Genl Oliver Otis Howard

Burlington, Vt.

Dear Genl. Howard.

Your esteemed favor of yesterday is received.

I have always had a great desire for your picture but have never seen one for sale, and have not felt like writing you for one before, but I now take this opportunity to ask you if you will please send me your Photo, or write me where and from whom I can purchase a nice large likeness of your self suitable to frame and hang on the wall.

Please don't consider me strange for writing you so freely as it is my sincere affection for you why I crave your picture so much. I am well pleased with my name and would not have it changed. Yours truly Howard H. Jordan.

Dear Cousin

I have looked over your list of soldiers killed and died in service and made a few corrections.

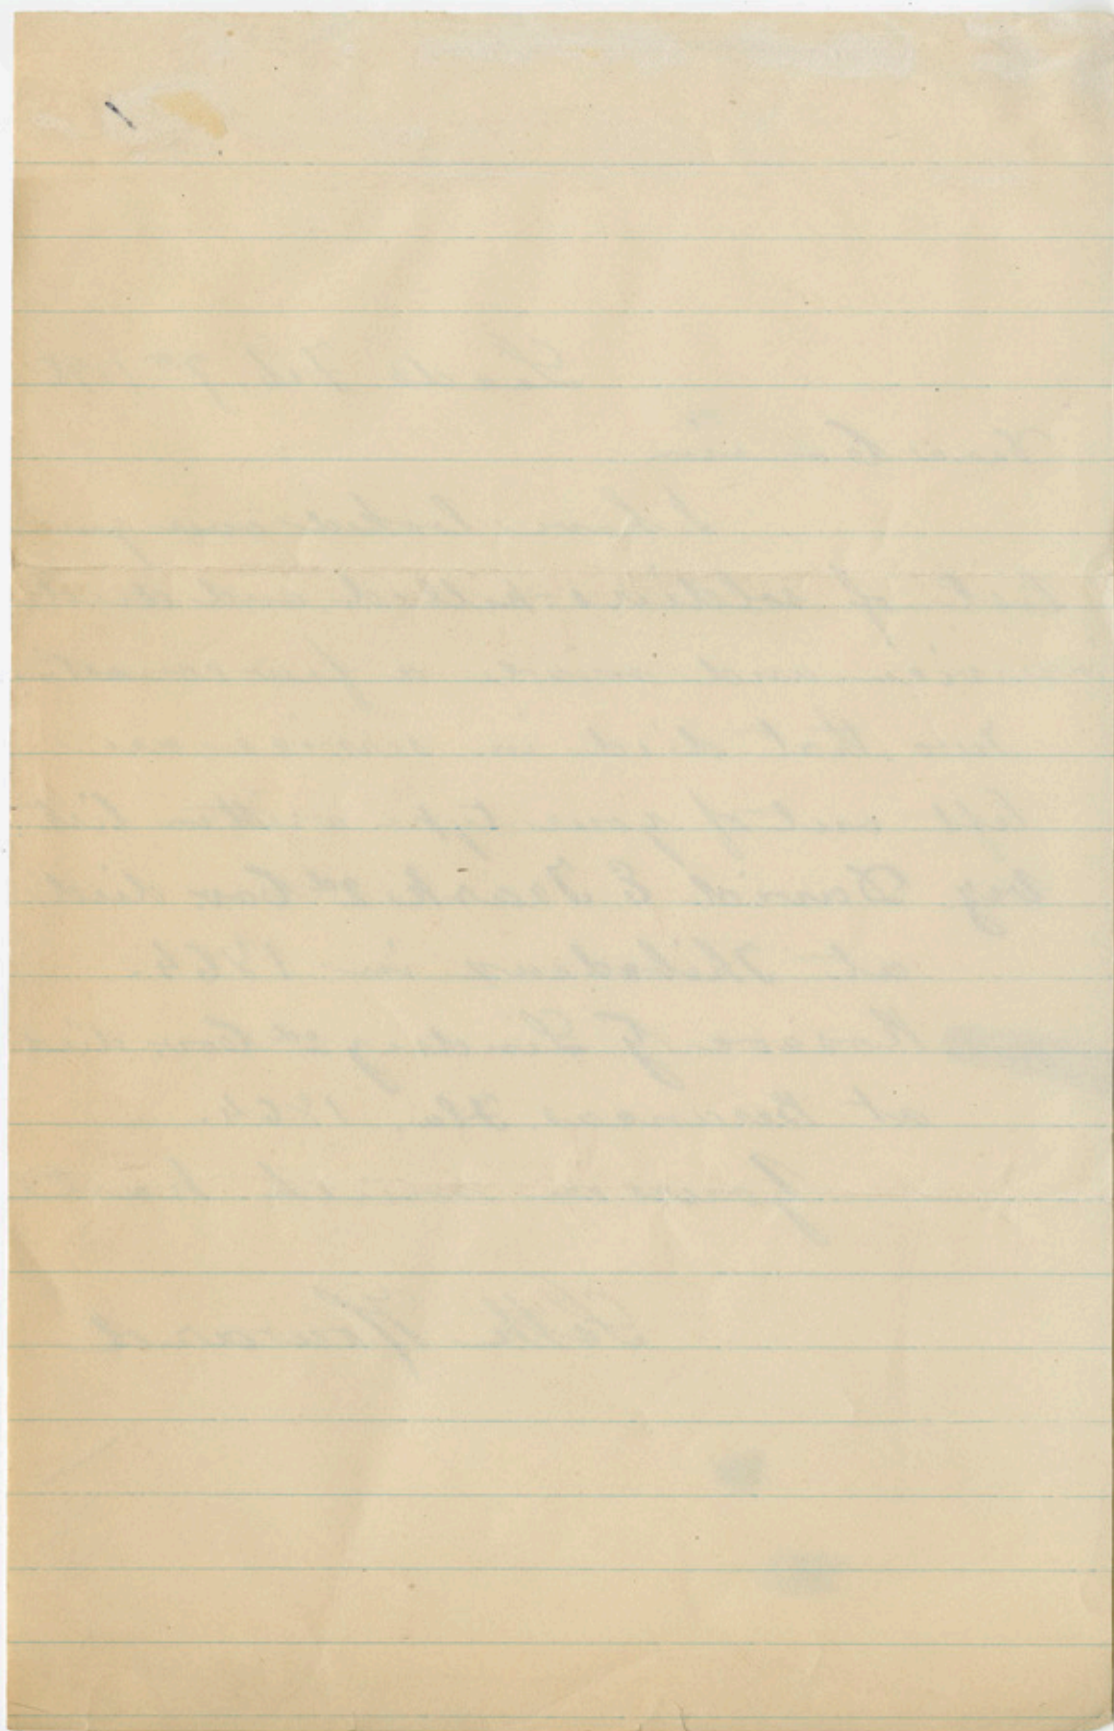

Two that died in service are left out of your type written list. viz. David E. Trask 2^d Cov. died at Thibodeaux in 1864.

Roscoe G. Lindsey 2^d Cov. died at Beraneas. Fla. 1864.

Dear General I have been very much interested in your narration of the moves of our Army of the Tennessee through Georgia and as you have gone so minute a description of some of the scouting, I thought maybe you would be speaking of a little incident that occurred at Broad river near Columbia and if you do so I wish you would not make the mistake (the writer in the freelys Conflict of States did) I will not attempt to write what he said only in speaking of me he called me Montgomery

