Dear Sir:-

I have received from you a copy of the Burlington Free Press & Times, dated March 26th, 1897, in which is printed a report of your address at a business meeting in Burlington on "Morality in Business indispensable to success". This I shall cut out and save for use at Cumberland Gap. I have a theory that <sup>men</sup> many are <sup>moral</sup> deficient in discrimination because their minds have not been exercised in this direction. A man's arm cannot be strong if it is not exercised, and a man's moral perceptions cannot be strong if they are not exercised. I want to regularly submit to the students what I shall call "moral problems." These will consist ~~merely~~ of statements of facts which will require a decision as to right or wrong involved. From your address I can frame several such problems.

Very truly yours,

Dear General Howard:

I have been endeavoring to ascertain in what way to go about getting a couple of seats on one of the stands at the Dedication April 27. Perhaps you can tell me something about it. Mrs. Woolworth should like very much to have a good to be barred out of the largest stand.

Dear Uncle Otis:-

Enclosed I send you $10 in payment of the interest on my note of two years ago last October. I hope before next October that I will be able to cancel my obligation. I forget whether the interest was 5%, but I think I am right. Business is picking up. Lucy and I are going to take a new apartment by ourselves on April 1st. It is nearer the park and will be pleasanter for her. Also plumbing and other arrangements are going to be a little better. I will send you our new address when we are settled, but you can reply to this letter at our present abode. Jamie tells me that Bessie has been ill, but is ~~be~~ better. Glad of the latter and sorry for the former.

I send Jamie's check, as we have an account together and it is more convenient.

Dear Genl Howard:

I have just received,
through your courtesy, a copy of The Burlington Free Press and Times of the 27th instant and have read the marked article.
Many thanks for your kindness in sending it to me.

I met Genl. Foster on the Street yesterday by accident and had quite a long talk with him. He is a friend of long acquaintance and

and is deeply interested in my future welfare. I did not refer to the Turkish mission but I very much doubt whether General Eaton would accept it.
He certainly would not unless it were raised to the grade of Ambassador. Our representative should be of that rank, but I seriously question whether Turkey would accredit an Ambassador at Washington. If not, I have little hope of success in our doing so at Constantinople - people - our interests and intercourse

tercourse would be very materially promoted by an accredited Ambassador -

I had the good fortune to meet your friend Mr Achorn of Boston a few days ago. He called upon me. We had a pleasant chat of some ten or fifteen minutes about things in general, and I sincerely hope he may succeed in his endeavors to obtain a consular appointment.

With kindest regards and best wishes for yourself personally,
I am very truly yours.

My dear General.

You must remember Mr. Thomas B. Mitchell (Paris Beacon editor) who was chairman of the Illinois State bar, and was with us all through the tour in Illinois. He wants to be U. S. Marshal for Southern Illinois District, and was supposed to be slated for it, but there seems to be some hitch (with a small h) in it. He has rivals and Senator Mason is quoted as anti. I am not very familiar with the facts, but on H.'s request I have written to the President and to Senator W. E. Mason, in his

My dear Sir

I am a little doubtful about Senator Hoar. Her today, my sister enclosed to him our petition in your favor addressed to the President, asking him to have the goodness, after reading it, to hand it to the Pres. & if he agrees with it to say a word in its favor. Mr Hoar has always been very prompt to acknowledge every note I have written, but not word upon this. Had I better address him a note of inquiry?

Without exception the gentlest one I have spoken with, or corresponded with, pronounced at once in favor of yourself in preference to Angell.

That last marriage at Tocal is awful more infernal coming in defiance of so much. What a splendid letter that of Gladstones!

Well, we must give ourselves out. proper

We have just held a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Congregational Club, and have been overhauling our financial situation, in the endeavor, only partially successful, to bring it into line with our strong desire to have you come and lecture upon Gen. Grant, on the 19th of April. I am instructed by the Committee to say, that we will gladly give you $100 for the lecture, if you will allow us to substitute your entertainment while here, for your traveling expenses, which you will remember having proposed that we shall meet.

Our Club has never been a money making institution, not do those who ordinarily stand ready to help us out in emergencies seem to be in a condition at present, which will warrant our calling upon them for assistance.

Will you kindly let me know at your earliest convenience whether you can accept our proposition?

We would probably be able to group your appointments giving you several bookings out of New England, of say two weeks <sup>each</sup>, and if this is satisfactory, will arrange with our agents to place you at certain specified times, whenever it will be most convenient for you to be away. It is impossible to tell in advance how much we can do, but shall hope to make at least fifty engagements. Immediate reply will greatly oblige,

WAR DEPARTMENT,
QUARTERMASTER GENERAL'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON.

