Dear Mr. Harvard

Will you do me the great favor to lend me three dollars until
the beginning of next month. I must have it some how or lose my sewing machine which I bought on installments
you were always kind
to soldiers and I hope
maybe you will help me
a little and I will return
it to you and be so much obliged to you.

Respectfully

My Dear Sir & Brother

We rejoice at the 'Call for a gathering of the Temperance Hosts at Prohibition Park - next June' & certainly hope to be there represented - In the meantime we enclose you some literature to which we beg your careful & prayerful consideration.

Does not our A. S. A. cover the very points desired, viz: an Union of all workers?

We know no Creed no Sex & no Politics. All we ask is antagonism to the Liquor Traffic for beverage purposes.

Will be greatly pleased to hear from you, as to what you think of this organization.

Can we not unite under this banner & sweep the Saloon from off the Earth?

Are getting the work well established locally & constantly broadening our field.

Hoping for a full & frank response

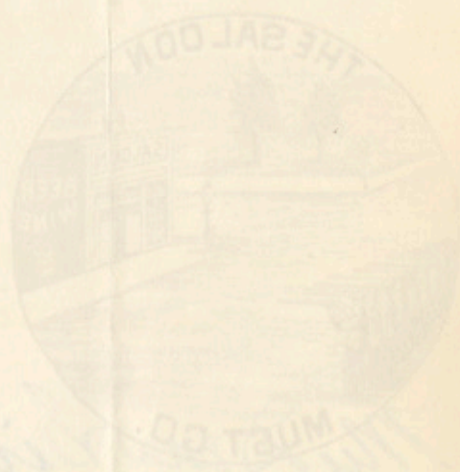

We are Sincerely Yours

H. P. Faris Genl Comd A. S. A.

Dear General:-

The time is drawing near when we shall want you to come to San Francisco to the opening of our new building which will take place probably the 9th. of September. I know this is earlier than you had anticipated, but it seems as if we must have you as we have thought so much about it and there have been so many inquiries as to whether you were coming. No man in this country could do us so much good and be so much to us on that occasion as yourself. Am quite sure I could secure transportation for yourself and Mrs. Howard and we would take care of all other expenses. It would only take you ten days to go and come and you need not stay here more than a week or ten days; so three or four weeks you could do the whole thing. Please let us know at your earliest convenience what we may depend upon as we are letting a great deal on your being with us.

Very cordially yours,

Gen. O. O. Howard,
Dear Sir,

On Saturday I met Mr. David Garber, photographer at 747 Broadway, New York, who is a personal friend of mine, and made for me the life sized portrait of your brother which I showed you in the parlor of the First Cong. Church of this place; and of which I sent you photographs.

Mr. Garber went recently to Governors Island, with a Mr. Moffet to take photographs for Mr. Moffet to be used with an article to appear in the May number of McClure's Magazine.

You were not at home
as Mr Garber failed in accomplishing what has been his wish for a long time: to make a picture of you.

I suggested to him that as you had given me an invitation to visit Governor's Island, I would make that visit this week, and he might go with me, and perhaps you might then permit him to photograph you as he has done
others of our nation's loved ones.

Will you kindly tell me whether there is a morning this week when we may have a hand-shake from you if we go to Governor's Island?

Very sincerely yours

All Souls' Historical Lectures

TO THE SCHOOL CHILDREN OF BROOKLYN.

1894—THIRD SEASON.

THE WAR OF THE REBELLION.

THE third annual series of Free Historical Lectures, under the auspices of All Souls' Church, will be given on Friday afternoons in April and May in All Souls' Church, South Ninth street, near Bedford avenue. The marked success of these lectures in previous years need hardly be recited. Large audiences of the children of our public schools have filled the church, and the admirable essays presented in competition for the prizes each year have testified to the impression made upon the young people.

The course during the present spring will consist of a series upon the "War of the Rebellion," and the lectures covering the various campaigns of the Civil War will be given by distinguished officers of the volunteer army, whose names are a guarantee of the quality of the lectures, and the interest they will have for our school children. The course has the cordial endorsement of his Honor the Mayor, the President of the Board of Education, and the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Scholars in classes averaging thirteen years and upwards are invited. Tickets are given to all who desire them. The acceptance of a ticket is a virtual pledge to attend faithfully all the lectures.

A limited number of tickets to seats in the gallery, will be furnished to adults at $1.00 for the course.

The lectures will begin promptly at 4 o'clock. The doors will be closed at that hour. Strict punctuality and quiet are required.

THE PRIZES ESSAY—Prizes will be given to the scholars who write the best essays on the subject to be announced at the close of the course.

Tickets to the course may be obtained of the Rev. John C. Adams, 110 Ross street, or Mr. Herbert F. Gunnison, 209 Hewes street, Brooklyn.

THE WAR OF THE REBELLION

THE first annual volume of the Historical Association, under the patronage of the Board of Education, will be given on Friday afternoon, in April, and may be seen at the Board of Education, 100 West Broadway, New York. The members of the Association in the city and suburbs are invited to attend. Large numbers of the children of the public schools have been invited, and the admission is free. It is a rare opportunity for the children to see the collection of the Historical Association, and to see the great collection of the children of the public schools.

The volume during the present year will consist of a series upon the "War of the Rebellion," and the lectures covering the various subjects of the war. It will be given by distinguished officers of the army and navy, and the lectures will be given for the purpose of the children of the public schools. The volume has the noble endorsement of the Board of Education, and the children of the public schools are invited to attend.

Admission is free, and the children of the public schools are invited to attend. The volume is given to all who desire it. The children of the public schools are invited to attend. A limited number of tickets to seats in the gallery will be distributed to the children of the public schools.

Dear General:-

After unexpected delay I have the pleasure of sending you a copy of the Sunday Rest Congress book which is just out.

As I look again over the papers I am impressed with the ability, and broad and candid spirit with which the topics are discussed. A number of the papers are, I think, especially fitted to interest the working classes. The effect of the Congress and of this publication will I think, be to elevate to a higher plane of dignity and importance this great question.

We are sending copies to our subscribers with a little note such as
