Dear Sir,-

I enclose a little book which speaks for itself. I also enclose a clipping from our local paper. We are receiving many letters from those who took part in the great American struggle, expressing warmest sympathy with the movement.

Believing you will approve of the cause, I have taken the liberty, as above stated, of sending you the enclosed. You will remember me as one who met you at Ciudad Porfirio Diaz, in company with Mr. Johnson and others, on your recent visit to Mexico. I was with Gen'l Thomas in the move from Chattanooga to Atlanta, and with Gen'l Sherman to the sea and to the final surrender and grand review at Washington.

I would be pleased to have an expression of opinion from you.

Yours respectfully,

Dear Sir:-

Your letter of the 18th accompanying your most excellent article on "The problems of the next quarter of a century" we received today. We are greatly encouraged by your expression of interest in this very practical manner. Your article is exactly in the line of our desire and I am sure that it will aid us very materially in leading young men into right channels of thought. These hard times are very hard on us and the amount we are able to give for such contributions as this and that of Bishop Potter are not the measure of the value we place upon them. However, we hope sometime to do very much better in this respect. I will ask our business manager to send you $10.00 for this article, and I trust that, under the circumstances it will be satisfactory. If it should not be, please let me know at once. This is the amount we will send Bishop Potter whose article is now in my hands. It is indeed a grand one.

Very respectfully.

Before I sign my name I want to say that your "Dear Friend" at the beginning of your letter has been an inspiration. You do not know me and never will and of course you are not

Esteemed Friend

I would like very much to have thee visit Old Shrewsbury Friends Meeting some first day. Would like a week's notice, so that I could get out a large meeting.

There are many of thy friends and acquaintances residing in that vicinity among whom is Chas. Cothurn my old Teacher at the Old Ocean Institute which was near Shrewsbury. He was also the owner of the same at that time. He lives now at Red Bank which is about two miles from Shrewsbury. I send thee a copy of the New York

Mail and Express with a cut of the Meeting House &c. The trees hide the view somewhat but it is quite large and will seat 500 people comfortably.

If thee could make it convenient to go a week from next first day 9th Mo 3rd I think it would be very agreeable.

Thee can take the 8 o'clock train on N.J. Central RRd from foot Liberty St.
New York or could go over to the Central dock at Jersey City.

If thee can go I will write thee all particulars &c.

Thine truly

Apparently the New Jersey Politicians Hon.

Dear General

You will learn from the enclosed Circular that the 33^d Regt N. J. Vol. is to hold their Annual reunion on the 4th of Sept next at Morrisville N. J. It would afford the Association great pleasure to have you with us at that time. While we would be unable to entertain you in a manner satisfactory to ourselves, we would give you the best that the few of us that remain have to offer. And you would at the same time have an opportunity to minister to our enjoyment. If you cannot be with us, could you furnish us with an article that might be read at that time. Please let us hear from you at an early date.

And Oblige

Yours truly

Third Re-Union 33rd N. J. V.,

To be held at Morristown,

Monday, September 4th, 1893.

DEAR COMRADE:

Our Second Re-Union at Newark last September was heartily enjoyed by the fifty old comrades who were present. At the business meeting Gen. Mindil and the other officers of the association were unanimously re-elected; a long time was spent in the renewal of old friendships, after which we adjourned to Molter's, where a bountiful repast was soon disposed of; "America" was sung, led by Bugler Holloway, and eloquent addresses were made by Gen. Mindil on "The Career of the Regiment," Major Peloubet on "The Knoxville Campaign," Dr. Stiger on "The Trials, Pleasures and Services of the Medical Staff," Major Lambert on "The History of the Regiment." Some most interesting personal experiences were narrated by other comrades, and proved to be about the most interesting feature of the occasion. It is to be hoped that every comrade who can will be present at Morristown and that he will bring with him some personal incident to narrate.

The people of Morristown will give you all a cordial welcome. The rendezvous will be at the Morristown Depot, at 12 o'clock noon; train leaves Newark at 10:43. Torbet Post, G. A. R. will meet us and act as escort on the march to the Court House. After the business meeting we are invited by the Ladies' Loyal League to a collation in the adjoining room; then will follow reminiscences, speeches, etc. Trains returning leave Morristown about once an hour. Comrades are invited to bring their families with them. Please wear the badge on the train. The addresses of many comrades are unknown to us and you are requested to notify all in your vicinity.

