Dear General,

I received your check for $25. in due course of mails and went right to work on your Creditors Bill or Bill. Keane et. filed it in the Superior Court - Gen. No. 157717. got out the summonses. and gave them to the Sheriff to serve in time for the May Term of Court. Another party has also filed a Bill with mine and is to bear a small share of the expenses. but in case of success you are to have the preference. Now General I am going to try and make your full amount. and I don't want you to talk about compromise any more without first notifying me. I made the offer of compromise before beginning suit. and again after obtaining judgment for you. and before filing the Creditors Bill: both offers were declined. and now its fight to the end.

Yours &c

WHAT IS THOUGHT OF THE HEATH PLATFORM ALLIANCE.

I. THE PUBLIC.

(From THE OUTLOOK, Vineland, N. J.)

DESERVED PRAISE.

THE OUTLOOK takes particular pleasure in commending the Heath Platform Alliance Prohibition Park, West New Brighton, N. Y., as a good place to procure education and temperance speakers. Having considerable experience with the same, we know what we are talking about when we say that for promptness, efficiency and an entirely satisfactory way of doing business, we know of no like organization so entirely without the approach of inferiority as the Alliance.

It is the more gratifying because the Alliance is a woman, and from our experience is safe in saying that whenever she says a thing, it is so, and when she recommends a speaker it is perfectly correct, her say so as gospel truth, other shining example of woman's ability to do business.

It is an entirely unsought recommendation, and we make it because we like to say a good word about a thoroughly good thing. We cheerfully advise committees and others seeking the best speakers in the Prohibition and temperance ranks to correspond with the Heath Platform Alliance.

You are winning golden opinions by your kind and practical work."

DR. M. DOWNING,
Chairman N. Y. State Proh. Com.

II. THE TALENT.

(From the Leader of the Silver Lake Quartette.)

I want to give my unqualified endorsement of the Heath Platform Alliance, conducted by Miss Lillian M. Heath. She has a level head, and is painstaking and reliable every time. No one has ever given greater satisfaction in arranging appointments and routes for the Silver Lake Quartette than Miss Heath. This is a voluntary testimonial to one deserving all the good things I can say, and those who arrange with her for the Quartette, can rely on the fulfillment of any engagement thus made.

C. H. MEAD, Leader.

Cin., O., Sept. 19, 1893.

TO THE PUBLIC:-The Heath Platform Alliance has done work for Professor Hucks and myself, and I unhesitatingly extend my unqualified endorsement of the management. The correspondence is business-like, and the arrangements in every instance have been perfect. Engagements entrusted to Lillian M. Heath will not be neglected, and if not placed the fault will not be on account of inefficiency at bureau headquarters.

Washington, D.C. May 5th 1894

Dear General:

During a recent shaking up among the force of the U.S. Office, at which some forty changes were made, it was my misfortune to receive the enclosed which will explain itself. This comes with peculiar hardship just at this time when I am burdened with obligations on the basis of my old salary.

My long and faithful service - my high standing in the office, and the several disabilities received while in the performance of my duties are all swept away in a moment, and I am compelled to accept a salary, that for the next six months, will barely enable me to keep my head above water.

Do you think, Genl., anything can be done for me? Do you think there would be any violations of the proprieties to try? Will you kindly advise me?

I have three days leave of absence granted me - 7th, 8th and 9th inst. - and if you deem it advisable I'll run over to New York and have a talk with you.

We are all well and join in love to you and yours.

Kind sir,

I beg pardon, for any seeming imposition, on my part, in making the following requests. I hope you will answer these few questions by a boy. First. What are your political views in short? That is, to what party do you belong? Your articles in the voice and those written by others has led me to believe that you were at least favorable to the Prohibition Party. What are your sentiments in this line? Briefly outline your views of the cause and results of the Coxe movement? May you answer something at least concerning these questions. Respectfully at your service under all circumstances

THE ARBOR DAY CROSS

Having helped plant the eucalyptus on the fever-stricken camagna, and planted a little while at my cabin in Washington, it was proposed on returning to California, by some ladies, The Board of Forestry, and such men as Adolph Sutro, Gen. Howard and Gen. Vallejo, that we should found an Arbor Day, and celebrate the event by planting an Arbor Day Cross on some conspicuous spot, where it would be always seen, and perpetually plead the sanctity of the tree and the cause of our Common Mother. The government gave Yerba Buena Island for the purpose, and the use of ships; Gen. Howard sent soldiers to prepare the ground, and Sutro sent 50,000 trees to the school children of Oakland and San Francisco. And so, on the 28th of November, 1887, the greatest day these cities have yet seen, the school children, amid the booming of guns and the floating of flags from every ship in the bay, planted their Arbor Day Cross on the island. But fire swept the island again and again, leaving it more barren even than before.