March 30, 1897.

General O.O. Howard.

My dear General:-

Captain Howard, Asst. Qr. Mr., has been stationed, as you know, something over four years at Fort Ethan Allen. Under our system of assignment he is for detail at some other station.

This system has been found by long experience to work well for the service and well for the individual.

An enterprising young officer cannot afford to remain at any average station more than four years. He wants other experience and the time will come when he will want the record of that experience.

579

In talking over some matters of this kind with General Alger he said " I wonder if General Howard would object to a change for Captain Howard". I said "I have mentioned the relationship to you believing you would ask that question. I suppose it is agreeable to the General to have his son near but I do not know that he would offer any objection, being a soldier". The Secretary said "you might write and ask him."

No station has been decided upon, but the construction at Jefferson Barracks is to be of importance and he could do excellent service there.

Please let me know what you think of this, or any other station.

With best remembrances,

Dear Brother:-

The enclosed letter from ex-Governor Prince of New Mexico will speak for itself. I have written him that I thought it would do him more harm than good <sup>for me</sup> to write anything to the President, and that no doubt you had acted upon my recommendation sent you from Florida. You never mentioned whether you did or not. Judge Prince, as I then stated, has been Chief Justice of New Mexico as well as Governor. He was President of the University which I was much interested in founding. He has always been an earnest and consistent friend of popular education, and of course a Protestant. The Roman Catholic influence you know is very powerful in New Mexico, and that is one chief reason why such a man as Governor Prince, who is conservative in his methods and free from fanaticism, but a positively religious man and friend of missionary work, should have the place, if possible. He has resided in New Mexico to my certain knowledge for over fifteen years, and I think nearly twenty. P

Please drop him a line as to what you have done, if anything. Of course, if you do not feel free to do anything and have not done anything in his behalf, no one has a right to complain. It is your own matter. Judge Prince is an Episcopalian and has been very prominent as a layman in their conventions.

Yours affectionately,

C. H. Howard

Gen. H. Howard

Dear Sir: Your kind letter of the 21st is just received.

I sincerely like to trouble Gen. Howard without personal acquaintance.

I think the best way will be for you to write a little note to the President, laying some stress on the educational phase.

The trouble, of course, is that letters do not actually get to the Pres. nor even to the Private Secretary, unless all the papers are called for from the Interior Dept. But there is no way to keep that.

As to Turkey I think it would be nothing but an embarrassment to Gen. Howard, and that he would resign inside of a year. With his strong sympathies & sense of justice he would want to do things which the government would not sanction, & there would be continual friction.

That is a candid opinion.

Yours truly
Bradford Prince

Your note of the 22nd instant in which you desired me to convey a message to our Maine Senators, came to me promptly. I was able to find Senator Frye the next morning and showed him your letter. I made no less than six or eight attempts to see Senator Hale and only succeeded in reaching him this morning.

I handed Mr. Hale your letter which he read through and then answered me. I am unable to repeat the verbage of Senator Hale's reply, but it was substantially as follows:-

"I was not aware that General Howard was an applicant for a foreign appointment. I should be very glad to aid General Howard in any way I could, but our Maine Delegation is now tied up with two candidates for foreign appointments, viz:- Mr. Sewell, and Mr. Thomas. General Howard rendered most excellent service in the last campaign and I should be very glad to see him rewarded."

Senator Frye made me no reply when I showed him your letter.

I am not aware as to what has been done, or said, in reference to your receiving a foreign appointment. You mentioned the Turkish mission to me when here. If I knew of anything I could do, or say, to aid you, it would please me much.

"I was not aware that General Howard was an applicant for a foreign appointment. I should be very glad to aid General Howard in any way I could, but our Maine Delegation is now tied up with two candidates for foreign appointments, viz:- Mr. Sewell, and Mr. Thomas. General Howard rendered most excellent service in the last campaign and I should be very glad to see him rewarded." Senator Frye made me no reply when I showed him your letter.

I am not aware as to what has been done, or said, in reference to your receiving a foreign appointment. You mentioned the Turkish mission to me when here. If I knew of anything I could do, or say, to aid you, it would please me much. Your letter addressed to the Hon. H. Clay Evans, Governor

Evans, was presented by me to that gentleman last evening. I was introduced to him by Hon. James H. Southard of Toledo, Ohio. Of course I have thus far no assurances or intimation as to what may be done but I feel that I have a fair chance of success. If I succeed it will be mainly through the influence of yourself.

We expect Mr. Evans' confirmation to-day and that he will enter upon his duties to-morrow. <sup>on Saturday</sup> He has announced no policy.