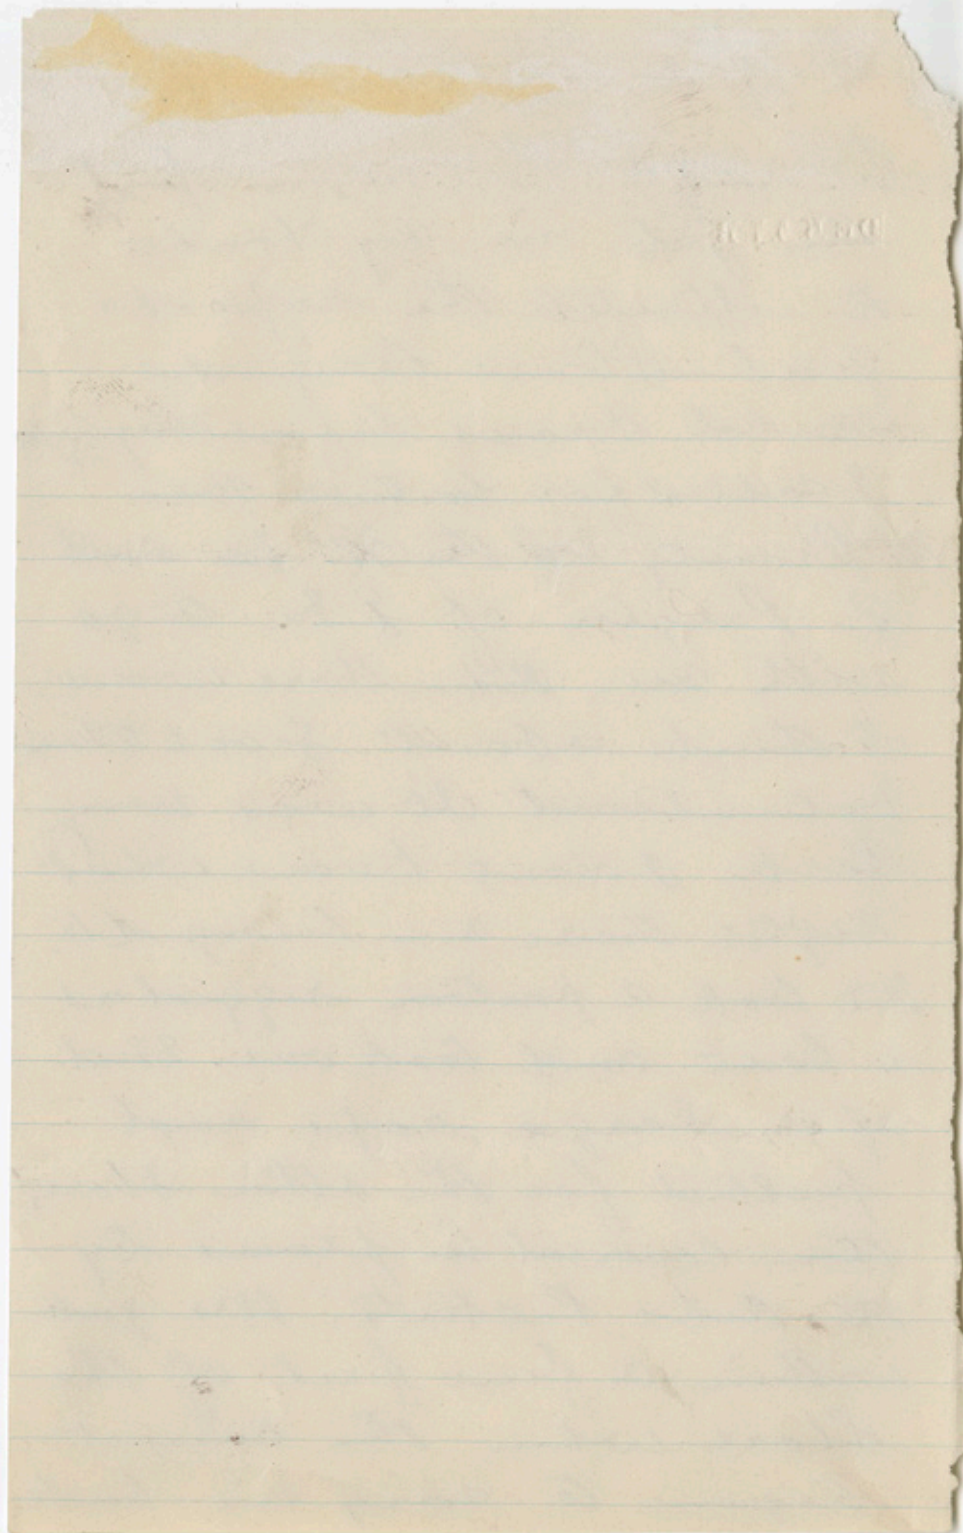

DEKAY 18

Hurlbut of the 8th Iowa [of Cedar Falls Ia] how the way the mistake was made was this way. The Boys all called me Gov or Governor and he mistook it for Gum, for Montgomery My name is neither but Samuel B. Hurlbut of the 8th Ia and also of Cedar Falls Ia. I was at Genl Geo A. Stones Headquarters and when the Engineer Colonel was to get the rope stretched across the river I was one of those picked out to cross first. But the Colonel failed several times and Capt Bowman { a staff officer also ~~the~~ } was also Captain of Co K 8th Iowa