Then ground was bought east of Oakland overlooking both cities and the great bay; Sutro again sent trees, and again the school children's cross was planted, for the idea and their enthusiasm could not perish. Now to the end that they, and the thousand inquiring friends, might know what has become of their Arbor Day Cross after all these years a photograph of it is here presented, and a man keeping guard as you see. Some of the trees are higher than that horseman's head now, and the cross can be seen from all up and down the land and the higher streets of San Francisco. It will be left to the school children of the two cities who planted it, forever; the probable nucleus of a park, which ought to embrace Redwood Peak.

My dear friend Howard:

This letter is commenced of your appreciative letter of January 8-1894 to mine of vast importance - eruditely essenced - December Christmas time 1893.

I placed at the first opportunity the inclosed copy to Capt Bubb into his hands personally in this room May 1-1894; and held a long and satisfactory counsel with him and Mary Smith, Lizzie Smith, and the Indian farmer, Robert Shuck interpreter, and the hired man on the Ranch. I gave all Indian Department letters into possession of Capt Bubb bearing on the status of Smith as an acknowledged resident on an Indian Reserve; and showing by his own correspondence, that he was subject to orders of Indian Dept.

His Indian Woman Mary and the Priest - Father LaRouge, proved the marriage; - and his children and grandchildren proved his devotion and care of them. It was a counsel of tears of repentance and reconciliation; in which my long

Now, then, is a case - quickly and peacefully decided - that is of unusual significance, and proves your confidence in my statements and ability to have not been misplaced, - but to have been - by me - most scrupulously and gratefully guarded, - lest - I would err in my eagerness, or overstep the limit of March in the formulated position of a Patriotic Scout, - whose pleas for inferred innocence are sourced from higher inspiration - than the good or creed of man, - sordid in their views of life, - seemingly admit, - are entertained or cherished by the "Scout" - whose only record hitherto - has been one of slaughter of daughter - and hatred of the Indian race - if I am to judge of the record by what I know of the "Buffalo Bills" - "Wild Bills" and "Two-thumbed Steve"

Of course, you know I am an Independent Son of Marion; and he - the General, was a son of the Greatest Mother the Choctaws had;
General Jackson was a type of his Chickisaw Mother, and Washington was an Algonquian in process, His Mother was Kappahannock.
All were American, - And America was named after Mercury or the Sons of Maia; - And Maia - was changed to Mary; and Orion to Marion - Mary was - one Mother of Air.

Singular, is it not, General, that you and your unwavering friend Streamer, should so sympathetically unite, write, and fight for each other's right? Well, here is the case of Mary Smith, wife of Okanagan Smith; with whom she had two daughters Julia and Elizabeth. Julia was married; had two children - Ella and Robert - 4 - and 2 years old now. Julia - their mother, died in 1892.
Smith lost heart; married a <sup>divorced</sup> white woman illegally; drove, beat, bruised his Indian woman Mary, - a wife of 27 years, - and sent her and daughter and grand children adrift on the cold formalities of a punctual behest of an Infidel origination - approved by an English Code. Nature wept; and Streamer the Scout, hastened to Rogers Lake, - sought Mary, - plead for a peace, - and reconciled the old lovers again. For fifteen years had Streamer aided, counseled and helped poor Smith; and his wife Mary and children. They were his friends. One word from Streamer controlled Smith. It was this: Peace!

Smith then gave this property to his grand children, and his daughter Lizzie - now 19 years of age - raised them on bottled milk from the time of the death of their mother and <sup>her</sup> sister Julia. The white woman would not allow them to come to their birth-home, - and they were all waifs for nearly two years.

Smith went to the Legislature and died in a Seattle hotel Oct 11-1893. A will was made giving everything to the white wife in the shape of money, lands and mines, - none of which he had in fee simple or title clear. The marriage to the white wife was bigamy and void. The will was made in violation of law of Washington State - and void. The Courts have no jurisdiction on Indian Reserves, - as stipulated by "Compact with United States" in Washington State Constitution, Article XXVI - Sec 2nd, which vests sole authority in Congress to exercise <sup>"absolute"</sup> jurisdiction over all <sup>and control</sup> Indian unsurveyed and unappropriated lands in Washington State.

Get a copy; read it; and you will see at once, why I wrote to you, Bronnig, and Morton for military and government aid.

The son-in-law went in league and drove the mother and grandmother of Lizzie and the Indian children away; and made a wreck of the household furniture; and took away all bedding, and then sent the children - Ella and Robert away into another's keeping; and that other being an Indian woman enemy on the reserve, whose <sup>white</sup> husband was indebted to Smith; and an executor of the white woman's will. A Coalition of the then drove off the reserve all the horses and cattle - many in number; and - within an act of the game of steal under a justice of the peace warrant - inciting insurrection on the Reserve.

