New York Feb 15, 1894.
Hon General Howard.

Sir

I hope you will pardon me for troubling you once more in concerning my son James W. Kelly who is serving his sentence on Governors Island for deserting. Sir I know you have granted me a great many favours for which I can heartily thankful to you for it, I have one more to ask of you

And I hope the Lord will reward you and yours true life. Do grant it to me please Sir.

Respectfully

His Mother

City

P.S.

If Hon. General Howard does not read this the gentleman who does please show it to the General as I hope to receive an answer.

Sir In which I will trust you will grant me and that is if you will pardon my son before you retire from service. I hope I am not asking too much by doing so. But he feels his punishment very much of which I am glad of. He regrets he will be in his 23rd year if he serves his time.
That he is not able to earn any thing for either himself or I. He feels his expences to me in a great many ways. Hon General Howard I make this appeal to you instead of going to any one else as I know you are the best and most generous I can appeal to.

I have your note with reference to the Florida Construction Co., and think perhaps you are right that it is for the interest of all parties to put that concern in the hands of a Receiver. I have never seen Mr. Ellis and do not know how he feels about it, but if you were correct in supposing that he is of the same mind, I think I can find a suitable person now resident in Florida, who will take charge of the concern, if all parties are agreed.

Talbot Sarah &

It is my only hope of saving our Nation from the terrible drunkenness, and ruin to which it is so rapidly drifting.

The present generation, are "given over to their idols, let them alone"; "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure". Let us use this wonderful weapon which God has so graciously given into our hands, and which the laws have made so easy for us, and instruct these thirteen million children in the truths of total abstinence, and when they become the voters, the law makers, the mothers, King alcohol will be dethroned, and justice, truth, and righteousness will prevail throughout the land we love so well, and would die to save.

Give much love to your Wife and children. Mr Talbot joins in kind regards to you all, and hopes soon to welcome you to Malden.

Affectionately Your Cousin, Sarah C. Talbot.

Malden Feb 15. 1894.

105 Summer Street.

Dear Cousin Otis.

It gave us much pleasure to hear through our Secretary of the S. M. C. A. Mr. Harrott, that you are expected to be in Malden March first, to address the Young Men's Christian Association, and they are planning to give you an enthusiastic reception.

If agreeable, and convenient to you, we should be very happy to have you make your home with us while here, and shall be very glad if your Wife will come with you, we wish so much to see her, it is many years since we met.

We are boarding in a private family, very quietly, and regret that we cannot do as much for you as if we were at house keeping, but shall be most happy to entertain you.

It gave us much pleasure to receive a letter from Lizzie Lee, not long since, written from your house, informing us of your health, and that you had recently received a new daughter into your family, who will I trust be a pleasure, and a blessing to you all.

I wish to congratulate you, and also the society, of your election to the Presidency of ^{the} National Temperance Society, and trust you may not find its duties too arduous, and exacting, with all your other responsibilities. I have for many years been a subscriber of the Nat. Temp. Advocate, and feel great interest in the success of their work, especially their educational department, and trust they will push their work for scientific instruction in the public schools as to the effect of alcohol, and other narcotics upon the human system, as has recently been discovered by Dr Richardson of England, and Dr Davis of Chicago, and many other most distinguished physicians in both countries.

Through the able, and indomitable perseverance of Mrs Mary H. Hunt, under the auspices of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, a compulsory law requiring that Scientific Temperance Education, as to the effect of alcohol, and other narcotics upon the human system, ^{shall be taught in the public schools,} has been enacted ⁱⁿ all the States, but six, and in all the Territories, and the Dist. of Columbia, which Mrs Hunt states in her last annual report, "brings thirteen million children under the beneficent influence of this excellent law." Think of the immense possibilities to the next generation, if this law is thoroughly enforced, and its principles carried into effect in all the public schools of these States and Territories, This law has also been enacted in Canada.

My dear Genl. Howard:

When you were with us last Sabbath your inquiry in regard to my present occupation was not answered quite as clearly as I would like, owing to the day and the surroundings.

If you can spare but a few minutes to read the first three pages of the enclosed little book, you will obtain a concise and, I trust, clear statement of my new venture.

Although, from a business point of view, the times are hard, I feel that now is the time for goods such as I am putting out. They are from prescriptions of the very best Physicians and as I do not claim anymore for the remedies than they will do, they will therefore do everything I claim; my hope of success is based entirely on the goods themselves, the first of their kind on the market, backed by the sentiment expressed in Longfellow's "Psalm of Life" and Paul's "Not Slothful in Business, Zealous in Spirit, Serving the Lord."

I would that all rally under the Gospel Banner and prepare to live, beginning now for the Life that is beyond, not very far off perhaps, from the youngest of us.

My Dear General:

The duplicate copy of your letter improving my chances for a staff appointment was forwarded to me by Genl. Buck, and I desire to thank you for this additional kindness. I don't like to think of myself as an office seeker, but I thought the office might have some difficulty in finding me in the crowd, so I sent in my new application.

It is a source of gratification to me to have my services spoken of in terms of commendation, but I believe I appreciate more highly still the kindly feeling that you have shown me in this matter and on other occasions, and I am greatly indebted to you.

Gen: O. O. Howard;

Dear Sir

Would you be kind enough to look through this letter and advise me what course I had better take to clear myself of desertion.

I enlisted in Chicago on the 2nd of March 1886, my age at that time being six teen years and ten months.

I deserted from the 7th U. S.
Infantry after serving four years two months and eight

I had money in the Army Savings Bank and about a month before I left put $25⁰⁰ move to what I had there where I think over what I have done I believe I must have been insane as I only had to put in nine months and a few days to complete my five years, then I would receive a good discharge and nearly five hundred dollars in cash.

The reason I am writing to you Sir is because I have just heard that if a deserter remains in the United States without changing his name for two years after the expiration of his enlistment he can apply for protection days - During that time I was never upbraided by an Officer or placed in the the Guard House, and on the very day I deserted the Commanding Officer "Col

"Merriman" appointed me Principal Musician of the Band - The cause of my desertion had nothing to do with the Army - It was through a woman that I committed the rash act - I left Fort Logan Colorado without telling a living person a few days after when I began to think of what I had done I felt sorry, but was afraid to return -

To show you that the
