Dear Gen,-

As you said pointed us last year we rely on your spending a week with us this year.

Mayor Gurney of New buryport especially request us to have you come to the unveiling of the Garrison statue as the guest of the city. The oration is to be delivered by Greenhalge of Lowell our next Republican candidate for governor -

I expected to have seen you at Boston at the meeting of the Army of the Potomac and brought you home
with me.

Our family are all at home all well and desire to be kindly remembered to you and yours.

Bring Captain Gray and wife or wife so we may know where and when to send carriage for you.

Gen. O. O. Howard;

My dear Sir and Bro,

I learn from Mr. Stebbins, of Chicago ^{that} Rev. Thomas Spar-gon, who is to preach
for me next Sunday morning, desires to visit West Point,
and I desire to say that any courtesies you may show him will be greatly appreciated by him and his many others you

Will the grounds be open to him at any time and will a special permit be necessary?

Cordially yours,

June 29" 1893,

Dear General Howard:

May it not be probable that you should be in Chicago about July 20. And if so that we may see you at the ^{Reunion} of my old Regt. if but for ten minutes? Mrs. Smith. writes with me in enclosed invitation.

I feel assured you would be pleased to see the "boys" who were a part of your grand Old 4th A.C. from Kettanooga to Atlanta. And I know it would do them so much good to once more greet their loved and brave Commander.
May we hope to see you?

Very truly yours

Lights Out—when you get home.

COMRADES:

Few are the years which remain for you and your old Commander before we must take our place on "Fame's eternal camping ground." It therefore becomes us to improve the time that we may enjoy the society of our comrades, who, in the terrible ordeal of battle, amid the zip of bullets and the fierce shriek of shell, stood shoulder to shoulder with us in the defence of our common country and beneath its starry flag.

The next decade will find our ranks decimated, our comrades gone, and but few remaining to tell the story of how fields were lost and won.

That each of you may enjoy another happy Re-union with your old Commander, he and his wife, the "mother of the regiment," request your acceptance of a soldier's hospitalities at their home, 65 Sibley Street, Chicago, the evening of Thursday, July 20, 1893, the anniversary of the battle of Peach Tree Creek.

We especially desire that each surviving comrade be present and aid in giving a royal welcome to one you all love, to one who shared with you the hardships of the march and dangers of the battle-field,

COMRADE COLONEL GEORGE HICKS,

whose home is now in the West Indies, but who will be present on that occasion,

Come, bring your "best girl" with you, and do not fail to advise us of your intention, that the Commissary may make proper requisition for rations.

Faithfully yours,

GENERAL AND MRS. J. C. SMITH.

CONDITIONS.

ALL MESSAGES TAKEN BY THIS COMPANY ARE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS.

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it REPEATED; that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one half the regular rate is charged in addition. It is agreed between the sender of the message written on the face hereof and the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company, that said Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any UNREPEATED message, beyond the amount received for sending the same; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery of any REPEATED message beyond fifty times the sum received for sending the same, unless specially insured, nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines, or for errors in cipher or obscure messages. And this Company, is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward any message over the lines of any other Company when necessary to reach its destination.

Correctness in the transmission of messages to any point on the lines of the Company can be INSURED by contract in writing, stating agreed amount of risk, and payment of premium thereon at the following rates, in addition to the usual charge for repeated messages, viz: one per cent. for any distance not exceeding 1,000 miles, and two per cent. for any greater distance.

Responsibility regarding messages attaches to this Company until the same are presented and accepted at one of its receiving offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of this Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

Messages will be delivered free within the established free delivery limits of the terminal office. For delivery at a distance a special charge will be made to cover the cost of such delivery.

This Company will not be liable for damages in any case where the claim is not presented in writing, within sixty days after the message is filed for transmission: In any event, this Company is not to be held liable for any loss, or damage, or delay, or detention, or errors caused by storms or action of the elements, or other acts of God, or by civil or military operations, or by insurrections, riots, rebellions, or dangers incident to time of war, or by the unlawful acts of individuals.

A message is an UNREPEATED Message and is delivered by request of the sender under the conditions named above.

Any employee of this Company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

Dear Sir:-

Our National Temperance Society holds a five days Temperance Camp meeting at Ocean Grove, commencing Wednesday, Aug., 2nd, and we would be very glad if you could be with us some morning or afternoon, Thursday or Fri day to give us an address. These meetings are always very interesting and productive of great good. We have had charge ~~for~~ 5 days for some 12 years. I hope your arrangements are such that you can be with us, or if you cannot give us an address on those days if you could be with us Wednesday morning at the opening, when we have 4 or 5, 15 minutes addresses.

I had hoped to have the honor and pleasure of presenting the enclosed in person but am prevented from doing so by illness.

I am Superintendent of the Sunday School of the Janes M. E. Church, Reid Ave. and Monroe St. Brooklyn; you will remember you were with us two years ago and addressed the School on Children's Day. Believing as I do that the youth of the present generation need to have their patriotic instincts developed and brought out, it occurred to me that the Sunday before the Fourth of July, next Sabbath, would afford a good opportunity to have some one talk to them along this line; my thought naturally reverted to you; it is doubtless great presumption to ask you to take your time but I have the feeling that you of all men are interested in a matter of this kind and therefore I take the liberty of asking if you will come to us Sunday afternoon and address us at quarter past three; if you can, we will be greatly indebted to you; the only inducement I can offer is the opportunity that it seems anyone might covet, to speak to 800 or 1000 children; if you cannot come is there anyone you can send me to who would be likely to accommodate us.

Trusting you will pardon the intrusion, I am

Yours very respectfully,

Dear Sir:-

The Golden Rule is in the habit of printing in each number a carefully engraved portrait of some prominent Christian preacher, teacher, or author. These portraits are accompanied by sketches of the life-work of the man or woman thus introduced to our readers.

I venture to ask you to send me, for this purpose, a recent photograph of yourself. If this is not convenient, will you kindly give us the address of the photographer who can furnish the picture? We shall count it also a very great favor if you will send us a few biographical data, or indicate what you consider the best and most accurate account of your life that has been published.

Sincerely yours,