All this happened after I left (Nov. February 13th 94, and I returned April 2nd to restore peace again. I have done it.

I traveled through storm of snow, sleet, rain, calm, sun, and chill; over ice, mountain snows frozen from 4 to 6 feet solid; in mirrors, shoes andoccasins, Scotch gaiters and buffalo shoes, - making my own trails; - without a pony; - mad, sad, and fearful in going; over what I have had to endure - the cross I had to bear - in order to save Washington State from war, and keep the poor Indian tribes from being driven from their homelands by these infamous Reservation Steals, Slices and Cut-offs; - after permanant treaties were made and satisfied by Congress; - just to suit a lying newspaper report, or gobble of lands by an alien corporation of defunct or bores railroad companies; - all in violation of the Constitution of the United States - See Article X Amendments to Constitution of the U.S.A. Congress never had power to donate lands - nor had the military. See Sec 8 - Article 1 - Constitution U.S.A. for Powers etc.

I met with and counseled with the most learned and most patriotic old men and women of every race and tongue; and have duly recorded on an express journal, all official letters of Government and military officers written by and to me since 1899 - and I have now a defence - that "Coxey's Army" and the "Grand Army" have not to justify me, as well as you, in our patriotic endeavor to secure the General Great Peace - all so much desired; which many of the all-work hard and Conspire most to avert, contrivert, and suicide over.

There is no stopping the rising tide of popular indignation among the masses. A good sized earthquake is necessary to shake "ill-will and prejudice out of nations in league with Satanic influences - that even Satan himself - is ashamed of."

"Howard" - You have no idea how madness and poverty have strangled the toilers on land and sea? Mr. Arms and Davis cannot compete with insanity, electricity, dynamite and Simoons. The poor of nations have been invited here by contract, treaty, and foreign commerce, - placed at work; and our own people impoverished; and then the foreigners discharged and starved by the money-changers. Emperor William says "a wise king is better than a corrupt government;" and I say neither king nor government nor set a wise example to their people. If present ratios and comparisons continue among nations pretending civilization, - I prefer to remain on the frontiers with pioneers who know neither king nor crown that trample men down for being poor.

I have had long and earnest counsels with all Peace Chiefs - Chinamen, Indians, Negro, Malaysians and Arabians.

White man's rule is ended. Roman's influence is against it in America and Europe. White man of policies and expedients will have no further power to combine, concentrate or perpetuate themselves in iniquitous plots. Kindness is withdrawn by Solar attractions and transits of Mercury - and three years famine is imminent. No city is safe - no water supply in the heated months to come. Fire to the mountains? Electric inventions will suddenly destroy by aerial attraction of lightning and thunder-balls every iron or metal-covered or constructed thing.
Timber forests are destroyed; and fires rage ominously over dry brush, leaves, grass, and coal deposits. Gas wells, oil wells, and parched grainfields. Congress and Cuyler's army cannot stop this.
The men who now blaspheme the Holy Name of Christ - the faithful, may know more from this Solar dictation - that he never had a prior existence on earth, and never existed any in physical form, since Adam was made of clay - and had no father or mother - as was the case of Melchisedek; and Enoch who was translated from a Hebrew into a Cherubim, and spiraled upward like a Mormon president whose wife Amelia was an aunt of Mrs.
Corland; - but whose saints obeyed the Scout Streamer in 1884, when the "Fucker Bill" robbed them of their homes and lands by confiscation for Polygamy and terrorism. You - "Horrudd" - had this "St. Louis" military post book on that France travel.
Well, I was poor and driven from good works then.

This letter resigns me from any further Scout Service.
We are friends - forever, - always will be, - and if infidels and blasphemers want war in America - they can have it of an old Chief Moses - the Christian old, - and he and Joseph and I, - and all our Indian people will catch, eat, and enjoy our Salmon in peace on our own lands, - and we be unto him or them that attempt to war against us, for us - or with us, an atpim.

You are aware of the Moses Grate - the 15 mile cut off without remuneration to Moses people - who are now starving.
This is all Moses mourns over now. I hope you will visit him and me on your return - or this summer, - and I will then show you my three - Completed Volumes of Light, Eds, And Charity, - and make arrangements with you for their publication - thus giving to the world the true, true story of Science, Christ and God, - and convince you that Truth is better than fiction, and knowledge superior to prejudice.

"Forward" - we are poor, philanthropists and Christian men. We have had our faults, who has not? We are our own enemies - and our own saints, - and if the world has not appreciated our philanthropy, it is because we never wanted it to so appreciate what it cost us so much sacrifice to obtain. Any fool who wants to be where Jesus is let him be crucified, spit upon, and beaten for being a Jew.