By order of the Committee,

JOHN C. SMITH, Secretary,

Dear Bro

Mrs Perry
now of New York City but formerly of Tulaculga Ala offers to deed 400 acres of land to the School at Tuskegee on the sole condition that the Trustees of the school give her parents now 75 & 80 $125 per year during their life time. The place rents for $130.

It is 10 miles from the school It has a number of good buildings on it including the large residence costing over $5000 that would make a good school house. A school building to the one at Tucker could be opened at once with very little expense to begin with. Eight of the Trustees have seen the plan and are heartily in favor of accepting it. To be uniform I inclose Sample date and send to me here. The school has known no such pressure as this since it began 12 yrs ago but has with us.

Gen. O. O. Howard,

Governor's Island, New York City,

Dear Brother:

I went immediately to see about your Isabella book. Gen. McClurg and his book man, Col. Davis, both active Loyal Legion members you know, seemed very cordial in the matter. They said just as the Appletons had done that there was a great raft of Columbian literature which would hurt the chances. Second, they said it was very late for any such enterprize. Too late to make any account of the book as connected with the Columbian celebration. In a word it was "After the Fair" in more senses than one. But General McClurg also said if Howells was offering a manuscript no matter how late that they would not be willing to let it go without looking at it. And he was kind enough to say that he would be glad to have you send your manuscript and they would carefully and promptly examine it, and place it on its merits. I trust it is in typewriter, and so can easily be read. Have you had it read by any good literary critic besides yourself. ² If so, who, and with what opinion. ² If you care to have me or Mc. or Kitty read it critically, and if you would give us the liberty to make changes that we thought would improve the style, that is, of course, on the supposition that we should find any place where such changes seem to us very important, we will be glad to do so. Gen. O. O. Howard,

Governor's Palace, New York City,

Dear Brother:

I want immediately to see about your Israelite book. Gen. McGlinch and his book and, Gov. Davis, both active boys in the matter. They said that as the Apologists had done that there was a great deal of Coleridge literature which would hurt the chances. Second, they said it was very late for any such enterprise. Too late to make any account of the book as compared with the Coleridge selection. In a word it was "After the Fair" in more senses than one. But General McGlinch also said if Howell's was offering a manuscript no matter how late that they would not be willing to let it go without looking at it. And he was kind enough to say that he would be glad to have you send your manuscript and they would examine it and promptly examine it, and place it on the market. I want it in typewriter, and so neatly bound. Have you had it read by any good literary critic besides yourself. If so, who, and with what opinion. If you care to have me or Mr. or Miss read it critically, and if you would give us the liberty to make changes that we thought would improve it, that is, of course, on the supposition that we should find any place where such changes seem to us very important, we will be glad to do so. I do not any means assume that we would find any such. Col. Davis wished me to say that they took their manuscripts in order, and it might be possible that yours would have to wait a little time for some others already in hand, but that it would be read in its turn, and as promptly as possible. All I can say is that there is a possibility that they might issue the book, and if so, they are an honorable firm, and would bring it out in first class style, just as good as if issued by Appleton or Scribner. There would be some advantage in having it emanate from Chicago at this time. If we could get it out before the close of the Fair, it might be taken as you have hinted, as a kind of souvenir, especially by the ladies, and it may be that the interest awakened by this celebration would give it a far wider sale in general next winter than it would have otherwise. But I am sure your experience has been such that you will not expect a wonderful sale or a great amount of money from its publication.

Have you ever written to Houghton, Mifflin & Co. about it. If not, and McClurg does not accept it, I would like to write Mr. Houghton myself, as I am very well acquainted with him, and in a very friendly way. They have never published anything of yours and might like to do so.

Affectionately,

C. H. Howard

P.S.

We have not heard of Bessie's arrival but suppose she must be with James & family. Nina wonders she did not write us she was coming but perhaps she depended on your letter. Mr. Hol. for visit from her. Will you & Diggeri come in September - When there is Honey? Our Arthur & Lawrence are planning to go to Bangor now - to remain there & go to school - completing their fit for College. They go via N. Y. City and would like to spend a day or so with you at Governor's hlond if agreeable to you and convenient.

They have never seen N. Y. City nor any military post I think except Ft. Sheridan - They will probably go on next week - L. H. H.
