Dear Sir:-

As requested by your son, we have investigated the property south of the Church on Chrystie St. and report as follows; # 139, 23.9 X 129 old frame buildings belong to Henry C. Miner who owns the Bowery Theatre in the rear and will not sell except at large price.

135 and 137 Chrystie St. each 23 X 100; 4 story brick factory building owned and occupied by Geo. Bothner and he will give us his price and etc. on Monday. We believe this piece can be bought at a reasonable figure, but doubt if the factory building would be of much use to alter into tenements; but lower stories could be utilized with small expense for your purpose.

We will see the owner of the leasehold to the north of the Church again on Monday and then write you further.

Strong to M

DEAR FRIEND:

Will you carefully read my letter and prayerfully consider if you can do anything to aid us in establishing a Home School for Spanish girls and boys.

One for girls has been sustained for the past four years, and found to be the "open door" through which the gospel has entered many hitherto inaccessible homes, and now the boys are seeking an entrance.

Often has it been verified "that a child shall lead them," for the Spanish parents are fond of their children, and are warned and entreated through the lips of their little ones who have been in our Sabbath or Home School.

Little L., when commanded by his father to go to a saloon for strong drink on Sunday, said, "Papa I cannot, for God would not like to have me go and bring that to you that makes you so cross to mamma." As he saw the anger on his father's face he added, "I hope I may die soon, for I do not wish to grow up, and become a wicked man, and drink beer, and act badly."

The father has not since sent his boy for beer or any strong drink.

Another one said, "I looked up my own place to work with good people, so as not to be compelled to work on Sundays."

Fathers and mothers have often been brought to the church and prayer meetings through the persuasiveness of their children.

"My little girl coaxed me and I came," is often said as the parent timidly enters for the first time.

"My little girl has become so gentle and respectful since being in your Home that now I have come also to see if I can learn how it was done," remarked another.

Precious little E, not long since, was telling her companions that we must love Jesus more than anyone else. While thoughtful O. was enjoying a ride one very bright day in the country, as those around her remarked, "How beautiful!" replied, "Yes, it is God who has given us a beautiful day!" "Well, I asked God last night, during the storm, to give us fair weather," remarked another.

These children were all from Christless homes, but they will return to them as evangelists to conquer them and many others for Christ, if we are faithful in the work that God has given us to do for them.

As a Sunday School is the nursery of the church, threefold more so is a Home School for children of foreigners, where the pupils, daily, are under instruction from God's Word and where all Christian influences are brought to bear upon them.

It has been the anchor cast out by Christ's people on the sea of superstition and ignorance in this great city, to hold the ship of Christianity firmly and securely from the rocks of infidelity, scepticism and Romanism during the past four years.

While the house is mainly occupied as a Home School, it is also a centre for the Sunday School and Industrial Classes in the English and Spanish languages, and the Spanish church weekly prayer meetings, so that from the school has gone out an influence that has reached hundreds of families, awakening many to enquire "What does the Bible teach?" "How can we find the true way?"

This influence is deepening and extending. Our pupils are found as decided Protestants in Spain, Cuba, South America and Mexico, clinging to and unfurling their banner, "All for Jesus," and all of these far away lands expect us to send, ere many years pass, the Christian teachers who shall tell the story of Christ's love in the language used by nearly sixty millions of people.

Meanwhile how can we better keep the light steadily shining here for those who come to us over the dark waters than to hold fast to and steadily teach those whom the parents themselves are begging us to take.

Precious trusts have been committed to us by dying ones. "Teach my children the Protestant way, for in that there is life and hope." "My life has been tortured by fears. Oh teach my children of the God of love."

One hundred and fifty dollars will sustain a girl in our school for one year; and as some of the parents of our most promising pupils are afflicted this year by illness and losses in business, we need immediately money to support six girls, and partial support for many more, if our work is enlarged.

Who will aid in a work so outreaching in its purpose for the extension of Christ's Kingdom.

My dear General Howard

A friend of mine, Capt Am Stokes Boyd, formerly of the Navy, having requested me to give him some letters of introduction for Mahomed Ali Bey, brother of the Khedive of Egypt, I have taken the liberty to introduce the young Prince to you as well as to Genl Schopfle on the strength of Boyd's high opinion of him & what I know otherwise. From his letters I judge him to be a very modest & nice fellow. I like his brother the Khedive very carefully educated. He is moreover like Egyptians generally of the higher class very fond of Americans.

