My dear Sir:-

In relation to the Security Mutual Reserve Association to which your referred a few evenings ago, I would state that I have looked into this concern with considerable care. I determined long since that I would not insure my life again in any institution of a co-operative nature. The Security Mutual is organized under the co-operative laws but professes to be free from the evils of the co-operative system. (By insuring in this Association you become one of its members and consequently personally entitled to share in its benefits or liable for its losses. A thorough acquaintance with this Association would doubtless give you a feeling of unrest as to the final outcome of the experiment.

A Fifteen Payment Life Policy in the Prudential or in any other old I in company guarantees you Paid-Up Insurance for the face of your policy at the end of the period. You have protection and satisfaction at the same time. It is true you pay for it but you cannot get such a bond for less money. A policy in the Prudential is a guilt edged security document often convenient as collateral always worth its face without discount at maturity. You pay more money and you get more value. The chances are largely against the ultimate success of the Security Mutual but the chances are all in favor of the permanency of the Prudential. When Heaven and earth pass away doubtless the Prudential will go too.

I enclose figures on a Fifteen Payment Life Policy at age thirty one in our Company. Take out a policy to live by for there is but little doubt that you will live longer than nine tenths of the experimental Life Insurance Associations of this country. With sincere regard, I remain

General Agent.

Major General O. O. Howard, U. S. A. New York City. General,

It is possible that you still have some influence with this agglomeration of heedless, conscienceless impulses, we call our Government. It has but recently come to my knowledge that Es-kim-au-zin, the Apache Chief is confined in a Military prison in the South. I know him well. You know something of him. I know him to be a strange admixture of a stoic, Christian Indian. I have never an honester $贝$ man under any kind of skin. While it is possible that martyrdom may be desirable for his nothing into the eternal good I am quite sure it is "Woe unto them by whom his martyrdom comes".

I have been to the Secretary of the Interior, then to the Indian Department, and there learned that the whole matter was in the hands of the War Department. General Vincent gave me all the hopeless array of facts- paper facts, built out of statements and affidavits that are so purchaseable a commonty in that region of our country.

He is an inconvenience down there because he is a super-tor man in a red skin. He is feared because he has been robbed and abused. Can anything be pone? Will you also please tell me what ever became of that which I gave you to bring in for me, while I remained behind for my third C.M. I would like to have it, as it was very highly prized by the tribe. And when given to me I gave a horse in return, after the Indian custom of a proper exchange of gifts.

I am sir very respectfully,
R. E. Whitman,
U. S. A. Retired.
