,

Yours Truly
Louis Walker
South West. lev. of 13th & Vinc Cin. O.

SUPPRESSED.

A Story of the Great Civil War.

Romance and Tragedy Woven Around It.

The First Edition Was Bought Up Entire,

And, Together With the Plates, Was Destroyed.

But One Copy of It Was Preserved,

And From This a New Edition
Is Being Printed.

A new version of "The Story of the War."

A view of the Rebellion that cost a man thousands of dollars, his son a dismissal from college in disgrace and that has woven around it a tale of romance and tragedy that has never before found its way into public print.

In brief, these are the facts which are for the first time coming to light:

About three weeks ago there came to Cincinnati an Italian who gave his name as Guiseppe Vecchio and who remained for several days at 100 East Fifth Street, a boarding-house kept by a Mrs. Davis. He was an electrician, and after transacting his business here left for his home in the South. During his stay he became acquainted with several boarders at the house and proved himself highly entertaining.

One evening during a conversation the question of the war between the North and the South was mentioned, and a lively debate ensued.

"There is one version of the war that is just now being made public for the first time," said the Italian.

"To what do you refer?" was asked.

"To Percy Craig's History," was the reply.

Percy Craig's history had not been heard of by those present, and when they began questioning the Italian he excused himself for a few moments, and, going to his room, he returned with a book entitled "Craig's History of the American Rebellion."

It was a neatly bound volume of several hundred pages, and was a review of the great Rebellion from beginning to end, written from a Southern standpoint. The causes of the war, its events and the results, were presented in a new way, and the rest of the evening was spent in studying and discussing it.

Several offers were made to buy the book, but these were refused, and finally the Italian told the following remarkable story of the history:

Percy Craig was an Englishman, a writer and a man of some means. He came to this country along in the fifties to write a history of America, but the records of the Government were closed against him, and, becoming discouraged, he returned to his native country just about the time the civil war broke out.

After the war had ended he came back to America still intent on securing the information he sought during his first visit. Failing in his attempts, he went South, and being a Southern sympathizer, he soon secured the aid of the most influential men of that section, and wrote his history from a Southern standpoint, giving information that has never since found its way into any other story of the war.

Returning to England he made arrangements for the publication of his book. About this time a wealthy gentleman from Connecticut was traveling in England. The Italian did not remember his name, but thought it was something like Brownell or Bromwell, and by that latter name referred to him during the remainder of his story.

Bromwell was a pronounced Northern man in sympathy, and during his stay in London accidentally heard of the history that was then being published. He saw some proofs of it, and being immensely wealthy decided at once that no such version of the victory of the North should be given the English people. He at once made overtures to the London publisher for the plates, but failing to secure them he sent agents to Italy, France, Germany and throughout England and bought up entire the first edition of 100,000 copies. He then secured the aid of a German and succeeded in buying the plates.

These he destroyed, together with the edition of the book, save five copies, which he sent back to his home. Returning a year later, he destroyed four of the copies, retaining one, and thus having the only copy in existence. It had cost him a fortune, but he could well afford it, and he believed that he had done his country a service.

His son was attending college at Trenton, N. J., and took the book with him. The boy found the history an interesting study, as did his roommate, and finally he gave it to the roommate, who left before the college closed. Young Bromwell was to have graduated that year, and in the final debate during commencement exercises made some statements that astounded the faculty. No such facts had ever been heard of as he purported to give and the faculty promptly called upon him for his proof.

"Craig's History so gives it," replied the young man.

"There is no such book as Craig's History," responded the faculty.

"There is," was young Bromwell's answer, and he at once instituted a search for the book. His roommate had gone to Richmond, Va., but had left there, and no one knew his whereabouts. Bromwell was unable to find him, and was expelled from the college for what was believed to be a disgraceful action on his part.

Five years later the roommate was arrested in New York State, tried for murder and hanged.

Within the last three months a copy of that history has been found—presumably the one young Bromwell had—and is being reprinted in the South. It is said to be the intention of these back of the enterprise to place the history in the Southern schools as a textbook. The copy the Italian had he bought in Atlanta, Ga.

W

Fou

today

In

by,

K

M. B.

On

ton,

T

P. I.

Lyr

W

vill

Un

And

C

this

Dist

ing

Wor

dec

pon

Th

one nour

po

requ

tion,

had

Al

to ap

day

rend

the r

take subm

Th

Attor

nois

ary i from had grou

day

As

had the d

Sund

prese

ingly

the o lant.

Arr

fair

crow

favor

ance

Ne

the T

Exch

Weat

table

serve then was

Bood

took

Forty

vs, ec

AN

L. Pu

sylva

nigh

Purp

West

Ir

and

East

Pr

Lou

felte

app

Fr

Rob

ter

In

A

Gil

Sec

will

T

ma

her and on

T

W

in tri

Th

su

T

da

fin ish ro

the re

o

ob

S.

ar

cat

Co

an

Th

fix

H

ans

bo

ing

nur

onl

of

eve

will

yet

W

150 to t gra

log

COMPANY

(Monday Only).

on" WASH WRAPPERS
Monday's

$1.25

miss this Bargain.

ns in 98c WRAPPERS, including Blue and Mourn-

ESSES—Skirts made (ma-at a reduction of $10.00
y Only.

BLAZER and ETON SUITS

cial Lots of Beautiful

AND CAPES!

only. Call and see them.

sh of business on MONDAY,

COMPANY

Streets.—1893

Collars and Cuffs 18c, Shirts 8c.
Offices: 127 W. Fifth, 289 Vine, 231 Elm, 761
Gilbert ave. Free delivery. Telephone 422.
New machinery, new methods. Branches wanted. C. & C. LAUNDRY.

EVERYTHING MADE TO ORDER for less money than you can buy ready-made, from the finest merchant tailoring woolens. Boys' knee pants made to order, $1 and up. Boys' suits made to order, $5 and up.
S. PRUSCHANSKY,
No. 300 Vine Street, above Eighth.

CINCINNATI LIFE ASSOCIATION.
LIFE INSURANCE ON EASY TERMS.

Good wages for agents in Ohio, Ky. and W. Va. Insures both men and women.
Write for cost of insurance. Address J. H.
GRAY, Secretary, Cor. Fourth and Vine Streets, Cincinnati, Ohio.

The first on hand with money for the widow.

BROKEN GLASS Iron Metals, Dry Bones, Old Rubber and Leather EMPTY BOTTLES, etc.
Boots, Shoes C. L. HILS 30 and 32
Cleveland St.
Telephone 932

IN THE LEAD!

NCED.

build up our business.

SALE

- Elsewhere at $12.00
- Elsewhere at $1.00
- Elsewhere at $10.00
- Elsewhere at 75c
- Elsewhere at 30c

epers wishing to place their

S.

FURNITURE COMPANY,

Elm and Race.

STOVES!

GAS FIXTURE CO.

Fourth Street.

clipse Gas Ranges.

EN

T,

Elec-Bring

PERSONAL

DON'T Lose your Hair. Hays Hair Health covers bald spots, darkens and beautifies gray hair, removes dandruff. Druggists, 60c.

ARCHITECTS.

PAUL C. PAPE, 75 Pike Building. Suburban residences a specialty.