Dear General Howard

It would not surprise me if you had been tired of hearing my little complaints or impatient utterances on life, but I am going to risk sending you a few lines tonight.

I feel so unexpressed bad - I've been wondering if my brother was in N.Y. again as the plan was, or did he see you, and just a little hurt that he did not find time to tell me though I know he was heavily oppressed. Yesterday I have such a pitious letter; he gave up the place, such drag, such slavery and little pay, and the claim against the pretty stone house he built in ~~London~~ has been foreclosed; ^{also} his wife is a sick wife he cannot find comfort for him - oh I am so sorry - and if I could know ~~how~~ ^{how} I should try to get him

Goodbye Mr.

But you think, kind kind that I should have some effort. To try to give personal and is liberty. Taking the peace from my mouth for I live here very quiet and very in sincerely. The old Dennis and the Pike ask quite as much for small children as I pay for the small but not fully room.
I read my father to not your running into what little he has said by and should get employment and I am sorry to hear this

I have said something of late years that it costs a great effort to find conscious of this, and the mistake it is to get so away from human intercourse is why I write so faintly it seems to re-establish me with human kind to the

Dear General

Capt Wooten's report is very all out. The court martial for the trial of those cases at the Barron Bldg has been reconvened as in the important cases the records fail to show that the court was sworn. It shows how a very excellent man, as Capt Bailey is, may fail to catch up all the points in a case.

We have quite a fall of snow and a cold rain today, but no other news. Your room is painted & looks very well the comfort will soon be done again, but that is being put down today.

Very truly
 Yours
 O. O. Howard.

My Dear General

The telegram from General Brock to Major Russell telling me of my being relieved from duty here and of my prospective order to join your official family came day before yesterday and I write at once to thank you for the great compliment and to say how highly I appreciate the opportunity of serving under you in these relationships. I have written to treat that I am not yet able to post rapidly, owing to a recent illness, but that I hope to be at Governor's Island about the 15th of February. He has written that there is no great hurry and as Mr Ballew who will probably take charge of the Indians is ill. It will be in many ways wise to have the time to talk matters over freely with him before I go.

The War Department ^{officials} seem about to make some move, as they have called for very full reports, to be forwarded direct and in haste. The questions relate to the deaths, births, number of able bodied and in firm speakers and it looks as if some effort would be made to get Congress to act on the case.

I see by the papers that you have been in Florida but hardly expect that you will come this way.

Hoping soon to have the pleasure of seeing you

I am very sincerely
Yours

Dear Friend:

After your service is over on Sunday night, say at 10 or 11 o'clock, please come to the Hall of the Grand Army Rescue Mission, under the Pension Agency, and see the assembly of the veterans who will be out in force to spend the night there waiting for the Pension Office to open on Monday, Feb. 5th, at 7 o'clock. The services are to be of a religious nature, with appropriate addresses, rescue songs, and the testimonies of saved men.

You are cordially invited to come and bring some friends with you to see the practical side of the work which you have so kindly helped to carry on.

All surface cars lead to the Mission, or take the 6th Ave. Elevated to Grand St., then walk two blocks south and one block west. The streets are well lighted and perfectly safe.

THE COLORED
INDUSTRIAL, PREPARATORY

SCHOOL,
ELIZABETH CITY, NORTH CAROLINA.

Established, October 6th, 1890.

Advance Steam Print, West New Brighton, S. I.

Colored Industrial, Preparatory, and Agricultural TRAINING SCHOOL.
Elizabeth City, North Carolina.

The object of the school is to thoroughly educate and prepare the colored youth for teachers, to begin the collegiate and professional studies, train them in the various branches of industry, and better fit them for usefulness and self-reliance.

The founders of this school have at heart the highest moral, religious, and intellectual standard of their race, and believe that industrial schools, combining the higher preparatory studies, are among the very best agencies through which such results may be accomplished.

We have secured a very desirable little truck-farm, both as to its convenience to the city and adaptation of its soil for trucking purposes. It is our aim also to make the School self-sustaining as soon as possible; but, like all other institutions of its kind, it will need public aid to give it life and impetus. We are endeavoring to raise the sum of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) with which to enlarge our grounds and erect suitable buildings thereon. Contributions to the School, either in money or school property of any kind, will be gratefully accepted through its principal, Prof. Rooks Turner, or its authorized agent, whose name appears at the foot of this circular.

The next session of the School will begin October 2d, 1893. The following are endorsements from some of the prominent citizens of this State and elsewhere.

Elizabeth City, N. C., October 3d, 1892.

It gives me pleasure to testify to the fitness of Prof. Rooks Turner for the Principal of the Colored Industrial and Agricultural Training School at this place. I have known him for many years. He is well educated; has for years been engaged in Normal School work. Through his efforts a Normal School has heretofore been established at this place and continued through his diligence. I do not believe you could find a colored man better suited for this place, or one who would give better satisfaction.

Very truly yours,

WM. J. GRIFFIN,

Supt. Public Instruction, Pasquotank, N. C.

Mr. Rooks Turner graduated from this University, College Department, in 1877. He has always borne a good character, and is an excellent teacher, of large experience, and worthy of all confidence in this new enterprise.

The doctor fearing that I would have spinal meningitis if I kept on with my work. I had intense pain in the back of my head. I am now fully recovered from that though I have still pain in the back of my neck and somewhat in my spine, and am generally as strong and well as usual, but I think I am recovering.

Sister Helen wrote me on the anniversary of Rowland's death, and ~~and~~ referred to the fact that he is now free from pain and suffering. She says she thinks of that first and afterwards of his joy in being with his Saviour whom he loved so well. We are pleased to hear often of you and the family through Aunt.

He is a good correspondent.

My Brother

To my beloved Brother, General Charles H. Howard who with the enthusiasm of the boy-soldier and a more than brotherly devotion, served his country at my side through four long years of war, slept with me on the gravestones at Gettysburg, was seriously wounded with me at Fair Oaks, was thrice brevetted for bravery on the field of battle, aided me by his counsel and moral support during the even more terrible strain of reconstruction times, and, when peace brought relief from the duties of the soldier, took up those of the Christian citizen with energy, ability and success, as a tribute of my affection and appreciation, this book is affectionately dedicated.