If possible, send me "Ourays or Women's life of Marion", and three of your best portraits - one for Moses - one for Su-wap-tin one for your friend - Frank Marion - Streamer.

LOCAL NOTES.

Born, in this city, Jan. 14, to Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Winans, a son, weight 8½ pounds.

H. S. Blandford is in Pullman attending a meeting of the board of regents of the state agricultural college.

Wm. Courtney, of Ellensburg, and one of the most prosperous cattlemen in the Northwest, is visiting friends in this city.

From Chet Washburn, who is in the city to-day from Berryman, it is learned that plowing is going forward rapidly in that vicinity.

The rain of Monday this morning turned into snow, covering the ground to a depth of one inch, but the sun soon came out and melted it as fast as it came.

According to the Tribune Olympia was shook up by an earthquake early on Sunday morning, also that they have had 618 different kinds of weather there lately.

A strong belief is gaining ground in Olympia that a special session of the legislature will be called in about ten days, the date of meeting to be some time in February.

A very pleasant card party was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Burroughs on Dr. Newell street Monday evening. Refreshments, games and dancing were indulged in.

A typographical error appeared in the statement of Receiver F. W. Paine in Monday evening's STATESMAN. Time certificates due other bank should have read $94,700 instead of $947.

In the superior court a demurrer by defendants in the case of Frank Lee et al vs. H. C. Willis et al., was sustained to-day by Judge Upton. This is a case wherein a lein had been filed for labor performed.

A beautiful gold locket and chain valued at $60, was raffled off by Rebecca Lodge, I. O. O. F., on Tuesday evening for the benefit of a worthy and needy widow in Dayton. Mrs. Barnes held the lucky number.

The only Chinese so far registered in Boise is a restaurant-keeper. Those engaged in mining in the basin have informed the collector that they will not register unless instructed by the Six Companies to do so.

In the case of John Dooley vs. Mrs. Charles Russell, wherein defendant writ of restitution was argued and overruled, the defendant filed a good and sufficient answer, and the case is now on the merits.

Rev. Robert Collyer, the electionist who visited Walla Walla several months ago, is in trouble. The dispatches state that he is in jail in Rock county, W. consin, for trying to abscond with his first paying his board bill.

BLOOD ON THE FACE OF THE MOON.

The Umatillas and Bannocks Determine to Fight.

Beneath the shallow mantle of hospitality on the part of the hosts, and of formal courtesy on the part of the guests at the recent New Year's feasting at Young Chief's camp, still ranked the venomous hate of former years, says the E. O. The Bannocks came to cement a peace treaty, but they went away with the promise of bloody war. It came about in this wise:

"In 1878, the Bannocks went on the warpath and came down to the Umatillas radiant with paint and proposed to form a league to exterminate the whites in Oregon and Washington. The Bannocks were the fiercest tribe in this part of the country and were continually giving trouble. The Umatillas and Cayuses were a more noble race and were disposed to give cordial welcome to the settlers. The proposition to massacre the whites met with no favor with the Umatillas and Cayuses, and the Bannocks made preparations to attack the peace loving Indians. The United States troops came to the rescue and while they made an attack in front, Chief Peo led the Indian attack on the rear, and the Bannocks fled.

"The blood of the Umatillas was up. They loved peace, but they were also built for war. In the still night, according to Indian custom, Ya-tin-i-ow-itiz and Cut-Mouth John, with fifty others, stole into the camp of the Bannocks and killed Chief Egan. His head, like John the Baptist's, was brought in a charger, and presented to the commander of the troops at Pendleton.

"Indians never forget. And the Bannocks are Indians. Sunday before the Bannocks left for their homes at Pocatella, Amos and Peo were conversing. Amos is nominated a fire-eater and was soon indulging in some bitter reminiscence. He grew bold and began to refer to the killing of Chief Egan and remarked that it was a cowardly deed; that the Umatillas and Nez Perces, for the latter had joined the Umatillas in that mix-up, were nothing more than a lot of old women.

"No more stinging fling can be made at a redskin than to liken him to an old woman. You may compare him to a good wolf dog, but insult most terrible is offered when you insinuate that he resembles a female. And yet Peo maintained his dignity on this occasion, and calmly replied that Egan was killed in fair fight according to Indian custom. Peo told Amos that the Bannocks in 1878 had burnt their houses; burnt their crops; and for all these deeds of violence the Umatillas drove the marauders from the reservation and made war upon them. 'The Bannocks ran away,' added Peo, 'and we fear them not.'

"Amos then proceeded to issue formal declaration of war: 'The Bannocks will attack the Umatillas in the fall. I do not