I understand that he will visit our country soon. He is now in Paris.

My dear old friend
I had thought of writing you a sort of Xmas letter.
The Capt Boyd spoke to me about the above. for I entertain for you the highest esteem & friend-

hour of prayer spent with you in the little room at Tampa.

Hoping we shall meet again & to find you well on my return

Dear General Howard,

I received a letter yesterday from the lady to whom you forwarded the paper containing an extract of an address which I delivered on Thanksgiving. I cannot decipher the chirography, and hence cannot answer it.

I am very anxious about it, for fear that you expect me to write her. It would greatly grieve me to fall short of your expectations in any thing. What shall I do?

I am also anxious to know if you think my position sound and right. You know General Howard you have been to me, since my sixteenth year, the best living epistle for Christ on earth.

"I have plenty of work for you, but you all want to be clerks" is the sentence which started my mind in the line of my address, and has governed very largely my labors for the betterment of my people. Do you remember saying this in the Bureau days at Howard.

I trust you and your dear good family are well.

Did you receive the money you referred to in your note to me? I did not answer it at once as Mr. Patton told that he had just sent it you and I thought without any doubt you had received it by the time your letter reached me.

The collection at North Baptist Church was turned over to Mr. Patton and I think he sent a check.

Since then I learned, in conversation with Mr. Patton, that he had not heard from the remittance.

Dear Sir:-

I was hoping to have seen you Friday and talked over some matters connected with our Society. Dr. Cuyler and myself are a Committee to confer with you as Dr. Cuyler informed you the other evening in regard to the Presidency of our National Temperance Society. I enclose you a letter which Dr. Cuyler wrote before he saw you in Brooklyn, and I was thinking of running down to the Island Friday or Saturday to have seen you. The feeling of our Board of Managers was entirely hearty and unanimous asking you to take that position. We will not over-burden you with work although the field is large for much work to be done. Our Society holds regular Meetings once a year, our May Anniversary which is the great occasion of our Society. Mr. T. A. Brouwer is Chairman of our Board of Managers, and has been for many years and helps guide the affairs of our Society. We have a splendid set of men in our Board of Managers. We regret very much Dr. Cuyler's emphatic and positive declination which he has pressed upon us for some years past.

I would like to see you and talk matters all over. My dear General you must not say "No" to our earnest request. There are several matters connected with our work that I would like to talk with you about, and will run down to the Island at any time after to-morrow that I may be sure of seeing you. Or, if you would be in the city, would call anywhere where I can have an interview. Can you write me and tell me when I can see you? Do I require a "pass" to get to the Island?

was one of the best sons a mother ever had I am an ~~invalid~~ invalid and I want to see my boy again before I die the boy was a good boy he had a good trade and he always worked steadily and never lost any time I am confined to my bed and I have other children but I never had one like him he would stand by my bedside and wait on me for hours and some times he would sit by my bed all night and away to work the next day without a word of displeasure for losing his rest he never drank a drop until just before he enlisted and he was a good boy as ever lived he was engaged to be married to a very nice young lady here and they had some misunderstanding and he took to drink and one day he come home in a dejected condition and his was a real case indeed he had quite a large sum of money and he saved more and more every week until he took to drink after that he drank all of the time he would sit for hours and not speak to any one with his head on his chest and he come home one day and says mother I have enlisted in the army he was not himself and I did not believe although he never told me a lie in his life that I know of the next day he went away in a dejected condition and he was not himself then and when he come home he was not him self either and one day he come to me and says mother good by I am going away for good

My Dear General:-

We are sorry that you cannot come and speak for us on next Sunday night, but we always believe in accommodating ourselves to circumstances provided we can change the circumstances. Could you come the following week? If not, would a week later do. We would prefer to have you come a week from next Sunday night, but suggest a later date, so that if your engagements will prevent compliance with our wishes, you could come then. If these dates are both filled, you fix a date later on. We want you anyway and will ask you at your own terms. Would you prefer to occupy all of the time, or have Mr. Monroe say a few words before you spoke? I am thinking of it as a layman's service and Mr. Monroe having recently moved to Tarrytown, would be glad to chip in, I have no doubt if you wished him, although of course, we want the principal address from you. In fact, the only address unless you feel that the burden would be too great.

Sincerely,

G. A. Warburton