3

The Capt Bowman put the job in my hands to stretch the rope so Genl Stones Brigade could cross before daylight.
I called for two men W. Prouty of the 3rd Ia and G. Prezler of I. Ia to go with me. Then there was I think about 8 or 10 men volunteered. It was very dark I don't know what reg'ts those men belonged to.
We took a pontoon rigged as a boat and took one end of a large rope and pulled for the other shore, then covered in places by the Rebs Pickets. We got within a few feet of the shore when the current began to carry us back.

4

It pulled so hard on the rope We anchored our Pontoon and George Pregler took the little boat - Stiff and one man I don't know which it was so dark got in, the the man had a small line and Pregler took a few strokes of the oars which brought him to the bank then one of them put the little rope around a tree and pulled the big line across. The line was soon stretched and men began to come on pontoons rigged like boats only they used no oars they came band over fist. Wall crossed and at day light charged and took a lot of Reb. Sturmes ~~was~~

My Dear General:

I received your letter of Feb. 6 in which you say that you are to speak at the banquet of the Young Men Republican Club at Montpelier Wednesday night and shall add your self a letter on your new departure.

Now you will pardon me for saying what I feel very much at heart. I believe that such an occasion will afford you an opportunity to do the Rep and the Country a distinct service.

at this time the words of a man of your influence are going to be felt far beyond the confines of Vermont.

I hope you will come out squarely for him as your first choice. I believe that Mr Reed is not a man to fail to recognize the good offices of his friends.

You and he are New England Men, are Maine Men, are Bowdoin Men. Beside this Mr Reed possesses those traits of character and a spotless reputation which appeal to the high-minded. Because he has been true to the best sentiment of New England, because he has been true to what you yourself typify, I am sure you will back him. I only want you to be sure that you appreciate the importance of the occasion and voice your sentiments with no uncertain sound. Rest assured of me

Parker House,

Boston, 189

thing New England to a man will be for Reed.

Again if I may judge any thing from the signs of the times this will be eventually a fight between Reed and Allison in which the former will win.

I have been in conference with men today who are in touch with those who kept New York and Pennsylvania will eventually go in the convention and when the tug of war comes they will be in the Reed column.

I shall see Mr O'neara the New-York Editor of the Journal Monday morning and tell him of your engagement to speak at Montpelier so that he will see that the ground is thoroughly covered.

I have reason to know that Mr Reed and his supporters appreciate the effort to which you can be of service to him and you will hear from him in person in a few days.

I am

Yours Very Sincerely
Eugene A. Horn

Dear General:

I hope the pan for your daughter reached you this morning. It was sent from Mr. Deper's office last night. Your former letter asking me to get an Annual for you was not requested but was at once sent to Mr. Deper with a request for the pan. Not having heard to the contrary I presume it was granted but it takes some time to get a pan through the mill, as I know by personal experience.

With kindest regards and best wishes

Sincerely,

Dear General:-

I have received your letter of the 6th inst. regarding a new engagement with Mr. Francisco of New York. The Omaha engagement is on the 21st and there will not be time enough to reach New York before going to Baltimore, and after Carlisle there will not be time to go to New York before going to Beaver, Pennsylvania. I will write to Mr. Francisco asking whether he can use Thursday, March 5.

From a recent letter which you have probably received by this time you will see that the California trip is not definitely settled. If you go, I think it will be about the middle of March. When the matter is settled one way or the other, I shall send word to you at once.

Yours truly,

Cyrus Kehr.

Dear Sir

I have heard that you attended the meetings held by Rev D E Seand I saw Bro Seand last Saturday he told me he was in trouble he had a bank note due next Saturday and he looked about $50. I would gladly let him have the money but I have not got it and I write you to see if you could not help him to the money over

Please note he does not know that I have written you but I would like to help him some way and if you would help him it would be helping the cause of Christ I have known Bro Land over 20 years and have great faith in him Pardon me for writing you a stranger but I hope we are not strangers to the dear Savior

I remain Truly yours
R. J. Robinson