If I can render you any service in the way of errands or the procurement of information or delivery of messages for you here in Washington I shall be pleased to do so.

Very truly yours,

A. S. Penhau

My Dear General: I am in receipt of yours enclosing a letter of Sen. Lodge which I return herewith. I should like very much to have had a talk with you within the last three weeks but finding that I will give you an idea of how matters stand with me. I hinted to you sometime ago of the possibility of an outside influence being exerted in my favor for an office. I will outline the matter to you now but please consider it as confidential. The Vanderbilts contributed $500,000. I am told to Mr McKinley's Campaign - the largest amount given by any combination. They have large mining interests in Ecuador - are developing the old Spanish mines there and have invested largely. In fact are the principal Americans there. They have secured large & valuable concessions from the Govt. They anticipate the possibility of trouble and wanted to be sure that the American minister there would have back bone enough to protect them if it came. They wanted a Yankee. In consideration of their large contribution to the campaign <sup>although had an agreement with</sup> they expected the President would name a man as Minister of their liking. Through mutual friends they heard of me and settled on me as their man. I went to N.Y. & saw them. Before going to the President they wanted me to get the endorsement

Mr. Sen. Hear & Lodge. I told them that it could not be done. I did not think, but that if they would get the President to agree to appoint me and he should ask them if it would be agreeable to them they would give a favorable response. I went down to Washington however and saw Lodge and got just such a reply as is embodied in <sup>his letter to you</sup> your letter. I then went home & I expect that that ends the Ecuador matter for me. Probably they will wait about for some one else.

Now the fact is this - Hear has gotten all she is fairly entitled to by way of large offices. Draper is being pushed by Lodge for Ambassador, & Clark for Sec. of Treas. Lodge's prestige is at stake in the matter of landing Draper. It was ~~going~~ all right apparently till Lang appeared on the scene.
Lang's presence in Wash. is an offence to both Lodge & Hear. & his appointment hurt Draper. The Draper appointment has troubled the Pres. sorely - Every thing in Wash. is now subservient to it and must wait. Everything that appears to mar Draper's chance is frowned upon by Lodge. Lang advised me for Ecuador to Lodge. Lodge snorted & treated me with scant courtesy - 1st because the more he hated Draper & because Lang stood up for it.

So much for my affairs up to date. I don't see as you can do anything for me just now. If my relations with you are true I believe you can do every thing for me.

I thank you very much for your kindness and I am
Yours very sincerely
Rufus D. Thomas

Dear General:

Boston, [Mar. 31, 1897?] 189

Since writing the above I learn that Emil Draper has been nominated by the Pres for Italy and that his nomination will go to the Senate at once. That clears the atmosphere and now the other half people will be considered.

If I get the <sup>Senators</sup> info correct then it is for the Administration & find a place for me and that is where you and Ed & Mary can help me.

Yours very truly

Dear Sir:-

We are about to commence the publication of a high-class juvenile weekly devoted to the army and navy. It is our aim to make it clean and wholesome, and a medium through which the patriotism of the youth of the United States will be stimulated, and their interest in the united services increased.

The publication will be issued weekly, and with an attractive cover, a copy of which we enclose. Each number is to contain two complete stories, one of West Point and the other of the Annapolis Naval Academy, written by competent authors. In addition to these it is our intention to publish in each issue illustrated articles of interest concerning the two Government academies, also detailed information regarding the rules of examination and a host of other subjects of like importance to juvenile readers.

The purpose of this letter is to ask if you would kindly write us a brief letter addressed to the youths of the United States on the subject of patriotism, or on the military cadet service.

It is our intention, if you will kindly oblige us, to publish your letter with a biographical sketch and portrait.

Sincerely hoping you will oblige us in this matter, we remain,

Yours very respectfully,

My dear Gen'l.:— I purpose making application for appointment as one of the Commissioners to the World's Paris Exposition in 1900.

Besides your general knowledge of my executive ability, you are somewhat aware of my large experience directly with expositions. You may not know that I was Secretary of the International Cotton Exposition of 1881 in Atlanta, and that besides the performance of that duty I did the most of the work of one or two other departments, and was thoroughly familiar with every department.

I was also Secretary of the Cotton States and International Exposition of 1895, and also Chief of Installation; having more or less to do with the whole organization. I also spent considerable time at the World's Exposition at Chicago in 1893, and at that at Philadelphia in 1876. I believe that my knowledge and experience will enable me to perform the duties as Commissioner satisfactorily both to the Government and to the people.

I most respectfully request that you will kindly give me a letter of recommendation to the President in such terms as your knowledge and good will dictate; please send it to me at the above address, that I may present my endorsements at one time.
