last year for the address Mrs. Bellington Booth. In other years we have had such men as Drs. Wm. Taylor and Lyman Abbott.

This year we want yourself. May we have you? The date is June 7th, in the evening. You will have time to come from Saratoga and the best of company on the way. We will treat you as well as we know how, and you will have an opportunity to do us good. We would like to cultivate the spirit of Christian Patriotism in the young people and we know of no one who could do it - as well as yourself.

You can of course select any subject you please,

Gen. O. O. Howard,

My dear General Howard:-

I think that in the past I have written you asking you for some contribution for the Golden Rule along the line of your military experience. Do not think I am too importunate please if I ask once more. Possibly you may have a little more leisure than formerly. There is no one who occupies your unique position in the country and no ones whose words would more stimulate young people to Christian heroism. Any incidents connected with the war or with your military experience since the war would be acceptable, and if thrown into a narrative form would be doubly sure of making an impression upon youthful readers. The Golden Rule can pay $15.00 for an article of a thousand words or so, if you can favor us.

Another thing. perhaps you you have read of the great Christian Endeavor Convention which is to be held in Boston next July. It promises to be the greatest of the meetings of the kind yet held, and not less than 50,000 we believe will come to Boston. Can you not give us an address on that occasion? perhaps one of the brief patriotic addresses on Boston Common on Saturday afternoon July 13 This is the Patriotic Day and this meeting will be of great interest and profit, I believe.

Sincerely yours,

F. E. Clark

My dear Sir:

I am publishing in our quarterly, historical magazine--THE ANNALS OF IOWA--a biographical sketch of General John M. Corse, which is to run through four numbers. I have an autograph copy of his reply to French's demand at Allatoona, which will appear in the July number. I would be very glad, indeed, to receive an autograph copy of your congratulatory order relating to Gen. Corse at the same time--no. 18, I think it was--which I will also publish in fac simile. If you will kindly send me this copy, please write it in as small a space as practicable without destroying the general appearance of your handwriting.

I send this to the care of the Hon. John D. Hunter, of Webster City, who will also deliver to you a copy of THE ANNALS. This favor will be gratefully appreciated. I have sent you the same request to the care of the War Department, as I did not know where else to address you at that time. Of course, you need only reply to one of these letters.

I remain, Sir,

Very faithfully yours,

Charles Aldrich.

My dear Sir:

I am publishing in our quarterly, historical magazine--THE JOURNAL OF JAPAN--a biographical sketch of General John M. Corcoran, which is to run through four numbers. I have an autograph copy of the series to General's command at Allentown, which will appear in the July number. I would be very glad, indeed, to receive an autograph copy of your correspondence order relating to Gen.

Corcoran of the same time--no. 15, I think it was--which I will also publish in the article. If you will kindly send me this copy, the article is as usual a space as possible without destroysing the general appearance of your handwriting.

I send this to the care of the Hon. John G. Hunter, of Webster

City, who will also deliver to you a copy of THE ANNALS. This will be gratefully appreciated. I have sent you the same reference to the care of the War Department, as I did not know where else to address you at this time. Of course, you need only reply to one of these letters.

I remain, Sir,

Very respectfully,

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF THE EAST,

April 13-95

TO THE PRESIDENT:-

Dear Sir:-

An officer of good judgement has remarked in my presence that "Lieut. Colonel Royal T. Frank, Commanding Fort Monroe and the Artillery School has the qualifications to make an able and dignified General Officer, more so, in fact, than any other in his Department of the service".

In this sentiment to a great extent I concur. I know of no other who has a better record for duty thoroughly done and always with good judgment, than he.

Hitherto the choice of a General has doubtless hinged more or less upon the gallant and effective work in active service and of rank previously attained in the War of Rebellion.

But now as it is becoming necessary to choose from men of present good health, good abilities, and good standing, for whom on account of age it was not possible to attain the rank of Brigade or Division Commanders, I take special pleasure in commending to you in the most unqualified manner Colonel Frank.

Surely the service would be honored by his promotion.

With high esteem,

I remain very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

(Signed)

Oliver O. Howard.
